

Births, Marriages and Deaths are now shown for the following rates: Births, 25c; Marriages, 25c; Deaths, 25c; Memorial Cards, 25c per card extra for poems.

OBITUARY

MRS CHRISTOPHER COOK

One of Eglinton's old and respected citizens, in the person of Mrs. Cook, widow of the late Christopher Cook, passed away at her home, lot 31 8th line, near Ballinafad, on Wednesday, Feb. 18, 1925, at the age of 82 years. She had resided in Eglinton and lived in the township for many years, and was esteemed by all who knew her. Two sons and three daughters survive, to mention the death of a beloved son, J. C. on Feb. 1, 1922, at Guelph, Ontario.

ALLAN LACKY AT ST. PAUL'S

Methodist Church, Acton, died Saturday, Feb. 18, 1925, Rev. G. Norris Gray, William C. Allan, formerly of Acton, died at his home, Agnes Street, Acton, on Tuesday, March 3, 1925. Robert Murray Laing, in his 72nd year.

PATER—Suddenly, her home in Georgetown, Thurso, beloved wife of Charles W. Papet.

MCMASTER—In Glenwilliams, on Saturday, February 21, 1925, Mrs. McMaster, aged 86 years, 11 months.

DAVISON—On Monday, March 2, 1925, at her late residence, Sunny Vale, Guelph, Grace Davison, wife of Col. John Davidson, in her 73rd year.

RAYMOND—On Sunday morning, March 1, 1925, at her late residence, 115 Norfolk Street, Guelph, Mrs. Charles Raymond, aged 70 years.

HARWOOD—On Monday, February 23, 1925, at the residence of her son, Robert Harwood, 102 Main Street, Guelph, Anne Moxam, relic of the late Mrs. Harwood, in her 91st year.

IN MEMORIAM

LINDSAY—In ever loving memory of Mrs. N. F. Lindsay, who entered rest March 4, 1925.

Husband, Sons and Daughters

The Acton Free Press

THURSDAY, MARCH 5, 1925

Brief Local Items

March is with us again.

The pretty pussy willows are com-mencing to bloom again.

Preparations for the maple syrup making are very general now.

The last days of February gave a real taste of winter weather.

Sledding was renewed through Sunday's generous fall of snow.

The average price being paid for heavy horses in Ontario is $150.

Make the best of chilly March, remember that spring is coming.

Arthur village has decided to postpone its old boys' re-union till August, 1926.

February went out the last day with the temperature dipping around zero.

March came in rather lambley, and brought with it a good heavy freeze of snow.

We live it, we love it, and who shall dare to chide us for loving our climate rare!

The better the home town is the more valuable the homestead in the community will be.

Outsliders who peddle meat in Mon-ford will in future have to pay a license fee of $15.00.

Mrs. J. Crawshaw has now quite a varied stock in his store at Speyside, and is building up quite a trade.

Dr. Scofield, of Guelph, a returned missionary, addressed a well-attended meeting at Knox Church, Monday evening.

Stamp the receipts you give for all monies paid you over $10. People are being fined all over Canada for not doing this.

Alliston public library is maintained by the Women's Institute. The Institute raised over $2,000 for library purposes during 1924.

An important annual jay walkers to the market, and all drivers and draymen need to the cheap, bring the street on foot.

Chalmers' Church, Guelph, voted 511 for union and 403 against. The other three Presbyterian Churches in Guelph voted against Union.

Advertising to-day is the great builder of every successful business. According to Bradstreet 84 per cent of all firms that sell are now advertisers.

Our city Council has fixed the period of District Taxation for the year between 2 a.m. Sunday, May 3, and the same hour Sunday, September 20.

The Perth Woollen Mills at Perth, Ontario, which have been in operation for 57 years, have been purchased by Arthur Morris of Buddington, England.

"It's hard times," confided a Main Street man last week, "when a man's politics made him have to pretend to be a capitalist, beer, whisky—he likes it or not."

It has been found that many Toronto barber shops are nothing but gambling dens. The Globe says that in 75 barber shops the place business is taking bets on horse races.

Mr. and Mrs. Clegg, recently given us a real taste of winter, with their move down to Kew, on Monday morning, there wasn't much of a springlike character in the atmosphere.

Advertising pays! Sure it does but to make the best reliable co-operation. Poor salesmen just don't do it. A different follow-up of inquiries would chlorinate any campaign! —Ren Mulford, Jr.

Sing a song of "springtime, just around the bend," everyone is asking, and the girls are all set to go. Winter's over, motorists all soft singing out the family wallet and leaving the town.

