was out to get the MON.

suffice for TUE. And maybe that's the reason why one day he lost his head. and falling on his knees he cried, "Oh maiden, wilt thou WED. He may have thought this sudden, but it seemed not so to her:

forcibly, "Yeth, THUR." But when they went_to_keeping_house he feared that he would die; For, oh, that modern maiden coul: neither bake nor FRI.

She lisped in quick acceptance and sa:

She could not run a bungalow, or ever run a flat. on many sad occasions, in a restaurant they SAT:

But he forgave her everything-as man has always done. When she presented him one day a bouncing baby SUN.

NEWS FROM THE OTHER ACTON Items of Interest Which Appeared in the Acton, England, Gazette, for June 19

Acton Park, B. C., are to be congratulated on the splendid wins they have had in the Lipton and Joseph Cups." Cantributors to a hospital box at an East Acton establishment on Surday had the unexpected pleasure of A mad world, I say, being rewarded with buttonholes by With its bird ways and its fish ways the collector. A summons against Mrs. Gregory, of The smoke goes up to the blackene Maldon-road, Acton, for threatening Bessie Grove, who rented rooms at the same address, was dismissed at Acton The shadows dance at the fire's will Police Court on Wednesday.

The People's Dispensary for Sic Animals of the Poor, which has a useful branch at 42, Birkbeck, Acton, Will of the funds.

Arthur F. Thomas, a painter, of Egsex Park-mews, Acton, was fined 7s 6d. at Acton Police Court on Friday for insulting behaviour. Sir Harry Brittain was among those present at a luncheon given by the British Empire League, at the British Empire Club on Monday, in honor of A cry comes out of the night, when

Sir John Baird, Governor-General designate of Australia. The death occurred, in tragic circumstances at Englefield Green, Surrey, on Thursday in last week, of Mr. Albert Dixon, who, until two months ago, lived in Acton. Messrs. Ferris Bros.' tender of £749 for cleaning and repairing the Acton County School during the summer holidnys has been accepted by the Middlesex Education Committee. On Thursday in last week Sir Harry Brittain entertained the executive com- | For her form sleeps in the cold mould mittee of the Acton Branch of the Junior Imperial League to tea on the terrace of the Houses of Parliament. George Stocker, a carman, of Shepherd's Bush, was fined 40s, and costs at Acton Bolice Court on Wednesday for working a horse with sore shoulders and withers in Horn-lane, Acton. Acton, was fined £5, and Campbell influence the Acton Horticultural So-Marshall, Woodstock-road, Bedford- ciety has had in Acton and vicinity the Park, £4 at Acton Police Court on past few years in inducing the people

11.30 p.m. on Saturday, when it was buildings. found that a Commonwealth omnibus

Birkbeck-road. Losing control of a motor-cycle he take in making their home surroundwas riding in East Acton-lane on Mon- ings beautiful with flowers. Those of day morning. Albert Cording, Worm- us who can hark back for sixty years holt-road, Shepherd's Bush, collided and more can always remember with with a wall, and was thrown to the gratifying pleasure the gardens of the ground. He was picked up uncon- early residents. Outstanding among

Messrs. F. W. and W. G. Ferris and main streets created by Mrs. Charles forty-six of their employees had their Symon and Mrs. Sarah Augusta Sefirst outling together on Saturday, when cord. Both of these ladies of esteen: they made a charabane trip from Acicu od memory, devoted much space to the root of an old-time planting. The to Brighton. Dinner was served at flowers and shrubs, and much time to elements of stable character are as the Spotted Dog Hotel, Middle-street, their cultivation. Mrs. Symon's was old as the race. Sound principles of Found while in charge of a motor- the more attractive, because more open lorry on Willesden-lane, Acton, on to view of the people. Monday evening, to be having an alter- The Symon garden occupied the full interested to learn that the largest Symon Brothers store across the street, banks of mica condensers in the world, was bounded on the cast by Willow which are to be installed in the new Street and on the south by Church Government wireless station at Rugby, Street. The properties of Dr. Mcare being manufactured in Acton by Garvin and George Walter formed the the Dubiller Condenser Co.

dent, who has engraved a large number on three sides by a neat, low picket of the best-known maps issued by fence, about three feet high, so that its Messrs. George Philip and Son, the beauties were fully visible. The rear geographical publishers, has this week part was devoted to the family vegeretired after fifty years' service with tables, of which there was always, said James Gale, a laborer, of the cultivated. The front half of the lot annual garden party on Friday, July Fairway, East Acton, who entered the was wholly given over to flowers and 24. This is always one of the best Acton police station on Thursday even- flowering shrubs, and was always at- garden parties of the season ing, and told Det.-sergt. Young that tractive and beautiful during the sumhe married Fforrie Avery on the 6th mer months. inst. at the parish church at Ruislip,

That he had been as good as he could being drunk and disorderly.

