THURSDAY, MAY 28, 1925

HOW_COLUMBUS FOUND AMERICA Columbus stood upon the deck; "Go home!" the sailors cried;

"Not if'l perish on the wreck." Great Christopher replied. Next day the crow got out their knives And went for Captain C. "Go home," they yelled, "and save our.

"Wait one more day," said he. "Then if I cannot tell how far We're from the nearest land -I'll take you home." "Agreed we are!" Answered the sea-sick band. That night, when all were fast asleep. Columbus heaved the lead, And measuring the water deep, Took notes and went to bed.

To-morrow dayned -- Naught could But water, wet and cold; Columbus, smiling and serene, Looked confident and bold.

"Now, Cap! How far from land The mutineers outcried. "Just ninety fathoms," Captain C.

Most truthfully replied. "And if you doubt it heave the le And measure, same as I." -- "Great-hend!"---- We'll stick to you or die." And thus, in fourteen ninety-two, America was found. Because the great Columbus knew How far off was the ground. -H. C. Dodge.

TWENTY YEARS AGO From the Issue of the Free Press of Thursday, June 1, 1905 The Albion Hotel is offered for sale services at Churchill this week. Work on the now Mill Street roadway was commenced on Saturday. For the first time in twenty years the tower on Victoria Day. . district, however, to the effect that the strawberry and other early small fruits crop will be affected: Some people fret about the dandelions on their lawns. They give beauty and life to the surroundings. Mr. A. Marchment has sold his house and lot on Church Street to Mr. G. Ritchie and son for $575. Mr. Marchment is removing to Berlin, where his Peter and many modern so-called two sons are employed.

The Civic holiday excursion Bracebridge has been finally arranged by the Sons of Scotland for Wednesday, June 4. The annual Caledonian games will be held that day. The fare from Acton to Bracebridge and return

The new G. T. R. station is up and enclosed and work is being pushed forward rapidly. The site was changed from the point first decided upon and the new building is located between There were people of wealth and inside of the tracks.

day afternoon, in which a picked team That is real greatness, and it is open

JOHN KELLOGG'S FAILURE!

Deacon John Kelloggs, who sat in the second pew from the front, was living God and a living Christ, and generally the first man to shake the that, now that there was need of a hand of a young minister after the resurrection from the dead. God would The deacon's words of commendation were hearty, and they carried more weight than most words of It was a most worthy monument that praise, for the old man had lived a Dorcus had built with a needle. Many few years in the city, and had heard have gazed at it and been inspired to

He had been a successful farmer, with money in the bank; but he had been she was with them." That is the sleve is of holes. ambitious to move to town and go into time to do things for people, while you business. When he was somewhat past are with them, Post mortem benefacniddle life, he had let his farm, gone tions do not count much with God. to town, and entered into a partner- "Peter put them all forth." Poter was life. ship with two other men. But after following very closely in the footthree years the business had failed. steps of his Master. In such a supreme have made the world a neighborhood. So John Kellogg came back to the moment as this, one wants no spectat-It took him a long time to do it, and He "prayed." Ah, what power there when they were all paid he was an is in prayer. It can raise the dead. old man, and his ambition was gone. Have you a dead minister? Try it -Nothing remained to him except his on him. Have you a dead church? are part of what a modern philosopher farm and his seat in the church. The young minister had heard the in trespasses and sin?" Try it on him. story of those fow years in the city, Praying, not grumbling, is what we and once while attending a conference want to-day. He first turned to God, there, he had met some one who had and then to the corpse. Here is a lesthrilled him with admiration. He re- son for Christian workers; when you solved that when he returned home he have laid hold on God as Peter did, and never did. It ought to be called

Before the conference meetings were said: "Tabitha, arise." Those eyes. over, he received a telegram, and he so long closed, opened. Oh, some oil, and was calle hastened back, only to find that John bright day Jesus Himself will say it A buttery has Kellogg was dead. But what he had to all our sleeping loved ones, and learned too late to tell him to his face, their eyes shall open, and they, too.

business. Legally each partner was The wonder that had been done soon a pattern. liable for the entire indebtedness, but spread throughout Joppa. It was a the other two had hidden their pro- conclusive proof of the power of Jesus' a vole; nor has the country-dance any- tallied exactly three thousand barrels. Corn Remover if used as directed. perty. John Kellogg might have es name and that God Himself honored thing to do with the country. It ought and the boys got their money. caped by the payment of his third, that name as divine. So "many be- to be countre-dance-or oppositebut he had refused to do that, be- lieved on the Lord," not on Peter, dance. Cat call has nothing to do with cause, he said, the people who trusted Peter was an adept at so hiding him- cats (catastrophe or conclusion) of a The debt was three times what in year by year till he had paid the last! dollar When that was done, he was an old man. But had he failed?

