WHAT IS REAL LOYALTY?

There are some people who think of oyalty as something that belongs to a time of war, or on the occasion of a general election, and to be demonstrated by flag-waving and positive declarations. As a matter of fact, there is not a day that does not give a chance for loyal citizenship to manifest itself. Friendship does not need some time of stress to prove itself. It can demonstrate its loyalty in countless little acts of forbearance, generosity and patience. Observance of the speed laws is a good way to show your loyalty as a citizen. Holding you tongue about your friend's weakness shows your loyalty to him. for loyalty is not a thing to be reserved for great octasions. It is a necessary part of every day that is not a failure, and it does not require to be talked about very much.
