fome from the world again, out of al the meering, Home, where there's naught but le blended in the cheering, now the day is fading.

can be myself awhile, done with soraid trading. Home from the busy world, out of a Out of all the bitterness, the long and unxlows waiting. Home to hear the kettle sing and hear the children chatter.

Home where there is hone to storn, Home from the crowded streets, ou of all the scheening. Home where no selfish wirite spoll our idle dreaming. Men' in every market place are mere-

Shut the door and 'draw the blinds! Here there are , no strangers ; I shall fare to fight uguin. Day shall bring its battle, Thank the Lord for night and home and the children's crattle! Here I drop my armor cold, and onle Into, gladness. Home from the surging world and out ly money changers.

of all lis madness.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL WILL

Edgar A - Quest

old 'ragged coat belonging' to an insame patient of the Chicago poorhouse. He had been a lawyer, and the will was written in a firm, clear hand on "Its long boneficence is done!" a few scrape of paper. So unusual was the will that is was read before the Chicago Har Association, which ordered it probated, and it is now on the records of Cook County - Illinois -"I, Charles Lounsberry, being of Haying outward its genial light sound and disposing mind and men. From the old disposing and wide ory, do hereby make and publish this, With phildren clustered on each ny last will and testament, in order,

That-part of my interest which is known in law and recognised in sheep. Over each dreaming flower-hed bound volumes as my property being And there, with sunshine and rain inconsiderable and non-account. I wil make no disposition of in this, my will estate, is not at my disposal, but those things excepted, all else in the world now proceed to devise and bequenth "Item. I give to all good fathers and mothers in trust for their chil. and encouragement, and I charge said the fire glarm give notice that a dre and left her aprons on the line - 7Item. I leave to children inclusiveall and every flower of the fields and is displayed when it comes to fighting hie. In Mary Helmer's -sunroom, blossoms of the woods with the right fires? 'The fireman have this down watched the darkening sky. to play among them freely, according to a science, and they practice it. to the customs of children, warning A strong bond of sentiment always slamined somewhere. "You'll stay till them at the same time against the unites the veterans of any war. While it's over, Januar. thistles and thorns. And, I devise to they were in the service they may But suddenly Jennie saw things children the banks of the brooks are have bickered, but once the tension She saw Betty's grief stricken face the golden sands beneath the water is over they are drawn together over a ruined hat and soaked Rosabel; thereof, and odors of the willows that I give to said boys each his own place firemen, who have been through were angry with them! at the fireside at night with all pic- common dahgers respect one unother.

seinery world, with whatever they emergency as a serious fire that the may need, as the stars in the sky, the true character of a man reveals itself red roses by the wall, the bloom of the and membership in a volunteer fire hawthern, the sweet strains of music, brigade is likely to depend more on and aught else they may desire to fig- what a man is than on what he repure to each other the tastingness and resents in property or in family conbeauty of their love. "Item. To young men, jointly, I de- a true graternal lodge. spiring sport of rivalry, and I give to when dremen, like war veterang, con- enough water to prevent the roots | Pormer residents of Halton County, them the distain of weakness and un- tinue to meet and and renew the old from drying up. This publics partieu- and there are many in Baskutchewan, daunted confidence in their own secociations. The struggling village larly to palms, hydranges and fuchsia, are planning a big gel-logether colestrength. Though they are rude I may have become a lively town or a and the two latter being kept in a good bratton at Champlain lively on March gratitude-of-their children-until they his helmet you wet a thrill that even ter if kept in a moderately warm or from a thirteen-egg setting. fall salesp. - Republished through the the modern dity are department can cool room rather than in a warm one. Mr. McDonald, of Nelson towncourtesy of National Art Company, of not give you.

success of their old neighbor, who had have often enjoyed a hearty laugh them with a soft tooth brush or finger Donald fortunately crawled hway to "set up as hotel-keeper in a town fif- over an incident that happened many nail, and wash of with somy water safety. Refermen thought sure hed lose what little he over on the old farm. One soft March had saved up," said one of the men, day my father proposed a coon hunt but seems he's laid by most a thous- to my brothers and me. We invited and dollars in these dve years. They two chums to so along, and of course may all the travelling public likes to we took old Maje, our dor.

