When you read the hometown paper, And you're miles away from home. There's a thrill that comes to no one But the folks compelled to roam; For the ads looks so familiar And the names art all so sweet That your fancy goes a-roaming Down a sunny hometown street.

When you read the hometown par In a gloomy hotel room. There's a something tugs your spirit; There's a lifting of the gloom; For across the miles alluring Is a picture looking grand And your folks come out to meet you

From the pages in your hand .-When you read the hometown paper In a train that's homeward bound There's a keener satisfaction Than in any you have found, And somehow while you are reading You've a heart as light as foam. For to read the hometown paper Brings you mighty close to home!

THE GRADES OF CANADIAN EGGS

The value of egg. grading will not table have learned to distinguish be- them in the spring for maple sugar, to my relief, Addison now backed off tween the different grades, which are it shortened the lives of trees, he said, a bit; as if he had made his best bid "Seconds." Until one has learned to trees. the highest type of egg and of getting dividing the property. The case went offer several times. We thought that it to market at once. Eggs of this to court and stayed there for five Haines would get it; but Lurvey said, grade are the largest, requiring to be years. the "Specials," the standard being 24 taxes. ounces to the dozen. "Firsts" come The place was about a mile and a going to get out of this?" within the culinary class, still sound in Murch, wrote to one of the Cranston handed him $100. quality but not so fresh as firsts.

During a discussion of these grades maples in the wood lot at the foot of "to bind my bid and the balance to- The lecture was illustrated with lanat a session of the Agriculture Com- the ledge and to make maple sugar, morrow." mittee of the House of Commons, it there. was brought out by an officer of the They tapped two hundred trees, three smiled, but accepted it. I remembered him when he was of Department of Agriculture, that the spiles to the tree, and had a great run then that Addisn had goe to the village Queen of Roumania. grocers who are wide awake to the ad- of sap. Addison and I went over one the day before, and guessed that he vantages of advertising their best afternoon to see them "boil down," had drawn his savings from the bank, erine-road, who has been missing since ticular attraction. grades of eggs are rapidly developing They had built an arch of stone for But I did not see how he could raise the 12 inst., has Acton friends, and it their trade in this commodity.- Issued their kettles up near the foot of the $1,950 by the next day. All the way is possible that she may have wanderby the Director of Publicity, Dominion great ledge, and had a cosy little shed home I wanted to ask him what he ed in this direction. Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

THE MODERN SKIRT

it by the form it takes in its most | Several times I thought Addison was to the auction. The first thing he did indiscreet and extreme manifestations? shirking. I noticed that at nearly was to ask us whether the farm had Compare it with the skirts of earlier every tree he stopped, put down his been sold, and how much it had sold fashions,-the hoop-skirt,-the elabor- sap pails, picked up a handful of the for. ate draperies that accompanied the auger chips that lay in the snow at the "Two thousand and fifty," said bustle, the full skirt that was stiffened foot of the trees, and stood there turn- with a glance at Addison. into enormous size by crinoline and ing them over with his fingers. The horschair linings, the plaited skirt with boys had used an inch and a half yards and years of excess material, nuger, for in those days people thought the trailing skirt that gathered dust that the bigger, the auger hole and help him out I said jocosely, "Oh, it and filth from the street. In any such the deeper they bored, the more sap was bought by a young fellow there." comparison the modern skirt is a tri- would flow. umph of common sense, comfort, simplicity, neathers and health.

skirt that clears the ground by two He grinned, but said nothing. Afteror three inches, and contains only half ward I saw him slyly slipping a hand. their tollet-no bustle, no puffed-up he had carried away a pocketful of more by to-morrow noon." sleeves, no ruff, no pompadour. With auger chips. the lighter skirt has come also the He looked at me shrewdly, but be time. The old squire, grandmother, is a great gain. The whole tendency of the change is pick them up. away from the distorted and the artiand beauty of the Greek costume-a these are clever, and punchy. A sarcastic railroad man suggests gineer offers this one: "Try running of auger chips?"

