Wa'nt that queer? When I heard the news from Molly. Why, I thought at, first 'Iwas folly, 'Oquar, you see. a'posed I could go and get him And then Mamu. course, would let him

But when I had first looked at him, "Why!" I says, "My sakes, is that him?"

Just that mite!" They said, "Yes," and "Ain't And I thought they must be funding He's a sight!!

I'lay with me.

He's so small; it's just amazin', And you'd think that he was blasin He's so red: And his nose is like a berry. And he's bald as Uncle Jerry On his head.

Why, the lan't worth a dollar! All he does to cry and holler More and more: Won't alt up-you can't arrange hundon't see why Pa don't change his

At the store. Now we've gut to dress and feed ! And we really didn't need him More'n a from: Why'd they buy a baby brother, When they know I'd good deal ruthe Have a dog?

HOW THEY JUDGED THE CAN-

The Overseas Visit of Value to Both the Visitors and Their Heats town, though we have outgrown the logs about my camp.

There is an unfortunate tendency to reflect too much on the effect of England on our overseas visitors. This is is the effect of our visitors on us. as it were, the head of the family resides, surrounded with the pomp and pageantry of yesterday. Here the what unusual. young visitors (no Colonial ever grows struction and inspiration. The unaffected pleasure of our visitof their pilgrimage in the district. Our rushed to the rescue. only soothing reflection is that there was of logs piled five feet high; but est clump of timber. are, doubtless many others who feel without hesitation I vaulted, clearing That was the last I over saw of my inquiries which we endeavored to downward I caught sight of the un-Knarosborough; and later to Ripon lay prostrate and bleeding, while a ing the brand on my horse. and Pountains, the visitors looked at big grissly was walking round her. the land with the eyes of lovers-and experts. An untidy, badly formed field (fortunately these were rare) provoked much irritation. The price of cattle. methods of hedging and ditching, the state of the road, agricultural finances -these and a thousand more inquiries were directed at the present scribe whose answers, owing to the lament able ignorance which prevails among so many on these points, must have been singularly unsatisfactory. tality with which they were met-all bear close behind, raced for my lone meat," these impressed our visitors, but the oak. ruling passion was the land. The The lower limbs of this old giant some time before answering. knowledge that such a large number branched some five or six feet above . "That was a good word you said of our people have left it saddens my head, and the great girth of the about my being an honest man. I never, as we do, over-estimate their grissly had it not been for the brand- You will owe me something for policeman had secured the money a

The average Englishman is too often inclined to leave farming to farmers. devoting his energy and time entirely to civio affairs. The Canadian outlook is very different. To them the land comes first. Circumstances and the march of progress have changed the Englishman's environment, sitering at the same time his mental berspective; One does not expect the community to be experts on farming matters, but we do feel ashamed of our comparative indifference. To dream into an awkward heap from his first say that the file is mine and that the entirely of commercial enterprises, to spring at my receding legs, seemed un- bear was wild? concentrate solely on municipal life is willing to admit that he was not a "'Yes,' I replied a You keep the an attitude of mind which must in- tree-climber; and spreading himself hide." evitably breed disaster. For these and out like a flying squirrel against the many other reasons -visitors . from broad trunk he dug his huge claws overseas act as a tonic, and also as into the rough bark and began inching bring, their knowledge, and traditions attaining his umbition in spite, of make a success of it, and others who to wirgin soil and believed forests. hatural disadvantages. He became were sure he would not; but at the their adventure. Some of them re- but when he had climbed a comple of that Mr. Howe's enterprisa was a turn. They are filled with admiration feet, I reached down and hit him a financial triumph. "And no wonder, splender of our docks and factories, planned towns. 'In spite of these! things they think agriculturally. Like Faistaff, they "bubble o' green!

