

THE HOME PAPER

An hour a week I give to memory. That when the old home paper comes to me...

"BLUE SKY"

"I fear I do not understand you." She was the dearest, loveliest little lady possible and a really looking...

"Not myself, but my half-cousin and guardian," replied Miss Wayne. "There is a man named Goran who has visited our home frequently for several months..."

"My dear young lady," exclaimed Thorne in amazement. "I cannot understand how you can so unqualifiedly trust me, a stranger..."

"You are not a stranger," she gently corrected. "Among some papers of my father I saw a note where you were named as Mr. Gregory Thorne..."

"I thank you," bowed the young man, greatly moved. "I will act in your behalf as though you were an old friend..."

"That's all past, Uncle Robert," she said brightly. "Do you know where you are? In the sunny south, right on the ocean and this pretty bungalow is yours..."

"An Irishman was shooting ducks with a friend who noticed that although Mike often aimed his gun at the flying birds, he never shot it off..."

THE OLD MAN

THE RETURN

Upon the village, as he passed The spell of August lay; He walked as if he were again A long-familiar way...

He saw the old house through the trees That crowned the little hill. The hush of twilight held the world...

THE NEW ACTON OLD BOY "I'm," the new writer for this column, made a very good beginning last week. It is quite clear that he is in possession of anecdotal facts...

THE OLD MAN "I'm," the new writer for this column, made a very good beginning last week. It is quite clear that he is in possession of anecdotal facts...

THE BACK-BONE OF THE BURG "Now we have, in a casual way, covered some of the bounds of the village, and being a somewhat long way, perhaps some kind of would-for you a drink (feeling you are thirsty) of 4-6 beer..."

THE OLD MAN "I'm," the new writer for this column, made a very good beginning last week. It is quite clear that he is in possession of anecdotal facts...

nection with another phase of our folk. Yours truly, "HOLA"

NEWS FROM THE OLDER ACTON

Brief items of interest showing life in similar in the Old and the New.

The following interesting items of local news appeared in the Gazette and Express of Acton, England.

For Acton, G. H. Elliot, All Saints' Church, South Acton, will conduct an hour's devotion at St. Dunstan's, East Acton.

The thrilling film version of Sabatini's "The Captain" is attracting record crowds at the Globe Cinema, Acton.

The death occurred at a nursing home near Canterbury of Mrs. Sarah Johnson, nee Harvey, aged 71, widow of the late Mr. John W. Harvey...

The Early Closing Association, continuing its two years' propaganda work to establish a six months' period for summer-time operation, is working in co-operation with Col. Lambert Ward...

The social side of Freemasonry was well illustrated on Monday night when a company of upwards of 350 was present at the annual ball given by the Grand Lodge of the Province of Ontario...

THE BUSINESS MAN OF THE FAMILY A little story told by Leo Annals shows that Miss Maudie Strauss, the wife of Richard Strauss, the composer, was a woman with a keen business sense...

HOW-OW-BELLS ARE MADE Cow-bells that chime on the Western plains, sheep-bells that tinkle on the big Canadian sheep-ranches, bells for grazing horses and mules, and, according to popular mechanics, all kinds of bells for the farm and ranch are made in one factory, which stands on a hillside street in a little town in Connecticut.

THE WAY TO BOSTON Earlier in the day he had been "kicked" out of Boston, he was now only eleven miles away. The condition of his pocket was such that there was no way for him to reach the city without further wear on his shoes.

BREAKING THE NEWS When, according to answers, Pat Hoogan burst into the house, crying "Mrs. Flannigan, your man, Mike, has just fell off the scaffolding and killed himself, head!" Mrs. Flannigan collapsed into a chair.

THE LUCKY HORSESHOE PUZZLE EVERY CORRECT ANSWER RECEIVES A REWARD

SOLVE THE PUZZLE It can be done and someone is going to win a magnificent prize. Piano, Phonograph or other prize, absolutely without cost of any kind.

1st Prize $475.00 Piano Walnut or Mahogany Finish 2nd Prize $150.00 PHONOGRAPH 3rd Prize $150.00 Credit Voucher Additional Prizes $125.00 Credit Vouchers

INSTRUCTIONS Write your name carefully and plainly. To the best, neatest, most original, correct answer will be given one $475.00 Piano answer will be given a $150.00 Phonograph. To the next best will be given a $150.00 Purchasing Voucher, acceptable on any Piano or Player Piano shown.

THE BUSINESS MAN OF THE FAMILY (continued) One day a young musician called on Strauss, and asked permission to play for him a variety of the famous compositions of "Salomo". Strauss granted the request. When the young man had finished, Strauss was enthusiastic in his approval. "Very well done!" he cried. "It will be a success, a great success, I congratulate you."