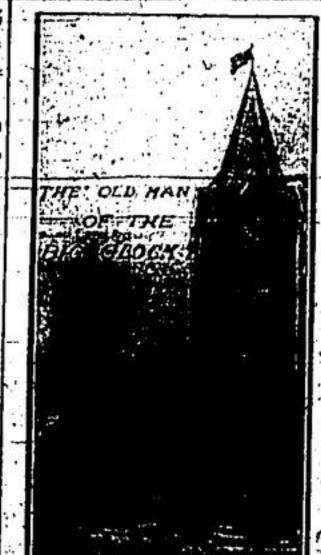

said another man, ready with his trib- trying to find a hollow tree that held his wind and made the muscles first weak spell on Wednesday morning. sts. "He don't let 'em get off without a ocon. On finding a suspected tree and powerful had it taught him per- und is quite ill. paying, same as, some do, but yet he father would shop an opening near sistence. The boy who learned to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. B. Buchanan don't give offense. Bay I was there, the base and extricate the doging fluish fits woodpile was never a quit- and son and daughter, of Fergus, who a man come for dinner that was in- animal in whatever way seemed most ter when he grow up and he paid recently purchased Mr. O. Walker's ing, if you sh'd lose your purse be: boys had begun to lag when father family even if they occupy a city flat. Nour and Yeed business.

twist here an' Burlis'ton, I sh'd like stopped up to a twisting swamp maple. It is a help to them when they take. Dr. John Short, V. M., was the to be sure that you had it all right stub perhaps fifteen fact high und two some regular job in their spare hours. Victim of a distressing accident, on when you left my place, he said. feet in diameter. "This looks like if any boys have nothing to do after Tuesday of last week, when he was "Why, dear me, I haven't public coon!" he said and rapped the tree solicol they stand around on the side. Imbing a tree, which he had felled says the man, and he turned back to with his axe. It was hollow, and walk and go to entertainments and in some manner the tree rolled over, as if—but there, I've no call to jedge stray hairs. Bland back, I'm soing koing to be lacking in their character three fractures between the knee and his mony an' be allus would."

SHE MOVED ALONG

She had been standing lif front of the receiving teller for over a quarter within. Nuther poked the handle of Prussian general field marshall, had The Halfountain and Hockaids aware of her presence-at any rafe. At last she became too irritated to beep quiet another moment, and, ranping on the window to attract the st- ing. That was wholly unexpected, before a looking-glass, arranging-his Women's Day of Prayer, a short prayer tention of the teller, she caustically Old ring-tall should have been asleop! totlet and admiring himself generally, service was held before the regular "Why don't you pay attention to ed." The coon look advantage of the auppose that you are the luckiest man

THE OLD ELM'S ONFLOW

orday they took the bld elm down-That stately glory of light and shade and muide Homes for the sparrows in its grown Refuge for robins, who unafraid fullded their nests with homely firt lose to the great tree's kindly heart! Not sol Full many a winter nigh Shall be made - welcoming and bright With warmth the great tree gained A golden treasure, fairly won-as justly as may be, to distribute my Gray ash! The end! It shall be spread od a little at the sight of that; she atreaked hills. And good brown Earth to her coni-

> Lo. Hyacintha Crocuses, Danodis! In glory of color and fragrance rare!