AN UNEXPECTED CUSTOMER

of her clever fingers, spent all her time making amail articles of fancywork for a store in a peighboring city Naturally, with so much business on hand, the minor details of housekeeping were sometimes neglected, par ticularly just before the holidays, when orders came thick and fast.

Laner clad only to his night clothes, lively war-dance with which I strove ed she can't see up into the air, she appeared at his wife's bedeids. He to divert him. held in his outstretched hand a small, decorated object which Mrs. Lane settling his dinner, he rectined on his

Bees, demanded the intruder, belt a couple of holes and wondered call one-fifty for the use o' weather-Twhat does this contributed sell forf

"What is it f" heked Mrs. Lane, feellast showing interest in her work. "It's a kite-shaped thing with a ribbon tail all feathered out with safety-plus, replied the would-be branches and built a lively fire in the to a movie. purchaser, "What's the price ?" "Fifty cents. But why in the world limbs. Then I of imbed out to waste a front of the building. It rested on a so signal a manner, condescended to

The Bree Bress' Short Story

"Clover Leaf" Johnson's Grizzily

BY HERBERT COOLIDGE

of the footbills bears the title the other I lashed to the handle of the of "Clover Leaf" Johnson. The branding-iron by means of my leather neat mark of his brand, the belt and some buckskin strings which conventionalized clover ledf, is indel- I found in my pocket. bly scarred on the flanks of two thousand cattle that range over the mountcombination of coals, in which I bedning and deserts of three large coun-It is my good fortune to have met Johnson, and to have heard from him the following story of the days when the clover-leaf brand was young: "The proudest hour of my life was when I sat on a horseshoe keg and watched a blacksmith as, with deft manipulation of fire and hammer and unvil, he fashioned the original cloverleuf brand. I told the smith to spare neither time nor expense in its making. und, the figure came out with thin, even edges, and as true as a die in outline. Then, by indiscernible welding. It was made the end of a three I thrust the branding from under his me a match?" finished product was suited for long. hard service, and, what is also of im-ing the clover-leaf. "Duplicating the graceful imprint of and trim as a die. Never to my eyes Canadian weekly editors, quotes the my iron gave me such pleasurable had it looked half so imposing.

dismal state of which Kipling wrote so The other cow-men called my at- arder. bitterly-thinking our Empire still "is tention to this weakness by roughshod . "In this last I found considerable sometimes in travail, but always with whom they called Cattle Thief John- bark was required to draw him within > hills that fall, however, I did go to hair again. just such an extreme of art for art'al had been built near a huge oak tree under which I camped.

"Ordinarily I am not a scare-wit, but on this occasion I cortainly attempted arms and legs sprawling. .. ground the grissly made for me with saying: Just how I evaded his charge I could know you. I will take the hide, of them. The Canadiana are pre-emin- trunk offered little hope of ascent by suppose I can say the same of your have their own superb cities, but they certainly have become meat for the and the thought that I might hook the handle end over a stub which pro- fifteen bogs, and busted open thirteen jected at the hase of the lowest branch. "The claws and teeth in the immediate rear heartened me for the leap of my life. I'was fortunate to hook the snag with a single, carefully timed sweep of the Iron, and with no!

I ascended to a foothold in the crown

his way upward.

noticable pause in my upward flight,

"The tree leaned from the direction clout over the head with the handhold of my fron. The stout rod rebounded from the blow as if the old fellow's the village at the foot of the hill hide were made of India-rubber, but it effected his temper viplently, and with a guttural snarl, he dropped all holds, and promptly slid to the ground. the impulse of returning buffet for cent a glass. I understand, the folks my heart with fastidious contempt." clout; and upon every withdrawal of can have the arty-arshetyan well water his fore hooks he dropped back to free, but they all take the other and mother earth, always landing in a sitting posture, with a bump so harsh that his teeth would rattle. "Finally he took a recess, and after etirring about my camp for a while, ate dinner for us both. Everything he did not eat he tore to please or overturned. Flour, bacon, bedding, beaus, called Amasy, and says he, 'Look hace, stock salt, dried trult and sugar he 'pled' with great satisfaction, ignoring completely the wild whoops and the

