DON'T QUIT

When things go wrong, as they some-When roads you're trudging seems all When the funds are low and the debts When cares are pressing you down

As every one of us semetimes learns. And many a failure turns about, When he might have won had he stuck . It out: Don't give up, though the pace seems You may succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than It seems to a faint and faltering man Often the struggler has given up, When he might have captured the vic-And he learned too late, when the night How close he was to the golden crown

Success is failure turned Inside out-It may be near whon it seems afar;

So stick to the fight when you're hard It's when things seem worst that you -Portland Herald.

SECRETS OR HOSPITALITY

True hospitality does not lie in great display or in lavish expense. There are magnificent houses thrown wide at stated times to a great array of guests; but the guests arrive uneasily. and depart as soon as courtesy peris no cordiality in either giver or re- The fire had not reached the moist ceiver, and the banqueters are sated before they sit down. And the owners of those houses, and the framers of .. We reached the place, which was thousand dollars." those feasts wonder why men and wo'- four or five miles from the house, friends as nearly as possible after the ber.... appreciates most is seeing the family a thick spruce-came a flash of lightnas nearly as possible as it lives, and ing, and at almost the same instant a being made a part of it. The houses crashing clap of thunder. The lightnthat open in that way, as it were by ing struck one of the pine stubs on the touch of a spring, are the houses the hillside and set it on fire. that are loved and frequented. The guest who is most enjoyed and who most enjoys himself is the guest who comes unexpectedly; and the great hoats of the world are never found unready for one more. There was always an extra place in Lady-Holland's though you might that of her guests. which now sparkled at several points. squire began seriously to think that Oladly they ran out of the polting 2 roan helfers, 1 year old; 1 roan occasion. "It must be made," Luttrell And Robert Toombs, when his table was overcrowded, remarked, "I do not object to having more friends than room. It is usually the other way in

But another secret lies even deeper. to see those it loves, is ready even to go out in kindness and sympathy to get rich." those it does not love. You may say many other apparently inborn gifts, some degree of it can be obtained. There was a lady once who said, "I believe I should like to talk to everyone in the world." And the same lady said again, "I do not think I ever saw anyone coming into my house whom I was not glad to see." No doubt this lady exaggerated; but, none the less, she presented the hospitable spirit in its most genuine form.

ANNUALS IN A TULIP BED By Miss Anna Moyle for the Ontario Horticultural Society

When the ground has frozen up for for mulch. In the sping a little of this is refresh earth about three inches is put over the mulch, and seeds of phlox were blasting our rock there. drummondi scattered broadcast, covered with a light layer of earth, firmed mine! In less than half an hour Ad- New Jersey."

too soon, or the bulbs will not ripen for next year's bloom. As soon as the plants are two-inches high a little nitrate of soda is sprinkled in between, care being taken not to allow any on the leaves or near the stems. This is well forked in and as soon as the buds appear an application of fine bone meal is given, and cultivation kept up. In June they begin to bloom, the bed being a place of beauty and of claim here." joy to the gardener till frost comes usual mulch applied.

third year seedling asters, fourth year See our stakes there?" stocks, and back to Phlox Drummondi. Did the tuling suffer? Not in the east; they were admired by all who passed by, as well as by the gardener who has solved the problem of the tulip bed at least to her own satis-

A-USEFUL INVENTION

At the sportsman's show in New had better not bother them: York one of the novelties shown was attracted much attention from the visi- puzzled. "That ther is shorely a great thing," said. "I don't believe there are any and all, would not weigh over a hun- for a couple who were both younger said one of the Maine guides. "Sup- precedents to guide us. I couldn't say dred and fifty pounds. But when those and still more easily embarrassed than poso there's a dude hunter got lost, how such a case would be decided. barrels came from Colorado to those he. What does he do? He climbs a tall You can warn them to get off, and then fellows they weighed three hundred When he had finished the service and tree, fixes the majigger, and lets go. "Click, clackety clack, click-I'm lost Accordingly the old squire and Ad- much as when they were packed full halting words to the young couple "Clack; Hashety dash, dot, click- the intruders of formally. The mon W'ere be ye?' "'Clackety, clash, dash, click-I on their rights under mining law Jersey, too!" Addison continued. "I real kind of you to congratulate us.