HOW-OW-BELLS ARE MADE (continued) The metal for the bells is received at the factory in large flat sheets of thin iron, direct from the rolling mill and is passed under a steam-driven cutter, which turns out the properly shaped pieces, like patterns for a double-bladed axe. Then a spring of each piece, and it is sprung with a little iron strap for a handle. The piece is bent down into the familiar bell shape, and its sides are riveted together on the anvil.

THE WAY TO BOSTON (continued) He grew a little bitter as he put one foot up and the other down on the dusty road. Finally, he was halted by the driver of a car that bore a Pennsylvania license number. "Yes, I do, just follow me. I am going there."

BREAKING THE NEWS (continued) The driver grinned. The tramper reached Boston in twenty minutes.

THE LUCKY HORSESHOE PUZZLE (continued) "Twenty Acton elementary schoolboys of ages from 13 to 14, who attend the St. Andrew's School, Southfield-road, on Thursday evening, via Newhaven and Dieppe, for Paris, where they will spend, returning, home next Tuesday."

SOLVE THE PUZZLE (continued) Must-lovers were interested in the Passion Music sung in the Acton Wesleyan Church on Monday evening. The choir of the Acton Wesleyan Church presented to the organist, Mr. Pearce Heaton, F.R.C.O., a silver-mounted ebony baton in case, as a mark of appreciation for the way he has worked to bring the choir to its present state of efficiency.

1st Prize $475.00 Piano Walnut or Mahogany Finish 2nd Prize $150.00 PHONOGRAPH 3rd Prize $150.00 Credit Voucher Additional Prizes $125.00 Credit Vouchers

INSTRUCTIONS (continued) Write your name carefully and plainly. To the best, neatest, most original, correct answer will be given one $475.00 Piano answer will be given a $150.00 Phonograph. To the next best will be given a $150.00 Purchasing Voucher, acceptable on any Piano or Player Piano shown.

HOW-OW-BELLS ARE MADE (continued) Within the crucibles the brass now spreads itself in a thin coating over the imprisoned bell, and the bell obtains a clear tone. All that need be done afterwards is to burnish the bells which is done by throwing them with a few leather scraps into a big revolving cylinder, in which they polish themselves.

THE WAY TO BOSTON (continued) He grew a little bitter as he put one foot up and the other down on the dusty road. Finally, he was halted by the driver of a car that bore a Pennsylvania license number.

BREAKING THE NEWS (continued) The driver grinned. The tramper reached Boston in twenty minutes.

THE LUCKY HORSESHOE PUZZLE (continued) "Twenty Acton elementary schoolboys of ages from 13 to 14, who attend the St. Andrew's School, Southfield-road, on Thursday evening, via Newhaven and Dieppe, for Paris, where they will spend, returning, home next Tuesday."

SOLVE THE PUZZLE (continued) Must-lovers were interested in the Passion Music sung in the Acton Wesleyan Church on Monday evening. The choir of the Acton Wesleyan Church presented to the organist, Mr. Pearce Heaton, F.R.C.O., a silver-mounted ebony baton in case, as a mark of appreciation for the way he has worked to bring the choir to its present state of efficiency.

1st Prize $475.00 Piano Walnut or Mahogany Finish 2nd Prize $150.00 PHONOGRAPH 3rd Prize $150.00 Credit Voucher Additional Prizes $125.00 Credit Vouchers

INSTRUCTIONS (continued) Write your name carefully and plainly. To the best, neatest, most original, correct answer will be given one $475.00 Piano answer will be given a $150.00 Phonograph. To the next best will be given a $150.00 Purchasing Voucher, acceptable on any Piano or Player Piano shown.

INSTRUCTIONS (continued) Write your name carefully and plainly. To the best, neatest, most original, correct answer will be given one $475.00 Piano answer will be given a $150.00 Phonograph. To the next best will be given a $150.00 Purchasing Voucher, acceptable on any Piano or Player Piano shown.

CRAFTSMEN IN KEEPING THINGS NEW Homes in all parts of Ontario. Langley's Limited Cleaners and Dyers. Head Office: 249 Spadina Road - TORONTO

Perhaps you are using good tea. We think "Red Rose" extra good. Won't you try it? RED ROSE TEA "is good tea" The same good tea for 30 years.

THE LUCKY HORSESHOE PUZZLE. A grid of 12 horseshoes numbered 1-12. Below the grid is a coupon with fields for Name and Address.

Prizes will be given for the best, neatest, most original correct answers. DIRECTIONS: Place any number from one to fifteen in each of the Horseshoes shown above in such a manner that when added horizontally, vertically and diagonally, the total will be 33. THINGS TO REMEMBER: Answers may be submitted on this or on a separate sheet of paper, or any other material.

Insist upon this Trade Mark. KRABBY CHEESE. AVOID THE STATIONS. Look for it in your guarantee of quality and flavor.

