1. The Lord Jesus Silent when ac cused of Many Things. o The Lord Jesus seemed to be the One who was being tried on that day and Pilate the one who was trying Him; but in reality, Pilate was the one who was being tried, and he was the one who was really convicted that day. Pilato's question, "Art thou the King of the Jews?" was of fundal mental importance; but Pilace did not ask the question intelligently. Jesus first brought out the true meaning and import of the question, and then answers that Ite is the King of the Jews. The phrase, "Thou sayest" was, in the usage of the day, one of the have a familiar phrase to-day, 'You said it."
