Getting Settled in New Home
A letter received this week from Rev. J. Culp says he and Mrs. Culp are now getting comfortably settled in their new home at 325 Elm Avenue, Mountain View, California. They think they have an ideal place. They have sufficient garden and more than enough fruit, including figs, walnuts and almonds, all of which are a good crop this year. The climate, he says is ideal, and the people are giving them a cordial welcome, but there are still longings for the good old days and the good old friends in the Canadian home.

Acton Ladies Win
The Acton Ladies' Softball Team met a picked team from Guelph in the Park on Tuesday evening. The Acton ladies played their usual snappy ball and won in a close decision over their Guelph rivals by a score of 12-11. Lottie Mason pitched a good game. Eve Johnston starred on the defense for the locals with an unassisted double play. The Guelph team, led by Lottie Mason were the heavy hitters in the twilight fixture. On account of some darkness, the game was held before the game was over and the last two innings were much slower than the early part of the game.

Acton's Memorial Appreciated
Superintendent Wilson has received from Mrs. Strathairn Hay, the daughter of the late Sir Adam Beck, a very interesting letter. The appreciation of the floral tributes set up by the Hydro Commission and citizens of Acton. The people of this town have always felt grateful to Sir Adam for the interest he took in coming to a public meeting of citizens fourteen years ago to discuss the possibility of a great benefit to occur to the town by changing from the town's system of producing electric current to the Hydro-Electric plant. The plan is a full and satisfactory information that the ratepayers were quite ready to accept the Hydro plan, which is the most satisfactory public utility of our municipal undertakings.

Abil Germans in the United Church
Mr. R. E. Byles, of Toronto, preached in the United Church last Sunday morning and evening. His sermons were earnest and intellectual and much enjoyed by the congregation. His morning theme was advancement in the effort of the Church of God, and his evening theme was "The Lord of the World." The Lord of the World was making his exodus out of Egypt. "Go Forward." The subject of the evening sermon was "The story of creation as given in the first chapter of Genesis." The sermon was a treat, and the deduction was that God is still engaged in creating and improving these features of this kingly world. Mr. Byles' sermon was most helpful to his followers in their service of Him. Rev. Mr. Zimmerman, of Acton, was present and was in his pulpit for next Sunday's services.

Miss Bertha Brown Home from London
London, England, in June, 1924, to spend a year teaching in the London school, arrived home on Monday morning. Miss Bertha Brown, who has been very interesting experience, having taught in about twenty schools during the year, is now in the city of London. She is in company with one or two other Canadian teachers, not only visited many places of interest but travelled considerably on the Continent. They visited a number of the most interesting cities in Europe, including Switzerland and Italy, and investigated many historical places, castles, cathedrals, ancient ruins and other interesting sights. Miss Brown is now in a garden party at Buckingham Palace and saw King George and Queen Mary. The year was a most profitable and enjoyable one. Miss Brown has returned home on a train from London and is now in Guelph. She is glad indeed to get back to Canada.

The Band's One Big Night
Acton Citizens' Band has enjoyed for some time the reputation of being the citizens of Acton and vicinity with plenty of real good musical entertainment, but their performance, which they will give tomorrow (Friday) evening promises to eclipse anything they have ever done. The Band is the "Pioneer's Drill Team," in their fancy dress uniforms will put on their fancy show in their own band. The band will also play again. And your own band, the Acton Citizens' Band will also be on hand. Truly the posters which are being put up in the city and they call it "One Big Night" and state that two-night programme have been well held prior to the performance in the park.

Acton Wins Another
The Manswood Baseball Club came to Acton last Saturday to play their return engagement with the local ball-hawks. Acton won the game by a score of 12-4. The Manswood team did not play near the ball they did the week before of their own field when they had scored enough runs to win and did not continue to play their regular game. McDonnell and White mused up a few that made the pair of usually good players look bad. The game was not of the variety that bores the fans of their toes. Gibbons went well for the locals, striking out the third man with men on bases frequently. In the Halton Weighing League Hillburg beat Georgetown in a 10 innings game by a 14-11 score. Acton Flower Show Has Another Success

Fine Showing of Flowers, Attractively Arranged amid Decorated Surroundings

Acton's Fourth Annual Flower Show was held in the drill hall on Wednesday of last week in ideal weather. The hall was nicely decorated with evergreen and flags, and reflected credit upon Mrs. William Hall, the President, and her energetic Committee.

The display of flowers was not as large as on some previous occasions, which is accounted for partly by the late date of the season and partly by the fact that several who exhibited largely in past years were this year, for various reasons, missing from the show.

