Serious Accident on the Mountain Side
A motor accident with rather serious consequences occurred on the mountain side on the second line, near Dunlop, last Thursday evening. Joseph Hulse, of Orangeville, was driving the sedan, which was badly wrecked and the occupants injured. Hulse and his two daughters (Misses Clara and Dolia), and F. Faulkner, were on their way to Milton to take part in the programme at the summer carnival. Hulse was coasting down and when near St. Helena road his motor got beyond his control. It ran wild down the hill, struck a telephone pole, and turned turtle several times. All the occupants were injured. Miss Clara Hulse more seriously than the others, having several ribs broken. A doctor was summoned from Milton, who, after rendering first aid, had Miss Hulse taken to the home of a friend there. Later she was able to return home with her sister. The motor car was considerably damaged.

A JOINT S. S. PICNIC

The Sunday Schools of the Baptist Church, Acton, and the Congregational Church, Churhill.
The Sunday Schools of the Baptist Church, Acton, and the Congregational Church, Churhill, held their annual picnic at Rockwood on Civic Holiday. The scholars were conveyed in motor coaches to the picnic grounds. The picnic was conducted by Fred Crowson. The following programme of sports was held: 25 yards for girls, 3 to 6—Frank Crowson, Willie McLaughlin; 25 yards for boys, 6 to 10—Eimer Cole, Herbie Wood; 50 yards for girls, 6 to 10—Margaret Crowson, Willie McLaughlin; 50 yards for boys, 6 to 10—Margaret Crowson, Willie McLaughlin; 50 yards for boys, 6 to 10—Margaret Crowson, Willie McLaughlin; Peanut Race—Edna Gray, Dorcas Munnell; Tug of War—R. Kerr, captain, A. L. Cole, R. Cole, A. Cripps, N. Cripps, F. Crowson, captain, P. West, E. J. Swackhamer, H. Smart, W. Foster; Mr. R. Kerr's team proved to be the winners. This programme and some good games of baseball and soft ball, a bountiful supper was served. The picnic was a most enjoyable one and the old-time reputation was not at all diminished, while the Acton ladies refused to take any second place in supplying delicacies for the picnic. After supper Rev. J. W. Boyd gave a short address and led the united prayer. Her address was on "Credit is due to the superintendent of these schools, with their staff of teachers, for arranging a delightful outing for the pupils and their friends."

Neighborhood News--Town and Country

CREWSON'S CORNERS
Mrs. H. McGorman, of Nepean, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Halliwell, of Dunlop, were the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. William Dennis and other friends here and in Acton last week. The Dennis family, who are here on a holiday, were over on the spot for the splendid highway through here and he needs to. There are lot of drivers who obtain the privilege of the highway after them. Guelph Paper Box Co. and Guelph Co. Ltd. are the owners of the highway. The party that day had the largest attendance in its history. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gagen and Phyllis, of Toronto, visited at the home of Mr. William Dennis during the week.

OPRINGE
These bright sunny days are ideal for harvest operations which are in full swing, and our industrial farmers are making splendid progress. Cutting out is the order of the day and they are a splendid crop on many farms in the vicinity. The yield is much better than expected a few weeks ago. From reports threshing operations will commence next week in this locality. Many of our residents attended the races and field sports held in Stanley Park on Civic Holiday. The weather was ideal for the event. A large number of our young people enjoyed the picnic at the Stanley Park pavilion on Monday evening. The garden party at Everton last Wednesday evening was a success and many of our residents enjoyed the surrounding district. Our local ladies are busy these days preparing the supply of raspberries which are a splendid crop. Miss Marjorie Aitken, of Toronto, spent the week-end holiday at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. Aitken, in spending a few days visiting her parents in Milton. Miss Annie Marshall, of Guelph, is holding with her friend Miss Emily Young.

The barley harvest commenced last week.
Acton's share of the county rate for this year is $5,184.88.
September wheat sold in Chicago on Monday at $1.74.
The splendid rains of the week have retarded the raspberry crop.
A good many motorists still drive top fast over the street intersections.
There were numerous visitors here over the holiday. Everybody welcomed them.
Do any hearts beat faster, do any faces brighten to hear your "footstep at the door."
The next meeting of Esquimaux Council will be held on Monday, August 10, at 1:30 o'clock.
Civic holiday was favored with delightful weather. The people were out enjoying the day.
Sweet corn, which is such a welcome addition to the family menu after midsummer, is appearing already this year.
Quite a large number of our citizens are attending from day to day the Old Home Week celebrations at Kitchener.
The volume of motor traffic over the highway through the city on Civic holiday was the largest in the history of the town.
Esquimaux Fall Fair will be held on the 22nd and 23rd of September, not on the 2nd and 3rd of October, as has been announced.
Most of our ills are balanced by our blessings. It is tough to get up before daylight, but it is great to go home before dark.
Rev. H. G. L. Baugh, of Acton, conducted the eleven o'clock service at St. George's Church on Sunday.
The Acton Ladies' tennis team will play the St. Catharines ladies on the Ingewoods courts at Hamilton this (Thursday) afternoon.
Boost your town, boost your friends; boost for every forward movement; boost for every new improvement.
Isn't it about time that the barrels used during a picnic or garden party to the park a month or so ago, were removed from the park driveway.
The price of hard coal was increased in Toronto on the 1st of August from $16.00 to $15.50. The jump in price is a month earlier than usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan M. Livingstone celebrated the golden anniversary of their marriage on Wednesday, July 22nd, at their home in Mount Forest. The family gathering, which marked the happy event included their eight children and 16 grandchildren. Mr. Livingstone was married July 22nd, 1870, to Miss Elizabeth M. Livingstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Livingstone, of Mount Forest. The children are: Mrs. Oakeshott, Mrs. Sawyer, Misses Laura and Katharine, of Toronto, who were also 46 guests present. A purse of gold and numerous other jewelry gifts were presented to the bride couple—Mount Forest Representative.

Serious Accident on the Mountain Side
A motor accident with rather serious consequences occurred on the mountain side on the second line, near Dunlop, last Thursday evening. Joseph Hulse, of Orangeville, was driving the sedan, which was badly wrecked and the occupants injured. Hulse and his two daughters (Misses Clara and Dolia), and F. Faulkner, were on their way to Milton to take part in the programme at the summer carnival. Hulse was coasting down and when near St. Helena road his motor got beyond his control. It ran wild down the hill, struck a telephone pole, and turned turtle several times. All the occupants were injured. Miss Clara Hulse more seriously than the others, having several ribs broken. A doctor was summoned from Milton, who, after rendering first aid, had Miss Hulse taken to the home of a friend there. Later she was able to return home with her sister. The motor car was considerably damaged.
