THURSDAY, MARCH 10, 1927

Brief Local News

—The ides of March are here.

—The skating rink is now out of commission.

—Very slushy walking for a few days this week.

—Rules for safety are made to save pain and suffering.

—Safety rules are guides — they point the safe way.

—Slushy sidewalks have been the rule the last week or so.

—The ice cutters are through with their harvesting operations.

—The days will soon be laughing with the joyousness of spring.

—The robins are with us again with their heartening spring songs.

—The mercury got pretty low for a few days the first of March.

—Green grass is showing on the lawns and hillsides in many places.

—"Make Canada a land to love" is the Montreal Witness' latest slogan.

—Monday night's snow storm brought out the snow shovels again.

—Our life—a little work, a little play, to keep us going—and so, good day!

—Sleighing is about over for the season. It lasted for about ten weeks continuously.

—Routes of F. B. Hecks' sale at Limehouse on Tuesday brought prices of $190 and $191 each.

—The Acton cross road, from the sixth line to Acton, will be permanently surfaced this summer.

—Gananoque's tax rate for the year 1927 has been fixed by the Town Council at 58 mills on the dollar.

—The Chamber of Commerce has had a busy week in their laudable effort to land an important new industry for Acton.

—It doesn't do any harm to remember that he who takes no interest in amusements eventually loses capacity for being amused.

—Brants fishermen had a most profitable catch one day last week. The combined haul of the little fleet totalled two tons of fish.

—Mr. W. C. Senior, of the Toronto, delivered a fine address at the Baptist Church on Tuesday evening on the fruitful topic of Stewardship.

—The annual interdenominational prayer service, held in the Baptist Church on Friday afternoon, was largely attended, and a devout and helpful service.

—The new Chamber of Commerce is off to a good start. That the enthusiasm may continue is our wish for Chesley Chamber of Commerce.—Chesley Enterprise.

—Mr. Henry Clarke, who has been Clerk and Treasurer of Elora for twenty-one years, has retired and Mr. H. C. Waind has been appointed to the vacancy at a salary of $500.

—The radio has been providing some rich programmes lately. The broadcasting of the concerts by the Windsor choristers and Westminster Abbey choir boys were greatly enjoyed.

—Mr. R. McEwen has purchased from Mr. John R. Watson the two-story brick house on Main Street opposite Edmonton Lane. This was the home of the Thomas Eppagg family for many years.

—Little complaint in regard to the condition of fall wheat is being made so far. There is more talk on the wheat than farmers care for, but it is considered too early to make a forecast of the crop in this district.

—There is an old saying that the year which commences on Saturday as did 1927, will have a moderate winter and hot summer, with only average crops of grain, but a good crop of honey. Well, we'll wait and see.

—The constant drip of water wears away the hardest stone; the constant gnaw of Towser masticates the toughest bone, the constant wooing lover carries off the blushing maid; and the constant advertiser is the one that gets the trade.

—Rev. Dr. John R. Watts, of St. Paul's United Church, Ottawa, has been appointed to the chair of Practical Theology at Queen's University, Kingston. Rev. Mr. Watts was pastor of Boston Church, Esquesing, in the earlier days of his ministry.

—Bob Cook, the notorious bootlegger and all round crook, eloped with the 13-year-old daughter of Joseph McCutcheon, Armamtha, on Saturday. The authorities arrested Cook and lodged him in Orangeville jail, and sent the girl home. Cook is 45 years of age.

—Whoever wrote the following did it well: "It is not what people eat but what they digest that makes them strong. It is not what they gain but what they save that makes them rich. It is not what they read but what they remember that makes them learned. It is not what they profess but what they practice that makes them righteous."

MARY POOR TEAS NOW SOLD

Neighborhood News

NASSAGAWEYA

Mr. Harland Wilson, lot 24, con. 3, Nassagaweya, has sold his farm to Mr. Ivan Harris, of Moffat. Possession given first of April.

Mr. David Henderson, of Brookville, has rented his farm to Mr. John Robertson, a neighbor.

Misses Dorothy Fletcher and Mary Darby commenced training for nurses on the first of the month.

Farmers are getting their summer supply of wood teamed home and circular sawing bees are in order.

The recent mild weather has brought the spring birds around again, a sure indication that spring is coming.

TERRA COTTA

The Rev. Mr. Waddell, of Ballinafad, preached an excellent sermon on Sunday evening.

Mrs. R. Simpkins will have to go to Guelph Hospital to undergo an operation. We hope soon to hear of her recovery.

Miss Eva McNally, of Georgetown, spent Sunday with her parents here.

Mr. George Coulter, of Toronto, spent the week-end with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Cook and family have moved over to Mr. Rogers' quarry, on the 8th line, to take charge of the boarding House.

