A BOY'S COMPLAINT

Gee whiz! I'm tired o' bein' a-boy, It's jest like bein' in jail. In school, that darn; ole minute hand Jest trave.s like a snail. 'N when I'ni home it's even worse never have no fun. Whenever there's a baseball game, There's something to be done. I have to haul the ashes out And fetch things from the store When I go out somebody yells, "Come back and shut the door." When I come in, it's "Wipe yer feet Or, "Didja wash yer cars?" Sometimes I wish I wux a girl And in the evenin' when my pa You'd think I'd get a little rest

But I do not oh, no. They's always homework to be do Arithmetic and spellin', And all the time I'm doin' it The radio is yellin'.

When I get done, I like to set 'N hear whut's on the air. But I get shunted off to bed, Doggone, it isn't fair. Well, I'll grow up some day N' run for Parliament. N then I'll make a law-They'll have to treat he boys like growed-up men.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

-Margaret Salmon

From the Issue of the Free Press o Thursday, November 1, 1906

Grain is being marketed freely now. ar beets have been shipped at Acton rium is destroyed. He has no sense station the past week. ciple's Church are being installed with who clutched the grass to keep from fixtures for electric lights. falling off the earth. The first train over the Grand Trunk Railway passed through Acton fifty battered and bruised-he knows not years ago last Saturday. Mr. J. B. Mackenzie is moving into too strong. The fool returns to his his new cement block residence, cor- folly! ner of Church and Main Streets. Mrs. James McLam is offering her sale. It is a splendid property and in one. The alcohol at first is under his Mrs. Peter Macdonald and family as he takes more and more into his are removing this week to their fine system, it gets the upper hand and new residence at the corner of Park soon is the master, merciless and unand Lake Avenues. -H. P. Moore has sold to James Mc-Intosh his former residence at the cor- then the mind (Prov. 23: 33), and at

Mrs. Alex. Fawcett has disposed of (Prov. 23: 32). Not a pleasant picher property at the corner of Church ture, but nevertheless a true one which and Frederick Streets to W. J. Gordon, may be seen wherever strong drink is Reeve Swackhamer is engaged in enharging his residence on Main chapter we see a vivid picture of a Street, and when completed it will be a commodious building.

Lust Friday about a score of the wreck from his drinking; yet his members of Acton Lodge I. O. O. F. only desire is to recover to such an No. 204, under the leadership of Bro. extent that he may be able to com-

MARRIED

the bride's parents, Church Street, son of Samuel Laird, to Mary Vello,

FRIEND ROBINSON'S REASON

Quaker spinster of demure manners mature death. It is a habit-forming care more about that but definite matrimonial convictions is drug and man cannot measure its efby no means the only true tale that fects on the human system. When goes to prove that a poke bonnet may we are dealing with an article that He that will not live by toll has cover a head both willful and clever. can be as deadly in its effect as alcohol right on English soil!—Kingsley. So, for that matter, may a broad- frequently is, the best motto is, "Let rimmed hat. Perhaps the most pleas- it alone!" It can't do you any good ing of recorded Quaker wooings is and may do you irreparable injury. one that reveals both perseverance and Don't take a chance. Let it alone! persuasiveness in man-and maid, and The question at issue in America just an admirable, if disconcerting, candor now is whether alcoholic beverages in the gallant lover, even though he after having been prohibited by conwas not yet pledged to the yea, yea stitutional amendment and legal enand nay, nay of the Friends. The actment shall be permitted to contwo were Katharine Hollingsworth, "a beautiful and delicate Quaker maid- temptation of the weak and the unen," and George Robinson, her stal- dermining of law and order in general. wart heighbor in a little colonial set- The motto "Let it alone" must become tlement in Delaware.

ferred George, in spite of the fact that and honor. he was "of the world's people;" but her elders were unwilling that she should be married "out of meeting." George was a member of the Church of England, but at Katharine's plea he bis body? How does it effect his willconsented to join the Society of the power? Is it safe to trifle with it? Friends and be married in meeting or Is the risk worth while? What is the anywhere else that she desired, so only best policy for the individual to use as they were married. Therefore, according to Quaker custom, he and she in America? How great; is the responmade their first declaration 5th day.

