—"The sunshine floods the silent fields, the distant tree-tops catch the gleam," says the poet. Well, the farmers are not great on poetry; but they would like to see more sunshine and its gleams for awhile. These frequent September rains are discouraging when part of the harvest is still in the fields.

Streetsville Fair Postponed

At an emergency meeting of the directors of the Toronto Township Agricultural Association Saturday morning it was decided in view of the recent bad weather to postpone the Streetsville Fair until October 16. The fair was to have taken place last Saturday.

Vaudeville and Pictures at Wonderland

A special show has been arranged for Wonderland next Friday evening. In addition to the pictures, "Three Faces East," "Broken China," and "Alligators' Paradise," vaudeville numbers will be given by the Haberman Kiddies in a musical and Charleston Dancing act. This evening will, no doubt, prove a popular attraction.

Poor Celery Crop This Year

A number of market gardeners have sent samples of abnormal celery plants to the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, for examination. These have been scrutinized by Professor Tomlinson, of the Department of Horticulture, who says the reason for celery plants going to seed, as they have done in many gardens, is purely circumstantial. It may happen in any year when there has been continued cold and wet. It is not caused in any way by a failure in the plant itself, or by any disease of the plant.

Bush Labor in Demand

Half a thousand men are required to take care of the immediate demand for bush workers at Port Arthur alone, according to a press statement issued from that city lately. Timber operators from all parts of the district report their labor requirements will be at least one-third greater than last year, which was one of the best years since lumbering became the chief winter industry of Northern Ontario.

Neighborhood News

CREWSONS CORNERS

News has reached friends here of the success of Rev. William Graham, M.A., B.D., the minister of the United Church of Vancouver Heights, B.C., whose congregation has decided to erect a fine new church on a prominent site, 100x20 feet, on the corner of Albert and Ingleton Avenues, in that growing city. The building will have a seating capacity for 500, with choir accommodation for 45. The church will be 40x90 feet, and its style of architecture is gothic, with tower, with a typical cross of nave francepts and choir, and two main entrances. Rev. Mr. Graham is one of our own boys, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George L. Graham. In his young manhood he taught school in the section where he attended as a boy, and where Miss Mamie Masales is now the teacher.

DUBLIN

Mr. Jack Waldie left for Queen's University, Kingston, on Monday morning.

Miss Muriel Crossman spent a few days this week with Miss Helen Coxe, Acton.

An enjoyable afternoon was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Somerville on Saturday afternoon, when the Junior Farmers gathered to play ball. Both the girls and boys played. Their opponents came from above Acton. Both Dublin teams were victorious. Later a pic-nic lunch was served. Everybody reported a good time.

The Dublin Branch of the Women's Institute held their monthly meeting at the home of Miss Minnie Somerville, on Wednesday afternoon, September 15, with a good number present. There were also a number of visitors. Miss Ida Nellis, who played a piano solo and Miss Mae Armstrong, of Brussels, sang a solo which was enjoyed by all. Sewing day will be held at Mrs. Webster's on Tuesday, 28th inst, and the next monthly meeting will be held at Mrs. B. Crossman's.

CHURCHILL

A very pretty autumn wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 15th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Graff, "Echo Lodge" farm, when their eldest daughter, Mary Elva Elizabeth, became the wife of Thomas Edward Gordon, son of the late Guildford and Mrs. Gordon, of New Brunswick.

The Rev. Henry Caldwell, pastor of Churchill United Church, conducted the ceremony, and was assisted by the Rev. George Kitching, of Schomberg, in the presence of about forty friends and relatives. Miss Caldwell presided at the organ. The house was prettily decorated with ferns and flowers for the occasion.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked lovely in her dress of blue chiffon cut velvet, with dropping of georgette and silver-colored brocaded slippers and stockings to match. She carried a bouquet of shell pink roses and fern.

After receiving the best wishes of the guests a dainty luncheon was served, after which the happy couple left for a short honeymoon to Toronto and Northern Ontario. The bride travelled in a dress of Bois de Rose Crepe, lavender, grey coat with grey fur trimmings and a hat to match. Many beautiful gifts were received, showing the esteem in which the young couple are held. On their return they will reside in Windsor.

ROCKWOOD

The induction services at Eden Mills last Friday afternoon, of Rev. Mr. Gosslin, into the pastorate of Rockwood and Eden Mills, was largely attended, and very impressive to those present. On Sunday, Mr. Gosslin commenced his ministerial duties, and he was greeted with good congregations who assembled to hear their new pastor, who delivered very able and inspiring sermons. Next Sunday Rally Day services will be the main feature, and both parents and children are especially invited to be present.

James McAlear left last week to attend St. Jerome's College, at Kitchener, and on Monday George Torrance left for Toronto to attend Normal School. Their friends wish them both success in their studies.

Johnston Hewat, of Simcoe, was home for the week-end.

