THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

FOR SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 1

Golden Text-He that abideth in me and I in him, the same bringeth forth (beareth) much fruit. John 15: 16-25. Time-Tuesday night, April 4, A. D.

Place Near Jorusalem.

The Text Explained 1. The fruit, more fruit, much fruit "I am the true vine, and my Father id the husbandman;" this is the central truth of this lesson. All its wonderful teaching circles about, or is a development of, this great thought. Christ is the vine, we are the branches all our life and power and fruitage result from our union with Him, and God the Father Is the vine cultivator who by His wise care brings each branch to its highest possibilities, or if it has no real union with the vine, removes it. It would be difficult to find in the word of God a passage that on the one hand has more comfort hand, has more solemn warning in it fruitage. Our life, our power to bear will make no mistakes; for He is Rev. D. Dick, who has been pastor perfect in wisdom, and He is wondeeply on the words of Jesus, "My "taken away." It will therefore stand