News has been received this week by arrangement. There were the old-Mr. Joseph Brown, 26, Gloucester-road, fashioned peonys, sweet williams. Bronstein was charged with reckless Acton, that his second cousin, Capt. hollylocks, batchelors' buttons, tiger Samuel H. Lawrence, formerly of the and orange lilles, pinks and flags, with Canadian Mounted Police, is claiming clumps of old man and sweet Mary day morning, burglars visited the Gibto be the rightful heir to the title and scattered here and there. An there son House and the Murray House.

A baby was carried into Acton Police orange and flowering currants. It was made their entrance through a window Court on Monday by its grandmother, indeed A pretty spot. who said that the mother, her daughter, was lying ill in hospital, and had aske 1 but also had a profusion of real fine tents, which amounted to $23. The her to take care of the child in her flowers. The Second place occupied register was found undamaged in the absence. The father had now demanded that portion of property at the corner morning. the child, but she could give no reason of Mill and Main Street, now occupied Wednesday at St. James' Church, Pic- room and residence, Mrs. Edwards' without a suitable display of flags on cadilly, of Mr. Richard Bortram Collins store, the Wonderland picture show. Oakville's main street. A meeting of son of Mr. and Mrs. Collins, "St. and the vacant lot where Mr. Rooney's the executive will be held this after-Valery," Grafton-road, Acton, to Mins shoe store shack was crected last win- noon, when arrangements will be made Mury Marjorle Morris, younger daugh- ter, which caused such a furore.

the Acton Hospital, a well-attended and fruit trees and grapevines. I do cording to the plants, the flags would garden fete, in ald of the funds of the not remember that this nesthetic old- hang from 12-foot poles, which would Acton Hospital Ladies' Linen League time citizen ever condescended to grow be inserted in sockets in the sidewalk. was held on Wednesday afternoon and vegetables. She had the knowledge At an enthusiastic and well repreevening, and it was estimated that and skill to grow flowers which pro- sented congregational meeting held at Four Acton residents, Mrs. Mary eties on her occasional visits to the E. G. Thompson, M.A., of Vancouver, Elms-Lester, a seventy-year-old lady, cities of Toronto and Hamilton. She B. C. to fill the vacancy at the church. of 54. Shakespeare-road, Mr. Cecli A. always grew magnificant roses, and Mr. Thompson, who, with his wife, Elms-Lester, her son, and Mrs. Louisa she had five panajes, even in the early visited in Oakville during the recent Mand King and Mr. William Henry days, fifty or sixty years ago. She in- Assembly and Congress of the Presby-Ring, of Burlington-gardens, her troduced the tropical popples which terian Church, is considered one of the daughter and son-in-law, were injured even to-day are popular because of the most efficient ministers in the church. in a collision between a taxi-cab and bright patch of color they lend to the The salary offered was $2,100 a year private melor at Roybrook cross - garden when plooming and she had Record.

Shut in from the rain and wind: His eyes have the dream of the past And his face is gray and lined, And utters the thought in his mind:

"The old time was a fine time-Ah, God, be with it, too! But the new time is no time at all For a man to be living through; A strange world is the new world-And its turning of night into day."

Where, playing at come and go; With its thick red logs aglow; And the old man, thinking of shadowy

Talks on of the Long Ago: the towns stand where the trees stood Ah, God, be with the trees,

With their green leaves that danced To the pipe of the morning breeze The flame's work and the blade's work But a worse fate has the grim world For the happy of heart and pure."

An owl in the darkness hawks, And something worse than the wild

Through the wintry midnight stalks. And the old man shivers and warms As out of the Past he talks:

And the young lad and her he loved And the hour of their plighted troth! Tis dead, dead that they both lie: The grave holds them fast; And his heart in the ashen Past."

rather of the practical sort, but I have always loved flowers, and it has Charles H. Atkinson, Acacla-road, in pleased me very much to observe the abed in the dark."