out a search-party and find him. It right to mine the land for gold and game on us!"

shore be a great invention." A WIDE ACQUAINTANCE of a downger whose wealth-and edu- with their blasting. We heard rumors "Go after them, and stop their game cation were of exceedingly recent ac- that they had sent some samples of somehow till we know more about this. quisition. According to her accounts, the ore to Professor Bartlett for as- | We must hurry too, or they'll got that the trip round the world that she had say, and that he had returned a good completed have been socially most suc- report:

Some of her friends were questioning tember, the three miners made us a like mad for the village. They were her about the places of interest that call. They did not seem at all rough; large, broad-backed animals, and our "Did you see the Dardanelles?" asked courteous, pleasant-spoken fellows horse nearly bumped the breath out of

"And the Himalayas?" inquired an- Rand and Cothers.

Paris."

The Bree Pregs Short Story

The Old Squire's Silver Mine

BY C. A. STEPHENS

HUNDER!" was what the al- claim is logal, and that it manac predicted for that day under mining law." -thunder with a big exclamation point. In disdain of the almanac, however, Addison and set off fairly early in the morning, with auger'and axe, in quest of "Maine

In strict point of fact, no rosewood grows in Maine, or ever did. What was then sold for Maine resewood was, in reality, the heartwood of the black-cherry tree, which is a finegrained wood of a delicate rose color. In Maine black-cherry trees rarely grow more than a foot in diameter; The silver tint of the clouds, no doubt, and the heartwood, of course, is con-And you never can tell how close you siderably less than that." As a result, the trees do not yield much lumber that is wide enough for commercial

But in one of the old squire's lots -Lot 37-we had come upon some fairly large black-cherry trees, and Addison and I went up there that day to determine how much clear heart-wood they would yield. forest fire had burned the spruce and square." pine growth off the hill, and had left stark and black against the sky line. wished. of several hundred cherry trees grew. this summer, we ought to get four ing the mine.

fashion in which you live yourself. We were working busily when sud-People worth inviting come, not to see denly, about two o'clock, the almanac > tinued to blaze fitfully for a while. After the storm had passed, we went erals, examined the ledge curiously.

off a piece of the rock to take home.

in Maine has had a "history," with them?" less investors have found to their cost. mine," Addison replied. hopeful mood, and the next day he and said-packed in sawdust, all the way tell me all about the charcoal burning, er coal oil stove. Addison went up to Lot 37, and with from Denver.

news of it get abroad-how, I do not to use that much powder.' spoken of the matter to his acquaint- noise," Addison said.

that the lightning had struck, hung talk with the miners. They finally of standing on the shore, pointing in der trees; then we went up to them. you doing here on our lot?" The men looked us over. "Mining, if you want to know, young fellows." one of them said. "We've located a at six o'clock. The whole family felt agricultural laborer in the witness. "But this isn't your land!" Addison when the plants are taken out curd exclaimed. "This is private property." miners walked down to our place from skill. However, he began. put on the compost heap, and the ... "It's unimproved land," the fellow their camp and the old squire offered replied. "We have located a mine here to give them a lift to the village. The second year I planted pansies, under the United States mining law.

