Dear Editor: A half-century is a long time to live in this bustling and out of breath ago, but it is more worthy of record to note that our good friend, the editor of the Fran Prass, has occupied the editorial chair for well nigh that number of years. Congratulations, most hearty and sincere, on attaining this joyous period in your faithful and successful career in Acton. It may be comparatively easy to run a newspaper for two or three years and susthin the interest, but to do so for fortyseven years is an achievement of which you may be justly proud.

For nearly forty years the Free Porce has been a welcome visitor to our home, always "clean in tone and typoa variety of prose and poetry, fact Georgetown on Saturday.
