Communion in the United Church The week of massion week services n the United Church are a fine preparation for the quarterly communior service to be held on Easter Sunday morning. The themes of the visiting ministers during the week are appropriate, helpful and inspiring. The number of communicants is likely to be large, it being Easter Sunday, with the usual quota of Eastertide visitors. and a further element for inducing large attendance is the new communlon cards which will be used for the first time. During the past week the fifteen elders have been faithfully visiting the members allotted in their respective district presenting the communion cards, and adding a personal invitation to be present.

> United Church Rummage Sale The March rummage sales which have been conducted for several years by the ladies of the United Church have invariably been successful and the sale last Wednesday added another to the list. On this occasion the working force was splendidly a ugmented by the ladies who united from Knox Church. The school room presented an attractive and animated scene. The display of articles offered for sale in the various booths was varied, and comprised, useful and serviceable artitollet and wardrobe novelties. The candy booth was very attractively arranged and decorated, and the matrons and maids did a thriving business in home-made candy. The re-

It Never Fails A subscriber in Grand Rapids, Mich wrote this office on Monday as follows: "It gives me as much pleasure as ever to renew our subscription to the FREE PRESS. I enclose $2.50. It visits us regularly fifty-two times each year without fail. There is an old saying: 'There are only two things we can be sure of-death and taxes,' but the First Press subscribers can add one more surely, and it is this: 'The regular appearance at their address every week without fail.' I mentioned some years ago that I was glad to have our son read the FREE PRESS, as any parent could safely be glad. Now we are just as glad to see our grandsom enjoy reading it. We may be spared yet to see our great-grandson enjoy the -paper as much as the three generations preceding. We always enjoy the news of the old home church, and hope the coming summer to have the pleasure of attending its services again for a Sunday, as our proposed vacation includes Acton and the community. We are glad "The Old' Man in the Big Clock Tower" is still able to give, us his weekly spicy reminiscences. We look for it as eagerly as ever when the Imper reaches our home