> "But I tell you this is private, prolaw very well. We're Colorado miners and we know what we're about!"-

"Well, you'll have to get of this land." Addison said, firmly, The men laughed, and went on drilling; one of them remarked that we suppose would go into a barred? And was troubled no further,

We went home and reported to the over three hundred pounds?"... a portable wireless telegraph appara- old squire. Considerably disturbed, he tus which could be carried in a hunt- drove to the village the next morning er's pack, says the New York Mail, it to consult his lawyer. Mr. Holt was of those kegs, packed in sawdust, begin action for trespass." dison went, up the next day to warn of ore! How could that be?" took it pleasantly enough, but stool They had found no claim stakes there, tell you," he cried, suddenly, "those and as long as you haven't ever been Then all they got to do is to send they said, and therefore had a perfect fellows are playing some kind of a married yet, maybe we'll have a

However: we began suit, against Addison's conviction that persuaded them for trepassing, and the case was me, I do not know; but instantly I. entered for the September county too, felt that the miners were cheating The Washington Post tells this story court. Meanwhile the men went on us. "What can we do?" I said.

> One evening about the tenth of Sopin fact, they impressed us as rather legs stuck out from their sides. My They gave their names as Sangster, me.

"We heard that you are bringing suit stairs, over a dry-good store. With-"Why, certainly," replied the down- against us for trespassing," Rand be- out stopping to hitch the horses, we ger, "I dined with them both in gam. "That's all right. We don't slide off their backs and rushed up-

The old squire remarked that th court would have to decide that. "Sure." Rand replied good-naturedly "That's what courts are for. We bear no malice about it. You thing you're right, and we think we're right." "We rather think you Maine folks ought to thank us for coming here and think is wrong?" Rand asked, glaring opening the mining," Crothers said. at Addison. "There's some rich ore up there, and this will soon be a big mining country. Wo're just sending off eight barrels more of ore samples for assay." "That ledge, len't the enly one up there," 'romarked Rand casually. "We've found just as good ore on the other side of that hill. We've staked claims over there, too.".

The old squire made no comment except to say that the other side of the hill was not his land. "We don't; want any law, trouble," Sangster said. "There is plenty of ore far, we'll pull out of that first 'lead' on alluvial soil, along the east bank of your land and go to work on our other tools, but left town during the day.

That sounded so fair that the old

"But we wouldn't take a dollar of men go with such eagerness to quiet about noon, and at once set to work. your money," Rand interposed, "until West shipped them those eight barrels homes and simple tables, where there Addison tapped the cherry trunks with these last samples from the deep rock of ore, but instead of containing blast One secret lies in entertaining your each tree would probably yield in lum- his report. Business is business. We from a Western silver mine. don't dak you to take any risks on three rogues had sent that ore to the the ore."

The old squire told them that he your house, but to see you. For set vindicated itself. A thunderstorm bore would consider the matter, and they occasions some little preparation may down the valley of the brook. Right bade us good evening. As they went be necessary, but even that little is in the midst of the first downpour— out, Crothers asked whether they could often too much. What every visitor as we were trying to find shelter under hire one of our teams to draw the barrels of samples to the railway étation. The old squire felt reluctant to connect himself with the men in any way: but he could not without seeming. churlish refuse their request. The > recently been opened, and drow the eight barrels down to the railway stabeen torn from a ledge of gray rock, swept through the county. The old view.

the three miners. Bartlett, who then made assays of ore. chance word had set Addison thinking. chased in the forest while their fathers Ideal binder, 6 ft. cut; 1 Frost & After making some tests, the profess- The railway station agent was a young burned charcoal.

The railway station agent was a young burned charcoal.

The lady, a lover of children, began disc drill; 1 Deering steel roller; 1 men dld, indeed, contain silver. . . knew very well. On the day that Ad- at once to make friends with them, Deering hay rake; 1 set Deering har-"If you have much rock like that," dison had drawn the eight barrels to and with a charm that children could rows; 1 Bain waggon and box; he said, "you can open up a mine and the station Knapp had remarked, as nover realst soon had them clustered Massey-Harris cultivator; I scuffler he was weighing the shipment, "These round her, listening to her stories and 1 hay rack; 1 stock rack; 3 chicken

