Fogus by-law for a new High School was defeated at Monday's election.

Not before in ten years have we had so much snow the first week in January.

The snow shovel brigade has had almost continuous work all through the past week.

Guelpi defeated its soldiers' motion by-law on Monday, by a vote of 2787 to 1795.

The bachelor cynic says there is one mighty good thing about 1926—you can't divide it by 4.

Up to the first of January there have been 125 cases of measles in Milton since the snow came.

Mr. Neil McDonald was elected a member of Hastings Council on Monday, Congratulations, Neil!

The New Year was ushered in hugging the thermometer at zero, and with snow flying all through the day.

The mercury reached its highest point since Christmas on Tuesday at noon when it registered 30 above zero.

"I can't Leap Year now," says the calculating philosopher, "but that was no great handicap to a really clever girl."

Gordon Home, the Children's Shelter at Milton, had thirteen cases of measles and two of diphtheria last week.

Guelpi Cemetery, which for many years has been known as Union Cemetery, has been re-named "Woodlawn Cemetery."

Some of the flat roofs are now carrying a heavy weight of snow. Better examine yours. Better still, clear off the snow.

The slaters had a good time at the rink on New Year's afternoon and evening. Action Citizens' Band provided good music.

An observant old man about town says: "Once this deluge is found to be country snow burning in, now it finds them tunting in."

The school bell's call was answered by hundreds of scholars on Monday morning, who commenced their school studies for another year.

The first week of January has been characterized by continued rain and old-fashioned fall of snow.

The Action Machine Shops have added another line to their group of automobile accessories—that of parcel carriers of an improved design.

The smallest fee loss for the past seven years was recorded in Guelpi in 1924, the total damage for the two months only amounting to $4,825.

Rev. Mr. Stewart announced last Sunday that a statement respecting Church Union will be made to the congregation at the services on the 18th inst.

Enjoyable New Year's Function
A Happy Gathering of the Congregation and Sunday School of Knox Church.

The banquet held in the basement of Knox Church on New Year's evening proved to be a real enjoyable church family gathering. Tables were spread to accommodate all at one sitting. The rooms were prettily decorated, and the whole aspect carried out the carefully arranged plan for a get-together evening for the members of the congregation, including the Sunday School.

The banquet tables bore an abundance of good things, and notwithstanding the surfeit of holiday viands with which all present had enjoyed an abundance during the week, there was complete satisfaction that the menu of the banquet was fully satisfied.

Rev. Stewart was the toastmaster, and it was quite evident that he was in his element in this role. The function was one he had long desired to put into effect, and the successful consummation was highly gratifying to him.

The toast of the evening was heartily responded to by the pastor, who, in his usual manner, with loyalty and good fellowship was maintained from the beginning to end. The toast to "The King" was suitably responded to by singing the National Anthem.

Mr. Charles Parker proposed the toast of the evening, which was responded to by Mr. Stewart, who, in his usual manner, with loyalty and good fellowship was maintained from the beginning to end. The toast to "The King" was suitably responded to by singing the National Anthem.

Elin Advocate's 45th Birthday

The Elin Advocate celebrated the commencement of the fifth year of the editorship of Mr. R. W. Hill, and the forty-fifth of the establishment of the paper last week. The Advocate readers were never better served than they are to-day. The Advocate in a local newspaper and it is appreciated by a large number of readers.

Treating the Editor Generously
If the editor of the Canadian ever leaves Carleton Place he will certainly be leaving a paper in good stead. The editor last week took two subscribers who came in to pay their subscriptions. One of them presented the editor with a ten-pound turkey and the other left a pair of chickens and several pounds of butter.—Carleton Place Canadian.

Church Services Commence the New Year
The New Year was ushered in with appropriate services in the various churches. A watch night service was held in the Methodist Church; Morning Miss in St. Joseph's Church, and a service in Knox Church in the evening. The churches certainly did their duty in putting "first things first."

An Entertaining New Year's Paper
The Porcupine Advance, published by Mr. George Lake at Timmins, Ont., issued a splendid Christmas number of thirty-two pages, including a colored supplement. The "churches, hospitals, banks and business places were present with clear well-kept photographs. The people of "The Golden Land" up-yonder should appreciate this fine spirit of enterprise.

OBITUARY
MISS EDWIN DECEW

For several years, Mrs. Edwitt Decew, Mill Street, has been in poor health. About the middle of December she became seriously ill and gradually grew worse, until Friday evening her spirit took its flight. In her later hours she was attended by her husband and their widowed daughter, Mrs. Donald, who have the sympathy of the community. Mrs. Decew came to Acton ten years ago, during their residence here. She was the daughter of the late John Haney, a pioneer of that county. She and Mr. Decew were joined in holy matrimony in 1881. For a time they resided in Tilsonburg, then in Dalton, for several years in London, and in the latter in Fines Edward County. Their family consisted of one son and one daughter. Only the daughter, Mrs. Donald, survives. Mrs. Decew was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and a devoted Christian. A funeral service was held at the home on Sunday evening. The burial will take place in the cemetery on Monday morning. The family is now in Dalton.