into one of our locomotives. They "Stop! and let the train go by, Hardly takes a minute:

Your car starts out again intact, And better still-you're in it." THE MAN'S THE GOLD FOR A'

Hearing a house carpenter spoken of and I went with him. delicately for explanations. .

furniture remover, "we calls every man steps, and read the published notice last spring. I wrote to Jones & Adams tuallers' and Beersellers' Trade Prothe continent—the Buffalo herd at owner of Lurvey's Lumber Mills, start- The next day the old squire accom-Wainwright; Jasper National Park; ed the bidding by offering $1,000. Mount Robson, with its unsurpassed "One thousand dollars," repeated the and endorsed his note. The bank at the present stage in the course of mountain scenery; Mount Robson, the auctioneer. "I am offered one thousand once lent Addison the money necessary highest peak in the Canadian Rockies; dollars. Of course that isn't what this to pay for the farm. the totem poles of Kitwanga and the farm is worth. Only one thousand: No one learned what Addison's real supplied the public with information mystic beauty of the Skoena River. [Who offers more?" fers from train to the boat for the Haines, who had arrived from the we cut the largor part of the maple its benefit that has ever been launched dents of Acton are required forthwith glorious water trip of 750 miles through southern part of the township while trees in the wood lot and sayed them in this neighborhood. The joint agree- to clean their cellars, drains, yards, the sheltered Scenic Beas of the North the deed was being read.

LOW-COST TRIP TO PACIFIC

days will be spent touring Yellowstone up nearer the stops, but I was amazed. Out of the three hundred or more National Park by motor, with a trip to hear him call out, "Beventeen fifty!" sugar maples that we cut in that lot to Balt Lake City and three days at "Ad," I whispered. "What if Cole eighty-nine proved to be bird's-eye, Booky Mountain National Park, Col. knocks it off to you! You have only from which we realized well over

The tour leaves Toronto July 9, attention to me, but watched the more than right that $3,000 of it should and you cannot afford to miss it. Full auctioneer closely. The bihers, too, go to Addison. information, fares, etc., can be secured seemed surprised at .. Addison's . bid. with illustrated booklet from A. El Lurvey turned and looked at him very Bryson, 44 Silverthorn Ave., Toronto; sharply, I suppose he thought that For years Mother Graves Worm Ex-Martin Kerr, 4 Beulah Ave., Hamilton, Addison was bidding for the old terminator has ranked as a reliable Clear, Bright and Beautiful

The Bree Press' Shart Story

A Pocketful of Auger Chips

OR fifty years Grandsir Crans--ton had lavished his love and care on the old Cranston farm. He had been born there, and ne had lived and worked there all his life. Year by year he had cleared the fields of stone and fenced them with walls. The farm buildings looked neat and well cared for. The sixty-acre wood lot that stretched from the fields up to the foot of Hedgehog Ledge had been cleaned and cleared of unitergrowth until you could drive a team the other bidders. com one end of it to the other, among old sugar maples and yellow birches. That wood lot, indeed, had been the old farmer's special pride. He loved have reached the limit of its possibilit those big, old-grown maples, loved and that Haines also wanted it. The ties until the buyers for the family them so well that he would not tap auctioneer glanced toward us. Much "Extras," "First," and to tap them, particularly large, old and was going away; but to my con-