WANTED A CHANGE

Betty had only lately been instructed in the matter of evening prayers, and her performance, was exemplary her mother with the petition: "Bless! Thy little pig to-night." word was "lamb," but refused to return to orthodoxy. At last, when pressed for the cause of this stubborn mughtiness, she roplied that she was tired of being a lamb, "Every night," she protested, it has been lamb, lamb, lamb! So tonight I'm going to be a pig, and tomorrow I am going to be an ele-

MAN'S SPEED RECORDS

Men . have been ! developing their ability to make speed records for some Given. Acts 10: 44-48. years, with the result that human agility has set the following marks for tion. Acts 11: 1-18. one-mile distances; Skating, 2 minutes, 35 seconds; swimming, 22 min- phecy, Isainh 61r 1-9. utes, 35, accords; rusning, 4 minutes, 10 4-5 seconda; bleyeling, 1 minute 4 1-6 seconds. Against these marks the horse has set I minute 35 2-5 seconds tion is Mother Graves' Worm Exter- get hurt any?" for running, and I minute 56 3-4 sec- minator. It has saved the fives of "Wal," drawled the other, "I dunno onds for trotting. countless children, a

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

POR SUNDAY, MAY-91

PETER AT LYDDA AND JOPPA -Acts 9: 32-43. Golden Text-And they went forth. and breached overy, where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with (by the) signs following (that followed). Mark 16: 20. Time-40 'A. D. (?).

Place-Lydda, Joppa. The Text Explained.

1. A Great Revival An Lydda and Sharon. 32-35. Step by step God was leading Peter on toward the opening of the door to the Contiles, Lydda, Joppa; Caesarea. Aeneas is the only citizen of Lydda whose name is mentioned in the Bible. The only great thing about him, apparently, was his great need. But there is nothing more likely to attract God's attraction than need (Luke 1: 53). . Aeneas was apparently not even a disciple when Peter met him He is spoken of as a "certain man" (cf. verse 26, Chapter 3: 2: 10: 1; 14: You're right," the sailors inughed, 8; 5: 10). There did not appear to be? much hope for this man. That day opened as all others had for eight years. It closed differently from all others, because that day he met a man who knew Christ, and brought the mighty power of Jesus Christ into his life. Doubtless Peter had met with many afflicted ones in his journeys from place to place, but God had not spoken the word to him and so he had not spoken to them. But now God did speak it to Peter's ever-listoning heart and with unbesitating faith, "Peter said unto him, 'Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole." day. Peter's pity was not of the Christ could and would use even him. The rest of the pool will vary in depth ranging in width from 11 feet on three visor. Aeneas' faith responds to the word of power; he arises straightway. The miracle simply opened the way for the Word. There is a wide gulf between "healers." The healing was largely a vincing to most men, of the power of

2. Great Revival in Joppa. 36-42. Joppa was no insignificant town, to Parker's later." down to us, the name of a humble wo- House." our pride. It won't do to decide too the name, Conan Doyle." GIBBONS-In Acton, on Friday, May hastily that the one who falls sick, or 19, 1905, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas even dies, has in some way wandered Gibbons, Church, Street, a daughter, away from God. These disciples had a mighty faith. There had been no cases of resurrection, so far as we know, in the ten years that had clapsed since the resurrection of Christ. Yet those humble disciples believed in a grant it, and Ho did ... Showing the coats and garments Dorcas had made."

acts of love and sacrifice. Note, that she had made these garments, "while Try it on it. Have you a friends dead would go to John Kellogg and tell him then you can lay hold of corpses by what sort of a man he had discovered word as Peter did also, and they will risc. Turning to the sleeping one, he he told beside his coffin. Part of it shall rise, never to sleep again (Jno. It was the dishonesty of John Kel- and raind her up just as he had seen self that men saw "Jesus only." But Greek drama, and the second is a cornot every one believed on the Lord ruption of gut-cord.

