THE HOME PAPER IN VERSE The one tie between the native son and his native heath frequently is the home paper. Even though he finds the old town changes and the boys he played with have died or moved away, the old paper still is like a familiar face. Many writers of verses on the country weekly have phrased this with all thy soul, and with all thy thought in many ways. Not long ago strength, and with all thyumind; and a poet signing himself as Ryley Ryck thy neighbor as thyself.-Luke 10: 27. began syndicating verses to news-papers, particularly those published in amaller flaces.