ask for "Specials" when the finest It was therefore very distressing to the gate and cried, "Nineteen fitty!" quality of new laid eggs is desired he see how, after Grandsir Cranston died, "Are you crasy?" I whispered, and will have no assurance of getting that | the farm was allowed to run down and | tried to get him to-leave. He backed quality of freshness and delicacy of go to ruin. His wife had died years up against the gatepost, however, flavor so desirable in a boiling age. before; they had no children; and the watching the auctioneer. Lurvey look-This, which is the highest of the stan- only relatives were a nephew and a ed suspicious and disgruntled, but after dard grades, is a product largely of brother in Portland, and a neice in a pause, said in a low voice, "Ninethe specialist poultryman who ob- Bangor. Cranston had left no will, teen seventy-five." Haines raised it to a successful social and whist drive serves every condition for producing The three heirs could not agree about $2,000, and the auctioneer repeated that to all but the most exacting, is a first- the buildings and opened some un- Lurvey cast an angry look at signtly gaps in the hitherto tidy stone Haines turned away, and Cole, after service of God, he said, and that serfor the breakfast table and is obtain- them; and the fifth year after the fifty to that young man by the gate-if form a great part of it. able at practically all seasons of the farmer's death the place was adver- he has got the money to pay for it!"

heirs, and got permission to tap the "I'll pay a hundred down," he said, be said in defense of the light, close- more of soft snow on the ground, and The family were at supper when we fitting modern skirt? Why view it there was as many as three hundred went in. The old squire was back with hostile eyes merely because it is brimming bucketfulls that had to be from Portland; grandmother and the "something different?" Why judge carried to the sap holders in the shed. girls had told him that we had gone

"Don't hurry, Ad.," I said, smiling, as we passed each other. "The snow's By the "modern skirt" is meant the soft! Palls of sap are heavy."

weight to fall on the shoulders. That ment, he asked me whether I thought in much concern. that Ben or Willis had seen him tendency not imitative but adaptive. forgotten Ad's pocketful of auger cent if-if," he hesitated and reddened mend it. It is in the abuse of the new tax collector had put in the county on the note with me, sir." and Thodors read the notice aloud at pause, "what led you into this? You ing to break into the rostaurant. Safety slogans as a rule are solemn, supper. The announcement briefly des- must tell me before we go farther." Of the thirteen candidates nomindepressing and terrifying, but occa- cribed the farm property, and among "It was something I noticed over ated for the seven Action by advocates of caution. Some of cords of rock-maple wood ready to cut haven't said anything about it so far; to careless motorists: "Better stop a big ledge, where Willis and Ben made brought down a handful of those augor Not to be outdone, a locamotive en- ever did you do with that pocketful received some months before. He then seem disturbed, but said nothing. The a glance at them, put on his reading -A hotel manager is credited with this following forenoon, when he and I glasses. Small and dry as the chips were making a hot-bed for early gar- had become, we could still see what den vegetables, he remarked that he looked like tiny bubbles and pits in meant to go to the auction sale.

-It was not the kind of an auction that draws a crowd of people; there asked, taking up a chip in his fingers. sold, and that was an expensive one. than one tree of it?" Not more than twenty persons came . "More than forty, sir, that I saw District War Pensions Committee in to it-mostly prosperous farmers or myself, and I've no doubt there are Class distributions in England are lumbermen, who intended to buy the others, Addison replied. supposed to be clearly defined, but a place as a speculation if it should go ."Ah!" the old squire exclaimed, with don' Globe shows a pleasing variety there; he had gone to Portland the his face. "I see!"

mover, a county / magnate sought and two of the selectmen of the town, values. besides Cole, the auctioneer. At four "Yes," said Addison. "I've planned "Lor' bless yer, sir," answered the o'clock Hilburn stood on the house to get hold of that wood lot ever since Ealing and Brentford Licensed Vicgentleman as pays twenty shillings of the sale and the court warrant for to see what they would give for clear it. The town, he said, would deduct bird's eye maple lumber, for furniture born Restaurant, on Tuesday week, $114—the amount of unpaid taxes— and room finish, and in this letter they place would be sold intact to the high- doubt we can get a hundred thousand attendance and a gratifying list o A captivating four-week tour of The auctioneer then mounted the "If Lurvey had known that," said I. Western Canada and the Pacific Coast. steps, read the Cranston warranty deed "he wouldn't have stopped bidding at with a trip through the United States of the farm, as copied from the county two thousand!" on the return journey, is being planned records describing the premises, lines "You may be sure he wouldn't," the This branch caters for girls suffering for Canadian teachers and their friends and corners. "A fine piece of pro- old squire said with a smile, perty," he added. "How much am I Those who take advantage of this offered for it?" trip will see the greatest scenery on After a pause, Zachary Lurvey, the set that much for the farm."