Acton brotherhood on Sunday on the distributed its thousands of flowers and you gained somebody else must lose. plants among our citizens and planted if you gained without giving an equiv-Both Acton fire engines answered a them in public places, and supplied alent, it disorted your ideas of value call to High-street. Acton, shortly after them for making attractive our public and made you discontented with the We owe much to this energetic or- earning. If you lost, it was a long and ganization, but we are also indebted hard task to replace what had melted to every resident for the interest they away in a moment."

these were the beauty spots on our cation with another man, and certified lot-two-fifths of an acre-now occu- fireside companionship of good booksby a doctor to have been drunk, Be:- pied by the Co-operative Store, and these are like flowers in grandmother's ram D. Corwin, a motor-driver, of Cap- premises; and the pretty home and garden, common, everyday flowers that garden of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas fill life with fragrance and beauty. Acton wireless enthusiasts will be Forbes, It faced Mill Street and the he Dubiller Condenser Co.

Westerly border. This fine garden with Neighborhood News-"I want to give myself up for bigamy" lety, and it was kept carefully heed and even in those early years, a fine var-While there was not the profuse gardens of to-day, there was a very Scotland, London, Paris and the ba:fine collection, the best the times could but that a little-rum and the heat had afford. Roses were grown in profusaffected him, was the explanation of ion, and in pleasing variety. The Police Magistrate Shields on Wednes-John Costello, a laborer, of Narrow- stately old free-blossoming cabbage day morning last, when A. Bronstein, street, Acton, who was fined 7s. 6d. rose was there, and the dear old moss of Toronto, who was driving un autoat Acton Police Court, on Monday, for rose, and the yellows and the whites and pinks in attractively contrasting estates of the ancient Earldom of Ox- were the hardy flowering shrubs, such got about $75 from both places, and

Mrs. Secord's garden was smaller, register outside and removed the conby Coopers' Tailor shop; Edwards' ness Men's Association materfulizes, The wedding took place quietly on Harness shop. Leishman's billiard no more national holiadys will pass were on the corner, the rest of the to fly in front of his place of business In the recently-enlarged grounds of property was devoted to flowers, shrubs when the occasion calls for it. Acthe sum of £150-was raised by this duced wendefrul results, and she also Knox Church last Monday evening, a had a faculty of picking up rare vari- unanimous call was extended to Rev.

other varieties of flowers which were Attractive, Speaking about vegetables Every thought willingly contemplation of every word intended and the succular asparagus. But the good he does publicly. Is it is every action freely done consolidates cary which many battern it to be to the character, and will project that except for a week or so in early than benevolence, that gives such character to allow it to allow the contemplation.

grow and mature into feathery frolids with which she trimmed her bouquetai and which is still considered very dosirable for this purpose.

But Mrs. Secord's garden was not so freely open to view as Mrs. Symon's, treat this week on a trip to Europe. It was surrounded by a six-foot tight board fence, and its gate was protectday evening for Montreal; where Li ed by a heavy hasp and padlock. About Joined his two sisters, from Bultimore, afty years ago, however, after Freddy to sall on Friday to spend a month in had been on the road as a commercial the British Isles. traveller, and had the opportunity of George Clowling and three of this observing how flower gardens were children will leave next Monday for generally open to public gaze, with Doum, Toxas, to motor all the way? their beauty free to the passerby, ne Mrs, Gowling is already there. Dondapersuaded his mother to permit him is on the Guif of Mexico, close to the to cut deep notches down from the mouth of the Rio Grande, in an irthe sfilewalk and drink in the beautle: afforded by the garden and its flort

Both these ladles were gonerous in the distribution of their flowers. The bouquets went to sick rooms, to the churches on special occasions, to the homes where death intruded, invariably and there was never a wedding in the town but flowers were proffered by Mrs. Symon and Secord, or both, and James Symon and Percy Second often complained about "Mother sending me all over with her flowers."

