nesday evening.

GEOLP DROVER KILLED BY MOTOR

Alex. White Dies Instantly in Accident Near Wingham

Finished beneath his motor car when it overturned about three miles from Wingham shortly after 10 o'clock on Thursday, Alex. White, well-known local buyer of Geolp, was instantly killed. Two other men, a 16-year-old boy, of Elora, and Alvin Smith, a 21-year-old young man of that district, who were with him in the car, miraculously escaped injury, other than a shaking up. Smith had been picked up on the road and was being given a ride into Wingham.

on the way to battle, in order to have lunch was one of the tactical points which caused some heated discussion during the course of the Halton Rifles sham fight at Georgetown and Milton over the week-end.

BOUNT'S GALLANTRY PREVENTS FIRE

It has just been brought to the attention of the Scout officers here of the gallantry and heroism of one of the local troops, Scout Garner Havers. While delivering papers near his home on the Beach, he was intentionally set on fire by a neighbor formed by Mrs. Smith, a resident there, that smoke was issuing from the chimney. He ladder was available, so Havers, by climbing a tree at the front of the house, made his way to the roof, where he pulled off the amounting shingles. Retiring his foot carried up a pail of water and put out Havers for his preparation and very pucky action.—Burlington Gazette.

To Serve You Better

Most of our patrons coming to our store lately have been surprised at the transformation in the arrangement of the store interior.

We've installed a new display refrigerator across one end of the shop so that you may view the tempting meats that are all ready to fulfill your order, and they may yet be kept right.

Come and Visit Us

If you haven't seen the store since the change come and visit us. You, too, will be surprised at the new appearance of the interior and will have an added relish for the meat that we sell.

We have been requested by so many to hold a Saturday Night Dance. So drive around Saturday evening, June 13, and enjoy a dance.