'At Prince Rupert the party trans- "Fifteen hundred," said a man named been until the following winter, when one of the most beneficent projects for Pacific Coast to Vancouver, Victoria "Sixteen," said another; and pres- Afterwards we kiln-dried the plank, proposed purchase of Gunnersby Park, ently another said, "Seventeen!" and shipped it to the furniture com-On the return trip five wonderful I noticed that Addison was edging pany.

Then its Denver, Clear Crack $100 in the sayings bank. You could $7,000; We also got $600 for firewood; Canyon, Idaho Springs and Lookout not pay for it." and two years later we sold the old Mountain before heading for Chicago I thought he had made the bid for farm for $1,500, making in all a handfun, or to show off. Addison paid no some profit. It seemed to all of up no

After a few moments Lurvey called Eighteen hundred!"

"Eighteen fifty," said Addison; and now I grow uneasy for him in good carnest. "You had better stop that," I whis pered. "They'll get it off on to you, if you don't take care." And I pulled his sleeve impatiently. Wills was grinning broadly; he also thought that Addison was bluffing the three hundred or more immense dred," and Lurvey at once cried, "Nineteen hundred and twenty-five!" It was not apparent that Lurvey meant to get the farm if he could sternation he turned when he neared

"Two thousand twenty-five." and the year. It might weigh a little less than tised for sale at auction for delinquent . "You've done it now, Ad!" I ex- issued under the Acton Hospital claimed in distress: "How are you thanksgiving for health scheme. into a class of smaller eggs being 221/2 half east of our old farm in Maine; I was frightened for him; I did not ounces to the dozen, and while still and in March of the fourth years after know what the consequences of his Police Court on Wednesday for using good they lack the flavor and texture Grandsir Cranston died, two young prank would be. To my surprise and of the higher grades. "Seconds" come neighbors of ours, Willis and Ben relief, Addison went to Hilburn and

> The two selectmen and Hilburn there. Sap was running well that day; planned to do. However, I did not like A woman who, having been reduced

"That's all it's worth," the old squire said. "Who-bought it?" Addison looked embarrassed; and "What was his name?" the old squire asked in surprise. "He spells it A-d-d-1-s-o-n," said I. There was a sudden pause round the table.

of the material as its predecessors. . ful of those chips into his pocket, thought the best thing was for Ad to erous giving of members and friends. The new fashion does not distort the What he wanted them for I could not tell the old squire at once. "He paid found illustration at a sale of work figure. At the present time, women imagine; and later, after sunset, as $100 of it down, and he has to get for the funds held in the church school wear no absurd hump in any part of we were going home, I asked him why round with nineteen hundred and fifty room on Saturday afternoon and Mon-Food was quite forgotten by this one-piece dress, which allows all the would not reply. Then, after a mo- and the girls were looking at Addison various phrases of cruelty to English the old squire said, gravely, "What if they did?" I asked. But "Maybe I have," Addison admitted. It is now ready for submission to the test of her nerves. ficial, toward the freedom, simplicity, I could get nothing further from him. "But the bank has promised to lend House of Lords. Almost a year passed, and I had me the money to-morrow at seven per ionally a lighter vein is introduced other values mentioned five hundred there in the wood lot a year ago. I but I think I am right." "That's the old sugar lot up by the He went upstalrs to his trunk and syrap last spring," said L "Ad, what chips, and also a letter that lie had spread them out on the table by the Addison glanced at me queerly. He old squire's plate, and the latter, after "Bird's-eye, isn't it?" the old squire was only one piece of property to be "Bird's-eye maple. Was there more Mattrock-lane, Ealing, to be a member nice story which comes from the Lon- at a low price. The old squire was not a look of understanding kindling in of answer to the question, "What is day before; but Addison went over, the winters we did a great deal of a gentleman?" boys had naturally picked up much as a gentleman by a furniture re- Hilburn, the tax collector, was there, knowledge about lumber and lumber Churchfield-road, the Rev. A. C. Ful-from the sum paid for the farm. The offer $90 per thousand. I haven't a feet of bird's-eye out of that lot."

