Hon. Mr. Lyons gave as the reason for his action the fact that his private business firm-the Lyons Fuel and Supply Company, Limited-could not afford to refuse orders from Government contractors.

Last year in the House the Prime Minister laid down as a practice that members of the Legislature were not to do business with the Government. even through joint stock companies of which they might be members. Hon. Mr. Lyons at the time accepted the Premier yesterday to have since abided by it. His firm, however, opcrates largely in Northern Ontario, where large Government works are progressing in connection with foad and colonization schemes. To be debarred from selling to the contractors for these works, Hon. Mr. seriously his company's operations. To continue the business, on the other hand, would be to bring embarrassment to the Government and suspicion upon himself. Hon, Mr. Lyons accordingly accepted the situation and tendered his resignation. For the present he will retain his seat in the House and his department will be administered by the