Mr. J. L. Craine was called away on Saturday to attend his mother's funeral at Flint, Michigan. We extend sincerest sympathy.

Mr. V. Shackleton is going into the dairy business quite extensively.

BURLINGTON

A pleasant surprise was given Mr. W. T. Glover at his home last Wednesday evening, when members and wives of the Glover Hunt Club gathered to do him honor, the occasion being the anniversary of his birthday.

Mrs. Clarence R. Wood and Miss Ruth Brechon went to Cleveland on Thursday last to see Miss Mabel Brechon, of the Cleveland Hospital nursing staff, who had undergone an operation, and as a result her condition had become rather serious. She is now improving.

Is Burlington going to rise to the challenge 400 members for the Horticultural Society in 1927? The fee is only $1.00, and the premium a dollar's worth of nursery stock or a dozen choice gladioli bulbs, 4 varieties.

Mr. Wm. Bridgman, who underwent an operation at the Hamilton Hospital last week, is progressing nicely.

The Ladies' Aid of St. Luke's Church will hold a Bag Social and Easter sale of work on Thursday afternoon, April 21, in the Memorial Hall.

Mr. Wm. Houston, M. A., educationist and journalist, who spent over fifty years on the Toronto Globe staff, has taken up residence on Elizabeth Street, Burlington. Prior to his departure from Toronto to become a resident here, Mr. Houston was presented with a purse. Mr. Houston, who is quite active for a man of his years, will write a new edition of "Documents of the Constitution," which was published in 1890, and is long out of print.—Gazette.

OAKVILLE

At the meeting of St. Jude's vestry it was decided to make a presentation to the retiring minister's warden, Mr. C. Armstrong, as a mark of appreciation of his thirty years' incumbency of that office.

Last Thursday evening the Oakville Eastern Star celebrated a second birthday by holding a social evening in the Masonic Temple, when scores were present from Royal Chapter, Toronto, Weston and Burlington Chapters.

Rev. J. E. Munro, D. D., was greeted by a large congregation at St. John's United Church last Sunday morning, which was an evidence of the fact that he is welcomed back amongst his old friends.

Local talent seems to always draw well in Oakville, and this is especially true when the entertainment takes the form of burnt cork minstrelsy. On Monday and Tuesday evening the Gregory Theatre was well filled, the attraction being the annual minstrel show put on by and in behalf of the Oakville Baseball Club.

It was abundantly manifested at a special meeting of the Town Council, held last Friday evening, that the citizens of Oakville are cognisant of the fact that industries are required here in order to make the town prosperous and as a result lessen the tax rate.

One of the jolliest evenings of the winter season was participated in by about one hundred and twenty of our young people, when the members of St. John's United Church, K. P. E. Club, Kirk Club and St. Jude's Y. P. A. for this occasion Leak Hall was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers, and these added warmth to the welcome extended the visitors by the members of the executive.—Star.

DUBLIN

Dublin Branch of the Women's Institute put on the play entitled "The Ladies of the Library," a comedy drama in 3 acts in Dublin School on Tuesday evening. The School was filled to capacity and these ladies part did their work exceedingly well. The Dublin Orchestra furnished music between the acts which was thoroughly enjoyed. The proceeds will be for community work.

On Tuesday evening Mr. Duncan McDougall, second line, drove to his barn, unhitched and left his cutter standing outside with the robe in the cutter. In the morning the robe had disappeared. It looks as if chicken thieves had been about, but only the robe was missing.

The Literary Society held their regular meeting last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sayers. Nearly all the members attended. After the business was discussed of the following programme was given: Reading by Flora Sayers; reading by Mrs. Brownlow; then a darkey quartette gave two numbers; Miss Viola Sprowl gave a reading; and the Dublin Jazz Band gave two numbers; little Miss Dorothy Frank favored the audience with two solos, which were enjoyed very much. Lunch was served and a social hour spent.

Misses Alice and Merle Stewart, of Toronto, spent the week-end at their home here.

Miss Irene Morley returned home on Saturday after spending a week with Hamilton relatives.

The school report for February for Dublin School is as follows:

* Signifies perfect attendance. (a) Signifies absence for one or more examinations. Regularity attendance, 86.

G. M. ACHESON, Teacher.

BANNOCKBURN

The ladies of Bannockburn Women's Institute held their regular February meeting at the home of Miss Betty Lowrie. A very enjoyable evening was spent by the members and their families. A very good programme was given. Besides music and recitations there was a debate, "Resolved that the Pioneer Woman has contributed more to Home and Country than the Modern Woman." Community singing and a dainty lunch completed the evening. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. McCullough in the evening.

LORNE SCHOOL

Lorne School report for February is as follows:

Sr. IV.—Barbara Guthrie, Frederick Harrop, Verna Murray.