> Addison, "they'll be well satisfied to is carried on by means of letters and panied Addison to the savings bank motive in hidding for the farm had concerning the origin and progress of into three-inch plank at our own mill.

spulre; but I knew that the old squire worm preparation and it always main-

NEWS FROM THE ACTON OVER-

tems, which our Readers Will preciate from Acton, England sox. England of April lat: Acton Brotherhood meeting on Bunday, when an address was given by the best Chinese porcellin. I was Ald, N. W. Hubbard, J. P., on "Re Igion and Berylee." For assaulting Richard J. Coleman of Petersfield -road, Acton, John Coney, of Acton, was fined 20s, and costs at Acton Police Court on Wed-A G. W. R. motor-van was descending Acton Hill on Wednesday aftertoon when its front off-side wheel came off just outside the Police Hin-

Co., left estate of the grous value of the price of the vase.

The dedication fostival of the Acton Parish Church took place on Wednes-Haines then said, "Nineteen hun- day. Holy Communion was celebrated at 7, 8 and 11 a. m., there heing a large number of communicants at each ser-The Bishop of Kensington will be > Acton, on Sunday morning. Lady Brittuin lins been made a member of the executive committee of the Society of Welsh Musicians. On Wednesday a ladies' night was held at the Acton Priory Constitutional dred for it." Club, and to entertain the ladies a Bohemian concert, of which Mr. D. F. Rice was the director, took place. Under the auspices of the Acton branch of the Junior Imperial League stitutional Club on Thursday evening On Wednesday evening the last of a 25 ounces to the dozen and of uniform . Meanwhile the farm was rented auctioneer began calling, "Going-go- series of talks to lay-folk was given him primary duty of Christians was the He intended to show them that both delicacy of flavor that goes with ex- walls. The taxes went unpaid; none waiting for further bids, cried, "Go- vice was most imperfectly performed there was no collusion between us. treme freshness. This is a popular egg of the heirs would pay a cent toward ing going gone at two thousand and if the work of soul-saving did not Such is the attitude of a Chinese mer-

Over 1.300 - hoxes have now been Elizabeth Thomas, of Essex Park obscene language. Sir Harry Brittain gave a lecture on Roumania at the Ladies' Carlton tern slides from photographs taken by and toward sunset, since they had no to question him before Willis and two to a state of beggary in Poland, came inducements to self-respect were not team, we helped them to gather the other boys who were with us. All the to England and found her husband apparent to the ordinary eye. He ap-Is there not perhaps something to easy task, for there were two feet or cited.

Miss Emily Rosina Scotcher, Cath-

day's run in palls by stand. It was no way home Addison seemed rather ex- living with another woman in Acton, pealed to the manager. By what took proceedings against him at the method did he fan the fires of self-Marylebone Police Court for desertion, respect in his guests? Charles Knight, of Golden-manor, Hanwell, was among the number of his deak. motorists who were summoried to the Acton Police Court on Wednesday for exceeding the speed limit. His speed was stated to have been thirty-

> The wives and children of the Acton branch of the London United Tramways Clubs and Institutes were the shock of surprise. The other day a fathers at a delightful tea and enterthe Acton depot on Friday evening. The useful and religious social work