"Then, as if with the thought of recognized vaguely as some of her own buiging side, and watched me with on the wind. languid interest while I took up my "You've been here a full month. how long it would be before I got a value protty reasonable myself."

square meal myself. "For me nothing clears the brain like fasting, and after un hour or se of sijent contemplation, I began to work out a scheme which premised a nest combination of business and Jumping at conclusions, especially in "By this time the fire had a good ded the clover leaf. While I walted for the iroff to heat, I offended the reclining grisaly by polling him with chunks of oak hark, and when no came protesting to the base of the oak, hy some vigorous digs with the pointed staff. Upon this he took up the cares of the world again, aspiring, as before dinner, to become a tree-climber. "But I caused him to defer the pre- suddenly, he saw a man just in front was seen whether the patient would its as much a success in its way as the liminary trunk-grappling effort by of him behaving, as he thought, in a rally from the amputation. vigorous prods with the sharp stick. very peculiar manner. The man was That evening the camp had to move, as truly a success as an oak tree. Then, us he reared to a great rage to fumbling in an inner pocket, and the joiling journey was an awful Do not think of success as the crown threaten and parry, I let him chew next moment jostled against Mr., S., ordeal for the wounded man. "At last, of life; but rather as something woven and claw the staff for a moment, white saying, "I beg pardun. Can you give expecting his death at any moment, into its texture day by day. We say settled through his shaggy coat. dense little cloud of singed hair-smoke. gone. He held his revolver before me. I am going to make the hardest when you are sixty. Leave that "The next day I started for the As he backed about, angrily spitting the mun's face, and said with great fight of which I am capable. Will question to take care of itself. Were high mountains with five hundred cat- out bits of the splintared staff and determination: Each fourth calf was to be my own, amazement, I observed with keen de- watch." broad, tawny breast and was as true S. put into his pocket.

following from the Harrogate Herald: thrills that in the long waits between . "One more before you leave mel It is difficult to over-estimate the value calves, I sometimes fell to decorating Once more to match it from below! of our Canadian consint visit to the the lightning-scarred trees and fallen I shouted, and proceeded to rekindle my fire and the grissly's tree-climbing the Strand and Holborn Hill." We and well-taken jests, and have ever difficulty, as the branding incident have yet much to learn of those since called me Clover Leaf Johnson, seemed to have imbued the old fellow dominions beyond the seas, which the As this name was also given to dis- with desp-rooted diffidence. "A full feet of our young men have traversed, tinguish me from my nearest neighbor, half-hour of politing with attacks and son, I did not in the least object to my reach of prod, though once this accomplished, he speedily became lost "Some of my jocular friends dein a feroclobs, craving for Tovenge, clared I put several brands on each So overwrought was he with this base wrong. One of the things that matters calf, although this I denied emphat- passion that he shortly found himself ically. Before returning to the foot- backing out from the fumos of burnt

"Now he bore on his breast two of sake, under conditions that were some- my symbols of ownership, placed perpendicularly and stem to stem. So . The cattle I was running were al- high did my enthusiasm run that. I lowed to roam at will over the mount- determined to add another to each old) repair to look upon the stately ains, and my principal business, after side, thinking thus to complete a degotting them 'Haunted.' was to keep sign in which four clover leaves radithe saltlicks filled, and look out for ated from the common centre. The be careful gardeners! To keep our animals that were sick or crippled. grissly, however would have none of To let them know that our house is star that were sick or crippled, grizzly, however would have none of To let them know that our house is star that star that star that star the star that star that star the star thad the star that star the star that star the star that star the s wept and garnished for their arrival. steer that seem to have been torn by tended by a painful grawing in the remembering that they come for more tention of treating their wounds the should have been, made me decide to next day. I ran them into a coral that send him back to his hounts without genious method of escape from a dilfurther decoration.