The Orange Lodges of West York, Hurontario made a fraternal visit to Acton, L. O. N., Nov. 4th, yesterday evening. The meeting will be of a social character and will be held in the Town Hall.

Mrs. C. McCallum, of Esguising, aged 80 years, slipped on the ice one day and sprained her knee so badly near the thigh. She lay helpless in the cold for some time before a neighbor came along.

In a fire in Wingham, on Friday, in which R. R. Mooney's plumbing shop was destroyed to the extent of $2,000, Mr. W. H. Gould, for a silo machine, an electric motor and a quantity of stock.

A vote of over three to one the electors of Kitchener on Saturday resolved to contribute $10,000 toward the erection of a War Memorial at the new city hall. The vote was $93 for and 3,807 against.

The Board of Managers of Knox Church has very kindly agreed to grant the use of the Union room to the Board of Trade, for their weekly meetings. Rev. Mr. Stewart will take an interest in the boy's meetings.

Neighborhood News—Town and Country

DOLLY VARDEN

The Toronto Lime Works has been burning lime here all winter, and products are good for an increased output soon.

The 24th annual census which was occupied by Charles Lovan, will be sold under mortgage on Saturday, March 23, 1925, at the Hotel, Brampton, Ontario, 10 a.m.

COOK—at Ballinafad, lot 31 8th line, near Ballinafad, on Wednesday, February 18, 1925, Rev. G. Norris Gray, William C. Allan, formerly of Acton, died at his home, Agnes Street, Acton, on Tuesday, March 3, 1925. Robert Murray Laing, in his 72nd year.

PATER—Suddenly, her home in Georgetown, Thurso, beloved wife of Charles W. Papet.

MCMASTER—In Glenwilliams, on Saturday, February 21, 1925, Mrs. McMaster, aged 86 years, 11 months.

DAVISON—On Monday, March 2, 1925, at her late residence, Sunny Vale, Guelph, Grace Davison, wife of Col. John Davidson, in her 73rd year.

RAYMOND—On Sunday morning, March 1, 1925, at her late residence, 115 Norfolk Street, Guelph, Mrs. Charles Raymond, aged 70 years.

HARWOOD—On Monday, February 23, 1925, at the residence of her son, Robert Harwood, 102 Main Street, Guelph, Anne Moxam, relic of the late Mrs. Harwood, in her 91st year.

LINDSAY—In ever loving memory of Mrs. N. F. Lindsay, who entered rest March 4, 1925.

Husband, Sons and Daughters

The Acton Free Press

THURSDAY, MARCH 5, 1925

Brief Local Items

March is with us again.

The pretty pussy willows are com-mencing to bloom again.

Preparations for the maple syrup making are very general now.

The last days of February gave a real taste of winter weather.

Sledding was renewed through Sunday's generous fall of snow.

The average price being paid for heavy horses in Ontario is $150.

Make the best of chilly March, remember that spring is coming.

Arthur village has decided to postpone its old boys' re-union till August, 1926.

February went out the last day with the temperature dipping around zero.

March came in rather lambley, and brought with it a good heavy freeze of snow.

We live it, we love it, and who shall dare to chide us for loving our climate rare!

The better the home town is the more valuable the homestead in the community will be.

Outsliders who peddle meat in Mon-ford will in future have to pay a license fee of $15.00.

Mrs. J. Crawshaw has now quite a varied stock in his store at Speyside, and is building up quite a trade.

Dr. Scofield, of Guelph, a returned missionary, addressed a well-attended meeting at Knox Church, Monday evening.

Stamp the receipts you give for all monies paid you over $10. People are being fined all over Canada for not doing this.

Alliston public library is maintained by the Women's Institute. The Institute raised over $2,000 for library purposes during 1924.

An important annual jay walkers to the market, and all drivers and draymen need to the cheap, bring the street on foot.

Chalmers' Church, Guelph, voted 511 for union and 403 against. The other three Presbyterian Churches in Guelph voted against Union.

Advertising to-day is the great builder of every successful business. According to Bradstreet 84 per cent of all firms that sell are now advertisers.

Our city Council has fixed the period of District Taxation for the year between 2 a.m. Sunday, May 3, and the same hour Sunday, September 20.

The Perth Woollen Mills at Perth, Ontario, which have been in operation for 57 years, have been purchased by Arthur Morris of Buddington, England.

"It's hard times," confided a Main Street man last week, "when a man's politics made him have to pretend to be a capitalist, beer, whisky—he likes it or not."