But there were several exhibitors who have never shown before, and these new newcomers as this tended to make the show more interesting. The show is spreading further afield.

White exhibits were not as numerous as in previous years, but the quality was on the whole very good, and the tables looked very pretty. The attention of the committee, who were assiduous in attention to the wants of visitors.

The attendance of visitors was only fair and hardly up to former years. Masou's Orchestra rendered a good programme of music during the evening.

Altogether, while perhaps hardly equaling the show of past years, the officers and directors have every reason to congratulate themselves on the result of their effort, especially as when the financial balance sheet is made up, it will show a balance on the right side.

ACTON CITIZENS' BAND PICNIC

A Fine Outing at Huttenville Park on Saturday Afternoon

The first picnic held by Acton Citizens' Band on Saturday afternoon proved a most successful one. The place, Huttenville Park, and the weather on Saturday afternoon was everything that could be desired. The pic-nickers were accommodated with a special train on the Toronto-Suburban Electric Railway line, and left Acton at 1.40. Upwards of 200 bandmen, their wives, families and citizens travelled on this special for the afternoon's outing.

After the races a softball game was played between two teams representing the band and the citizens. The game was won by the bandmen 15-12. The umpire was Bandmaster Mason and Mr. C. H. Harrison.
Supper was served following the ball game and a real business session was held on the tables.
A bevy of bandmen were the efficient waiters.
After the tables were cleared away and the band was formed for a tug-of-war was staged with George Smith and N. P. Moore as captain of the team.
The band then played a few selections and the citizens were the distribution of the prizes by Bandmaster Mason. The prizes were quite suitable and the citizens were well pleased with the award.
At this juncture Mr. C. H. Harrison took occasion, on behalf of the citizens who had attended the picnic, to thank the band for their splendid afternoon's outing. Bandmaster Mason replied and said it was the aim of the band to work in cooperation with the citizens and this was only one of the many ways in which the band was always pleased to co-operate in a community way.
A special item that called forth much good natured fun in the present picnic was the presentation of a galvanized iron shield suitably painted to the winning tug-of-war team and a galvanized iron cup which stood full of two feet in height to the winning ball team. Both these trophies have been placed in the band room.
The band played several more numbers following the distribution of the prizes and the special picnic was on hand promptly at 3.30 to convey the pic-nickers home.

Tragic Fatality at Level Crossing

William Weaver, of Dolly Varden, Received Injuries from Stalled Motor

A terrible fatal accident occurred on Saturday forenoon at the third level crossing near the works of the Varden branch of the Toronto Line Company. At this level crossing both the Canadian National Railway line and the Canadian National Electric line pass over the highway.

Mr. W. Weaver, of Cobocook, and Mr. Oulton, a friend, came to visit Mr. William Weaver. They came up to Acton in the morning. Mr. Weaver accompanied them and were returning to Mr. Weaver's home at the Dolly Varden. Mr. Weaver was driving and had reached the Canadian National Railway crossing. While in the act of driving the grade at this point, the car stalled with the rear wheels on the level crossing. The passenger train from Toronto turned the curve at this point and plunged into the stalled car.

Mr. Weaver was about to jump to save himself when the engine of the passenger train struck the car and the passengers were hurled to the scene of the accident, and had the injured man removed to the grade and taken to the Guelph General Hospital, where he was handed over to Dr. Howitt, the Canadian National Railway surgeon. An examination showed that the injuries sustained included the fracture of both legs, a fracture of the skull, the right shoulder blade, the right arm and the toes of the left foot and the right knee were badly crushed. Mr. Weaver's right shoulder blade was broken and the car, which was a new Star, was badly damaged. One side was crushed and the top was torn off.

The victim of this deplorable accident was forty-seven years of age. A widow and three children survive him. He came to Dolly Varden from Cobocook about five years ago, and was an excellent workman.

Mr. William Gowdy, superintendent of the Toronto Line Company went to Guelph as soon as he learned of the accident and conferred with the injured employee until his death.

The crossing where this accident occurred has been regarded as a man trap for years. The attention of the Municipal Railway Board was called to it years ago. Mr. Gowdy, who is a member of the Engineering Township Council, says the Council has been anxious about it for years. It is impossible to gain any view of safety.

After the accident the Council has been anxious about it for years. It is impossible to gain any view of safety.

The funeral was held on Monday, with service at Knox Church, Acton, where the deceased was a member. Rev. James Boyd conducted the service.

Much sympathy is expressed for the bereft widow and her family.