-Minnie Leona Unton. volunteer are brigade is promptly on rains." Jennie thought. "No, thank the scene and ready for service. Have you! but only for the term of childhood, you ever noticed what fine team work . It certainly did look like rain. Jen dip therein and the white clouds that in the same trench and of having she was making for Cecily Dodge; "And I leave to the children the .. A similar attachment exists among could not have Dick's patient toll unlong, long day to be merry in, in a volunteer firemen, and explains the done, She was already half-way thousand ways, and the night and the fraternal spirit that usually prevails down the path. "I'm so afraid no train of the Milky Way to wonder at. among those who co-openate to pro-one's got home yet!" she called over but subject nevertheless, to the rights teet their communities from flames. her shoulder. It is in the emergency of fire, exactly No-one was at home, but Jennie "Item. I devise to boys, jointly, all as in war, that unexpected displays was in time. She carried in everythe beeful lidle fields and commons of daring, of devotion to duty and thing and turned back the chairs; where ball may be played, all pleas- of self-forgetfulness and of co-bpers- there was even timer to take ant waters where one may swim, all tion so often occur. Most of the real Maggie's aprons before the rule came, snowclad hills where one may coast. War heroes had not been in any way Through it, from opposite directions, and all streams and ponds where one conspicuous in their provious civil life, came Muzzle and Lillian. may skate, to bold the same for the Their names had not appeared in the "Everything's safet". Jennie period of their boyhood. And all the newspaper headlines. So when the to them cheerfully. meadows with the clover blossoms and fire alarm wounds out in the middle "O Jennie, you jewell I'll do butterdies thereon; the woods with of a cold night offigens who may not much for youl" Lillan gasped, and, their appurtenances, the squirrels and be overherede in their everyday pur- "Deed, Miss Jennie, I'm obliged!" the birds and the echoes and the suits or trulig may auddenly reveal Maggie panted. streams' holses, and all the distant unsuspected courage and resourcefulplaces which may be visited, together ness that go fur to redonn their than training your family; at loss with the adventures there found. And familiar shortcomings. That is why better than training them when you

tures that may be seen in the burn- In the small town the volunteer tireing wood, to enjoy without let or men usually have underper feeling for hindrance or without any incumbrance one another than they have for other ttem. To lovers I devise their im- social ventre. 'It is in such an nections. Thus the dre hall becomes empanions, and to them exclusively I boys of the volunteer days now have important to see that no water us- who has been spending a couple of ive all merry songs and grave chor- nothing to do. Nevertheless, as the cumulates in the pot or in the jur- months here with her jurents, Mr. give all merry songs and grave choruses to sing with justy voices.

Them.—And to those who are no longer children or youth or lovers. I old voinnise fremen murch in their leave memory and bequeath to them and drag after them the old steam and Shakespeere and of other poets, if there he others, to the end that they may live the old days over again, free-ly and-tuily, without tithe or diminution.

Them.—To our loved ones with the special plants and should be started only when the soil is because of simple with every bit of her briags and every day as is often done.

Them.—To our loved ones with the special plants are altitude of the special plants are altitude of the plants are altitude of the plants are altitude of in the plants are altitude of in the plants are altitude to firm which the plants are altitude of in the plants are altitude of in the plants are altitude of into the plants are altitude to firm which the plants are altitude of into the plants are altitude. At Hemstron, Mr.

Use very day as is often done.

Geraniums must be kept close to the window where the value only when the soil is bewatered only when the soil is bewat

COON-HUNTING IN THE OLD

I wonder if any of the farmers here-They were talking of the financial shouts go occu-hunting these days. I days und, for scale insects, lobest death under its feet, but Mr. Moteen miles away from Bushby I years ugo, when I was a youngster or nome tobacco preparation, and re-stop over for a night or a meal with . This particular kind of hunt was Jed. as the case my be. He's pop'- nothing more than wandering through the Gore, with 'the swamp of tam-"Well, he knows how to get on," aracks and maples and undertycush, tending to allp off, or else he wat expedient.

Tany rate, the waitof strolled out from behind the deak, and every tree that looked holand kind of sagged along careless, alde or gray hair caught in the bark, they wall learn industry and perseveres of they will learn industry and perseveres of the deak.

The Grap Aplayles. Hillsburg, have an good citizen, property and business, moved in.

Something needs to take the place of the boys heed some takes by which that job in the woodpileless home.

The boys need some takes by which they will learn industry and perseveres and purchased from D. McConnel. & Mon.

The Grap Aplayles. Hillsburg, their purchased from D. McConnel. & Mon.

They could do for the benefit of the fluid four and Yeed business.

Huge dry chips flow into our faces the woodpile. Maje sniffed about the tree and whined. "See?" said father, "Coun att Heht!"