But our discovery, which probably was "That so?" said Knapp, turning back grimed little fingers. one of the first of its kind in the to last week's bills in his entry book. state, had all the freshness of novelty. "Yes, eight barrels. They had kegs of cordiality was at its height, when the The old squire came home in a very blasting powder in them then, so they lady laughingly said, "Now you must range; large box stove; large kitchen pick and shovel, uncovered some more "Hello!" he added. "This is odd. it" of the ledges. There appeared to be They weighed the same then as they Instantly they drew off from her plenty of that leaden-gray ore. do now-twenty-five hundred and in disgust, and looked at her with the Roots, Furniture and all sums under Visions of wealth began to loom on sixty pounds. That's three hundred greatest contempt. the family horizon. But although we and twenty pounds each. Those "You don't know nothing about char- credit will be given on furnishing an-ances in Portland. Within a week That afternoon he took the shipping their confidence again. In vain. They C. O. PLANK, Clerk. everyone in town knew of our find, receipts up to the miner's camp. Ho would have nothing to do with anyand an account of it appeared in the felt curious enough about what Knapp one so Ignorant as not to know about had said to ask them whether they got charcoal burning. All her stories passed A few days later, Willis Murch, who their powder from Colorado. They from their minds, they looked at her had been fishing along Otter Brook, said that they did, because the powder almost with hatred; and, the lady concame running over to the old squire's, out there was so much better for fessed afterwards, never had she felt while we were at dinner, to tell us that mining purposes; Sangster showed so much like a parfah as when the men were camping on Lot 37, and him a keg of powder. Addison re- charcoal burners, children turned their membered afterwards that the keg was backs upon her and only spoke to jib: Outsiders in possession of our silver marked, "25 Pounds: Stratton Mills, "You don't know anything about chair-

Addison, and I watched the men for ther discussion, he struck some bar- about chargoal burning!" awhile from cover of the cherry gain with them, and agreed to meet them at Mr. Holt's office in the village "Helle!" Addison said. "What are at ten o'clock the following morning > to draw up the papers and to pay the business transaction. The three too "small fry" for his cross-examining lown the lane, and then turned to our morning chores. Addison seemed pre-

Percheron work horses out to the "Recken you don't know the mining water tub I heard him muttering to "That's queer." "What's gueer? "How many kegs of powder do would a barrel of powder kegs weigh

"I don't know," said I. ."Why?" "I don't believe that more than five would go into a barrel," he went an embarrassed. The first time he per-"Maine isn't a mining state," he musingly, "and the whole thing, barrel formed the marriage ceremony it was crates; calf crate; set weigh scales. and twenty pounds apiece, just as murmured a few kindly meant but > I could not account for it. "And that powder was made in New

We bridled the two Percherons. jumped on their bare backs, and rode lame you. But we know that our stairs. The old squire had just come from the bank with the money and COMPREHENSIVE IGNORANCE at on one side of the office table with a package of bills under his hand. Two Irishmen were philosophizing.

Mr. Holt had finished drawing up the Said Pat to Mike. agreement and was reading it aloud "Did yez iver shtop to think that the three miners sat on the other side the other half gets along?" Addison was ahead of me. Dashing "You're right," says Mike, "and nto the room, he clutched the old neither does the other half." squire's arm. "Don't pay over that money, sir!" he cried. "Walt, there's omething wrong about this!" MORTGAGE SALE Holt stopped short and stared at us in amazement. But the miners saved is the trouble of explaining our interruption. For at the word "wrong," Sangster made a grab across the table

Crothers jumped to his feet, knocking over his chair, and made a motion as if to draw a gun. Rand seized his partners by the shoulders and said, "No! no!" in a low voice. Everyone in the room had jumped to his feet. Tightly gripping at the package of money, the old squire looked hard at Sangster and Crothers.

for the money. As the old squire pulled the package of bills away from him.

