THE HOME-BUILDERS GIVE AN

The robin first suggested it .In chatting with the wren. The phoebe and the humming bird The two consulted then. The four felt sure the plun would worl If but the chickadee, The oriole, the chimney swift And swallows would agree.

Those birds were all in full accord And others of their kind When, summoned to the council has Had but a single mind. And this it was they planned to do "We feathered folk will give An exhibition of the homes Where we are wont to live."

Straightway they carried out the plan Where field and forest met: And all who went enjoyed it much And will not soon forget. The nests of every kind were there, A- wondrous sight to see, In bush and bank and tuft and wall And in the spreading tree.

The nests of every kind were there, All built with skill and grace, And holding in their sheltered depths The little eggs in place. And close beside them all the day The feathered builders sang. With what a merry chorusing The field and forest rang!

Among the visitors who came The oddest of the day ... Were little bugs that flow and crawled On a dull wilderness of heat. Or hopped along the way. "The birds will catch us all," they said "And so perhaps 'tis best For us to come ourselves and pick A cosy, stylish nest!"

THE TROUBLES OF A CONSUL

-Oswald M. Rickard

Consuls the world over are likely to types of their fellow countrymen, or As any house-or quite as brave. . women, as in the instance about to be described. It occurred when Capt. A. F. Townshend was acting in his official capacity of British consul in a town in Asia Minor. One day, he relates in "A Mhitary Consul in Turkey" in to his office. She was invited to sit way. When I got up to the little I didn't pass. But I expected it. Why. down, which she did with caution, after subjecting the consul to a careful Young's, and from there passes under the hall!" scrutiny.

"You are the consul, I suppose?" I admitted that such was the case. only stays here for six hours, and I want to go to Tarsus to see the place where Saint Paul lived; and as I believe the train has gone, I want a carriage; and you must guarantee me that shall be back in time for my steamer; and I want an interpreter who speaks English and Turkish, and-" "Madam," I interrupted "I must

"My name is Mrs. X.!" she snapped with a kind of don't-dare-to-madam-

"Very well," I replied, as meekly as I could, "but as you have not shown I could find an interpeter who spoke the Overton of the Planets and to excuse English and Turkish, I would buy him for myself, so I fear you can't have "And you must arrange about lunch for me in Tarsus!" she put in. "But," I continued desperately, " possible. Of course we can't call a shop, which has not been used much "perfectly a wful things" which had shall try to get a carriage as soon as Street, but I'll send a kayass for one." "Rather unsatisfactory!" she growl-

"And I'll ask the Turkish governor to send a policeman on the box, so that you will be quite safe. I cannot, however, guarantee what time you may get back. It is sixteen miles to Tar-

"Well, I won't go at all," she declared as if she were inflicting a crushing blow; "but I want to change a Bank of England five-pound note, and as I don't know the rate of exchange, I shall have to trust you to change it

'Really, Mrs. X." I said, gooded into retaliation, 'you seem to have some very mistaken ideas. Let me tell you that I am neither a cab-proprietor, nor a tourist-agent, nor 'yet a moneychanger, and I must ask you to change your note elsewhere."

She sprang up as if she had a wasp's nest. "Young man, I shall go straight back on board my steamer, and as I have most influential friends in the foreign office, you will hear of me again!" murmured, as the lady sailed out. For days afterward I trembled at the arrival of every telegram; but the foreign office, in its leniency, must have decided to give me one more chance before dismissal without a

