The Golden Text-We believe that through theh grace of the Lord Jeaus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

Acts 15: 11. Time-50-52 A. D.

Place-Antioch, Jerusalon. The Text Explained 1. "Except ye be circumcised after the custom of Moses ye cannot be saved." 1-5. The proud heart of man revolts a the doctrine that men are to be saved by grace and grace alone, and that all we have to do is to accept grace by simple faith (Eph. 2: 8). So it caine to pass that certain men came down to Antioch and sought to improve upon the gospel by adding the law of Moses to it, saying, "except ye be circumcised after the custom of Moses, yo cannot be saved." . Those teachers of error were very earnest men and no doubt conscientious, but they were wholly wrong and very dangerous. They have their counterpart to-day in the very conscientions but wholly mistaken and very dangerous teachers of error who say: "Except ye keep the seventh day sabbath, after the cue-tom of Moses, ye cannot be saved." Both circumcision and the seventh day Sabbath belong to the law that was fulfilled and done away with in Christ The threshers are commencing the The great truths that underly both Lieut.-Governor of Bultish Columbia, the law of circumcision and the law of St. Alban's Sunday School is pic- the seventh day Sabbath abide, but the Canadian Pacific Railway, opened Now, Mr. Williams, get out your cording to the gospel a man is justi- and finest salt water swimming pool of the law and this controversy that Expressman Harvey, not to behind arose in the church in Antioch was nyone, drove up to the station on over this question whether a man is condition of faith with the works of Mr. A.