South Acton by the United Methodist "Yes," I continued, laughing, for I Church and what it owes to the gonday evening. Sir Harry Brittain's Bill for the pro tection of British birds, dealing with carried on in the crowded area o singing birds, passed through the re-"Haven't you been rather rash?" port and third-reading stage in the the historians do not relate. But such House of Commons on Monday night a meeting must have been rather a How by means of a finger-print As such, the change has much to com- chips; when we saw the notice that the visibly, "If you will put your name the same man had broken into Gun; fashions, not in the use of them, that paper announcing the sale at public The old squire's face was a study, casions, was explained at Action Police auctin of the Cranston farm on the He looked surprised, grave, and stern; Court on Wednesday, when John J. following Thursday, for delinquent but his kind old heart stood the test. Cleves (24), labourer, of no fixed abode, taxes. The paper had come that night, "My son," he said, after a short was charged on remaind with attempt-

An engagement is announced and Mrs. H. M. Middleton, Penylan, Cardiff. and Marjorie Mary, only

The Minister of Pensions has appointed Miss M. E. Hutchings, 40 of the Enling, Acton, Uxbridge and place of Lady Langford (resigned). The funeral of Mr. E. Eydmann, a former captain of the Acton Fire Brigade, took place on Wednesday afternoon. The first part of the service was conducted in the Actor Parish Church, the family grace in the Old Cemetery, cher- Mederatt officiating. The annual dinner and dance of the tection Society was held at the Holunder the presidency of Col. W. Grant Morden, M. P., and there was a record A branch of the Girl Guides movement that has made great progress lately is that of the "Post" Guides, from any kind of physical disability, "As for the quarreling heirs," said and the training as the name implies, frequent personal visits. Acton is not

> So far us it is possible to do so at somewhat delicate negotiations, the Ealing and Acton Town Councils have ment statement with regard to the plg styes, water closets, outbuildings, published in this paper last week, put concisely the ohief reasons that actuate two local authorities in their gadeavour to acquire a noble heritage for the inhabitants of this district in par-

GIVING A FRIEND "FACE"

An interesting story that Hustrates the loyalty of the Chinese in friendship is told by Mr. Isane Taylor Hoadland in "Home Life in China." Mr. The following was gleaned from Burt, a former president of the Union he Acton Express, of Acton Middle-, Pacific Railroad, was staying with Major Conger, the American minister There was a good gathering at the in Peking, says Mr. Headland, and he wanted-to get some choice pieces, of inked whether I could go with Mr. Hurt, which I was glad to do. In.one of the shops we found a large and very fine Yung Cheng vane. "Ask him how much he wants for it," said Mr. Burt. I did so, and th man abswered "Three hundred fifty dollars." "I think I shall buy it," said Mr Burt. "but siot to-day." I was so busy with my work the next morning that I could not go shopplag, and no while Mr. Burt and The late Mr. J. Hooley, of Alfred- friend who could talk Chinese were roud, Acton, late head surveyor of the wandering along the street, they drop-London and North-Western Rallway ped into the shop again and inquired "Four hundred dollars," said th "But," said Mry Burt, "he told Mr.

Helidland yesterday that it was three hundred and fifty dollars," "Four hundred dollars," repeated When I called on Mr. Burt that the preacher at St. Martin's, West afternoon he said to me: "How much did that man want for that Yung Cheng vase?" "Three hundred and fifty dollars."

> "Well, we were down there this morning, and he asked us four hun-"We'll inquire again this afternoon, unid.

answered.

When we got to the shop I said to took place at the Acton Priory Con- ing."

do that?" "To give you face," he answered,

The case with which corn and warts Kinh, as the latter handed a bulky can be removed by Holloway's Corn and much-sealed missive to him. Remover is its strongest recommendation. It seldom fails. THE PRIDE OF THE POOR

At the present stage of sociology no onlooker need doubt this story of the was a writin of it. I tole him he was 'might have beens" of a great city: So many men to whom the city missionary had given money for a night's on de pen, lak a load of hay. I'll take lodging had expressed a preference for it back, sah, an' make him write wid a certain East Side lodging-house that a pencil. I ain't gwine spen' no mo' he wondered what constituted its par- two centses jes' fer his pigheadedness."