ed by the thousands, there are far while cutlet has nothing to do with more who are not converted. These the chopping or cutting of meat, but ly and pleasingly. Punctuality creates that her father had started a new converts in Joppa did not believe means a little rib. merely about the Lord, they believed "in" or "on" (R. V.) the Lord. They until the occasion-when she startled did not merely believe in orthodox statements about Him, they believed -- When a person is so minded, he can in Him. The proof that one believes find ugliness overywhere. A story is She was reminded that the correct "on the Lord" is that he accepts Him told of an etcher, John Sloan, that Il-(Jno. 1: 12). Do you "believe about the lustrates this point. He was walking

Lord Jesus?" Dally Readings For Next Week Monday, June 1-The Vision of Corn-Hus. Acts 10: 1-8. Tuesday, June 2-The Vision

eter. Acts 10: 9-16. Wednesday, June 3-Cornelius Sends for Peter. Acts 10: 17-23. Thursday, June 4-Opening the Door to the Gentiles. Acts 10: 84-48/ Friday, June 5-The Holy Spirit Saturday, June 6-Peter's Explana-Sunday, June 7-The Glorious Pri-

SWIMMING POOL IN JASPER PARK

Walter Pratt, general manager of the hind the lodge. hotel department of the National The lighting features are unique. In employee of the hotel department of two together. Peter was an apt constructed entirely by engineers of want to use Lac Beauvert. he (Peter) was only an instrument. He this end will vary in depth from one way close to the water for the use of The photograph shows the pool, and saw, with equal clearness, that Jesus foot nine inches to two feet six inches. the swimmers, there is a platform inset George O. Stafford, the Super-

An open-air heated swimming pond from three to nine feet. At the deep sides to 34 feet on the boat-house side. will be an added attraction at Jasper end spring boards and a diving tower Benches are arranged, on these plat-Park Lodge, the summer mountain are provided. The most mode:n heat- forms. Dressing rooms and shower hotel of the Canadian National Rail- ing and filtering methods have been baths are provided in a cabin near the ways in Jasper National Park, accord- employed and the water is drawn in pool. ing to an announcement made by from a spring in the mountains be- Supervision of the pool will be under callty. Complaints come from the take fixs the attention of Aeneas on Jesus feet long by 40 feet wide. Fifteen feet spectators in the event of racing or fancy of noteworthy. He saw very clearly that as a wading pool for children and sports. In addition to a five-foot run- championship this year.

the direction of George O. Stafford, an System. The construction of the pool addition to overhead lighting, electric the Canadian National Railways in has been under way for some time, and bulbs have been concealed below the Montreal, who is being transferred to work has progressed so well that the surface of the water, and it is thought Jasper Park for the summer. Mr. pool will be ready for the opening of that the effect of this submarine il- Stafford is one of the best known Rev. R. J. Drysdale is holding special Wonderful words. Words that might the season in the latter part of May. | lumination will be very striking. | swimmers in Canada. He-was born pervices at Churchill this week. | The pool, which has been built | The pool is built on aloping ground. | In England, where he won the Junior directly in front of the main lodge on Adjoining it on the lake side, and ap- Championship of the Southern Counsentimental, but active kind. He saw the shore of Lac Beauvert and within pearing to be part of the pool itself, is ties in swimming and diving in 1917. the man's dire need. He knew one sight of some of the highest mountain a boathouse, where are accommodated He came to Montreal in 1920, and in flag falled to float from the Town Hall who could help him. He brought the peaks in the park, was designed and the boats and canoes for those who 1922 he won the Province of Quebec fancy diving championship and held The frosts of the past week did no scholar. It is noteworthy how Peter the company. It is built of reinforced Sufficient space is provided above the the honors during 1923 and last year. damage to the fruit trees in this lo- kept himself in the background. He concrete plers and is 100 water level for the accommodation of He was runner-up for the Canadian Christ. His perfect confidence is also of shallow water have been railed off diving competitions or other acquatio won the Canadian indoor fancy diving