lst month, 1688. But his conversion had been sudden, and the elders were still dublous. them in the form of a direct question: "Friend Roofingon, dost thou join the society of Friends from conviction or for the love of Katharine Hollings-

Thereupon George also developed scruples. He could conscientiously foin the sect to which his good and lovely sweetheart belonged, but he could not lie about his reason. Reluctantly, but homestly, he answered: love of Katharine Hollingsworth." confession; and there were 'probably condensed, it runs as follows:

Gently persuasively, instructively ception that had been practiced upon got if the infant be troubled with and successfully Katharine took him him and went up two octaves in his worms. Miller's Worm Powders will in hand; and at the end of the year roaring. On all sides looks of disthey were permitted to marry. Their tress began to appear in the eyes of wedded life was long and happy, says the passengers. the ancient chroncile from which An- At about this time a young man ne Hollingsworth Wharton takes the eleven years came into the limelight. story, and they were "for many years All that is known of him is that his an example of piety and goodness to name is Thomas. He broke the side those around them, and they retained of a large paper bag that rested betheir love of truth, and their loyalty tween him and an eight-year-old to the Society to the last."

COURTESY REWARDED

Not the least of the virtues is courtesy, and it is encouraging to see it multably rewarded now and then. one of our great business men likes car reached Ninety-sixth Street. to say, who has built himself a big No sooner had the older boy rebusiness. He used to be a clerk in gained his seat, after doing his good a department store. One rainy day, turn, than his little companion whiswhen customers were few, the clerks pered in awe: had Enthered to discuss baseball. A woman came into the store. The this young follow stepped out of the turned the boy's hand and put a circle and walked over to the wa-laid it before her, and explained its kept the elderly man's quarter. merits intelligently. When the woman left, she asked for his card. Later, the firm received a letter from woman ordering complete furnishings for a great estate in Scotland. "I want Mr. -- " she wrote, "to sup- of the company to one of his old team cryise the furnishing personally." The sters, "how goes it?" name she mentioned was that of the clerk who had been courteous. "But, madam," wrote the head of the firm. "this man is not one of our most experienced clerks. Hadn't we suddenly, "has worked for your firm the exception rather than the rule. better send-Mr. --- ?" want this young man, and other," wrote the woman in reply. was cent across the Atlantic to direct George, ch?" customer that day had been Mrs. An- us was sick last week, and they got

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

FOR SUNDAY, OCTOBER 31

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES A MENACE General Lesson Title.-The Evils

trong Drink. Scripture Lesson.-Prov. 23: 29-35. like a serpent, and stingeth like an ad- chimney. der.--Prov. 23: 32. Devotional Reading .- Exck. 34: 17-22; 28-31 (beginning with "as").

The Text Explained 29. Woe - Groaning, complaints. Sorrow-Lamentations. Contention-Quarrelsome; arguments. Wounds without cause-The cuts and bruises which the drunkard acquires without remembrance of the circumstances. Redness of eyes-Red eyes, bloodshot

30. Mixed wine-Wine that was mixed, to increase its strength, with either other kinds of wine, or with 31. When it is red-When it appears alluring. . Sparkleth. goeth down smoothly-Making it all the more aftractive. Beautiful and seemingly 32. Bitch like a serpent, stingeth like an adder-Poetical parallelism.

No particular meaning. 33. The drunkard "sees things" and talks nonsense. - Heart-Should be translated "brgin" or "mind." 34. Everything is "going round." Large quantities of turnips and sug- He falls, reeling because his equilibof security. As he that lieth upon St: Joseph's Church and the Dis- the top of a mast-Like the man

35. He comes to and finds himself how. But-alas-the temptation is

Lesson- Themes

Woss of the Drunkard. The lot of fine residence on Church Street for the man who drinks to excess is a sore control, but not for long. Gradually, yielding. First the health (God's most valuable gift to us) is destroyed, and ner of Bower Avenue-and Frederick last death comes to the body poisoned as with the deadly virus of the snake still in common use.