ors last week-end, the loy and pride . "Before dawn the next morning I into execution, the big brute scared igmator. with which they surveyed our town was busy cooking breakfast when a me nearly to death by throwing himand countryside, must be a tremen- pitiful bawling arose from the coral, self into a tremendous bristle and the late King Edward when he was dous delight to the citizens of Harro- Thinking that one of the cow brutes making a furious tharge. He did not Prince of Wales, a brilliant company for a woman than the habit of homegate. It was the privilege of the was goring the other. I selsed my really mean it, however, for he waver- assembled at the publishing office of and none that seems at present less present writer to accompany a detach- branding-iron, which happened to be ed as he neared me, and upon my leapment of the journalists for the whole the only weapon near at hand, and ing forward and extending the glowing ern, one of the invited guests, arrived Going is so casy. A thousand vehicles chief impression is the fact that one "I could not see what was happening ishing alacrity, and wonderfully tore unable to cross on account of the this woman must be seen; that is heartly ashamed of eneself. The inside the enclosure, as the stockade up the earth between me and the near-dense crowd. His friends caught signt woman must be coaxed; another has the same. We are prepared for quee- the top log neatly-under circumstan- grissly in the flesh, but ten years tions, but not for the nature of the per far too neatly, for as my legs swung later, when looking for cattle that had drifted a hundred miles of their range, answer. In the main they were en- offending steer cowering in the farth- I had an opportunity of closely extirely agricultural. Journeying by est corner, and not fifteen feet from amining my handlwork on his hide. It motor edach along the highways to the place where I must light the cow came about through a settler's notic-

"Is that your front he inquired. "On my answering affirmatively, he invited me into his cabin, saying that auch a dinner, and in such company have stayed at home a week, you taste a backward leap from a foundation he had something to show me. There, Then an ingenious idea came to him. the charm of it, the daily employof light mountain air, and in conse- covering half the floor, spread the pelt quence, landed flat on my back, with of a grissly bear which bore the double me across, and I'll give you two even their freshness, and you are real-"My plight demanded action swift have some fun at my host's expense, and strong, for the moment I hit the I shook him warmly, by the hand, at the same time. He slipped on the but gadding makes even home un-

"The settler scratched his head for "'All right, then. Here's your hide. ing trop, which I had forgotten to drop, damages, though. Your beat pulled stealthy addition was made to it by down six of my cow brutes, killed one of his Punch friends, who found hom, said I, somewhat faintly. "That's a go, agreed the sattle, promptly, and then proceeded with great gravity to enumerate the losses of his neighbors. Finally, noting the ength my face was assuming, he burst "The grissly, although failing back " "How about it? Hadn't we better

FOR VALUE RECEIVED

When Mr. Amasa Howb decided of the prevailing winds, and this, with turn the old Howe munalon on Todd's the bear's great seal and strenuous Hill into a summer hotel, there were quite encouraged over his prospects; end of two years it was evident to all when he charges for everything excapt air." said one of the dwellers in "What do you mean by that?" asked visitor at one of the village homes. "He doesn't charge for water, I hope." "Bome of it he does," adid the resi-"We played this game until high dent, nodding. "All that comes from noon. The grizzly could not realet the north pasture spring he does a will, in no long time, eject you from pay the cent. Charges 'em for riding. boating-half a mile walk includedtenping, and the swimming-tank. . . "But the cap-sheaf was the charge heard tell that the man looked ut it, and looked ar it, and finally he tan't there some mistake about this? "I guess not." Amasy told him. day of the boys right away from their work night and morning to keep her posted

