They have taken everything out of the old house, and the curtains from the windows.

25 YEAR-OLD ACTON BOY WILL WRITE SOME RECOLLECTIONS

The editor has handed me the following interesting epistle, dated
"Acton, Toronto, March 30, 1926."

the conditions of the trail would allow.
Ten men were down with the grip, and two had pneumonia.

ACTON'S DOCTORS OF TO-DAY

I remarked in this column several weeks ago that Acton had been favored throughout all these years with great and good doctors.

THE OLD MAN

Dear Sir:
Will you kindly excuse my breaking into your quiet in this abrupt way.

THE PROFESSOR'S WAGGLES

The experience known as "popping the question" is the bugbear of every man, however confident of his character or "rust" of speech.

NO EYE FOR COLOR

Apropos of the amusing comments on academic costume, that so often reveal popular ignorance of the symbolism of colors, I am glad to contribute to the story, told by a contributor to the Liverpool Free Press.

DELATED "LAST MOMENTS"

In the Battle of Friedland, on June 14, 1807, there was young Lieutenant in Napoleon's army named Schramm.

SAVING A CITY

It was in the year 1885, after a battle in the Spanish revolution of that year, and the streets of Madrid were filled with angry crowds that were bent on destroying everything and everyone.

MIDGET AND THE BIBLE

My mother had a beautiful cat named "Midget." Midget was not only fastidious when it came to eating, but would sleep nowhere but on the family bible.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH

Notice is hereby given that all residents of Acton are required forthwith to clean their yards, driveways, porches, steps, water closets, outbuildings, and all other places, and remove therefrom all dirt, manure, and other substances which may endanger the public health.

PROFITS IN FLAX

In the year 1924, the flax division of the Experimental Farm, Ottawa, kept records of the cost of producing flax fibre in Western Ontario, and at Kentville, Nova Scotia.

A "SWAPPING" PARTY

The success of the party depends on how much fun and ingenuity the persons who attend it have. If they have, chosen articles that when displayed, are sure to cause merriment, and have disguised them by numerous wrappings, the result will be a lively evening.

What is Advertising?
In plain, every day English, it's telling the other fellow what you want him to know. Wouldn't you like the thousands of people within the Acton trading district to know about the goods you have in your store? If they knew how suitable they were for their individual needs, wouldn't you stand a good chance to sell them?
No paper covers this field so thoroughly as The Acton Free Press. Through its columns you can tell these people about the goods nearly as well as if they were in your store. Put your story in words and we will present it in type to thousands of readers within this trading district.
