Leader. 5-11. There had been a lull in the persecution of the Church (Acts 9: 31), but your pliers and wrenches you it had proved but temporary. When the persecution began again, it began with great fierceness; James was killed and Peer was arrested in order that he might be killed .. Peter seemed to be in a very perilous, indeed, in a hopeless position-securely locked up and chained in a Roman prison, guard's ed by 16 soldiers, bound by each wrist to a soldier. But Peter's enemies had left God out of their calculations, and there was "nothing too hard for the Lord," for for the church that links itself to God by prayer. It is now the very last night, the next day Peter is to be led out to execution. God often withholds His deliverance and His answers to prayers until the last moment. What can the church do? Only one thing-pray, and pray they did. They appealed the case from "Herod, the past week has caused a good deal of king," to "God, the King of Kings." Peter seemed to have had faith that furthermore, just as soon as he was sleeping calmly and very soundly, and thoroughly awakened, he said, "Now I know of a truth that the Lord hath sent His angel, (just as I had been asking Him to do) and delivered me." There are four things to be noticed The promotion examinations in the prayer that gots an answer is the with its especial charm. though we use God's name in offering prayer, there is no real coming into God's presence and actually presenting V. says "carnestly," The R.
