ONCERS" Lord, I thank Thee for Thy love That makes my life so bright, For this I praise thee Sabbath morn-

But not on Sunday night. I'm glad to hear our choir chant My pure and deep delight: On Sunday morn I hear them King, But not on Sunday night.

I love to hear our paster speak; His views are sound and right. They feed my soul on Sabbath morn. But not on Sunday night.

At 11.00 a.m. I stroll to church In Sunday garb bedight: But, Lord, I crave my easy chair And slippers Sunday night.

Lord, bless our church, and help Our preacher's soul with might, To charge the sinful ramparts of My empty pew at night.

A POPULAR MINISTER

The Rev. Judson Baxter, the new incumbent of Riverboro Centre parish, was voted by his people to be as near perfection as a minister can be in this finite world. His young wife had small income of her own. This was distinct and unusual advantage, and as soon as it was generally known says the author of "The New Chronicles of Rebecca," the subscription committee immediately hoped that they might not be eternally driving over the country to get somehody's fifty cents that had been overdue for eight months, but might take their onerous duties more easily.
