DON'T WORRY DEAR

Don't worry, dear; the bleakest years That clog-the forward view. Each thins to nothing when it nears, And we may saunter through. The dirkest moment never comes, only looms before:-The loss of hope is what benumbs:

Not trouble at the door. .. Don't worry, dear; the clouds are black But with them comes the rain. And stifled souls that parch and crack May thrill with sap again. The burden bear as best we can, And there'll be none to bear; lard work has never killed a man. But worry did its share.

Don't worry; dear; don't blanch, don't

But dare the years to come; Nor give the enemy the field Because he beats his drum. These little woes that hover-near Are nothing; though they gall: We know that life is love, my dear, And life and love are all,