powder kegs in a barrel don't weigh three hundred and twenty pounds! Rand glanded at his two partners and muttered something about the deal being off; and then, after an angry illence, the three men left the office tour suspicions; but the old squire had already seen enough to comince him that he had been dealing with regues. up there for us all. If you'll give us and that he had been almost swindled. The three sharpers did not return Otter Brook, where it bends southward claims. We don't want to crowd any- As nearly as we could find out, they round a hill. Two years before, a one," he added. "We want to start hannened to be in Portland when the and depart as soon as courtesy per- only a few lofty tree stubs standing squire asked them how much they mine, they had gone up to the place and staked a claim. They had quickly "Well' sir, to pay for the work we've found, however, that the rock was not flat by the brook, and there the belt put into the place and for our expenses rich enough in silver to pay for work-

> A scheme to swindle us had then occurred to them. A confederate in the alluring report that had so nearly beguiled the old squire into buying a worthless mine on his own land.

THE PERSONAL STANDARD

In using yourself as a standard for judging other people, bear in mind the charcoal burners' children. next day, therefore, Addison drove up A lady and her husband, while sailto the new mine by a trail that had ing their boat on one of the small with calf at foot; red cow. 7 years lakes that the Gulf of Mexico furnish- old, with calf at foot; black cow, es to the southern coast of Missis- years old, with calf at foot; black up to look at the tree. The lightning tion.

In a storm to seek shelter on one of the cow, 6 years old, due June 14; black that tern up the ground and the blue
The assay report came back in a storm to seek shelter on one of the cow, 6 years old, due June 14; black cow, 6 years old, due September 20; berry bushes for twenty feet round its few days. It was so good-five hun- many diminutive islands that seem to base; several broken quartz crystais dred dollars in silver to the ton of float on the surface of the water. The 18; Holstein cow, 10 years old, due were scattered about it. The earth had ore—that a wave of mining excitement island offered a dilapidated but to their July-18; registered red roan bull, 23

Addison, who was interested in min- perhaps he would be wise to buy out rain through the open door into the heifer, 5 months old. dark interior, where to their surprise "That looks like silver," he said: Court sat that week, but on appeal they found a number of children also and with the pole of the axe he broke of the three miners, who asked for seeking refuge from the rain. They time to employ counsel and to collect were the children of a neighboring - HARNESS-1 set of heavy team-The rock lay round the house for procedents, our case was put over settlement of charcoal burners. The harness; 1 set of procedings, new; soveral weeks. Addison was con- Since that meant delay and tedious faces bore the livery of their parents' 1 pair of Scotch collars; odd collars, vinced that it contained silver, and the waiting. Mr. Holt advised the old calling; they were black with the dust - GRAIN AND ROOTS-20 bush. O. old squire, too, thunght there might squire to buy the fellows out, and thus of charred wood, their clothes were A. C. No. 21 barley; 100 bush, mixed be silver in it. On one of his trips to to secure full and undisputed title to ragged, their feet were bare, and they grain; 2 bush. buckwheat; 500 bush. Portland, he took it to Professor Henry the property. But in the meantime a were as shy as the squirrels they had of turnips if not previously sold.

This, it should be remembered, was same eight barrels came here last week even plying her with questions, growin the 70's. Since then silver-mining for these same parties. "What's in ing more and more familiar with her. set of Renfrew scales; 1 Stewart thrusting their little blackened faces machine horse clipper; I Tolton pulmany dublous episodes in it, as count- "Silver ore, for assay from the new close to her face, and fingering her per; 1 Chatham fanning mill; stonedress and ornaments with their be- | boat; wheelbarrow; harrel; - cedar All went well and pleasantly, and the etc.

kept very quiet about our discovery, chaps must be doing a lot of blasting coal burning!" they exclaimed in dis- proved joint notes. 5% straight disgust. Never, apparently, in their lives count for cash. know. Perhaps Professor Bartlett had "Well, I guess they are, by the had they met with such dense ignorance. She tried to explain to gain coal burning!"

