In color he's as valler As the encyest yaller cur, But when I think o' his devotion "It fills my eyes with blur; He's jes' my dog.

le wouldn't bring a dollar If I wish'd for hey him sold, lut every single yaller hair . To me be purest gold; He's jes' my dog. -Hertha Lyon McKinney.

EDIBON'S MOTHER

"My mother was the making of me She was so true, so sure of me; and felt that I had some one to live for some one I must not dismopoint," sale Thomas A. Edison to a writer of the New York World. Mr. F. A. Jones, in "Thomas Alva Edison," says that all who know her appreciated her goodness. "I did not have my mother very long," Edison said, at the time spoken of, "but in that length of time she cast over me an influence which lasted I've wandered in the village. Tom, all my life. The good effects of her early training I can never lose. If it had not been for her appreciation and her fulth in me at a critical time in my experience, I should very likely That played with us upon the green never have become an inventor.

"I was always a careless boy, and with a mother of different mental calout badly. But her firmness, her by others which are just as acceptable sweetness, her goodness were patent to his readers as those he writes himpowers to keep me in the right path. self. Well, I think you folks who seem millidam at the edge of the village. I remember I never used to be able to enjoy this column from week to Along the drowned land I went, to the to get along at school. I don't know week, will enjoy a good selection from "Point" where I found a fishing rod now what it was, but I was always at my old pen too.

it would not be worth while keeping thing I could write for you. me in school any longer. I was so out crying, and went home and told years, of absence, broken only by one down to the water's edge I startled a my mother all about it. Then I found brief call. I have visited again the wild duck from her nest in the reeds. out what a good thing my mother baunts of my childheod in the little was. She came out as my strong der eastern village. As the poet said in mother-pride wounded to the quick left to greet me in the little place at a loon that crossed her path. A dozen angrily told the teacher that he didn't side around it where I roamed as a and I knew the old nesting place was know what he was talking about, and lad. that I had more brains than he himself. But the trees and the brooks were I turned and cut back directly toand a lot more talk like that. In fact, there as ever, the eternal hills had the ward the village again, and turning the she was the most enthusiastic champ- same contour, the fields had not chang-civilization.

if there were no dirt!" said a lady to "I shouldn't, ma'am. I should starve," replied Bridget, and she spoke for big out of doors Nature, was the same. hundreds of thousands of women the and had a welcome for her child, world over.

It would be interesting to discover which may be called cleaning-includin the homes of the town than an bills there were doer again to be found, had done and oh a raft of "booms" army of women with pails and mope Conservation and common sense, com- above some lads were lying looking invade the shops and offices, where bined with the strict enforcement of the into the water with spears in their

to keep clean, Holland excels us in where those of us have been west and is frowned on perhaps outlawed-but the art. There the housewives scrub seen the too often wasteful destruc-not only floors and windows and Steps tion of our frontier country, hardly exand sidewalks, but fences and slectric pected to see any wild life left. light' poles, and one may even see a strong armed maiden using hot sospsuds and a brush on a white tip-cart. was early in April, but some hound in Horses, and come are washed in Hol- human disgulse had dug a channel Drummond's fields and started a rab- plexion, perfect figure, beautifully land as regularly as children. a double service—to the wage-earners able labor and was rewarded by the old again rose, this time a nice flock, so as well as to mankind at large. For- music of the little falls. I followed tame as to suggest a hird sanctuary, tunately for all concerned, the desire the stream back to the swamp from the climbes of a deer but the same of a deer qualities of human nature. Wesley's amongst: the hemlocks to an opening incredible until Bill Bolger, the famous famous saying, "Cleanliness is next to in the woods still nicknamed "Skunk hunter who could get a deer in the sodiness," may be traced back bun- Street" in memory of the boomers of pinery even in the scant days, told Every time you have a task before you, godiness," may be traced back hun- Street" in memory of the boomers of me that it was quite likely one, for examine it carefully; take exact dreds of years to the wise teaching an hundred years ago who were laying me that it was quite likely one, for examine it carefully; take exact they were becoming more plentiful of the Jewish rabbi. Phinebas, ben out a subdivision when a denixen of the solved into carafulness; carefulness into vigorousness; vigorousness into to many others such cases of sub- able wreck in my boyhood and now a fundamental qualities for good exeguiltiesaness; guiltiesaness into abcleanliness; cleanliness into godliness. ENCOURAGING TRADE FIGURES