"It makes us feel self-respecting." the men said, when questioned. So far as the missionary could see, it was a typical lodging-house, whose . The manager pointed to a sign above

"Gentlemen are requested to leave their valuables with the clerk."

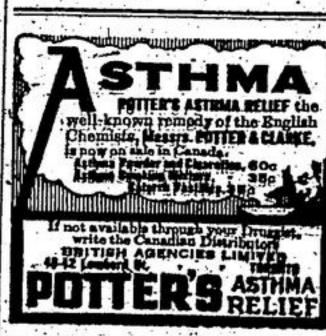

WHAT SHE MUST HAVE THOUGHT

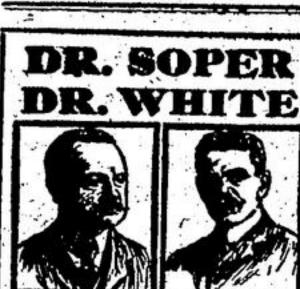

Royal people often have to do things like ordinary folk, but when they do the ordinary folk always get a little guests of their own husbands and telegraph clerk got one of these shocks when a motor car stopped outside the tainment held in the recreation hall of village post office in which she worked and a good-looking young man alight-

"Where are your telegraph forms?" asked the young man as he entered. The girl told him. He wrote a message, and when he had slipped it across the counter she read: "Arrivo Buckingham Palace to-night, In the middle of the shock, Prince George spoke again. "I say!" he said. "Could you give me a match?" "Oh, yes! What kind?" she replied.

2 to 6 p.m. Bondays, 10 a.m. to 1 p DRS. SOPER & WHITE Toronte Street, Toronte, Ont.

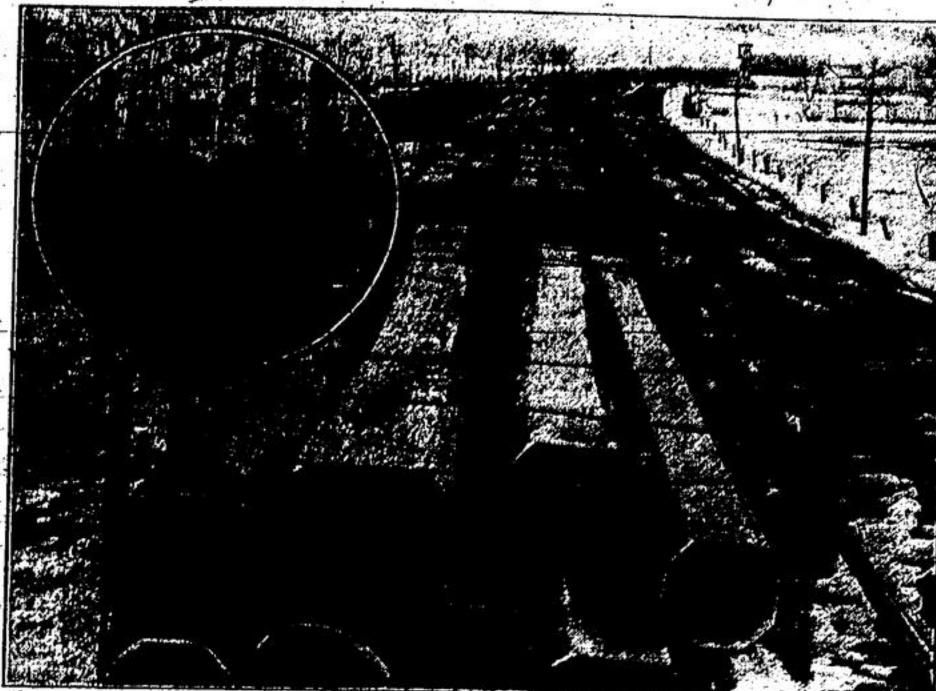

The Public Health

CITIZENS ARE REQUESTED TO

HEALTH ACT commence a general inspection; and tiquiar and the people of London in further take notice that the section of the Public Health Act prohibiting the keeping of hogs between the 15th of May and the 15th of November, except in pens at least 70 feet from any dwelling house, and 50 feet from any street or lane, with floors kept clear from all standing water and regularly eleansed, will be strictly enforced.