place. Surely enough, we found three pondered over the question of buying her husband went back to their bont. men hard at work, drilling and blast- out the miners. Four thousand dol- the children followed then, and cried con., West Chinguacousy, at Stop 68, off, the flower stocks will pull out ing the ledge. A tent stood near by, lars was a large sum of money to pay; after them, "Hey, you don't know any- Radial, on Care must be exercised not to do this and a camp kit and tools lay about on but large value seemed at stake. He thing about chargeal burning!" And the ground; on pegs in the old stub went, up to the lot and bad another the last she saw of them, they were fered to take $3,500. After some fur- ision, "Hey! You don't know anything

A youthful barrister looked rather The next morning we had breakfast contemptuously at a simple-looking

Yes, sir; p-please, my sister did was the reply, and the 'village 'idiot"

A CHANCE TO RETALIATE

whom he had just united, the bride carrier; looked at him, blushing but confident, "Thank you," she said, clearly, "It's wan half of the world don't know how he certainly had enough quickness of

Under and by virtue of the Powers of Sale contained in a certain mortgage which will be produced at the time of sale, there will be offered for sale by SATURDAY, THE 28th Day of March, ut the hour of two o'clock in the aftermoon at Lasby's Station Hotel, Acton Ontario, by R. J. Kerr, Auctioneer, the following property lately occupied by CHARLES LAVEN All and singular that cortain percol

"Well, young man, what is it you lying and being in the Township of Esquesing, in the County of Hallon, "Those ore samples-that powder- | hundred (100) acres, be the same more the whole thing!" replied Addison, attil or less, and being composed of that panting from our hard ride. - "Five portion of Lot Twenty-four (24) in the fourth (4th) concession of the said Township, lying north of the Grand Trunk Railway. Excepting that parcel of land containing three-eighths of an acro or less which was conveyed by Instrument number 1820-L. On the said farm there are said to

> is also said to be located on the Toronto and Guelph Radial line. The lands will be sold subject to reserve bld. TERMS OF SALE: Ten per cent. of the purchase money to be paid down at the time of bale and the balance within thirty days. For further particulars and condi-

be erected a good dwelling house with sultable farm buildings. This farm

HARRY W. PAGE. 15 Queen's Park, Toronto, Solicitor for the Mortgagon Dated at Toronto, this twentyseventh day of February, 1925. . . 36-

CLEARING

AUCTION-SALE

long of sale, apply to FARM STOCK, IMPLEMENTS, FUR-NITURE, GRAIN, ROOTS, ETC. The undersigned has received in-

HAROLD SMART to sell by public Pauction at lot 9 w. con. 4, Erin Township, situated on the fourth line, on TUESDAY, MARCH 24 the following:

for I don't know a single thing about Sale to Commence at 1 O'clock-No Reserve as the Farm is Sold TERMS-Veal Calves, Fowl, Grain, $10 cash; over that amount 11 months'

> ROY HINDLEY, Auctioneer Phone 15r6 Erin-R. R. No. 3 Acton

CLEARING CREDIT AUCTION SALE

OF FARM STOCK, IMPLEMENTS, GRAIN AND HAY

The undersigned has received in-M. SMELLIE

THURSDAY, MARCH 19 1 p, m. sharp, the tollowing: HORSES-Bay Mare, aged; Chestnut Gelding; loged. CATTLE-Red cow; upart Durham, in full flow of milk; Holstein cow, in full flow of milk; Holstein cow, brindle cow, bred Nov. 1.

PIGS-3 fat Hogs.