"An examination of the trade reurns for the last twalve months reveals a very hopeful situation," states feet away; standing still and moving sugar-bush I saw a beautiful black Hon. Thomas A. Low, Minister of my eyes only 'I made out another squirel; there was none in the dis-Trade and Commerce, in a recent motioniess against the protective trict when I was a boy but they have statement. September 30, at the conclusion of the flew-and fluttered brokenly as first six months of the year, a much Jame or with a broken wing; the same more buoyant tendency than was the old trick of a nesting hird. So they are case a month earlier," be states. "In export trade, Heptember last was the best month the Dominion has had where they nested, I suppose, for cenin four years; and shipments during turies before the white man came. this period of thirty days of Canadian products to other countries exceeded or "gully" as they still call them down the shipments during September of there and I crossed Wart's Creek. last year by nearly $13,000,000. "The foreign exports in September.

continues the statement, "also exceeded those of the corresponding month in the three preceding years." An examination of the figures for the half-year also discovers ground; for optimism, added Mr. Low. The Dominion's exports exceeded inst year's record showing for the months ending in September by 31. 000,000; so that, even if there is no further gain, this year's record will surpass all preceding high levels, except those attained under the artheolal conditions that prevailed during the later years of the war and following the conclusion. With the above gain in the first half of the year and a strong tendency upward still evidenced. a further gain during the second six months may be reasonably expected.

GOOD HUMOR AND GOOD ..

made that good humor is the highest sole households. When the spirit of a few hundred maples and becomes ocurred takes committed of a life, it then burned be worth new? Here

I've sat beneath the tree Upon the schoolhouse playing groun That sheltered you and me: But none were there to greet me, Tom And few were left to know, So many years ago.

It is freely said that it is an abl editor who can select articles written that the teachers never sympathized named Belton, who had not visited frog for balt and with the first cast with me, and that my father thought the old home of his birth and boyhood I got a good bass. The owner of the I was stupid, and at last I almost de- for a full generation. There are so red grinned at me as I turned to take cided that I must really be a dunce. many things about it, such as similar- the fish off the hook; he wondered My mother was always kind, always ity of location and surroundings, the how I found the fishing tackle when sympathetic, and she never misunder- things described, and the experiences "jist a few of the lade knowed where stood or misjudged me. But I was related, that it might almost be Acton doubt, a tale to tell at supper of the school, for fear she, too, might lose writing about. I concluded, after I had aged man who had fished from the read the story to Mary, and she Point in the dim femote past. "One day I heard the teacher tell thought so to, that you would all enthe inspector that I was "addled," and joy it just as well this week, as any- much more you want to fish if some-

After a full generation, thirty-three tender. Mother-love was aroused the old school-book rhyme-few were She brought me back to the school and the foot of the hills or in the country-ion a boy ever had, and I determined ed to any great degree, the little river road to the rapids," known to the Indian came, to the fishing rock or the maplesugar camp where Uncle Ed held welcome at sugaring off time. Nature. .But the thing which surprised me most in- that aspect of the place was how many hours of wage-carning work the return of the wild things to the hapnts around the village from which ing washing, ironing, scrubbing, sweep- they had fied. There were partridges ing, dusting, polishing, cleansing are in the covert where I used to surprise school grounds was flowing full, for it then. Going around a swampy place there was a sharp whir of wings and our woods into lumber. one flew like a bullet from not thirty coloring of some low brush: and I "Canadian trade-figures showed on stalked it within ten yards before it still raising their young only a stone's throw into-the woods in the thicket turned to-the right in the next valley stepping from stone to stone as we-did many times when we were boys and played Inlians following the war trail. And well we might play it there; for these stones were worn flat on sop by centuries of moccanined feet following the old trail of the red men that still can be traced through the woods that have never been cleared alone the village site was planned. I stood with my back to a huge maple and pletured the scene when a wild friquois band in full war paint filed by, centuries ago, on their way to wage extermination against the hated Higgen who had adopted the ways of the white man. This maple was alive then, a sapling perhaps, but yet a tree. To-day it is one of the thousands that provide the toothsome dainty called maple augar to the nice palates of the hig city. In my day the far side of the creek was Tim Rhir's sugar bush; many a night we made the woods ring with boys' and girls' laughter and song when the sugar season was on. They say the The statement recently has been business of making maple sugar is "commercialized" now and is more attainment of good manners, a state- "efficient," but to this out-of-the-way ment that will surprise some of you. corper the old welcome still waits and Many of you young people who are the day of good cheer still holds even grouphy, trritable, and gloomy, fail to through the "cooler" or huge kettle for realise that you fail-in constant; if boiling eap, is replaced by the eyapor- which is "me" was implanted among which shows you are out of tune with hig from kettle still is used around the life, you are impolite. You would village; it comes from the day when countryside.