WHEN MOTHER WAS LITTLE

The first night I tried I could recall house built on the site of old Mr. and longer necessary. very little to tell her, for these child. Mrs. Overton's home, shortly after Wilhood incidents had been given hardly linm Overton died. Mrs. Ebbage enterthan in what it makes possible for the denly to ignite and spread to some got paper and pencil and jotted down years ago. the recollections which came crowding back when memory was turned upon Overton went to Hallburton, Anthony Patriotism rightly lays its wreath them. Next time she demanded "whin Stephenson secured his old shop and upon the graves of its heroic sons who illness and subsequent ones of others John his helper, though for many years evil which required the sacrifice. of the children. The best thing about most people thought they were in partelling stories to the young is that | thership. After a while the shop got they enjoy hearing the same ones over too small, and Anthony had a new and and over. They like particularly to larger shop built-the one Sandy Mchear about their elders school days. Isnac has just moved to the old site. particularly if their school conditions . The old Bill Overton shop was him. When asked to name the Prest dress to the children in the afternoon, slongl Coroner in regard to a painful were greatly in contrast with those bought, with the little brick cottage dents, he could think of just five- The services were well attended, and tragedy which occurred in the instiof modern education .- M. P. D.

meeting where Gladstone was to speak. school lane. A year or so ago Charlie tion. the hall was packed and the air was Holmes bought the property. Charlie stifling. For some reason, says W. C. a recent book as coming from James ing the old shop into a dwelling. This couldn't to have been half as many garden of 168. Avenue-road, Acton, on drink for a long, time, and the little Russell Lowell, it was impossible to he accomplished, and it is now a very Presidents to remember then, was Saturday in aid of the People's Dis- she took soon overcame her.

It was feared that the noise would it and are quite happy in their improvstartle the audience, and the mayor stepped forward to explain what was proposed. The audience, however, had "Gladstone! Gladstone!" shouting, at the top of his lungs: I've got something to say!"

ONLY MISPLACED.

broken.

"There's one thing I notice about prehension of any such intrusion in our farmer. . As her husband came into his employment as a hackney carriage you people here," observed Mr. Bixby, shug parfor, one lady knitting, another the house one day, she exclaimed: driver at Market-place, Acton. "You don't seem to have much use netting, and the gentleman winding "Oh, John I found four ducks' eggs A petition came before the Acton for the letter 'r.' Back where I came worsted .- Suddenly, to our unspeak among the two dozen you brought in Highways Committee at its last meetfrom it has a sound, as other letters able surprise, a mob appeared before this morning." have, but here it is practically a silent the window. A smart tap was heard "Ducks' eggs." said John. "How to Acton housing estate, protesting "I haven't the slightest idear," re- maid announced Mr. Grenville. Candi- "Why," she answered, "I put them in purpose of testing motor cars, as ex-

THE OLD FARM. HOUSE,

The empty house yawns gloomily Up to the empty, cloudless sky; The scorching August sun rays beat The pump is crumbling, red with rust:

The door is silver white with dust, No hay ricks, jogging homeward pass; A chipmunk scuttles through the grass. The burdock and the ragweed keep Corners where roses used to sleep; The crazy windows leer and stare At ragged trees that once were fair.

Consuls the world over are likely to It stands in changeless dignity; have their hands full with certain Few things I know are quite as grave -John V. A. Weaver