> A SHERLOCK HOLMES STORY NOT TO BE SNUBBED

"I remember an original Sherlock means to an end, rather than an end Holmes story, says Mr. W. W. Ella- to leave school and earn his living be- newly naturalized citizens good advice worth in his book, A Golden Age of fore he was sixteen years old. Like upon their assuming the duties of our Authors, that was told by Conan Doyle many another boy, he had not bent citizenship, a judge laid down nine Jesus Christ, than an ocular demon- the night before he sailed for home in toward any particular trade, and so points for the benefit of a group of stration of that power. If we would December, 1894. On his arrival in took the first job that offered. That more than one hundred, whom he had be, in our own lives, more perfect Boston, Doyle told us, he had noticed happened to be with a tinsmith; and just naturalized. He said: manifestations of the power of Christ, a dog-eared, but familiar volume he became an expert workman. He there would be more turning to the peeping out of his cabman's pocket. was pretty well satisfied with his job he said to the man. "I may want to go he saw no reason why he should think the old station and the tank. The fluence there. But the name of only the cabman, "you will find Major and sometimes his face." new tank is being built on the east a single person in that place has come Pond waiting for you at the Parker Mrs. H. S. McDonald will remove to man. Her name shines very brightly As they parted, the cabman asked work on a hot roof, was going home, he to be useful citizens. Detroit next week. Three of her sons on the pages of the history, and her for a pass to the lecture instead of a met Mrs. Landon, an-old-friend-of the "Save and guard-your savings." story has been an inspiration to many. fee, and Doyle said, "Now, see here, family. Mrs. Landon had always liked A very interesting game of base- Why?- "This woman was full of good I am not usually beaten at my own Jim; for she honestly admired his sell you a gold brick."

ball was played in the park on Satur- works and almsdeeds which she did." game. How did you know who I am?" cheerful spirit, his sturdy character. "Well, sir, of course all members of and his affectionate devotion to his from the town defeated the regulars to all. Note that she was "full" of the Cabman's Literary Guild knew widowed mother. by a score of 7-1. Following is the these good works and almsdeeds. She you were coming on this train, and I line up: Regulars: H. Fyle, catcher; was a disciple, indeed. Note, also, that noticed, sir, if you will excuse me, that been calling upon some of her fashion-G. Hynds, pitcher; F. Holmes. first she was not full of good works which your hair has the cut of a Quakerish abje acquaintances who lived not far third base; C. Clark, centre field; P. seems to have no relatives, but instead grasped it at a Chicago literary lunchbase; C. Ramshaw, centre field; H. death. God evidently has other pur- then, sir, to make assurance doubly left field; J. Saunders, right poses in sickness than the chastise- sure, I happened to see stenciled in she tried to avoid his eye. ment of our sin and the humbling of plain lettering on the end of your bag importance; and the former should never be made without first considering whether the latter are worth while. world is all wrong, whereas it is he Landon returned the salutation?

A SHEAF OF SAGE SENTENCES

himself who needs to take a mental and moral cathartic. The truly religious life is not supernatural. On the contrary the irreligious life is subnatural. Many a fellow complains that he has

We have an acquaintance who is joiner... He talks much about the value of organization, and yet he has never great suffering to legions of little ones.

taken the trouble to organize his own The urge and call of Spring which you feel within you is proof that you

S. Duncan-Clark WORDS WE SHOULDN'T USE

Chinese ink. Rice-paper is not made Train oil is not so called because it ? used to lubricate trains. It is a whale great quantity of oil. oil, and was called "train" by Scandin-

. The water-rat is not a rat at all but fastness he should have paid. But We hear about "taking a whole city for Gooseberry has ab connection with depends upon the impression he cre- following anecdote, which the Pall Mall for honor's sake he had plowed corn the Lord," It never occurs, many the bird, but ought to be gorseberry, ates. One of the easiest ways to Gazette attributes to Mr. Philip Newmay believe, "a great number" may or rough-berry; neither has gooseberry make a pleasing impression is to be man, whose wife was a schoolmate of turn to the Lord, (ch. 11: 21); multi- fool anything to do with fool. The punctual. The slight effort necessary the novelist's daughter, and aftertudes may believe, but some one will "French" of the dish is "foule de in arriving on time la soon forgotten wards kept up an intimacy with the not. In the greatest revivals in large groseilles." Pantry is not associated and few things will assist as greatly family. One day when Miss Thackeray cities, though the converts are number- with pans, but with bread (pain):

A BILIOUS CRITIC.