But our younger readers must not run away with the notion that these two elect ladies were the only growers And now and again he shakes his head Michael Speight, Mrs. Edward and Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Walters, descrived compliment last Sunday from as he had taken. Mrs. Lightheart, Mrs. Zimmerman and Hamilton Canton on the occasion of > not fortunate as to have flowers. Speaking of flowers the other day, playing of six or seven bands this year, a visitor to the old home town, an in the city and other places, and hestold friend, and I got into conversation tated not to say that the playing of as we strolled slowly along the streets the Milton Baild was the best of any. and admired the wealth of flowers now Prior to leaving for Walkerton, Rev. such momentum that when it came and consent, but is always responsible in contact with a house at the beltom that we have believe the rested by

"Mother set that out upwards of bers to spend a social ovening with sixty years ago," he said, pointing to their paster and his family. After a a flowering almond bush covered with brief musical programme W. H. Stowa profusion of small buttonlike pinkish art read a farewell address of apreclablossoms, "I can just remember it. tion to Mr. Bole and Mrs. F. C. Will-Aunt Ruth Sherwin brought her the mott, on behalf of the congregation, root wrapped up in an old blue- presented him with a substantial purse checked apron. There's never been of money. On behalf of the choir, In-case of fog or glare affecting much done to the bush. I'm glad to see Frank Pearen read an address to Mrs. it just stands where it was put and Bole in recognition of her excellent ussistance in the choir, and C. R. Turner, flowers every year I suppose when the president of the choir, presented herright time comes." with two Morris chairs. Champion.

Some months since a kindly disposed visitor brought to the sick room of an aged invalid an illuminated copy of the Twenty-third Psalm to hang over her bed. The old lady smiled as she ackwnoledged the gift. "Yes, shall like to look at "t," she said in her low tone. "It will be like having an old friend come in, all dressed up. That psalm was one of the first things my mother taught me. I've heard her say often that I know it word for word before I was live years old. Of course it didn't mean much to me then,-I was too young to understand,-but can't begin to tell you what a comfort it's been to have it handy when I felt lonely or downhearted or was lying peated the psalm. Wednesday, for exceeding the motor of this community to grow more dice against playing with chance," a flowers about their homes. For a good man of sixty years replied when some Mr. G. Britton, president of the Acton many years Acton has been noted for friends importuned him to take a 'fling' Free Church Council, gave an interest- flowers, but never so much as since in the stock market. "He said it was ing address at the meeting of the our floral society has so systematically playing with a phantom, and that what

And then slowly, reverently, she re-familiar flowers in old gardens; are perennials and were first planted long ago. Perhaps this age of novel ideas and untried theories is an apt time to inquire whether what is really of most worth and rarest loveliness in the garconduct are of perennial growth. Then trust in God, friendship, home, the Town and Country

OAKVILLE

have arrived at Cluny House, Robinwhile his wife, Mary Ann Gale, was variety of flowers to be seen in our in which they visited the Highlands of tlefields of Flanders.

mobile on the highway just west of town, ran into W. Martin, a pedesdriving, and fined $20 and costs.

as lilacs, snow balls, tea-berry, mock left, town. At the Gibson House they in the lavatory. The took the cash ter of Mrs. Morris, 'Homeland," Acacia - Mrs. Secord's store and dwelling to purchase a fing for every merchant

Equal Rights

MILTON

peet to be gone a month,

Miss Barbara McLoan, of Brandon Man, is in town, the guest of Mrs. V. Chisholm, She will sail from Mon-Crown Attorney Dick left on Thurs-

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Ryder and son. Harold, and Mr. and Mrs. Ceell Cooper, is the care a reasonable driver would to law. In the trial that followed the moving right-of-way is clear, before

Detroit and Lake Orlon. They ex-

one of the visiting members of the men that they had marched to the congregation gathered in large num-is clear for procedure.

on the Highway

The Pedestrian and the Motorist Should Both Exercise Great Caro

of Hamilton, spent Sunday with rela- exercise. He must do those things h court held that their lilegal operation turning out to pass the overtaken reasonable driver would do and must had nothing to do with the accident -- vehicles. Mrs. Charles Hill and Mrs. R. Ellis not do those things a reasonable driver was not a cause-and so was irreleleft hast Saturday on a trip to Windsor, would not do.