The Grip of Evil Habit. In this man who is in the grip of an evil as it is with what he vowed to make secluded women of the Turkish worn by active feet, big and little, habit. He has been made a physical it.—J. M. Barrie. him up for or after a hard day's work. LAIRD-GAMBLE-At the residence of The practice soon became a habit, and, like all habits, became fixed in his

> the drink takes a drink, and then the geon. drink takes a man." tinue in use illegally to the greater "Put it beyond the reach of all." In

For Study and Discussion What evil effects does alcohol have on a man's mind? What does it do to toward it? What is the present issue sibility of the individual citizen for law enforcement in his community? Daily Readings for Next Week Monday-Josh. 6: 1-11. Tuesday-Josh. 6: 12-20. Wednesday-Josh. 10: 12-21. Thursday-Josh. 10: 28-33. Friday-Josh. 11: 16-22. Saturday-Heb. 11: 30-40. Sunday-Psalm 66: 1-9.

TOMMY TO THE RESCUE

How Tommy by no other name known to fame came to the rescue of "I wish to join the Society for the a hungry infant and a distressed mother, in a metropolitan subway car It is certain that his questioners is the theme of an incident described esteemed him none the less for this in the New York Herald. Somewhat shrewdly twinkling eyes beneath The mother opened a small wicker their sober broadbrims when, after bag and drew forth a bottle, the very due consideration, they gravely coun- slightly gray color of which indicated selled "delay, and that Friend Robin- that it had formerly contained milk. son should be gently, persuasively and She gave it to the infant, who, after two lusty intakes, discovered the de-companion and drew forth a pint bottie of milk. He looked bashfully at the troubled mother opposite, and at one time a school master tells the a pint jar. when she glanced at him he held the story of a teacher if an elementary! bottle up and nodded the question:

"Want It?" Two minutes later the only unusua noise in the car was a gurgle; the "Bay, Tommy, you'll git kilt!" baseball "fans" did not disband; but An elderly man at Tommy's right not have discovered nothin." quarter into it, and the smiling mother tossed ten cents at his feet. "What can I show you, madam?" he The boy immediately returned the ten cents to the infant's mother, but, for paper, explains the Kingston Standard, She told him. He got the article, some strang psychological reason, he there are 10,000 pieces of type used;

A REASONABLE COMPLAINT

"Well, George," said the president "Fair to middlin', sir," George, answered; and he continued to currybong a bay horse. "Me an' this here hoss," George said duced, the wonder is that effors are sixteen years." "Well, well," said the president of Large orders impose their own conily of Geome's salary. "And I supditions. So our courteous young clerk pose you are both pretty highly valued, are so various that it may be looked but we don't ask you to take our your money back. the fornishings of a great estate. His "H'mi" said George, "The both of achieved that greatness for itself, and drow Carnegie. The estate was Skibe a doctor for the hoss, but they gost tested its virtues and learned by ex- promise get your money back. It will docked my pay."

HUMAN FLIES SCALE C. P. R. CHIMPEY

Walking around a two-foot-wide safe up there as I do on the ground." platform that encircled the top of the Ho is a man over sixty years of age 218-foot-high chimney at the end of and has been doing this kind of work Windsor Street station train plat- for the past forty years. "I feel right forms, Henry Held, of New York; and at home on the C. P. R. chimney. Richard Boucher, of Three Rivers, he added, "for I built it in 1912." Howdrew many eyes from the neighboring ever, he is thinking of quitting in anstreets and from the windows of the other couple of years, although his C. P. R. offices. The men had been nerve is as good as ever it was. He. engaged by the company to repoint owns a half-section of land in Alberta the bricks, clean the surface and re- and it is there that he says he will Golden Text.-At the last it biteth pair the lightning rods on the huge settle down.

> the top of the chimney occupied the they were walking on the street. At men for eight days. Every upward times, when hauling a plank upwards, ticklish work was to the onlooker plete mastery of the situation. thought nothing of it.