And when our time has come to a rough, but benutiful toes has you do not not be settled cooled the bottle in these and when our time has come. toes, but you do not realise that that big teen pots; my father could relowering brow of yours makes scores member when potash from the sable of I hope they'll lay us where we played uncomfortable, instead of one. 'The the maples or beech was the only prohad temper of a single member upsets duct for which the ploneer could get the peace and harmony of innumer- cash; all else was barter, What would as beautiful as anything that beautiful nature has ever grown. Yes, I've seen the rows of Royal paim that line the approach to the rulned homes grander in Cube, and the big rewoods of the Pacific coast and t stilted, artificial grandeur of Fioric. but nothing more beautiful than a old castern hardwood bush has oy been presented to my view. I followed the depression that the Indians used for their path, along the line of least realstance, through the woods and out of the clearing over which I could see across the "concession" to the two rounded hills that mark the spot where my grandfather brought his bride and catabilished his home in the bush about a century ago. Along the edge of this clearing was a farmous pircon roost; and I can remember when Sld Bluir, a lad of pigeons there with his "gramp's"old the shere were of an ugly brown. music-loader. These were local long lost have done? I fear not. Like the great ank, they are gone forever. But if we had even a few we would restoring the buffalo out west, and as other sorts of wild game are being restored by the wiser generation down

This is a story of the wild things of the woods, not one of the people down east-you can read that story elsewhere. I turned from the view of that ancestral home and went down the "concession road" to where it runs into the "drowned land", above the where we used to hide them, caught a spot under an overhanding tree, I left him fishing-ever notice how old path up the river to Price's clearing behind Andy's Island, and slipping She flew straight toward the lake screeming "Speek, Speek," and was answered by the demoniac laughter of more ducks answered from the reeds tenanted as heavily as over again. So corner of a spruce grove, came upon a but that was not there in the olden right then that I would be worthed between the same banks. And of, her and show her that her confidence was not misplaced."

BENEFICENT DIRT

Scientifically considered, dirt is only year I could go in the dark or with my matter out of place, and economically considered it is of the number. But nature had read to the place and economically considered in it is of the number. But nature had read to the door came sone of the door came sone other than "Pup," the Indian boy who and street than "Pup," the Indian boy who and such that it is not that the confidence is not unusual. One had lived in just such a hut on the shier, and the other sale of good, it never had occurred to may be very talknive, and the other sale of good, it never had occurred to may be very talknive, and the other sale of good, it never had occurred to may be very talknive, and the other sale of good, it never had occurred to may be very talknive, and the other sale of good, it never had occurred to may be very talknive, and the other sale of good, it never had occurred to may be very talknive, and the other sale of good, it never had occurred to may be very talknive, and the other sale of good, it never had occurred to may be very talknive, and the other sale of good it never had occurred to may be very talknive, and the other sale of good, it never had occurred to may be very talknive, and the other sale of good, it never had occurred to may be very talknive, and the other sale of good, it never had occurred to may be very talknive, and the other sale of good, it never had occurred to may be very talknive, and the other sale of good, it never had occurred to may be very talknive, and the other sale of good, it never had occurred to the other sale of good, it never had occurred to the other sale of good, it never had occurred to the other sale of good it never had occurred to had it is not in sale of good it never had occurred to may be very talknive, and the other sale of good it right then that I would be worthe flowed between the same banks. And days. Out of the door came sone of the beaver-meadow, or along "the roads building. But nature had re-What an easy life we should have centuries before our grandfathers money than I can get out or author. Young fellow who had never been out forgotten. now was putting a gasoline launch on changed a whit, and he said he would have known my bide in a tannery.