A-CHAPTER OF OTHER DAYS Say, I had quite a start the other day when I walked up Main Street to- ination. the railway and then through the property where the old glove leather tan- ed Betty. "Well," she went on, "my steamer nery used to be, and past the old Smith shingle factory, and on across know." nery in Acton mety years ago; I had stated her fears about her own ex-There on almost the very site where the night before over her left shoulwhich looked just like a little black- ly. smith shop, and I thought for a moment I was back to the old school left shoulder just like the other?" days, and the blacksmith would step fornia Hotel, which was burned more near the site of the old blacksmith sinister in nature that nothing conshop called up many memories. Some nected with It could possibly come out of you will remember old Mr. Over- right. ton's blacksmith shop further down Betty, being one against four, was the street, on the property which Net- outtalked. As she sat, unconvinced, son Moore owns now. When a boy her eyes chanced to rest upon the flag Bill helped his father at the smithy, which hung over the teacher's desk. and when he grow to manhood and The teacher, an enthusiast in Amerithought of marrying and settling down can history, had explained that mornin a home of his own, he asked his ing that when the first new states father for regular wages. This rather were admitted to the original Union angered the old man who thought Bill a star and a stripe for each were addwas well enough at home, where his ed to the flag; but since the stripes mother and his sister Ann-who after- promised to be thinner and more ward became Mrs. Thomas Ebbage- crowded as they were multiplied, it were good housekeepers, and kept the was decided to keep, the thirteen family comfortable. But Bill wasn't stripes and add only to the stars. "That will be a great pleasure," I satisfied, and told his father so in plain terms. The upshot of it all was and selsing a pointer, counted the that the old man wouldn't give in, thirteen stripes aloud. and Bill left him. Bill bought the lot, "Say, girls," she called, over her ness there for himself. He did pretty original states?" . well for a number of years, and then decided to go to Hallburton, where he A SHEAF OF SAGE SENTENCES spent the rest of his active life. But the old man nover forgave Bill for going into business in opposition to inseparably with that of war is to do 9.30 p. m. on Wednesday. To see have in sight, too tie horn; trumpet at Children love to be told about "when Well, time settled all the differences is the enemy of war. mother was a little girl." During long as it invariably does. Old Mr. Overton | All honor to the men who fought for was Henley. hours of wakefulness because of an died many years ago. His widow tol- our country, and the wives and mothers A curious little fire occurred in Cen- the warning, 'Hi, Hi'. abscessed gland, I diverted my small lowed him a few years afterward. Bill who inspired and cared for them. But tral Acton about 1.45 p. m. on Wednesdaughter's mind from her pain by Overton died eight or ten years ago. all honor, also, to the men and women day. The scene of it was the rear of that he shall not take fright as you weaving tales of my own childhood. Thomas Ebbage, passed away in the who to-day labor to make fighting no the new shops in the Broadway, near pass him by; do not explode an exa thought in years; but after that I ed, into rest in Toronto a couple of lives of men. It must rest upon jus- | trees. About forty years ago; after Bill the quality of permanence.

mother was a little girl," I was ready for years he and his brother John made the supreme sacrifice for their conducted a blacksmithing business country, but it serves best the cause the employment of children under 12 collapse and tie-up." "It helped amazingly through that there. Anthony was the owner, and they died for by seeking to abolish the beside it, by Henry Sayers, who owned with four long gaps between them. it until his death three or four years ago, at Speyside. Henry had this old It was a plain, if unusual, distinction cation Lane opened, direct from the lived for a while in the brick cottage, open the windows, and one had to be comfortable house, and Charlie and his there, teacher?" wife and their numerous family occupy Say, I read the Mall and Empire France very long and did not know not assembled to listen to the mayor, sometimes these days, but I read the language very well; so when he the provision of a steam engine and Bedford Park. The King and Queen and overwhelmed him with cries of Globe more; and I find both of them are wanted to know the meaning of a dynamo at Acton Baths. That of are much interested to hear that yes-At last the misconceived and in- And this brings me to remember the One day he asked: furlated official restored shence by elections of the okl days, when John White and D. B. Chishoim, and W. D. I "I'm not going to make a speech! Lyon and Wandering Willie Magdougal an animal that lives in the ice and sufe with explosives was described at great anniversary, together with the were candidates. In those old days of cats fish." electioneering the candidates' trick of kissing the babies was much in fas- heem!" cried Jacques, excitedly. hion. The determined candidate of a generation or two ago, was as deeply one wants you to be a polar bear." Interested in all members of a voter's "But yes, monsieur," answored Jac- at Manor-road with intent to steal the

vised quarters.

were different description of the way things were But live on ice and cat fish-nevaire!" from those to which the visitor had done more than a hundred years ago. been accustomed. Both eye and ear, We were sitting yesterday at dintherefore, were occupied with study ner, the two ladies and myself, very composedly and without the least apat the door, the boys imileed, and the you know they were ducks' eggs?" . against the use of their roads for the ble to affront, and would rather, suppose, climb in at the window than be, absolutely excluded, In a minute the yard, the kitchen and the parlor were fitted. Mr. Grenville, advancing toward me, shook me by the hand with a degree of cordiality that was extremely seducing. As soon as he and as many more es could find chairs were seated, he began to open the intent of his visit. I told him I had no vote, for which he readily gave me credit. I assured him I had no influence, which he was not equally inclined to believe.