Both men moved with the same The work of getting the platform to case at the perflous heights as though movement of the platform was to a one of them stooped over the edge of height of six feet and at the last the platform looking sheer down the minute of completing this work one drop of 200 feet. At other times they or the men would be standing on a swung out from the walls of the big single plant, the rest having been chimney perched on a tiny cradle. At raised to the upper position. This all times they appeared to have comdangerous in the extreme, but the men Although it took them eight days to I hoist the platform to its present posi-Asked if he ever suffered from at- tion, they glide from it to the ground

GEMS OF THOUGHT

The life of every man is a diary in which he means to write one story, and writes another; and his humblest hour is when he compares the volume the views of life characteristic of the every week before twenty pairs,

One secret act of self-denial, one clares that she has never seen an 'old by a single pair.

care more about that than anything with him than she had been with the taken the place held by the medieval fears and distates, and adversity is life of all its romance!" she said. not without comforts and hopes.-

-H. W. Longfellow.

of greatness.

the shape of Holloway's Corn Remover is within reach of all. WHERE THE WOOL COMES FROM impaired by the visitations of authma

In addressing a group of smal chil- ring attacks and keep body and mind dren recently, one of the workers of at their full efficiency? Dr. J. D. Kelthe American Humane Education So- logg's Asthma Remedy dissipates the clety tried to impress on their minds cloud by removing the cause. It does the fact that they obtain a great many relieve. It does restore the sufferer to of the necessaries of life from the ani- normal bodily and mental happiness. mal kingdom. Her difficulties are told in Our Dumb Animals. "Where do you get your milk and butter and cheese?" she asked.

"Cows," answered most of the children, although some replied, "From "And eggs?" demanded the instruct-nswer "Store." "And wool?" asked the instructor. There was only one answer to this gan. questione "The Store."

Now think, wool-wool, you get wool from the back of what?" Expectantly she waited the answer presently it came from a small girl in he front scat:

"Back of the counter!" Sleep is the great nourisher of in- lines and restore healthfulness. fants, and without peaceful sleep the child will not thrive. This cannot be destroy worms and drive them from restoring the health-of a worm-worn

ONE FOR TEACHER The Bishop of Manchester, who was school who was trying to impress on the children how important had been the children how important had been day" said the child casually. But the the discovering of the law of gravi- day" said the child casually. But the tation. Sir Isaac Newton was sitting face of the shopman grew dark. tation. Sir Isanc Newton was sitting I know a young New York fellow. baby was still "going strong" when the on the ground. An apple fell on his head; and from that he discovered gravatation.

"Just think, children," she added "lan't that wonderful?" A small boy replied, "Yes, miss, and If he had been sittin' in the school-The answer to that was immediate. room lookin' at his books, he would

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERRORS

In one column of an ordinary newsthere are seven possible wrong positions for each letter; there are 70,000 chances to make errors, and millions of possible transpositions. In the sentence, "To be or not to be," 2,759,-022 errors can be made by transposition alone, and yet you hear people kick about the number of mistakes which actually occur.

With the high rate of speed at which a modern newspaper is pro-The Oil of Power.-It is not claimthe company, thinking a little guilt. ed for Dr. Thomas' Relectric Oil that upon as a general pain killer. It, has word for it; go to E. J. Hassard or any good druggist and get a bottle of pounds in seven months and is strong its excellence is known to all who have Rheuma to-day; if it doesn't do as we and healthy. be there waiting for you. perlence.

THE POINT OF VIEW OF THE HAREM

brides and have received many con- ing needle in her hand, has the air of fidences; the whole question of mar- a matron. The coziest corner in the It is a pleasant sight to see any riage in Turkey has always interested house is the most fit for the stocking Acton, on Wednesday, October 31, daily life. He could not do without body thanking God, for the air is very me immensely. The first Turkish bride basket and its presiding genius. An the alcohol and had to increase the heavy with the hum of murmuring, I ever met, long years ago, had never incontestible verdict against a gorgamount, as the Chinese proverb says: and the roads are dusty with com- seen her husband before the marriage cous palace recently built by a rich eldest daughter of Thomas Gamble. "First the man takes a drink, then plaints and hand detested him from the first. man was pronounced by a woman, "There was nothing wrong with him." both refined and rich: "There isn't a she admitted, "except that I didn't like spot in the whole house where I could 'It is wonderful how many ways him." Ultimately she managed to darn a stocking!" Let it Alone. Alcohol has not much there are of bringing people to Christ escape, married a man of her own It is amusing or pathetic but true, The story of the courtship of a unhappiness, poverty, misery and pre-> her future husband, and that she has lend itself so easily to the demands regretted it ever since! "The dread of poetry, but is none the less Prosperity is not without many ful imprudence seems to have robbed a beautiful and appropriate symbol. have got something worse."