Soon a black hole gaped before us. and we all growded close to beer the axe into the tree, and it touched as surgeon major of his army a man Women's Institute met on Priday, something soft. He withdrew the uxe, who was very homely, but extremely March & at the home of the Dee and at once we heard a clawing broud and van. within. Then two spectral green eyes One day, Blucher entered the sur- thirty in attendance. As this was the stared strangely at us out of the open- geon's tent, and found him standing day set spart for the international For a moment father was "stump- "Doctor," said Blucher, laughing, "I meeting.-Advocate. pause and started to climb. Father in the world!" "I'm very corry, madam, we don't thrust in the head of the axe and tried "How's that, sir, may I sak?"

page anything here, was the politic re- to pin him against the far side of the "Why, here you are quite in love guarantee if you use Mrs. Hybilis boys scampered away to n' safe dis tance, front where we saw the head of the old coon both above the top of

For a moment be hesitated; then like a mammoth flying equirrel away he went toward the ground. Shouting toys, barking dog and excited man tere madly tato the brush after blm Futher swung willy with the axe and missed, whirled round and felt. Major dashed into a bush frozen into the covered root and plunged face first into the snow. Two of the other boys, trying to dash through a low opening In the husbon at the same moment. bumped heads and fell sprawling. It was all over within a minute. The Parsonage over the week-end. coon had vun into a great spreading have lost your reputation this day!" | burt of March. The dog looked sheeplah. mind; he'll come out during the night, and we'll track him in the morning." . But the god of the animals intervened; It snowed during the night.

THE OLD MAN'S OBSERVATIONS ON TRAINING THE FAMILY Here's a little home-like story came across the other day, which think night at in fairly well in two or three families I know in Acton: Jennie, the big motherly sister of the home, pushing open the screen door, looked down the comfortable, shady veranda and her lips tightened. And, low in the branches stont and In one of the chairs was Lillan's ocher, work and the last Canadian magazine, tossed there when Mildred Derry came by and Lillan run out to walk down to the post office with her "for a moment." The moment, Jennie knew, would last all the afternoon-Lillan's moments always did. In a neighboring chair was Rosabel Botty's most battered and most oherlahed-doll, keeping guard over Betty's in one corner were the heginnings of lines of development and work. seemed to see Dick's excited, freekled little-face bending over his work. "But they've been told and told not off, she declared, and I am not going to blok-them up. If a shower comes, they must take the consequences. I'm fred of ploking up for this whole Jennie went firmly down the corner she caught a glimpes of flut-THE VOLUNTEER FIRE BRIGADE toring white in the back-yard, Even Fortunately we do not often have Maggie had gone of for her afternoon parents to use them justly, but gener is reging in Acton, But when an Musete was very particular about her spirit, as the speaks in their children starm in the model appended appended

"It's coming!" Mary said, as a blind heard the same shells rour overhead and Dick-that settled things; Jennie

HOUSE PLANTS IN WINTER

plants in good condition throughout upon for some internal trouble. the long winter, hence a few hints | Lust Thursday as Mr. Charles Vanmay prove useful. Home house plants sickle, of Ash, was about to chop make little growth buring the winter, some, wood, he slipped und fell, the and, while they are thus at rost, or axo falling on his right hand and . This appears especially in later life hearly so, they should be given just fracturing two of the dingers, nest from time to time.-W. T. Macoun, Dominion Horticulturist.

THE WOODPILE TRAINING_

country boy acquired physical de- Francis Frank beg rides in motor cars, something is striking him on the left leg, making that was supplied in the old days of ankle.

COMPLIMENTARY

Gebhard Von Ellucher, the famous six of them being draws.

ply. "Next window on the left, if you hotlow. But he wriggled from under with yourself, and you haven't a single Spake's Todalittie, you'll be .better.

Neighborhood News

GEORGETOWN

and put up 4 signs on outskirts of crowding young forest trees lift their town for $35,00 has been accepted by green tons far abuve the green founlee, became entangled and yelped in were at Guelph last week attending a souled woman who lived there, but when the great morehant trades he those the spring mornings." meeting of the Presbytery of the her story, as another how told it in links the four quarters of the globe. United Church.