Two sweetbearts from Aberdena

WHO WAS THE ROBBERT

cound to another person's character, always on the field. Nor are the 1,100 at Northwestern University. is rarely to be commended, though enemies in his most terrible contests (leorge Henry Weinmann, twenty-four sometimes it becomes almost a neces- always his fellow, man. One such years old, and blind since birth, was city; and it is always liable to lead contest is described in L. E. Chitten- named as the honor student. The to embarranning results, us in-a case den's-"An Unknown-Heroine." During dudience of 4,000 people gave him a rolated by one of our exchanges. In the Civil War Lieutenant Redell was thunderous applause as he was led Western city, it appears, there lives shot in the thigh. The bright red forward to receive his diploma. Welnman who prides himself on his gust of arterial blood told him where mant, who recently passed the Illinois ability to read human nature, and the immediate danger lay. In value he stee Bar examination with a high likewise on his boldness in action, tried to check the stream. Then he mark, wen two scholarships in his four This gentleman, whom we will call called for aid. Mr. H. ts withal rather near-sighted. .. "Cord it, boys," he said. "Take a Russell Sage honors for diligence and During the past few months several handkerchief or anything, only to promptness, and later the Koepke purgiaries have been committed in his quick! Try a sash and hayonet," he award for general legal ability.

neighborhood, and two of his friends added, seeing their futile endeavors, have been stopped in the highway and . At last the flow was stopped. The man said in telling of his mastery of made to yield up their valuables. Mr. officer was carried in a stretcher to the intricacies of a legal training. B. has been greatly incensed over the temporary field-hospital. The "She read to me evening after eventhose occurrences, and has not been doctors examined the wound; ampu- ing for four years, and before that she backward in declaring what he would tation of the leg must take place at read my high school lessons. The do if anything of the sort were tried once, and the patient might die under grade school books. I had only to do upon him. Recently he had a chance, the knife. Bedall heard the diagnosis, the typowriting for the examinations." as he thought, to live up to his repufatal if you do not operato?"

linving business which frequently "Yos." detained-him from home late into the evening, Mr. S. provided himself with a revolver and curried it at night | native vigor was in his favor, but his in going to and from his house in the great size was against him. Sixty-One evening he was wending his hare before the operation was over. solltary way homeward, his faind still The right hand was crushed, but the sive and magnificent. A bungalow, ongaged with business concerns, when, surgeons dared not touch it until it however, covered with climbing rougs, foot rod, the other extremity of which guard slapped the glowing clover from 'No, you don't," cried Mr. H., who farmhouse by the way. In the most taken into partnership has made sucwas bent to form a handhold. The on his breast, and held it firmly an had made up his mind that here was ing he had gained a little strength. | coss. His success dates far back when instant, while the overheated metal a highwayman, and an opportunity "You doctors think I have my fatal he started doing his work a little betfor him to be brompt and bold. portance, was one that would brand "It was a very discompted and out- At that moment also he made the well the chances are against me. But Do not worry as to whether or not cates without mutilation and with a raged grissly that withdrew from the startling discovery that his watch was I have a wife and children who want you will be regarded as successful tle, which I was running on shares, examined his fore quarters in grave "Now you can give me back my A consultation was held. Only one laying your plans to be successful toand before the season was over a light that the clover leaf had taken The stranger, thus confronted, hand- slightest hope of life. In his care In last leave of the Collingwood number of the small fry were wear- splendidly. The imprint centred his ed over a watch and chain, which Mr. Lieutenant Bedell put himself. here," commanded Mr. H., if you don't to the United States! after that to my it want a bullet through your body." The stranger waited for no second chance to save it. Docton I am ready."

invitation, but walked hastily away. Arrived at home, Mr. S. began to tell his wife of his adventure, and how anesthetic, but he submitted when the he got his watch back. _ "Why, you left your watch at home!" excluimed his wife. "It is upstairs on dressing of the wound will be very the bureau!"

and it followed, of course, that he had the watch of some other person wayman myself," he confessed, sying won. the watch, which, at the point of a revolver, he had forced the stranger

Mr. B. spent a good part of the next day in hunting for the man be had robbed. He found him, and with profuse apologies surrendered the watch but for a month his friends have taken much interest in asking him if he has seen any highwaymen recently.

emma that its very ingenuity shall re-"When I descended to put this plan act on the head of the too clever or-clover ledt reversed ends with aston- on the other side of the way, but was convey you. Bergain sales tempt you. Bothern took the bint.