happened?" Wrotched from Asthma. Strength of body and vigor of mind are inevitably

Who can live under the cloud of recur-

ACCLIMATED.

Harrigan was out walking with his new bull pup when he met a friend. Everybody's Magazine reports the conversation. "That's a fine looking brute," his superiority of women in his dramas, friend, who was an admirer of blood- but in real life he considered them in

"Oh, up in my room," said Harrl-"Don't you know that it isn't very "Well, 'yes," said the instructor, healthy to keep a dog in your room?" but how does it get into the store? asked the friend. "Oh, he's used to it now," Harrigan > the infant of sleep, the great nourish- treated to his own den, locked himtor will clear the stomach and intest- tions, sewed the button on.

WHY SHOPKEEPERS GROW

A small boy, whose head hardly a button sewn on by any woman-not the system, and afterwards the child's reached the level of the counter, says oven his wife. rest will be undisturbed. The powders the Philadelphia Ledger, entered the cannot injure the most delicate baby, shop. and there is nothing so effective for me to get him some oak varnish."

"How much does your father want, my little man?" inquired the smiling "Father said you was to fill this," replied the little fellow, handing over The shopman filled it and handed

"Father will pay you next Satur-"Wel don't give credit here!" said. "Give me buck the jar!" Meekly, the small boy handed back the jar;"the man emptied it and returned it with a scowl:

"Thank you, sir," said the boy. "My father said you'd be sure to leave enough round the sides for him to finish the job ho, has to do, and you

Great Rejoicing RheumaticCripples

If So Crippled You Can't Use Arms of Legs, Rheuma Will Help You or Nothing to Pay

Get a bottle of Rheuma to-day and wear a satisfied smile on your face towhole country, and it's just as good of good healthy flesh on their bones. for gout, sciatica and lumbago as for But be sure to get McCoy's. It drives the poisonous waste from

THE STOCKING BASKET

Mending stockings might well be Few travellers have had the oppor- thought a prosaic occupation, if not tunities to learn the circumstances and a dull one. The woman who sits down English writer, has enjoyed. She de- though she would not have it smaller sacrifice of desire to duty, is worth maid" in Turkey, and does not believe But there is a curious, half-myster-I. Francis, D.D.G.M., and L. Williams, N.G., paid a fraternal visit to Streetsville.

Streetsville.

Streetsville.

Streetsville.

MARPOLED

Extent that he may be able to commore than all the good thoughts warm that such a thing exists. Then she ous charm in the work. It is as if it feelings, passionate prayers, in which idle people indulge themselves.—J. H.

I have talked with many Turkish Even the maiden aunt, with a darnhim up for or after a hard day's work.

MARPOLED

Extent that he may be able to commore than all the good thoughts warm that such a thing exists. Then she ous charm in the work. It is as if it feelings, passionate prayers, in which idle people indulge themselves.—J. H.

Newman.

shield. To bide at home and polish the Another bride told me that as a shield was then the sign of wifely de-He that will not live by toil has no great favor she was allowed to see votion. The worn stocking may not

There was a time within twenty Yet one more confession! "I peep- years when it seemed as if stockinged through the lattice window to look mending were doomed. A clever at him as he walked past," said an- writer, speaking of the fact, said it Give what you have. To someone it other. "Quite an uninteresting little was the natural reaction from an age may be better than you dare to think, man, but he was my fate, and I might which worked wool parrots with beaded eyes to an age which hires But at her wedding I found a tall outsiders to darn its stockings. But The measure of service is the mark and handsome bridegroom. "What today the pendulum has swung back does this mean?" I asked. "What has and my lady presides over the working basket-whether it is filled with Corns cripple the feet and make And she answered quite calmly; "I dainty Parisian hose of silk, or with Of her many sultors, Katharine pre- that policy alone lies national safety walking a torture, yet sure relief in must have looked at the wrong man." stout woollen socks, fit for tussic with thorn and wind and weather.