Miss Ruth Johnstone of Chatham; a fifth your student in medicine ut the University of Toronto, was the her, One by one she had seen the aphounces the engagement of Father looked round and then burnt Maughter, Margaret Howden, to Mr. and of her own life, blad, was only out laughing. "You're a fine bunch Ronald Harrison, of Toronto," The the beginning of a larger living, the

The Board of Trustees of Georgetown, School, has placed on record their appreciation of the faithful and satisfactory work done for the school by their late Hecretary-Treasurer, Mr. A. Thompson, and forward to Mrs. Thompson a copy of the resolution. with a letter expressing the sympathy of the Bourd for her in her lods .--

Herald.

Company puditing staff commenced work on the corporation's books last middle road, Trafalgar, is to be sold by public auction along with some Its contents on Friday, March IS. at 1.30 o'clock. With the preparation of the option list, the Oakville Hortfcultural Society has opened proceedings for the coming season's activities . Last year the society enjoyed a very successful season with an increased membership now hat with the pink reschuds she and a greater interest on the part of had tensed for; and carefully piled up the citizens of town; in borticultural to repentance. In sickness or trouble in one corner were the beginnings of lines of development and work. sorner of Korr Street, yesterday afternoon about five o'clock, Irene Very, to bring a new life in. Threa-times six-year-old daughter of Mr. and in that terrible night even her great to leave their things out when they go Mrs. George Very, was seriously in strength gave out, and three limes lured. The wounded girl was taken to her home immediately after the secident, where Dr. J. M. Stead found her to be suffering from severe head Bleam and electricity have changed

> BURLINGTON Mr. Hobt abroom has returned hou that evening he ordered her to be removed to the flick Children's Hospital, Toronto.

from-the-hospital after this recent peration, and is on the job again. The Town Council held 'a meeting on Monday evening, and passed necessary by-law for submitting the High School requisition for $31,000 to wote of the ratepayers. Mrs. Wm. Bunker is making her rounds soliciting members for the Burlington Horticultural Bociety. come a member by joining, and help make the membership over 400 for On Tuesday morning of last week, Councillor Ryckman . was wearing bouquet of snow-drops picked from a flower bed on the property of Mrs. nettled. "What raised your susple-Burry Ghent, Water Street. This is long?

the earliest those outdoor flowers have bloomed for soveral seasons. Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Taylor and son, Andrew, returned home on Vriday morning last from a trip to California, kun go off; then I saw 'im putting where they visited his mother and the chicken into his knapsack; and other friends, returning by way of Vancouver.

The annual At Home of the Burlingon Volunteer Pire Brigade was held In the Oddfellows' Hall on Friday evening last, and was attended by over hree hundred guests from Oakville, lamilton, Burlington and the surrounding district. Miss Emma Mills and Mrs. W. Cutes were the hostosses on Saturday. March & at a delightful little party in honor of the birthday of Miss Norma Gates, of Indian Point Twenty guests were present and each received a small gift .- Casette: .

If Is rabber difficult to keep house city hospital last week to be operated Sponging plants, such as forms, ship, had a narrow escape from being palms, rubber plants and aspidistra, fatally injured the other morning. every three or four weeks is desirable. While attending the boree in its stall For aphis souse the plants in strong Mr. McDonuld was savugely kicked soap suds or some tobacco preparation and sustained a broken leg. The several times at intervals of a few horse also tried to trumple him to

Miss M. McMillan of North Bay. le visiting with her slater. Miss Mary Mrs. Kees, of Minneapolis, Wisconsin, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs.