"Get me through," he whispered, and I'll give you a sovereign." gretfully, "but I'll try." could not bear the thought of losing of dull disappointment. But when you sign of the clover leaf. Thinking, to sovereigns," he said to the policeman. ly reductant to turn away from them. The man seized the idea and Sothern handcuffs, and with a loud, "Make way lovely. just as much up-and-over hop as a . "That's my iron, all right. You're there!" dragged his prize through the spider executes when jumping a fly. an honest man, and I'm right glad to mass of humanity which before had refused to stir, but which now parted The glories of our entiques, the never say. I know only that I got out course, and in the circumstances will and squeezed and gave all its energies magnificence of our town, the hospi- of the coral quickly, and with the agree to say nothing at all about the to the task of assisting the custodian of the law and order in his task to arrest a law-breaker. After much pushing, and some rough handling, the dishevelled comedian was landed at Punch's publishing door. "You'll find the money in my walst-Sothern's device so original that it suggested to him a further developin the crowd, and not till then did the comedian realise that a timely bribe for the rest of the day, and to est his linner with his hands firmly secured the manacles.

SPOILING THE KING'S ENGLISH

a classic of classics, but there have. not been wanting men who fancied that it needed retouching and refining. Doctor Harwood, an English devine of some two hundred years ago, went as far us to make a new and "elegant" had they lived and written in our lan-"the bald and barbarous language of the old vulgar version" are worth quoting as terrible examples of plegant writing is not. Laudicean Church is improved thus: state of lukewarmmens, a disagreeable The translater is especially happy in what may be called his personal ouphamatma, Nicodomus is "this gentleman," one of the apostles Athenand the daughter of Herodian is d'u er leaves a "clonk" at Troas, but a

On the Mount of Transfiguration, St. Peter no longer says in vulgar, everyday language,"Lord, it is good for us to be here," but "Bir, what a delectable residence we might fix here." The apostle's saying, "We shall not sleep, but we shall all be changed," bemon debt of nature, but we shall, by a soft transition, be changed from morality to immorality."

The Magnificat is thus rendered "My soul with reverence adores my Creator, and all my faculties with do you want it." replied Mai Lane "be- lumintant growth of new thools and Pays."

Transcendent goodness! Every future outs overy wolltary builten has been purished of growth of

The soldler's greatest victory is not

"Is not! this wound certain to be Loslie E. Dunkin.

"Then do not lose a moment's time." They laid him on the table. His four souther inches of flesh were laid the doctors had him carried to a that the young business man who is wound," he said. "I know perfectly ter than the other fellow. you help me?"

young surgeon thought there was the morrow? "My life is not my own property." family. I shall not throw away one Again be was laid on the operatingtable. He did not wish to take up | doctor shid: "The operation on the hand and the painful, and therefore exhausting. You And so it proved, though he had must husband every particle of your entirely forgotten the circumstance; strength."

covering an old army blanket, the wounded man with his young doctor "it looks as if I had turned high fought the fight for Mfc. And they

THE HABIT ON HOME.