> An Oil of Merit .-- Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is not a jumble of medicinal substances thrown together and pushed by advertising, but the result of the careful investigation of the healing qualities of certain oils as applied to the human body. It is a rare combination, and it won and kept public favor from the first. A trial of it will carry conviction to any who doubt its powers to repair and heal.

NOT ABOVE BUTTONS

The late Henrik Isben .. upheld the "Hens," answered those who did not ed dogs, said. "Where do you keep ferior to men in many lines of usefulness generally classed as feminine For example, his friend, John Paulsen, says in the London Times that one of Ibsen's maxims was: "No woman could write a cook-book and no woman can sew a button or He lived up to the latter part of his dictum. When he detected a loose rob button on any of his garments, he re-Mother Graves' Worm Extermina- self in, and with claborate prepara-He took as much pains with the job as he would with the final, fair copy of one of his plays. Then he used to brag about the performance. saying that he would not put trust in His wife used to laugh with a quaint expression on these occasions. She confided to Paulsen that she secretly resewed all the buttons that the poet had sown, sewed them as only a woman can, she said. He always forgot to fasten the thread, and the buttons would come off in a few days if she did not look after them. "But don't undecoive him." the faithful wife added, appealingly; "It makes him so happy to think that he

McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets Fine For Thin Underdeveloped Kids

Children Love Them Because They Are Sugar Coated and as Easy to Take as Candy.

It's your duty, Mother, to see that he frail, peaked, sickly youngster grows up to be strong in body; keen in mind and robust in health. Extract from the livers of the lowly codfish are the health, weight and the strength producing vitamines that are found in McCoys Cod Liver Extract Tablets, which are sold by pharmacists all over North and South Amereica. Doctors know about them and so does the druggist, and if your children need building up ask for these tablets to-day if you want to give your loved It's a remedy that is astonishing the ones a good appetite and put pounds They are not expensive -60 Tablets-69 cents, and if you are not pleased A very/sickly child, aged 9, gained 12

One skinny woman gained 9 pounds in 24 days.

Superb in Flavour Every cup is a new delight. Ask for it.

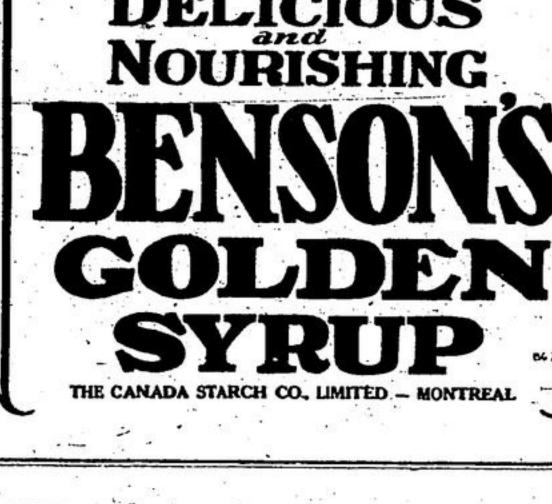

J. Cadesky OF TORONTO -

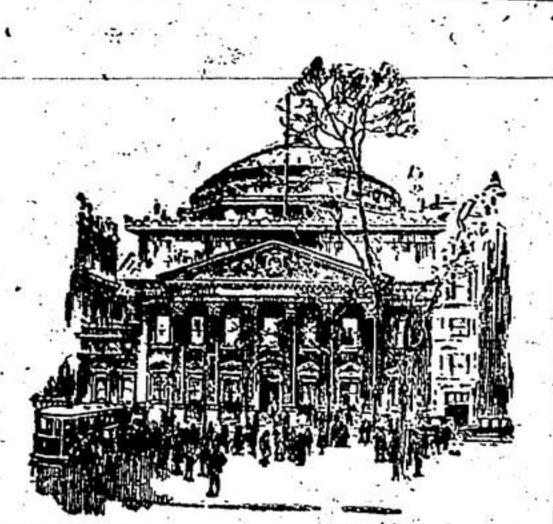

EYESIGHT SPECIALIST WILL BE AT A. T. BROWN'S DRUG STORE, ACTON Monday, Nov. 1st

Anyone suffering from Eyestrain. Defective Vision or [Dally ______ 1.37 p.m. Headache should not miss the opportunity of consulting eyesight specialist. Appoint-A. T. Brown, Druggist.

