An Effective Piece of Work

The Council did a splendid piece of work last week in filling the numerous depressions where the roadway was worn and where water worked its way down, with crushed stone and asphalt. This work greatly improved the roadway and the appearance of Church Street would be commendable.

Crossings Need Widening

With the largely increased motor traffic since the completion of the Toronto-Sunbury Highway, the crossings on Mill Street over the Canadian National Railway is found to be much too narrow. It is proposed to be widened at once and graded with broken stone between the several lines of tracks. In making this crossing the other crossing at the intersection of A. E. Nektin, J. P., and his sedan off the crossing and between the rails, a rather dangerous predicament.

Acton Won at Milton Tournament

The Scotch Doubles Tournament held on the greens here on Tuesday evening was not, in spite of the number of entries, the success it was hoped for, though the rain in the morning no doubt kept a number of rinks from attending. Fourteen rinks competed for the prizes, including seven local rinks. The following were the winners: 1st, G. H. Hynd and his partner, of Acton, with three wins and a plus of 22; 2nd, H. W. Kennedy and Joe Gibbons, Georgetown, with three wins and a plus of 21; 3rd, D. G. Gowland and J. W. Blain, Milton, with 3 wins and a plus of 18.—Reformer.

Enjoyable Concert by Visiting Band

On Saturday evening Milton Band gave their return concert at the Acton. The evening was one of the finest this summer for a band concert. This, and the concert given by Milton's fine band, at home brought out a big crowd of citizens and neighboring farmers residents. The Milton Band has twenty-three members, and they were almost in full force on Saturday evening and gave a very fine program. The program was well varied and brought out playing of the band splendidly. The Acton Band did not appear in any of the programs. The band were on hand to welcome the Milton bandmen. After the concert coffee and sandwiches were served in the hall. The orchestra and the band were by the members of both bands. Acton Citizens' Band will provide the concert next week-end.