Thus -ended the conference. Mr Grenville squeezed my hand again, St. John Ambulance Brigade.

Our own Davie Henderson of popular | On Sunday morning a collision occontest he engaged in, tried the baby- Acton. kissing plan of election candidates, in his early election experiences. But Davie couldn't make votes that way. Those long sideboard whiskers of nis seemed to scare the kiddles when he got his face close to theirs. And, anyway, he didn't much like the process, especially when he was down among Our Davie, the dear man, had plenty fete on the church athletic association's of bables to kiss at home, and home lawn tennis courts at Snell's Farm, was, after all, his paradise. You don't North Acton, on Saturday.

Some minds, even untrained minds, dark corners in which superstitions and fantastic fears may hide. Such a mind was Betty's. The class in history had been examined, and several girls lingered in the schoolroom, discussing the exam-ward the new Toronto-Sarnia . high- "O dear!" sighed one. . "I just know creek which runs down from Mr. Swit- I was in such a hurry this morning zer's farm, and then through -Mr. that I opened my umbrella right in deprived hundred of Actonians of milk so prudent? Has she decided not to him and he blurted out:

"What harm did that do?" demand-"Why, it's an awf. bad sign, you that corner lot, and then under Main Yes, indeed," chimed in another Street, and into the Ebbage fot where girl. "Something herrid always hap-John Zimmerman built the first tan- pens afterwards." The speaker then to rub my eyes, and think a few amination, and disclosed the ominous minutes, wondering where I was fact that she had seen the new moon Bill Overton built his blacksmith shop der. "Some of the questions weren't sixty years ago, stood an old building fair, anyhow," she finished plaintive-

"Pshaw!" said Betty. "Isn't your Betty was too young to quote Shakeout of the door if I waited a little speare on the predilection of people while. But as I looked, and wondered, to attribute the results of their own there explained that it was the old enly compulsion"; but she sturdily Stephenson blacksmith shop, which maintained that if they know their Anthony Stephenson built over forty lessons, moons, shoulders and umyears ago on the site of the Old Cali- brellas could not affect examinations. To convince the unbeliever the other than half a century ago. This old girls poured forth direful accounts of for blacksmithing since Anthony and followed on the occurrence of various John quit a good many years back, bad signs. They waxed especially elowas moved across the street, and one quent over the baleful influence of of the men working about the building the number thirteen. One told that a told me that Sandy McIsaec, grandson Christmas dinner, at which thirteen of my old friend John McIsaac, who sat, was followed by the death of one lived for many years on the third line, of the participants during the week had bought it and intends making a Betty's inquiries developed the fact garage of it. It's rather a dilapidated that the deceased was an old lady in looking place now, but when Sandy her eighties, who attended the feast clads it with brick or metal it will pass against her physician's orders. But that did not matter. The cause of The presence of that old building disaster was thirteen, which was no

Suddenly Betty ran to the platform

FAVORED AGE

"I am surprised, Isadore," said the conductorship of Mr. E. A. V. Capon aged male patient cut his throat under teacher, who had left middle age well gave much pleasure.

humbly; then a brilliant and comfort- make them he annual event.

"NEVAIRE I"

Jacques had not been over from £3 15s. "What is him a pole bear?"

Rolling, his cousin, who resided in family as he is to-day. In William ques; "a man next door he die, and nother part of the country, where Cowper's "Lettera" may be found a ze neighbors say will I be a pole bear

DUCK'S EGGS

ACTON NEWS FROM OVERSEAS The Gazette of July 17, contained the Following Itoms of Nows It is proposed to appoint a temporary dental surgeon for the Acton Acton Education Committee is recommended to pay £1 15s. 9d. a ton for kitchen coal and £2 8s. 6d. a ton for anthracite (Cwmgrach cobbles). Eight members of the Acton Fire kissed the ladies, and withdrew. He | An estimate of the cost of the laykissed likewise the maid in the kitchen; out of the remainder of the Actor and seemed, upon the whole, & most Cemetery extension is to be prepared. loving, kissing, kind-hearted gentle- Coffin turn-tables have been provided at the cemetery chapels.