Lord Jesus" or do you "believe on the one night with a friend in Philadelphia. "How hideous nature is to-night!". Sloan remarked. "But my dear Sloan," objected his friend, "look at the stars. Surely you will admit that they're very fine to> night." Sloan looked up, then frowned, and shook his head. your keeping. "Oh, yes," he said, "not bad, not bad; but there's far too many of them." common good.

CAUTIOUS HIRAM

Two farmers met in a Western town day or two after a cyclone had visited that particular neighborhood. "She shook things up pretty bad out at my place," said one, stroking his whiskers, meditatively. . "By the way, As a vermicide an excellent prepara - Hi," he added, "that now barn o' yours I baint found it yet."

Circumstances forced James Keith "Drive me first to Young's Hotel," and with the money he made at it, and tion. less of himself because the useful work "Pardon me, Mr. Doyle," returned he did obliged him to soil his hands

One evening as Kelth, begrimed with

This afternoon, however, she had tion for self-improvement.

But Jim felt himself quite as worthy for a good job. of respect in his working clothes as intention of passing an old friend of worthy of earnest consideration by all the family without greeting her. And who desire to be useful citizens. Beginning and ends are both of great so as he passed Mrs. Landon he took of his hat, and sald, good-naturedly, "Good evening, Mrs. Landon! It's the same old Jim under all this dirt!" The man with a grouch thinks the - Is it necessary to add that Mrs.

Miller's Worm Powders can do injury to the most delicate child. Any child, or infant, in the state of adolescence, who is infested with worms, 'no time" for self-improvements can take this preparation without a whose day is as full of idle leaks as a qualm of the stomach, and will find it a sure relief and a full protection from these destructive pests, which are responsible for much sickness and for five hundred dollars in one week, ac- all this county." cording to the Oil Weekly of Dallas. Texas, by combining thrift and ingenhas' called the "Living Universe."-J. Burkburnett oil field because the pipe visit somewhere." lines were inadequate, when the boys, from rice or any part of the rice plant. dirt to dam the ravine and succeeded because it was on such high 'n' dry about that time, and he admired the he sows onlone among them." A buttery has nothing to do with pluck-of the youngsters, -He did not butter, but is the place where the but- claim the oil outright, although it had impatiently. ler, or bottler, works. China is sel- been his, but offered the youngsters . "The onlone makes the 'taters' eyes dom made in that country, and has be- one dollar and a half a barrel salvage water, and thet wrigates 'em. Hey ye come a misnomer used in place of por- for it. The youngsters accepted his got to go so soon?" logg's partners that had wrecked the Jesus do to his own mother-in-law. celain, Tartan is not a material, but offer and, perching themselves on their new dam with stubs of pencils, checked out the oll as it was hauled away. It may be, it must yield to Holloway's in putting us in tune for our work and the future Mrs. Newman were out and in causing the day to pass smoothconfidence, and causes others to feel that the one on time is trustworthy.

> BAREFOOT BOYS DAM OIL IN. RAVINE

PUNCTUALITY

A REAL NOBLEMAN

You are a real nobleman: When conscience owns your highest o smother your worth. When a secret sin is as deeply scorn- him of her friend's suggestion. ed as a public fault. When weakness finds in you a fear-

When defenceless virtue is safe in . When personal power is used for the When courage for the right does not depend upon the crowd's support.

A JUDGE'S NINE POINTS

"Devote yourself to self-improvement and to efficiency in your occupa

"Establish a family. "Be neighborly with neighbors. "Cultivate friends. "Respect your parents. "Be loyal to your wife.