It has been found that many Toronto barber shops are nothing but gambling dens. The Globe says that in 75 barber shops the place business is taking bets on horse races.

Mr. and Mrs. Clegg, recently given us a real taste of winter, with their move down to Kew, on Monday morning, there wasn't much of a springlike character in the atmosphere.

Sing a song of "springtime, just around the bend," everyone is asking, and the girls are all set to go. Winter's over, motorists all soft singing out the family wallet and leaving the town.

The Orange Lodges of West York, Hurontario made a fraternal visit to Acton, L. O. N., Nov. 4th, yesterday evening. The meeting will be of a social character and will be held in the Town Hall.

Mrs. C. McCallum, of Esguising, aged 80 years, slipped on the ice one day and sprained her knee so badly near the thigh. She lay helpless in the cold for some time before a neighbor came along.

In a fire in Wingham, on Friday, in which R. R. Mooney's plumbing shop was destroyed to the extent of $2,000, Mr. W. H. Gould, for a silo machine, an electric motor and a quantity of stock.

A vote of over three to one the electors of Kitchener on Saturday resolved to contribute $10,000 toward the erection of a War Memorial at the new city hall. The vote was $93 for and 3,807 against.

The Board of Managers of Knox Church has very kindly agreed to grant the use of the Union room to the Board of Trade, for their weekly meetings. Rev. Mr. Stewart will take an interest in the boy's meetings.

NASSAGAWEYA

DON'T ASK THE WIFE

Mr. Campbell, a young farmer of Nassagaweya, Toronto, met with a peculiar accident the other day. He was tying the cattle in the stable when one of the cows slipped on the concrete floor and falling onto its hind legs, breaking both of them, inflicting a severe gash, which required ten stitches to close. He suffered greatly from loss of blood.

EDEN MILLS

The Toronto Lime Works has been burning lime here all winter, and products are good for an increased output soon.

The 24th annual census which was occupied by Charles Lovan, will be sold under mortgage on Saturday, March 23, 1925, at the Hotel, Brampton, Ontario, 10 a.m.

COOK—at Ballinafad, lot 31 8th line, near Ballinafad, on Wednesday, February 18, 1925, Rev. G. Norris Gray, William C. Allan, formerly of Acton, died at his home, Agnes Street, Acton, on Tuesday, March 3, 1925. Robert Murray Laing, in his 72nd year.

PATER—Suddenly, her home in Georgetown, Thurso, beloved wife of Charles W. Papet.

MCMASTER—In Glenwilliams, on Saturday, February 21, 1925, Mrs. McMaster, aged 86 years, 11 months.

DAVISON—On Monday, March 2, 1925, at her late residence, Sunny Vale, Guelph, Grace Davison, wife of Col. John Davidson, in her 73rd year.

RAYMOND—On Sunday morning, March 1, 1925, at her late residence, 115 Norfolk Street, Guelph, Mrs. Charles Raymond, aged 70 years.

HARWOOD—On Monday, February 23, 1925, at the residence of her son, Robert Harwood, 102 Main Street, Guelph, Anne Moxam, relic of the late Mrs. Harwood, in her 91st year.

LINDSAY—In ever loving memory of Mrs. N. F. Lindsay, who entered rest March 4, 1925.

Husband, Sons and Daughters

The Acton Free Press

THURSDAY, MARCH 5, 1925

Brief Local Items

March is with us again.

The pretty pussy willows are com-mencing to bloom again.

Preparations for the maple syrup making are very general now.

The last days of February gave a real taste of winter weather.

Sledding was renewed through Sunday's generous fall of snow.

The average price being paid for heavy horses in Ontario is $150.

Make the best of chilly March, remember that spring is coming.

Arthur village has decided to postpone its old boys' re-union till August, 1926.

February went out the last day with the temperature dipping around zero.

March came in rather lambley, and brought with it a good heavy freeze of snow.

We live it, we love it, and who shall dare to chide us for loving our climate rare!

The better the home town is the more valuable the homestead in the community will be.

Outsliders who peddle meat in Mon-ford will in future have to pay a license fee of $15.00.

Mrs. J. Crawshaw has now quite a varied stock in his store at Speyside, and is building up quite a trade.

Dr. Scofield, of Guelph, a returned missionary, addressed a well-attended meeting at Knox Church, Monday evening.

Stamp the receipts you give for all monies paid you over $10. People are being fined all over Canada for not doing this.

Alliston public library is maintained by the Women's Institute. The Institute raised over $2,00