Brigado have been successful in obtaining first aid certificates from the political fame in this county, and who curred near Hart-grove. Shepherd's for over thirty years was able to cor- Bush, between a tramcar and a private ral sufficient votes to give him election motor car owned and driven by Mr. A. and good majority in nearly every W. Dunstall (60), of 31 Hillcrest-road, The Town Clerk, Mr. W. Hodson, who has recently been indisposed, was again unable to be present at the Council meeting on Tuesday, and his place was taken by the Deputy Town Clerk, Mr. J. Morgan. Members of the Acton Congregationthe mountaineers of Nassagawoya al Church held their annual garden hear much about election candidates | Harry Sheriff, of Packington-road, kissing bables these days. I fancy Acton, and John Flack, of St. Mareven Agree McPhall, M. P., would garet's-terrace, Acton, were each fined make a sorry mess of it if she tried 10s. at Acton Police Court on Wednesday for using indecent language. Three more South Actonians were fired £1 each, including costs, at Brentford this week for neglecting to have their children vaccinated. ---A party of the 7th Acton Scouts have spent a very enjoyable week in Paris. Most of the places of interest in and around the city were visited, including the International Art Exhiare so luminous that they contain no bition and an evening was spent with yard fence and watched the stout Mr. the 1st Paris troop (English-speaking Streeter trying to balance himself in

> Acton Troop were in camp at their er," said he, "I've just got back from headquarters over the week-end, whilst the city, and I've found out my wife is their brother scouts were competing the most prudent woman in the world." fice, made his request. annual camper and scoutcraft com- with a face as red as if he had apoppetition in Gunnersbury Park. The vagaries of a frightened horse with their breakfast on Sunday. A buy any more new hats?" corner of Newton avenue became of land flowing with milk, if not with

Frances Hart, of Colville-road, Acton and Constance Dover, of the same address, who, were both recently bound over appeared at Acton Police Court again on Wednesday, when Hart a week ago. It's a beauty! Has a summoned Dover for damaging her rosewood case, the handsomest you clothes line. As a general bi-weekly collection of Polished like a mirror, carved legs house refuse in Acton would cost an and gives a rich look to the whole additional expenditure of £2,500 per house. annum, the proposal is not to be proceeded with, but householders can got dryly. a second collection for 6d. A young man who obtained a sunimons against a neighbor at Acton Police Court on Monday said that the he paid a visit there recently. In view of road developments at East Acton, including the re-surfacing handsome cover, but that it wasn't and widening of East Acton Green, the half so pretty as the wood with its time is considered to be opportune for polish and handsome grain. She exwidening East Acton-lane from the plained that the wood might get Vale to Churchfield-road-east. Miss I. M. Browell, Southfield-roud funior School, Acton, is to be granted bright as it is now." leave of absence to enable her to undertake a year's teaching in Ausralla under the League of Empiro isn't an. When I came home to-night the guests received by Ald. H. W. Pean, not be ugly, but it, isn't to be comsheriff of Middlesex, and Mrs. and Miss pared to the plush. So I protested. 1 Peal, at a garden party held last week said it was a sharne to hide that hand-Stephen's-road, Ealing. by a large gathering of parents and wasteful to let the dust settle all over old boys. Favored by beautiful weath- a delicate thing of that sort and make er, the scene on the school grounds it look old and dingy inside a year. was somewhat in the nature of a She said the lineh cover was to progarden party, there being an interval tect it. Now that's prudence, unadulfor tea ices, and light refreshments. terated prudence! Dut between you Although most of the staff of the and me, Streeter, I've been wonder-Acton Vale Pensions Office reside away ing if it would not have been cheaper from Acton, they are never slow to to buy the linen cover first-then we recognize that by day they are parish- shouldn't have needed the plush." oners of the neighboring church of "Or the resewood plane, either," ad-St. Thomas, and have, many times ded Streeter. given very practical help in the way of organizing entertainments.