The friends of Ellwood Bolton will be pleased to learn that he is doing splendidly after his unfortunate accident at V. T. Smith's factory recently, when he had his right arm injured in some way so that he was rushed to the General Hospital at Guelph for X-ray examination, in order to find the extent of the injury.

The fine weather last Sunday after the two previous Sundays of inclement weather conditions, was such that quite a number were to be seen down the Valley Road and over the rocks. Among those noticed were members of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Squire's family, of Georgetown.

We hope to be favored with some fine weather for some time to come, after the unsettled weather during the past two or three weeks.

Concerning the disastrous calamity which overtook the southern portion of Florida last Friday and Saturday, we cannot help but feel sorry for those who are out of house and home for the time being, as well as anxious about others who are there temporarily and permanently from various places in our own dominion.

Mr. Harry Peach is having an auction sale of household effects on Saturday, 25th, at his place on Guelph Street, opposite the public school.

ENJOYABLE BOWLING CONTEST

Acton Bowlers Spend a Pleasant Evening on Milton's Green

On Monday evening four rinks of bowlers from the Acton club visited the local green for a friendly game. Four rinks from the Milton club visited Acton a couple of weeks ago and were entertained so royally that it was only fitting that the local club should return the compliment. An interesting feature about the two evenings' entertainment is the fact that the two clubs are tie on the total score on the round. Milton was five points a winner in Acton and Acton five points to the good at Milton.

ONE OF ACTON'S FOUNDERS

Rev. Zenas Adams, born 1782, Settled in Acton 1826, Died here 1847

During a visit last week to relatives at St. Clair, Mich., the editor and Mrs. Moore had the pleasure of an enjoyable call and interesting chat with Mr. Joseph F. Adams and Miss Agnes M. Adams, a son and a daughter of one of the founders of Acton. Mr. Joseph Adams was born here in 1834 and Miss Adams in 1839.

Their father, Rev. Zenas Adams, followed his brothers Rev. Ezra and Rufus, who came here in 1826, two years later.

Miss Adams exhibited with much pride and interest her mother's sampler, exceedingly well preserved, which bore the following inscriptions skillfully worked with silk thread on a sheet of perforated cardboard:

The first two of the above children were born in New York State; the remaining nine had their birthplace in Acton.

Rev. Zenas Adams died in Acton November 17, 1847—seventy-nine years ago. His body was interred in the old cemetery and a neat monument erected many years ago, marks the place today. The first acre of the Old Cemetery was donated for a burying ground in 1832 by Elphalet Adams, father of Rev. Zenas Adams.

NOTHING TO LAUGH AT

The King of Italy is heading a crusade against profanity, but it is certain his people need it no more than ours. The Anglo-Saxons have an unfortunate pre-eminence in this regard, and Canada is eminent even among Anglo-Saxons.

It would be a great help toward decreasing the use of profanity if persons could realize that it was not funny. Many a stale, old joke gets by because it is furnished up with an oath or two, and those who have heard the joke until they are tired of it, laugh as a tribute to the profanity. As a matter-of-fact, there is nothing the least bit humorous about swearing, and nothing is a better indication of many persons to laugh in the wrong place and at the wrong thing, than the fact just noted.

It is not supposed that the young men and women who read this are addicted to profanity, but they can do more to check its use than merely throwing the force of their example against it. When they hear it used, they can abstain from laughter, or even from a smile.

THE BREADTH OF HIS SORROW

With a face that vainly endeavored to appear mournful, Patrick O'Dolan went into an outfitter's shop.

"I want ye to tell me," he murmured, "what the custom is for wearin' when you are in mourning."

"Well," said the assistant, "of course it varies. If it is a distant relative, a band of black on the sleeve or hat, or if it is for a friend, just a black tie."

For some moments Patrick considered. "Well," he whispered, "just give me a bootlace, it's my wife's mother."

OBITUARY

REV. DR. J. S. WILLIAMSON

Rev. J. S. Williamson, D.D., 63 Pleasant Boulevard, Toronto, one of the veteran ministers in the United Church in Canada, died on Sunday after a lengthy illness. He was superannuated in 1918, after 55 years in the ministry. Before the union of Methodist Churches in 1884, he belonged to the Methodist Episcopal Church, in which for several years he was a presiding elder. Following the union he occupied various important positions, among which were the pastorates of Oakville and Burlington, in this county. He was an active leader in the cause of temperance and moral reform, and had the distinction of assisting at the dedication and re-opening of over 100 churches. He was also a well-known lecturer, his favorite lecture, "Fox Hunting," having been delivered in over 200 different places in Canada and the United States. Dr. Williamson was twice married, first to Lucinda Mulholland, deceased many years ago, then to Ada Augusta Woolverton, only daughter of the late Mr. Allen Woolverton, Hamilton. His widow and three daughters, Miss Nellie, at home; Mrs. (Rev. Dr.) H. H. Bingham, of Calgary, and Mrs. (Dr.) J. R. Gibson, of Toronto, survive him. The funeral was held on Tuesday, with a memorial service at Yonge Street United Church, Toronto, and interment at Hamilton.