"Educate and bring up your childre, "Beware of the man-who wants These are good "commandments" for all citizens, whether foreign born or net. Especially valuable is his sugges-Even the busiest of persons coulbase; R. Holmes, second base; W. she intended to do, but was full of Philadelphia barber; your hat shows from the Keith home, and had up-day for the study of some useful sub-Taylor, short stop; M. McEachern, good works "which she did." She on the brim in front where you tightly fortunately absorbed a little of the jects or the reading of good books, spirit that prevailed among them. It which in time add greatly to-his cul-Wilson, left field; F. Graham, right of mourning about her lonely lot, she con; your right overshoe has on it a may, be that Jim was a little dirtier ture, as well as to his earning capacity. field. Town Team: H. Statham, catch- made herself sister and mother to all; big block of Chicago mud; and there than usual; perhaps Mrs. Landon The average boy or young man has er; W. Malone, pitcher; O. Cook, first and so she had many friends. Being are crumbs of a doughnut, which must feared that her new friends would not much leisure time, but how many put base; E. Ryder, second base; N. Mc- "full of good and almsdeeds," did not have been bought at the Springfield understand if they should see her it to profitable use? Town boys often Nabb, short stop; Hilton Jeans, third exempt her from sickness even unto station, on the top of your bag. And speaking to this sooty young work- spend hours watching a pool game or man. At any rate, as he approached, in some other equally useless pastime, when they might be fitting themselves The judge quoted above knows what n his Sunday suit. Nor had he any he is talking about and his advice to > Cheapest of all Oils.-Considering. the qualities of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil it is the cheapest of all preparations offered to the public. It is to be found from every drug store in Canada from coast to coast and all country merchants keep it for sale. So, being easily procurable and extremely moderate in price, no one should be without a bottle of it.

AN AGRICULTURAL EDISON

"Who is the prosperous man?" asked the summer boarder, pausing on the steps of the store, as he pointed to man in painfully new clothes, with very heavy gold chain suspended across a gorgeous waistcoat. "That man," said the store lounger, ooking round for an audience, for he Two barefoot boys, respectively ten was the village humorist, "is an inand twelve years of age, earned forty- ventive genius, and the richest man in

"Hum, he don't look like un in ventor to me," said the city man, susuity in a telling manner. Much oil piclously. "I'd put him down as a was going to waste in the Northwest farmer in his best clothes, to go on a "Wa'al, he's a farmer, too," replied who are brothers, saw crude oil from the countryman, with a wink at his a broken pipe running down a small audience-two boys and the owner of ravine. Hitching a donkey to a rattle- the store. "You see, he couldn't raise trap spring wagon, they began to haul nothin' but a mortgage on his farm after much hard work in collecting a land. But he thought up a good plan to raise the best 'taters in all the The owner appeared on the scene county- He plants his taters, and then "Well what of it?" asked the boarder

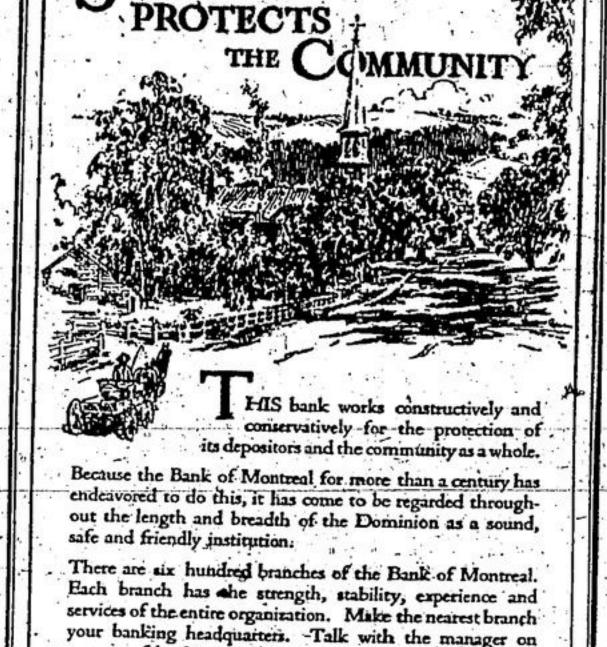

No matter how deep-rooted the corn HOW THACKERAY NAMED A BOOK

How Thackeray decided on the name for a walk, Miss Thackerny remarked story but was at a loss for the hero's name. The future Mrs. Newman, with her flance in her thoughts, suggested that the name Philip might serve the

At that moment who should come up unobserved behind the two-girls but Thackeray himself, who asked why the young people were so deep in con-When you do not allow your wealth versation. Miss. Thackeray, revealed the subject under discussion and told "Admirable!" was Thackeray's verdict. "And now, my dear," he continued, "what is your own namo?"

"Charlotte." "Well, that's a very nice name, too," he replied and he called his tale. The Adventures of Philip, and named the principal woman character Charlotte.