Down the main (and only) street ! done in one day among our eighty them decades ago; wild ducks flew at went across the Long Bridge (about millions of people. A single institu- dusk and at dawn along the old river thirty feet long). The dam that broke tion like the Toronto Public Library route to the lake and the wild rice once and caused the biggest excitegives thousands of hours of work each fields on its border; suckers ran in the ment since the forest fire swept within year to scrubwomen alone. In cities creeks and even the mill-dam had a mile was replaced by a cement the work goes on day and night. No simble fish ready to bite; yes, and in structure. The water was roaring over sooner de sweeping and dusting stop the pinery a few miles into the rocky it with the spring flood as it always they light with dirt literally from night same laws for those devoid of these hands to catch suckers. I remember qualities, had rewarded the people of when Bill Drummond caught forty in Busy as we are in Canada trying the east with rich results in places a day in that manner. The practice so long as only suckers are caught there is little to condemn. One of the lads asked me to go the next day to The little creek that ran through the Josh Martin's creek to net them-for it still was the famous creek for the been described to me as a handsome sucker run. I turned out through Moralists pleading for cleanliness do which I promptly filled up at consider the lane left the street. Partridges woods expressed his opinion of the every year and knew where they were Then make your plan, and in order to "The doctrines of religion are re- proceedings in a manner which many safe. I crossed the river below, at the execute it properly, create for yourwill agree was fitting to the case, and site of Hill Smith's old mill, a vener- self a method. Never improvise. The do?" division selling that occurred since memory, for it was the last of the up- cution of a plan are, first naturally, still ungraded I entered the little placed the whipsaw worked by hand judgment, which enable one to rec-"cedars;" here, I thought, used to be in a saw-pit. I remember seeing this a place where a partridge might be old mill at work-the first of the many then singleness of purpose; and, lastly, five dollars a week, and the other is Coming back through Bellamy's Foch. come in since and are plentiful, and there were coons in the corn-fields again, as there had been in father's day but not in mine. Mrs. Hellany, who was Katy Bolger us a child, discussed forest preservation with me and agreed that the muple woods were the greatest asset of the district and should be preserved and even planted out. So there will be woods there in the old home district when my son or grandson goes back to see the place where his forefathers first foregathered in the wilds of Canada. And there will b rame for him to see, or even to hunt if he comes in the right season.

And so back to the village I wen agross the "commons," feeling the crooked joint of the finger i broke catching baseball bare-handed here a the days of real sport. And in the sunset I walked out along a road we used to shun but which has not the same dread for me now: sometimes ! my dreams I see it with a welcome look to its gentle windings und a restful spirit beaming from the hillside to which it leads. could see the river winding down from the lake the green fields of pasture and plowed ground ready for spring planting, the rocky hilltop that showed the character of the higher hills beyond, and the soft green place plong a pleasant little 'valley where a brook murmured faintly, And I could read who played and hunted with me in the woods and fields and now rest among the scenes they loved in life. I am a part of all that I have ever met. Possibly the greater part of that the Dead Bea are much heavier than in a small and scattered community, class the derivation and significance those of the ocean. This is due to the It had a varied career, but came At of the word "embidextrous." It comes great amount of sait, held in solution. last, after a good many years, to a of the word "ambidextrous." "It domes A few years ago Bir Gray fill, of position of strength and vigor. A half- from two Latin words," she said, "am-England, inude trial of swimming in dozen times the church was tern by be, making both, and dexter, meaning the new and then in the Jordan, to dissensions, or weakened by removals, right, or right-handed. compare the two. He tells the result or disheartened by the apathy of the in his book, "With the Beduins": -Many worlsts while at Jericho bathe up. in the Dead Son and the Jordan, and for very shame I could not pass by without doing so. But my experience was peculiar. I had with me one of the Jericho shelks and one of the muleteers, and we rodo first to-the Dead Sea. Its waters are generally very still and of a splendid blue color; but now, owing to the storm, they were very rough, the waves ran high, I looked askance at it as I undressed twelve, would get as many as a duzon and for some two hundred yards from flocks. I suppose, but the flights, of but felt bound to go in. The waves pigeons that flew over the vilinge at very promptly knocked me down, and migrating time- literally darkened the filled my mouth, nose and eyes with sun. Here in this hardwood bush their strong brine. Again I tried, and must have been one of the last stands again, picking up one after another of the true passenger pigeon, for I of the bare branches of trees which distinctly remember seeing Sid with a are carried down by the Jordan und bag of half a dozen or more when I washed on to the shores of this strange was less than ton-less than forty lake, with which intried to steady. years ago. Will they ever come back myself as I walked in. But the force to these woods, as some other species of the waves, aided by the great flugt ing power of the water, twisted the branches out of my hands, and knocked me down time after time until, soon restore the species as they are feeling that I had done enough for principle, I acknowledged that the victory did not lie on my side, and scrambled out, smarting most unpleasantly.