Reasonable Care Expected.-In anmischiovous boy, in the doctor's ab- other cases within ten days. sence, turned the wheel to the straight-The car rolled down the bill gaining times responsible when a car or truck of the grade, both house and car had the car owner had taken every reasonable precaution and that the accident been sustained through no fault of his. visibility-the vision of the driver-the courts have held that it is reasonable and right to expect a driver to stop until he or she can see the road ahead Before guilt is established in case a pedestrian. The courts held that the vious reckless driving, speeding, etc., purposes. Again a motorist turned h is irrelevant and thus no bearing, on car into a garage for winter storage. the case. For Instance, if a motorist giving Instructions as to battery and at the time of or immediately prior to other matters. The foreman of the an accident is driving legally, the fact garage took the car out and injured he that he was driving recklessly prior to the accident had no value an evi- foreman, despite storage orders, and dence in the case. Each driving con- so the owner was not hold liable. trary to haw at the time of an accident has no bearing on the driver's absolute, and does not relieve anyone ability for the accident unless it can of the statutory obligation to proceed be shown that such helmylour was a with reasonable care at all tingen. Its Mr. T. N. Phélan, K. C., President of direct or contributing cause of the ac- Intent, President Phélan said, was to the Ontario Motor League, in the eldent. By way of Bustrating this, prevent, not excuse accidents a fact course of an interesting interview gives President Phelon cited a recent truck that too many drivers seem to dose some valuable information to motor collision case that occurred in the sight of. He pointed out, too, that the vehicle owners on legal points that to Niagara Pontosula. An unlicensed legislature has given emphasis to the to cut deep notenes nown from the righted flistrict, where oranges, grape the lay motorist are obtuse, equivocal, driver was in charge, of one truck; the law requiring drivers on overtaking ambiguous or unknown. He stated that other truck was running rum. Both, other vehicles moving in the same di-vant and not ovidence. President Pholan pointed out that . Implied Consent,-President Pholan for as the driver and owner is conneither the law nor the courts demand declared that there was one very im cernest, as are those of a pedestrian At the next meeting of the Trafalgar that a driver exercise extraordinary portant exception to this rule. It is on the road in front of a car, Township Council some stiff claims for caution or be possessed of prossioned that involving the province, county, Criminal liability, President Phetan the killing of valuable sheep by dogs or proceed with preternatural care. He township or municipality in which the explained, comprehends all cases inwill have to be considered. Last Sa - stated; that theoretically the motor ownership or trusteeship of roads is volving criminal negligence or minurday week, dogs killed several ewes yehicle driver and the pedestrian have vested. Thus, some time ago, a truck slaughter; i.e., in cases in which someowned by W. McCartney, east of Mil- exactly the same rights on the streets two luches wider than the maximum one is injured or killed. No distinction ton. Some of the sheep destroyed are and highways. Illustrative of the statutory width, crashed through an is made, as many believe, between thoroughbred or registered stock and standard of care and relative rights of old, rotten bridge, doing much damage criminal and civil Hability on the were valued as high as $100 cach. . . . pedestrians and motor vehicle drivers. to the fruck. Action to recover the grounds of attitude of mind. This has . . . The death occurred here last week of he cited recent cases. In an appeal damages from the municipality in- been ruled by the Supreme Court. of flowers in the village in those early Alfred James Evans, member of the it was shown that a pedestrian had volved was quashed, although it was President Phelan pointed out then Gays. Most of the homes in town grew 164th battalion, C. E. F., who died as stepped at night from the side of the shown that the 2 inches over width the very important bearing this ruling the homely and much-loved peren- a result of serious, wounds received in Toronto-Hamilton Highway onto the had nothing to do with the accident. had and has on insurance policies. the Great War, where he was also pavement while walking along healds The explanation of this seeming incon- Technically it made, and makes, them Mrs. Storey, Mrs. (Dr) McGarvin, Mrs. a victim of a German gas attack. Pto. it. Ho was struck and killed by a sistency is that the truck in not being pull and void in cases of criminal lig-Jimmie Matthews, Mrs. Charlie Hill. Evans returned from the front line motor vehicle. The Appellate Court constructed in compliance with the bility. However, he declared, it was trenches totally disabled for life. Much held that the deceased had been guilty conditions under which the permit was only fair to state that except in very sympathy is felt for his widow (net of negligence, in not ascertaining that granted for its operation in the pro- flagrant cases of criminal liability, the Benjamin Nicklin, Mrs. Eli Snyder and Fanny Cowan) and her two sons and it was safe to step onto the pavement, vince was guilty of trespass and its cases in which it was manifestly to the and that it was not reasonable to ex- owner not only failed to collect dare- interest of the motorists that they de Our band received a neat and well- pect a driver to anticipate such action ages, but was required to defray the so, the insurance companies have not expense of repairing the damage his taken advantage of this ruling. truck had done to the bridge. In this Finally, he stated that he would