Jr. IV.—Thelma Graff, Laura Johnston, Harry Murray.

Sr. III.—Etta Swackhamer, Douglas Guthrie, Grace Graff.

Jr. II.—Robert Sterritt, Hubert MacPherson.

G. M. GRAY, Teacher.

GEORGETOWN

Another move is on foot this week to secure Hydro for Stewarttown.

Mrs. J. D. Mackenzie is visiting with her parents at Rosanville, Sask.

Mrs. E. D. Sheeley, of Detroit, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. O'Neil.

Miss R. M. Bell, of New York, is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. J. A. Thompson, of Queen Street.

Mrs. Gilbert Bell, who recently underwent an operation at Wellesley Hospital, Toronto, was able to return to his apartment this week and continues to improve nicely.

Rev. J. M. Frith, the new pastor of the Baptist Church, commenced his duties here on Sunday, when he had charge of both services. He was given a cordial welcome.

The Boy Scouts held a successful entertainment in St. George's Sunday School rooms last Friday evening. There was a good programme, including "a trip around the world in 8 days," with lantern slides, by Rev. Mr. Wass. $5.00 of the proceeds will be sent to the Sick Children's Hospital.

At the annual convocation of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons held at Ottawa last week, W. Bro. Comp. J. T. Cameron, of Guelph, was also appointed as Grand Steward.—Herald.

ROCKWOOD

The Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church held a prayer meeting in behalf of missions in the basement of the church last Friday afternoon. Quite a number were present for the occasion.

Mrs. Albert Gray is improving from her recent illness.

Miss M. Gilliivy, of Toronto, and Miss Jean Torrance, of Simcoe, were home for the week-end.

James McAlear, of St. Jerome's College, Kitchener, visited with Grattan Barry over Sunday.

John Vance left last week for Owen Sound, to visit his father and brother, who are on the sick list.

Thomas Alexander has moved from his farm on the 6th line of Eramosa, to the residence which he purchased from Mr. Harry Peach last fall. George and William Gray have also moved from the farm, 5th line and gravel road and are living in the village.

A public meeting of the Rockwood Agricultural Society will be held this (Thursday) evening, in Gladstone Hall, to consider the possibility of starting a Bacon Hog Fair, and other matters of the Society. Mr. L. W. Pearsall, of the Dominion Live Stock Branch, is to be present and address the meeting.

The Bachelors and Benedicts held another dance in the Town Hall last Thursday evening. McGregor's Orchestra, of Guelph, supplied the music. About 176 were present.

As a result of the fine weather the past few days, the snow had a good settling, and Jack Frost was obliged to loosen his hold in out-of-the-way places.

The crows are already making their appearance, and no doubt many of them are looking for something to satisfy their appetites.

1,000 ORANGEMEN AT GUELPH

The Grand Loyal Orange Lodge of Ontario West in Session This Week

Over 1,000 Orangemen and Orangewomen, from all parts of Ontario are in Guelph for their annual three-fold Grand Lodge. The Grand Lodge sessions are of three sections of the order—the Royal Black Knights, who will hold their sessions on Monday and Tuesday; the Grand Loyal Orange Lodge of Ontario West, which will meet on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday; the Ladies' Orange Benevolent Association of all women's lodges, which opened at the City Hall on Tuesday night and will continue on Thursday and Friday morning.

The committee which is looking after arrangements in the city is composed of representatives of the five Orange lodges of the city.

It is expected that Mr. John J. Munster, of the Kilkoording Review and Reporter, will be elected Grand Master.

FARM FOR SALE

10% CASH—BALANCE IN 25 YEARS

The Soldier Settlement Board of Canada offers for sale by Public Tender 100 Acres, South Westerly Half of Lot Two, Concession One, Erin Township, Wellington County.

The Purchaser of this property must rely on his own inspection and knowledge of the farm and not on the above or any other particulars or representations made verbally or in writing by employees of The Soldier Settlement Board.

Terms of sale are 10 per cent. of the purchase price in cash on acceptance of the tender, and the balance in twenty-five equal annual instalments, with interest at 5 per cent. per annum on the amortization plan.

Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted cheque for $100. If tender is accepted, this sum will be credited to the purchase price of the land. If tender is not accepted the money will be returned to the tenderer.

The tenders will be opened at Toronto, Ontario, on March 31st, 1927.

The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted. If the land is not sold on the date above mentioned, the Board will be prepared to receive offers to purchase until such time as it is finally disposed of.

Tenders should be in plain envelopes marked "Tender for the purchase of E. ½ W. ½ Lot 2, Concession 1, Erin Township, Wellington." Address tenders and enquiries to:

THE SOLDIER SETTLEMENT BOARD OF CANADA,
J. W. McKee, District Superintendent.

Dated at Toronto, Ont., this 28th day of February, 1927.