When Nathan Tobias, of Churchroad, 'Acton, was summoned by his wife at Acton Police Court on Wednescomplained of his wife's drinking hab- tion:beside the little creek and started bust- left shoulder, "how about the thirteen its. He was prepared to agree to a separation order of 15s. a week. Members of the Acton Chamber of Commerce and their friends, sufficiently numerous to fill three charabancs, wise disrespect him. To link the conception of patriotism travelled about 70 miles between 2 and -3. When a passenger of the foot it a grievous wrong. A true patriotism famous Thames riverside resorts was him, melodiously at first; but if he still their aim, and the limit of their trip obstacles your passage, tootle him with the Globe Cinema, where dry grass haust blow at him. Go soothingly by.

Owing to the number of complaints with the wheel spokes .of the improper employment of children in Acton, the Acton Education as there lurks skid demon. Committee has drawn the attention of "8. Press the brake of the foot as employers to the by-laws prohibiting you roll around the corner, to save years, and regulating their employment between 12 and 14 years. A number of warnings have been issued. Mr. W. Cunningham, a · Hammersmith magisfrate, was the special thereby occasioned. When the teacher looked severely preacher on Sunday at-the Acton Hill at Isadore Levinsky, all ideas fled from Wesleyan Church, and gave the ad- absolved from all blame by the Divithe singing of the children under the tution on Tuesday when a middle-shop moved across the lot, when the in the background. "When I was The first summer sports ever or to pain and wony. old school lane was diverted, and Edu- eleven years -old, more than a year ganized for the boys and girls of the When Helena Golding, a laundress, younger than you are now, I-could re- Acton Schools, Oldham-terrace, were of Park-road north, Acton, who was made by the English mayor in the fol- front door of the Public School to Main cite the list of Presidents without a held on Friday afternoon, and gave found outside her house having a row lowing story: At a large political Street, and placed it facing on the new single mistake or a moment's hesita- so much pleasure to the children and with people who were trying to get her the parents, who came to see their to go indoors, was charged at Acton "Teacher, yes, ma'am," said Isadore, athletic prowess that it is intended to Police Court on Tuesday with being Brownen, who quotes the incident in and then conceived the idea of convert- ing idea came to him. "But there A small sale of work was held in the language, she said she had not had any pensary for Sick Animals of the Poor. Mr. and Mrs. J. Cox, 107 Fielding-It was arranged by two children, Mar- road, Acton Green, an account of whose jorie Carpenter (11) and Maisle Steep- diamond wedding celebration appeared er (9). The sale realized the sum of in the "Acton Gazette" last week, have Eighteen tenders were received for ingham Palace-To Mr. and Mrs. Cox, talking about a new general election. word he went to his friend Hodges. Mossrs. Belliss and Morcom at £462 terday you telebrated your diamond was recommended by the special subcommittee for adoption. "You mean a polar bear? That's - An alleged attempt to blow open Brentford Police Court on Thursday hope that you are both in good health. "I will not be heem! I will not be when George Saunders of Davis-road. Private Secretary," Acton, ice cream salesman, was charg-"My dear fellow," said Hodges, "no ed with breaking and entering the warehouse of Mesars. T. Wall and Son, That he admitted having had six or > seven half pints of beef during the day was stated by a constable of

> Frank King a licensed motor driver, who was charged at Acton Police Court

A city-bred girl married a young on Tuesday with being drunk during ing signed by 223 residents on the East

Weekly Fashion Hint

FOR DINING OR DANCING

The charm of a beautifully designed frock is enhanced by the materials used in its development. Here white Georgette crepe is printed with large flowers in black and pink. The inset godets are of plain white Georgette, while the long, graceful scarf corresponds with the border of the frock. If 54-inch material is used for the model, only 11/2 yard will be required for the dress.