HENS-8 Hens. IMPLEMENTS-1. Wood cultivator, 16 teeth; Planet Jr Harris disc harrow, 14 discs; Massoy-Harris hay rake, 30 teeth; Massey-Harris hay tedder, wide; Cockshutt roller: Cockshutt two-furrow sulky, Massoy-Harris single sulky, No. 21: Peter Hamilton walking ploy, No. 21; Jointer plow, with wheel; No. 5 Wilkinson plow; No. .11 Patterson plow; 12 feet; scuffler; Cyclone seeder; corn planter: lumber wagon and box; truck and shafts; light spring wagon with heavy bobsleighs; set light sleighs: cutter: 2 buggy poles: sot buggy bars, belting, etc. These implements have been kept inside and are all in HARNESS-2 sets heavy harness; oats; quantity hay and straw; about 0 bags Green Mountain potatoes. TERMS-Hogs, hay and grain an over that amount 8 months credit on sold as the farm has been sold. Also at the same time and place the roan cow, 5 years, due time of sale;

roan helfer, 2 years, calf at foot; red heifer, 2 years, calf at foot; roan

helfer, 2 years, due April 1. Terms

BEN PETCH. Auctiones

set single harness.

on these chives cash.

POLITICAL GENEALOGY

The Irishman of whom Senator Hoan used to tell muy not have had the best of reasons for his political faith, but wit to compensate for that deficiency. Some Republican political workers were trying to get him to-vote their ticket, but he persistently refused on the grounds that he was a Democrat "But why are you a Democrat?" they asked.

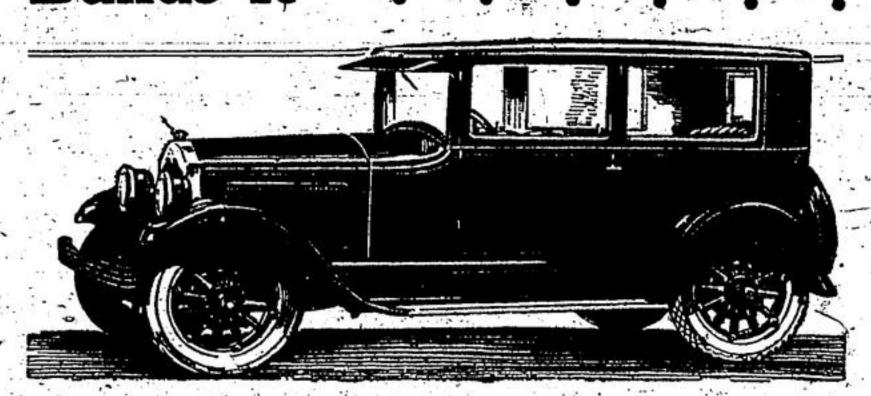

"Well, me father was a Dimocrat. and me grandfather was a Dimocrat-" "But what difference does that make to you? Suppose your father was a thief, and your grandfather was in thief? What would you be, then?" The Irishman's eyes twinkled. do be thinking I'd be a Raypooblican.

The Delicious Flavor

drawn from the leaves of GREEN TEA has won it millions of users. Finer than any Japan, Gunpowder or Young Hyson. Ask for SALADA.

The Success of the Coach as McLAUGHLIN-BUICK Builds It

VERYONE who has seen the Coach as McLaughlin-Buick builds it knows why this Coach has received such sweeping public approval.

McLaughlin-Buick's high closed-car standards. Fisher body.

Graceful lines. Two wide doors enable rear seat passengers to enter or leave either door with-

The McLaughlin-Buick Coach is a real closed car-built to out disturbing people in front seats. DUCO finish. Different colors for each of two Coach

Every detail of McLaughlin-Buick power, comfort, dependability and economy-is present in both Master Six and Special Six Coach models. Yet the prices are lower than you'd expect to pay for open cars of such quality.

S·V. KING

Georgetown

Ontario

Ask about the GMAC Plan of Deferred Payments

PRINTING

QUALITY PAYS HANDSOMELY

It is an old saying, but a true one, "that the quality will be remembered long after the price is forgotten." Our printing is readable, well-balanced, correctly displayed, and has a pleasing touch of individuality that will reflect credit upon your business. MAKE US PROVE IT.

Acton Free Press

"Attractive Printing—Profitable Advertising"