All citizens are samestly requested to keep their promises constantly clear GEORGE BARBER Reove of the Munfcipality

ONTARIO WHITE PINE FOR BRITAIN'S WARSHIPS

The photograph shows one of four | instances the timber was three feet in the timber, and in spite of the fact, the dealer, "How much is this vase?" trainloads of virgin white pine logs cut diameter and in no case was it less that he is in his minety-minth year, he from the Egan limits in Preston and than two feet through. The shipmer: exhibited a lively interest in the ship-"He told us four hundred this morn- Clancy Townships in the Algonquin required 120 flat cars and aggregated ment and walked almost the full length Park District, which were recently sent | 120,000 feet of timber. I said to the dealer, "Why did you via the Canadian National Railways to Inset are seen from left to right the was Mr. Booth's foresight which preof the train during his inspection. It Quebec for shipment to England on the following members of the J. R. Booth served for his company such remarkorder of the British Admiralty. The Company: C. Jackson Booth; Vice- able stands of timber as that from The dealer thought they suspected timber was hand hewn by the J. R. President; J. R. Booth, President and which this virgin white pine was cut. size. Eggs of the "Specials" grade first to one and then to another ten- ing for two thousand twenty-five!" at St. Thomas's Church, Actor Vale, that I was getting a commission on Booth Company of Ottawa and it is J. Fred Booth, Managing Director, Mr. Experts agree that it is the firest white are not on the market at all-seasons ant, who cropped the fields, let weeds when Addison shouted, Two thousand by Mr. C. W. Randall, the subject the vase, and that they might be able the fields, let weeds when Addison shouted, Two thousand by Mr. C. W. Randall, the subject the vase, and that they might be able the fields, let weeds when Addison shouted, Two thousand by Mr. C. W. Randall, the subject the vase, and that they might be able to fine left in Canada. being, "Bringing Souls to Christ." The to buy it cheaper if they were alone, in the memory of lumbermen. In some king, visited the rallway yards to see

BORE ON TOO HEAVILY "This won't go for only one stamp," said the village postmaster to old Mr.

"Whuf for? What's de maddah' wid " Too heavy," replied the postmaster, balancing it on his hand. writin' too, heavy a han', but he kep, on a-bearin' down an' a-bearin' down

65 Yonge St., Toronto

Order from your grocer his best tea and he'll usually send "Red Rose."

RED ROSE TEA is good tea

The same good tea for 30 years. Try it!

723 Georgia St. West, Vancouver

EUROPE

CEE Europe the best way. Use the organized methods of travel and sightseeing which we have devised and which have proved their value for almost a century. Our conveniently located offices are at your service with every possible for the Holy Year 1925 Departure from Montreal, May 30th, by the White Star-Dominion Line Steamship "Megantic," attending the ceremonies for the Beatification of the Jesuit Martyrs. Departure from Montreal, June 3rd, by the Canadian Pacific Steamship "Minnedosa," under the Spiritual Direction of His Lordship, the Rt. Rev. M. F. Fallon, D.D., Bishop of

STEAMSHIP TICKETS BY ALL LINES

CANADIAN PILGRIMAGE TOURS TO ROME

THOS. COOK & SON, 526 St. Catherine St. West, Montreal

CO far only one 4-wheel brake device has been perfected to release the outside front wheel when turning corners. Today thousands of owners of 4-wheel brake McLaughlin-Buicksknow the supreme ease and safety of this McLaughlin-

> -first with the latest and safest

> > S. V. KING

Buick feature.

Otarion

McLaughlin-Buick

VALVE-IN-HEAD MOTOR CARS