HOUSEHOLD ECONOMY

Mr. Stringer looked over the backa squatting position and pull up gar-The Eagle Eye Patrol of the 2nd den weeds at the same time. "Streetlexy. "Hello, Stringer!" he coughed. "What makes you think your wife is but suddenly a brilliant idea struck

> "No, but she took some money I enough to advance me the necessary gave her and bought a piano." "Is donkey after your worship." "Huh!" snickered-Mr. Streeter.

that what you call-prudence?" "Wait a bit." Mr. Stringer replied. "As I say, she bought a plane about over saw. Shines like a new dollar.

"Music" inside?" asked the other, boys don't fight."

"Now here's where the prudence "I thought he was a good little boy looks, Mrs. Lombard; anny wan would comes in." went on Mr. Stringer, disregarding his friend's remark. came home last Tuesday and found thetrouble was due to jewlousy because plane entirely hidden by a plush cover he did not take her to Southend when that hung over on each side like one of those little blankets you see tiea on pug-dogs. I told my wife it was a scratched, but that with the cover over it; it would always be just as

"That was prudence, but-" "Don't interrupt, Streeter. That scheme for the interchange of teachers. I found a linen cover over the plush. The Mayor of Acton was amongst of course a brown linen cover. may in the grounds of "Oakhurst" St. some plush affair. My wife answered that the plush cover cost nine dollars The annual athletic sports of the and sixty-eight cents, including the Acton County School, which took place initials embroidered in yellow at the on Saturday afternoon, were attended corner, and that it seemed to her

RULES OF THE ROAD-TOKIO

This is not a loke; it appears just day for desertion, his solicitor said he as it is in Japan's largest police sta-

"Rules of the Road-Tokio, Japan. "I. At the rise of the hand policeman stop rapidly. "2. Do not pass policeman or other-

"4. Beware of the wandering horse, "5. Give big space to the festive dog

The Acton Hospital authorities were drunk, disorderly, and using obscene received the following telegram: "Buckwedding, and I am desired to convey to you their Majesties' sincere congratulations and bost wishes on this

SUCCESS POINTS

By the Late Viscount Leverhulme: sacrifice, and service for others. doing something new-far more." "Some think hard work may kill man. It never did. It is a good habit chance than ever, but the sacrifice is from 4 to 6 ounces of castor oil. Angreater owing to the opportunities for other mixture consists, of 2 ounces of amusement and self-indulgence." died years ago. Don't believe it. There castor oil is included to prevent injury are finer young men in England to-day to the skin. Tallow may be used in-

than ever." "It is capital that is looking for young fellows all the time."

business success and of Christianity Care should be taken to have a suffiare the same, and that foundation is cient quantity of a mixture when or service for others." 'ness. Art is the rock under the shadow necessary if the flies are anyway abunof which business men revive their dant. The mixture should be carried in or short of capital."

REPAYMENT

The mayoral chair of a certain English town was once occupied by a man of great generosity. Among the applicants who sought conducted by one of his parishioners rellet from him during his tenure of to get a shave. He observed that the were of the opinion that he never cheek. Nevertheless, Tim didn't see why the priest, as he raised his hand and he shouldn't ask the mayor for a donkey and cart to set up in the rag-andbone business.

So he called on him one day, and, after being admitted to his private of- priest, in a tone of censure, "what the "Well, Tim," replied the mayor, "If for the honor of the troop in the The other got up and looked round I give you this money, how are you ber humbly, "it makes the shkin tin-This was rather a poser for Tim.

"Well, yer worship, if you're kind

HE CHANGED HIS MIND

Billy came home from school bear- thought you said the blby was named ing every evidence of having had the for me. My name is Hannah, and you are calling the baby 'Celestine.'" worst of a fight. "Why, Billy!" exclaimed his mother. "How often have I told you to play O'Sullivan, hastily. "The 'L' is for only with good little boys? Good little Lombard, and 'Celestine' is just a "Well," said Billy through his tears, There ain't anny 'Hannah' to you tin I hit him."