Daily _______ 3.37 p.m.
Daily _______ 5.37 p.m.
Daily ______ 7.37 p.m. Daily ______ 9.37 p.m. Daily _____ 11.35 p.m. tirents may be made with Mr. CONSULTATION FREE Office Hours 9. a. m. till 4 p. m.

HERE IS A SWEET that is UELICIOUS Nourishing GOLDEN

Bond Interest

When your interest coupons become due, on registered bonds, deposit them in a Savings Account in the Bank of Montreal. The money you receive on your investment in bonds will then earn interest for you.

Acton Branch: L. B. SHOREY, Manager.

BANK OF MONTREAL Established 1817

Individual Instruction by Busiliability.

ness Experienced Instructors Graduates in demand-at good salaries. Don't envy your friend's success. Be a success! Graduate from Guelph Business College!

TIME TABLES

AT ACTON

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAY

Going West

No. 25 Sunday Only 10.41 a.m.

No. 33 ______ 2.39 p. m. No. 35 _____ 5.09 p. m.

Going East

No. 24 Sunday Only 7.08 p. m.

No. 26 7.03 a.m. No. 30 11.48 a.m. No. 34 8.85 p.m.

CANADIAN NATIONAL ELECTRIC

RAILWAYS

Westbound

Dafly _____ 9.55 a.m.

Daily _______ 17.55 a.m.
Daily ______ 1.55 p.m.

Daily 3.55 p.m.

Defly 9.55 p.m.

Eastbound

Daily ______ 11.37 a.m.

Toronto Terminal

Keele Street and St. Clair Avenue

Freight delivered by special express reight. Freight picked up at any ad-

TORONTO-KITCHENER BUS

SERVICE

Luxurious T. K. L. Coaches Operate

Over Highway

Leave Acton Going West

Leave Acton Going East

Arrive-Guelph 10.45 a.m.; 3.45 p.m.

Arrive-Kitchener, 11.30 a.m.; 4.30

Arrive-Toronto. 11.30 a.m.: 3.30

Extra Sunday car to Toronto leaves

Acton at 8.30 p.m., arriving in the

Farmers' Accessory Shop Complete List of all Necessary

Farmer's Goods

wanted. No. 12 De Laval Cream

Separator. Have a trial of famous

Cockshutt plows before buying elsewhere. Shares for cutting alfalfa roots. Place your orders now for new machinery for next year and get "winter made" goods. Let us-explain the profits for "Sugar Jack" for milking cows and young stock. Have your stables equipped with

Louden Litter Carrier, Waterbowls

and Stalls. Water systems carefully repaired. High quality goods

Start on Monday

GUELPH BUSINESS

reasonable prices.
J. W. BARBERREE

second-hand machinery

freak. In Toronto.

7.00

nd 9.15 p.m.

.m. and 10.00 p.m.

All coaches call

p.m. and 9.00 p.m.

city at 10.30 p.m.

A. L. BOUCK

Principal and Proprietor

Collections

We, handle collections only. 35 years' experience speaks for itself, assuring efficiency and re-

KELLY & AIKEN COLLECTORS Orangeville and Owen Sound

Ref.: Standard Bank of Canada

MOTHER: - Fletcher's Castoria is a pleasant, harmless Substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Teething Drops and Soothing Syrups, prepared for Infants in arms and Children all ages.

To avoid imitations, always look for the signature of Chort Theleker Proven directions on each package. Physicians everywhere recommend it.

Savage & Company

Jewellers China Silverware

Lower Wyndham St. Phone 571

GUELPH