Bo many years ago."

Then we galloped off to the Jordan. where I thought I should succeed better. So I cast about for a-sultable and which would have been the wiscat course to adopt. I wanted to take a maker. header. Be producing a long stick, I ascended the stream a little, and made hid -behind the overhanging bank sure by sounding with it of a deep Not in acts that could be recorded did where I knew there must be a good came to the community and the bottom for getting out. Down I came church. The troubles of the past were with the fast-flowing yellow flood, forgotten, Better homes were built, striking out in the fullest enjoyment. But when I was just about to put my foot to the ground, I was brought ed prosperously. up sharp with a tremendous blow on my right breast. If it had struck me on the heart it would, I think, have cilled me on the spot. I had come down on to the end of a stake pointing up-stream, and driven in to mark the upper boundary of the bathingplace, but which was wilden, owing to the rains having raised the surface of the river. I had some difficulty in crawling out again, and was black and blue in the chest for a month afterward. There is nothing like a little experience to teach one wisdom.

FRIENDSHIP

had given him an easier and more of his native state, is likely to be atprofitable living than work would pro- tracted by one who has travelled oxvide. He guided parties of hunters and tensively. If the first would rather lose his right hand than tell a lie, and the little old river to take pleasure the second tells one whenever contrippers to the chain of lakes farther venient, the repulsion between the two away. Except for age he had not may more than balance the attraction. Superficial differences are wood atimulants in friendably. When we come down to the great principals of conduct, however, there must be unity in idens. An honest man will not choose a thief for a friend. People of clean lives do not form intimacien with the victoum As Paul put it. "What communion bath light with darkness?" 'In friendship the differences must be superficial, while underneath is unity in the fundamen-

DECIDED NOT TO PROSECUTE

The Judge-This lady says you tried to speak to her at the station. Student-It was a mistake. I was looking for my room-mate's girl, whom I had never seen before, but who'd blonds with classic features, fine comcute the gentleman. Anyone might have made the same mistake.

right one blade saw-mills that re- intelligence; then discornment and ugnize the best methods to attain it; been-and, as if to confirm the thought advances that have mided the ripping what is the most essential of all.

THE FAMILY THAT STAYED BY community, but it hover quite gave ous person has two right hands; that

Looking back over the long period as well as he can use his right. Do of uncertainty, when the life and use- lany of you know of an ambidexterous fulness of the little enterprise hung person?" in the balance, it appeared that the connecting thread of life from one period of hope to the next had been "She plays the typewriter with both single family. This was the more hands." remarkable because the family was humble one, and had not been Smith, "Hhe spanks just as hard with the left hand as she does with her prominent officially.

The mother was a widow, with a argo group of children, and very little with which to feed and clothe them. She worked carly and late for them. and they also worked as soon as they were able. There were so many o them that ulmost every class in the Sunday school had a representative from that home, and therefore at least one regular attendant. And atthough the mother was not there always, her heart was there all the time.

The Sunday school class might run down, but it nover could guite disnucleus for a new beginning. And in a resary of his troubles. ume the children of that household began occasional work as substitute teachers. One of the sons became church clerk, and one of the daughters, a rare, sweet girl, after some experience as assistant, assumed on? tire charge of the primary department. The mother, busy as she was was place to jump in, for I did not like to usually at the sewing society, where crawl in ignominiously at the pilgrims' she took a modest but effective part. bathing-place, near which we were. The women came to trust her, and she became an advisor and peace-

> But all the mother's work, and most of that of the children, was unofficial. this family do its work, but in conand new people moved in. A settled pastor was secured, and the work mov-

> There came an anniversary, and, as | the minister looked over the records of years, too many for the work that | appeared to have been done, he wondered why the church had not dishanded more than once; But always here had been a little nuclous of the and always, inconspicuously among them, had been this widow and her

One day the minister called upor LIKENESS AND UNLIKENESS IN for you this church would have disbecause they are different to us. To children, helping her sick peighbors. most two friends who seem almost the doing little and mostly unremembered asserted itself and he was making more may attract, the basis for a lasting is filled with neople who reached it by money than I can get out of author- friendship, after all, is likeness. A the way of good deeds performed and

AN ONTARIO FAVORITE

Family Herald and, Weekly Star year after year because it gives by far the greatest value obtainable anywhere. The market nows and prices in the Family Herald are the most complete! and up to date available, and it retains the services and contributions of the foremost agriculturists in Ontario. The magazine and news sections are brimful of the choicest reading for each member of the family. This year the Family Herald will give away ten thousand dollars in prizes, a beautiful calendar and picture, and other valuable rewards to subscribers. A catalogue of rewards will be sent free of. charge to any address. No words can do justice to the excellence of the Family Horald.

