LAST GUELPH PRESBYTER MEETING he New Presbytery with South Well ington Pre:bytery Probably the last meeting of the Guelph Presbytery before the machinery of the new United Church of Canada is finally arranged, met last Thursday in Chalmers Church, Guelph. About thirty-five delegates were in attendance. The whole situation with regard to the various congregations was discussed and many matters were referred to the co-operative council for adjustment. It was reported that all union min ters within the Presbytery were now placed in congregations. Splendid reports of the General sembly and the first General Council were given by Messrs Craw, Mc Lennan and Woods. Approval was given to the local union formed in Belwood, Mimosa and Rockwood and to all other unions which will he considered in the read Justment. The Presbytery commended the gen crosity of Chalmers and Norfolk Churches in Guelph for assisting the union in Aberfoyle. The clerk reported five of the non concurring churches as not paying the Presbytery assessment, namely Elora. Although brown eyes flash with an- Knox and Central, at Galt, and Knox