Mrs. Corrigill were always attractive the Oddfellows' decoration services his car heading down a grade. In ad- out that in case of damage done to without public liability and property his car heading down a grade. In adduring the summer months, and, here. He was referring to the march-dition to apply his set brake (hand or bolder by faulty highway or damage insurance, so great was the emergency brake), he had turned the bridge, notice must be served on the hazard. Damages are being assessed front wheels in against the curb. A municipalities within a week and in commensurate with the loss in personal liability cases and a man with a Regarding liability, President Phelan large income is as easily injured or ened position and released the brake, stated that not only is the owner at all killed as one with a small one. when his vehicle is being operated by | Some of the biggest smiles I have their fronts smashed. The owner of his chauffeur, even at times when the come across lately have been inspired the house took action to recover dam. chauffour operates it contrary to his by those underrated humorists ayont > owner in a garage for a minor repair. The foreman of the garage took the car why he was knighted, and ended with out at noon, drove it to his home, the remark: picked up his wife and family and drove around town, In the course of on, the shoulder with a sword and the drive, he collided with and injured made me a knight."

man. The car had been used by the The right-of-way law in relative, not the standard care required by the law, therefore, were being operated contrary rection to make sure that the counter-

The rights of a guest in a car, he declared, are exactly the same, in sall

SMILES FROM SCOTLAND ages from the owner of the car, but instructions. Implied-consent has been the Tweed. Lord Dewar, in a recent was unsuccessful. The court held that the phrase around which many a legal speech, referred to 'an unfortunate battle has been waged. President Jew who borrowed half-a-crown from Phelan mentioned two instances of in- a Scotsman and died of lead poisonhad occurred and the damages had terest that elucidate court interpreta- ing;" and Sir Harry Lauder, passing twenty-five pounds to vote Conservathrough London the other day, told live?" He was explaining to a small boy

"His Majesty, the King touched me of an accident it must be shown that owner was liable for damages on the grandpa was struck on the head by negligence was the direct cause of the grounds that there was implied con- an Indian with an axe, and that made accident. Previous negligence or pro- sent that the car be taken for test him an angel."

Weekly Fashion Hint

FOR LINEN OR BROADCLOTH The semi-tailored dress is a dominant mode. At Palm Beach it is featured in the pastel-tinted linens; in New York one sees it in broadcloths of exquisite coloring. The picture I model has a circular skirt attached to a semi-fitted bodice rat in a deep V at the front. Vestee and collar are in one, and may be of self- or contrasting material. Medium size requires 4 yards 36-inch linen or 2 7 vards 54-inch broadcloth?