RELATIVE VALUES

olleges was sauntering down a shady lane one day in the early summer. when he met a tall, handsome youth. This youth had just been graduated. In all his courses be had taken hongra, and in athletics also great honors had

"Yes, sir,"-replied the young man. "And now what are you going to

"Yes, sir. One is from a scientific society, offering the a secretaryship at from a baseball magnate, offering a namely, will stubborn will .- Marshall five years's contract to pitch at five housend dollars a season."

Cooler Nights and Lower Prices on Wood

These cool nights, when you do not need a fire for long, is when wood comes in handy, to take the chill off the house. And what will be more welcome nows to that the price has been reduced, and the following prices are now in effect:

Hardwood Slabs and Short Wood .. Best Body Cordwood, 4 foot lengths

And at this season of the year it is more profitable to do your cooking with wood. You warm the house at the same time, and you fuel does double duty. EACH LOAD IS QUARANTEED A FULL SINGLE CORD

WE DELIVER PROMPTLY

TWO EXAMPLES

The teacher was explaining to the

"Literally speaking an ambidexteris to say, be can use his left hand just

Two little boys raised their hands, "My sister is," said Tommy Jones."

right."

"Bo's my mamma," said Bobby

A ROBARY OF TROUBLE Some people make a resary of their troubles. An illness, the loss of a position, a quarrel with a friend, are bad enough to live through once; but these foolish people, reheurse their troubles so often that they might as well happen 'covery day. Everyone must undergo trouble, but sensible people, when it is over, are done with it. No one can indulge in a more band; or if it did, there was the foolish pastime than that of making

Used Cars For Sale

At Bargain Prices

Get Ready for Winter

get the miner repairs to Furnace and Waterworks Systems attended to.

PROMPT SERVICE ----

EFFICIENT WORKMANSHIP

Drummond & Leatham

JACK FROST HAS ARRIVED

WE HAVE COAL ON HAND TO MAKE HIM KEEP HIS DISTANCE

Furnace Size, per ton, off car $15.00 Out of shed $15.50

Belocted Egg Size Pocchantus $11.50 Out of shed $12.00

This is the genuine article, shipped direct to us from Raleigh,

I. B. MACKENZIE

N. MOLEOD, MANAGER, ACTON, PHONE 48-TERMS CASH

Boulett, manufactured coul, off cur $12.50 'Out of shed,.....

West Virginia, and we know it will give satisfaction.

We are well prepared to look after your requirements.

Now is the time, before the real severe winter weather sets in, to

 1 DODGE TOURING In First-class Condition. Four good tires on, and a good spare

1 CHEVROLET TOURING, 1921

In good Running Condition. Four tires on, and a spare

1 McLAUGHLIN E35, 4 CYLINDER Has been Overhauled and running satisfactory. 2 new cord bires

> 1 83B OVERLAND TOURING In Good Condition. A real bargain

1 75 OVERLAND BOADSTER Has new top, and in splendid running order

> 1 GRAY DORT TOURING. In A1 Condition

1 FORD TRUCK, 1921 In Best of Condition. For real utility is as good as a new truck. Has two

brand new tires

1 BULL DOG FANNING MILL New. Never used. At an attractive bargain price

1 MELOTTE CREAM SEPARATOR, NEW Call Any Time and We'll Demonstrate Any of These Cars and Machines

S. V. KING

GEORGETOWN

Say Folks! Here's a Real Gift!

Nearly all of you have some perplexing gift problem nowadays, haven't you? Well, here's solving it for you. Make that Gift---a Year's Subscription to

The Acton Free Press

Whoever gets it will consider it a real, thoughtful Gift. For, as our many readers know, this paper is always alive with all the local news, live correspondence from the surrounding villages, and good short stories---yes, as appealling and interesting as any paper in the country. So what could make a better Christmas present? $2.00 to any address in Canada, $2.50 to the United States or the British