Hillsburg Checker 'Club defeated Erin Checker Club lust Tuesday afternoon, at Dwyer's Hotel, by eight games. There were seven players to each team, 56 games being played;

CHINGS THAT DO NOT CHANGE

county, there is an old coddard Not with the dear Lord's appointments for Junes with the following story of a a trace of timber remains, but about you! Only try, if you are to suffer, young man in Louisville who recently the forgottop doorstep roses and Blace to do, it splendidly. "That's the only hang up his "shingle" as attorney at lims auditor at a salary of $200.06. bear beautiful witness to the home way to take up a pleasure or a pain, law: The offer of Chas. Ruddy to build that once stood there, although thick- -Phillips Brooks. dation. Probably my one living, can distant shores. The small retail deal-Nov. Dr. Dickie and Dr. M. C. Reld remember the great natured, great- or trades only with his neighbor;

be forgotton. "Aunt Head" her neighbors called guest of Miss Murgaret Dickie at the bodies of husband and some carried uches the threshold, past the illack. Mrs. Edward , Finlay, Decreetown, She was beyond middle age when she was left alone. But what seemed the of hunters! And, Maje, old boy, you manriage will take place the latter power of which was felt for miles

> Her first het was occentric; she tore down the walls of her house, and realed the sloping roof on the stone foundation. Her one fear was of the, wild winter storms. But secure in her low shelter, she was not uncomfortbale; there was a living spring n the corner of the cellar, and a bulkneed that opened to the south gave her light and alse Yn the slender shaft of light she wove and spun, and carned brough to give somothing to

An old wayfarer came to her door one day, helpless and forlorn; she took died. Offener the need was spiritual. There was no church near by; so she gathered the neighbors for miles about, and since many of them came long distances, she begun her services on Haturday by baking bread and cooking a great kettleful of soup for the next day: Then, on Sunday her mighty. volce-it could be heard half u mile. away, they said-peoplaimed the way of righteousness and exhorted sinners njuries and boily contusions. Inter the face of the world she lived in: ove, faith, prayer, wervice-ure un they only, are eternal.

It was during the manoeuvres. was being tried for shooting a chicken "Look here, my man said the comnanding officer to the farmer who certain that this man shot your bird? "No, I won't do that," replied the canny farmer, "but I will say he's the man'I suspect of doing it." "That's not enough to convict . man," retorted the officer, considerably "Well, air," replied the sturdy farmer, as he slowly mopped his forehead with his bandans, "I waw 'Im' on my property with a gun; then I heared a

Butter, if you must: do not quarrel

"A Kingdom of Two," ought not to -liulwer, poral blessing a taste of heaven.-Ito-

o all who work and wish .-- Lord High-

Our thanks should be us forvent for meroles received as our politions for mercios sought .- C. Slamous, Opportunity, mooner or later, boines

Mumility to the root, mother, nurse but I never thought it would go gound - fast enough to make me loose my

The Oreen Hag croslifs Berntor Olle

One afternoon a friend, on entering the young man's office, observed in "That's a fine idea," unid-the friend "A man is very likely to oversleen The youthful attorney untied sadily. "Phat alarm clock was not bought for the reason you montion,"_said he. ."! merely keep it here to wake me when It is time to yo home."