If we lived the life we should live, it would be a well-mixture of all things that are desirable: pleasure and thuty, gravity and laughter, society and solitude. Unhe should, Instead, we are creatures of habit, some habit usually pushed to excess even in the best of us. if read, we read when we should be working as sleeping. If we play games It is the same. And the automobile habit, in its extreme form, threatens to become with many people a mania sorely detrimental to housekeeping and to children, to the purse and to the Punch to see the cortege pass! Soth- likely to encroach unduly on her time. of him and pointed to a policeman, a pattern that you must copy now. You can stay at home at any time. Yet If you sit down for a moment. and think, you will see how much of "Afraid I can't," said the man, re- it is only habit. When you are going, going, going, you want to go, and an He did try, but unsuccessfully, for accident of illness or weather that the closely packed crowd indignantly thwarts, you seems like a great misprotested against being disturbed. fortune, You turn to home pursuits Bothern was at his wits' end. He with a feeling of rebellion, or, at least. "Put your handcuffs on me, and drag ments come to have their interest, and If you atay at home, you love home;

THE NECESSARY SHOCK

A college professor had been seriously ill of a fever for several weeks, but the fever had Jeft him at last, and he lay in a stupor, utterly exhausted. "This is the really critical period," the attending physician said to the watchers, in an undertone. "If he has sufficient vitality to carry him through an opportunity to awaken his interest One of the attendants, who happened to be standing near the window coking at the rosy sunset, remarked

"See what a lurid sky there is." The sick man opened his eyes and turned his head in the direction in-

"Lurid" he exclaimed, in a tone of disgust, "If you will consult your dictionary, madam, you will find that lurid means gloomy, ghastly, dismail" "He will recover!" hunounced the the marriage of his grace-then Marquis of Lorne-and Princess Louise hen post labreate, that the queen liked bass voice. "I have given a good ac-

BLIND STUDENT IS HONORED

In a graduating class of more than years at Northwestern, first taking the

"My mother to my eyes," the young

MAKE TO-DAY SUCCESSFUL

When you use the word success, you think of something like the Woolworth building, towering up into the sky, man-Woolworth building. A daisy may be you successful yesterday? Are you

After You Have Used

you have a standard-by which to judge other teas. Salada is the finest produced in the world. - Try it. FREE SAMPLE of GREEN YEA UPON REQUEST. "SALABA" TORONTO

Cooler Nights and Lower Prices on Wood

These cool nights, when you do not need a fire for long, is when wood comer in handy, to take the chill off the house. And what will, be more welcome news is that the price has been reduced, and the following prices are now in effect: . . Mixed Slabe $3.00 Load Hardwood Slabs and Short Wood Best Body Cordwood, 4 foot lengths cooking with wood. You warm the house at the same time, and your fuel does double duty.

EACH LOAD IS GUARANTEED À FULL SINGLE CORD

And at this season of the year it is more profitable to do your

D. A. HENDERSON

WE DELIVER PROMPTLY

Used Cars For Sale

At Bargain Prices

1 DODGE TOURING In First-class Condition. Four good tires on, and a good spare

1 CHEVROLET TOURING, 1921 In good Running Condition. Four tires on, and a spare

1 McLAUGHLIN E35, 4 CYLINDER Has been Overhauled and running satisfactory. 2 new cord tire

1 83B OVERLAND TOURING

In Good Condition. A real bargain 1 75 OVERLAND ROADSTER

Has new top, and in splendid running order

1 GRAY DORT TOURING In Al Condition

1 FORD TRUCK, 1921 In Best of Condition. For real utility is as good as a new truck. Has two

1 BULL DOG FANNING MILL

Never used. At an attractive bargain price 1 MELOTTE CREAM SÉPARATOR, NEW

Call Any Time and We'll Demonstrate Any of These Cars and

S. V. KING

GEORGETOWN

ONTARIO

When You Want To Subscribe For a Magazine

It isn't at all necessary to go to the trouble of writing a letter, buying a money order; paying postage, etc.

We have made arrangements with one of the largest Magazine Exchanges, a concern which absolutely guarantees satisfaction in delivery, to handle magazine and journal subscriptions for us.

Just drop into The Free Press Office, pay the amount you would send the magazine and we will gladly look after all the details. In some cases, particularly where two or three journals are taken together,\ we can save you money.

The Acton Free Press

Acton, Ontario