PROTECTION AGAINST

MOSQUITOES The secret of success is no secret! Certain protective mixtures applied At all. Will to man pay the price of to the skin are of great value in wardsuccess? That is the point. There is ing off mosquitoes, black-flies and only one certainty-hard work, self- similar pests, especially when the insects are very numerous. A number "Believe me, there is much more of formulas for such mixtures are money made in doing something better given in a pamphlet on the methods of than ever it was done before than in protection against mosquitoes and black-flies, Just issued by the Entomotogical Brunch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture. A mixture recommended by the author is coms hard-work, and it is bad habits that paged of 3 ounces of oil of citronella 1 of sprits of camphor, 1 of oil of tar "Young men of to-day have a better 14 an ounce of oil of pennyroyal and oil of citronella, 1/4 an ounce of penny-"Some say that all the great men royal and 2 ounces of castor oil. The stead if it is desired to have the mixture in the form of a paste. When the insects are abundant "The best chance a young man has is necessary to apply the mixture a in life is to start either without capital least once every half hour, using liberal quantities and rubbing it very "The fact is that the foundation of thoroughly over the hands and face an extended trip in the woods. A "In all the ups and downs of busi- least one ounce per person per day is small aluminum flask or scrow top tin, but not in a glass bottle as it as apt to break.

TABLES WERE TURNED

A priest-went into a barber shop office was a local character known as barber was suffering from a recent

Tim. Now, Tim had rather a doubt- celebration, but decided to take a ful reputation. He had never done a chance. In a few moments the bargreat deal of work, and several people ber's razor had nicked the father's "There. Pat. you have cut me." said caressed the wound.

> "Yis, y'r riv'rence," answered the "That shows you," continued the use of liquor will do." "Yis, y'r riv'rance," replied the bar-

HER NAMESAKE

When Mrs. Lombard heard that the I'll tell you what I'll do. I'll name the baby of her former cook had been named for her, she bought a suitable rattle with many jingling bells, and went to see her namesake. "Why. Bridget," she said to the late Miss Leahy, now Mrs. O'Sullivan, "I

> "'Celestine L.,' ma'am," said Mrs. koin of a name to describe you, ma'am. tell you that." -

Make sure of a room

Thehotelswillbecrowded with people arriving for the Exhibition.

If you intend stopping at a hotel, call up by Long Distance promptly and make your reservations.

If you intend stopping with friends, telephone them and make sure they can accommodate you. They may have

The definite assurance comfortable accommodations waiting for you will make holiday trips doubly enjoyable.

other arrangements

Boery Bell Telephone is a

toba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, -- Edmonton, Tannia

50,000 $ 15.00 Plus half a cent a mile beyond to all points in Mani-HARVESTERS

WANTED Returning-Half a cent per mile to Winnipeg,

GOING DATES AUGUST 18th and 21st August 18th-Toronto, Caledon East, Beeton, Mea-ford, Collingwood, Penetang, Midland, Parry Sound, Sudbury, Capreol and east thereof in Ontario.

August 21st-Toronto, Inglowood Jet. and all Stations south and west thereof in Ontario. SPECIAL TRAINS CANADIAN

Aug. 21st, 12.30 P.M.-August 21st, 10.30 P.M.

Calgary, MacLeod and East,

Through trains-Comfortable Colonist Cars-Special cars for Women and Children Purchase your ticket to Winnipeg via Canadian National Railways, whether or not your final destination in the West is a point on the Canadian National Tickets and all information from nearest Agent.

STANDARD TIME

"I've Never Advertised In Twenty Years"

"Yes, I'll admit times are a bit slow with me but I'm hoping for the turn of Waiting for their ships to come in has spelled disaster for all too many Canadian merchants. Don't think along the lines of the man above. Advertise!

Advertising in THE ACTON FREE PRESS will keep your name and store constantly before the people in this town. Advertising is a wonderful business-building force---and profitable to use. Talk it over with us.

PROGRESSIVE MERCHANTS ADVERTISE

Association dissued by Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association

Get Acquainted with Free Press' Advertisers