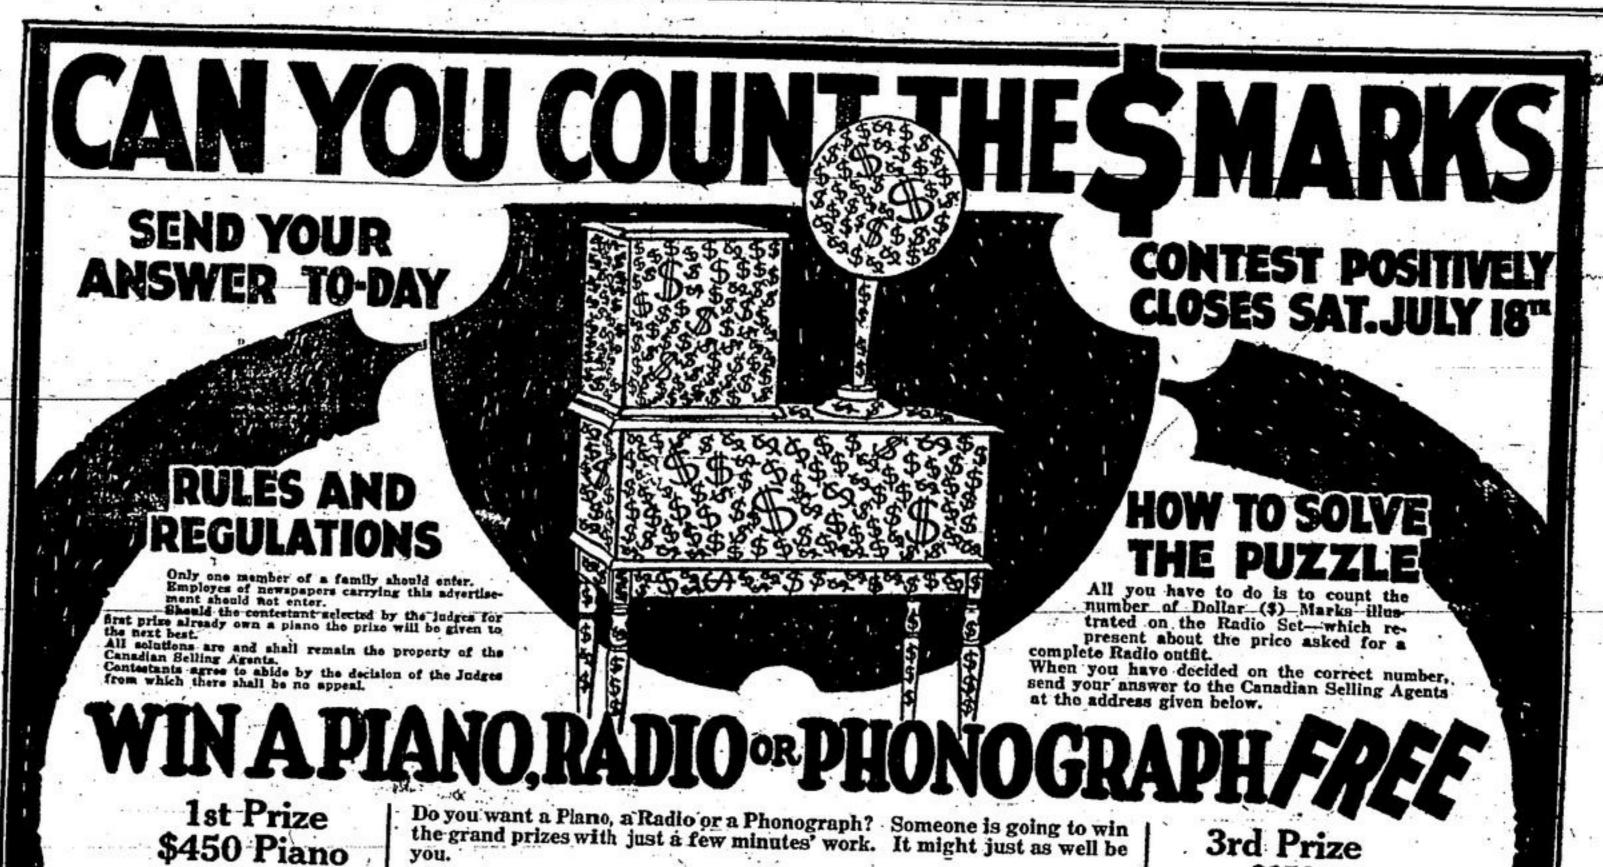

HE HAD A CONSCIENCE, BUT-

One of the witnesses at a Royal Commission appointed to inquire into a case of alleged brillery in an election in the Old Country," stated that Mr. Justice Matthew, in amazement repeated: "You say you received

"And you also received twenty-five pounds to vote Liberal?"

"And for whom did you vote at the finish?" asked the astonished judge. The witness, with injured dignity in great earnestness: "I voted, my lord,

A handsome, new instru-ment of beautiful-tone in walnut finish. 2nd Prize $275 Radio A complete Radio Set, in-cluding Batteries, loud speaker and cabinet.

Piano contests have proved so popular that the Canadian Selling Agents arranged with a Piano, a Radio and a Phonograph manufacturer to conduct this contest. Three Big Prizes and a number of other rewards are

If you want a Piano, a Radio or a Phonograph, send in your answer today. Start at once and count the Dollar ($) Marks, and remember:— Prizes go to the best, neatest, most original correct answers. Don't wait! In case of a tie, the first answer received wins the prize. Read the Rules and Instructions carefully-then send in your answer. This might be your

$150 Phonograph Beautiful Phonograph

equipped to play all records. Mahogany finish. Additional Prizes Purchasing Credit Vouchers valued at from $100.00 to $200.00 will also be

EVERY CORRECT ANSWER RECEIVES A REWARD

cost, a beautiful $450.00 Plano. For the next best, neatest, most original correct answer a $275.00 Radio Set will be given. To the next best will be given a $150.00 Phonograph. Additional prizes-purchasing vouchers valued at from $100.00 to $200.00

SEND YOUR ANSWER TO

CANADIAN SELLING AGENTS 32 WATER STREET SOUTH -

COUPON My count of the Dollar ($) Marks is