Could Hardly live for Asthma writes one man who after years of suffering has found complete relief through Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. Now he knows how needless has been his suffering. This matchless remedy gives sure help to all afflicted with asthma. Inhated as smoke or vapor SUN, WIND DUST & CINDERS It brings help so long needed. Every dealer has it or can get it from his person. You can bank with us by mail. "A Bank Where Small Accounts Are Welcome" matters of banking or business. Write to him or call in

COUND BANKING

BANK OF MONTREAL Established over 100 years

Total Assets in excess of $700.000.000

It pays to use MARTIN-SENOUR RED SCHOOL HOUSE PAINT

For Barns and Outbuildings it has no equal Write to Hear Office Montreal for Free Booklet HOME PAINTING MADE EASY

Lagging Spring Appetites

Can be bolstered up and stimulated by letting us do your baking. Don't worry and stew over a pie for dinner or some cake for supper, when you can buy such delicious home-made baking at FAIRBANK'S

OUR BREAD IS THE STAFF OF LIFE

IN MOST ACTON HOMES,

Fairbanks' Bakery

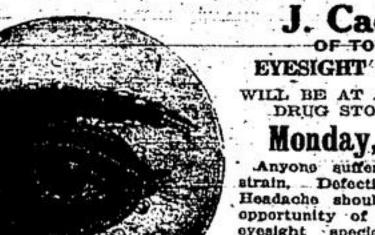

Phone 116

have received notice.

PROMPT ATTENTION TO ORDERS LEFT

T. E. Gibbons

Children Bry for Constipation

Flatulency

Diarrhea

J. Cadesky EYESIGHT'SPECIALIST

WILL BE AT A. T. BROWN'S DRUG STORE, ACTON-Monday, June 1 Anyone suffering from Eyestrain, Defective Vision or Headache should not miss the opportunity of consulting this eyesight specialist. Appointments may be made with Mr. A. T. Brown, Druggist. CONSULTATION FREE Office Hours 9 a. m. till 4 p. m.

Does Your Watch Keep Time

TRY OUR REPAIR DE-PARTMENT. WE ARE GETTING WONDER-FUL RESULTS, AND WE KNOW WE CAN PLEASE YOU

Savage & Co.

Simple and Sure .- Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is so simple in application that a child can understand the instructions. Used as a liniment the only direction is to rub, and when used as a dressing to apply. The directions

Get your Job Printing at the Free Press they are readily understood by old and MOTHER! Fletcher's Castoria is a harmless Substitute for

Castor Oil, Paregoric, Teething Drops and Soothing Syrups, prepared to relieve Infants in arms and Children all ages of Aids in the assimilation of Food, promoting Cheerfulness, Rest, and

To avoid imitations, always look for the signature of Chart Hetcher.

Proven directions on each package, Physicians everywhere recommend it.

Natural Sleep without Opiates

· Wind Colic

To Sweeten Storrach

Regulate Bowels

Eastbound Dally (Except Sunday 9.43 a.m. Freight delivered by special express freight. Freight picked up at any address in Toronto. Notice to Creditors OF THE ESTATE OF ERNEST The creditors of Ernest Albert Rose ate of the Village of Acton, in the

Railway Time Tables

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS

AT-ACTON

Going West

Going East

No. 30' 11.27 a.m.

No. 34 3.35 p.m.

No. 36 6.17 p.m.

CANADIAN NATIONAL ELECTRIC

RAILWAYS

Westbound.

Daily (Except Sunday) 7.43 n.m.

Dally 3.43 p. m.

County of Halton, Tanner, who died on the eighteenth day of May, 1925, his estate are required on or before the twenty-second day of June, 1925, to send by post prepaid or otherwise deliver to the undersigned solicitor their full names, addresses and descriptions and full particulars of their to distribute the assets of the said estate among the parties entitled thereto: and he hereby gives notice that he will not be responsible thereafter for any

. Dated this twenty-first day of May - HENRY PHILIP MOORE By H. N. Farmer, Acton, Ontario, his claim or claims of which he shall not

T. E. Gibbons

Advertisers

The FREE PRESS is anxious We can give your advertisement better attention and therefore make it more attractive if the copy is supplied to us on Monday or Tuesday. If copy fails to reach us until Wednesday forenoon there is a rush to set it up before the forms close, and the result is likely to be less satisfactory. SEND IN YOUR ADS. EARLY