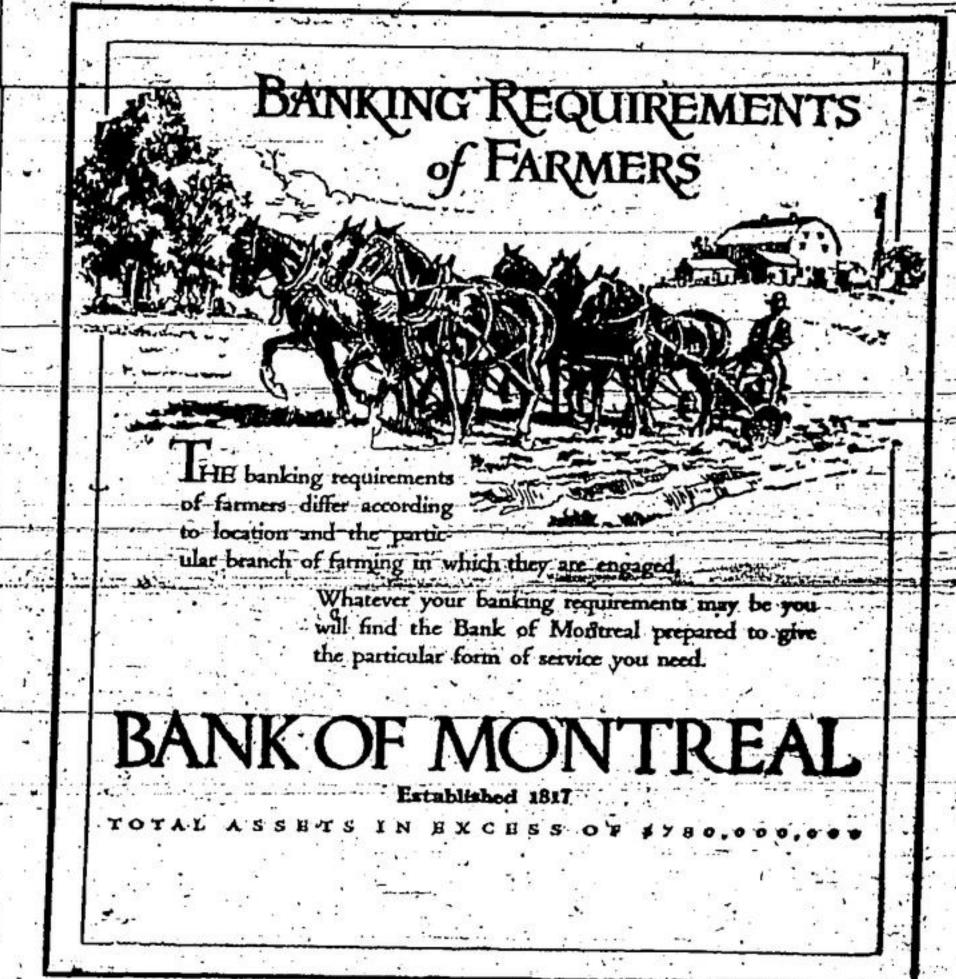

BPEED Jones -- "I had a balance in the bar little while ago, but bince I've b come ungaged-" Jakes (fucctionaly) - "Expensive finninger ch. old man? Never mine omember that love makes the world Ko round." Jones (atill dismal) -"Yen T know

DARWIN'S LIMITED Home Service Department wants clean-cut, nest appearing, > dell Darwin's smartly style Spring Dresses and Couts at same prices as shown and sold in our large and successful chain of Ladles Roady-to-wear Stores; this is an unusual opportunity to muke a permanent connection with Darwin's 20-year-old retail organization and earn a growingincome in keeping with your ability, We'll furnish the reputution and capital for you to build a reputation and successful business in protected territory with Darwin's over-values and broad guarantes of supreme satisfaction to your customers. You owe it to yourself to write this very day for full particulars of the Darwin opportunity. Elaborate Free sample ouffit to those who quality. Our style und merchandising experts will train 'those who have hot, had former experience. Address Darwin's Limited, Dopt. 65, Hox 611, Montreal Que.

ambillous, honest men and women of character to show and

Broadcasting from Gurry's "TIRES FOR LESS"

Compare these prices and then use your own judgment:

We handle all makes of tires. Phone or Mail your Order and we will Express the tires to-you the same day.

THESE TIRES ALL BEAR THE MANUFACTURERS' WARRENTRY

TIRKS			- 9		ľ	UBES				•
x 3 1-2 Cord	. $5.95	- 30	x 3 1-2						$1.18
x 3 1-Z Oversize Cord	6.45			Oversize					1.45
x 3 1-2 Heavy Oversize Cord		30	x 3 1-2	Extra He	avy Re	d Oversiza	ð		1.95
¥ 4.40 Tires	7.75	., 29	x 4.40	Tubes				······	1.45
	* * *		(A)		2.0		22.00

Look These Over

Balloon Tires & Tubes

33 x 4 1-2 ...... 19.00 ...... 2.95 34 x 4 1-Z ...... 19.65 ...... 3.60 .35 x 4 1-2 ...... 21.00 4.00

31 x 5.25 19.70 30 x 6.77 22.45

BUS AND TRUCK TYPE 82 x 5.77 ..... 28.70 32 x 6.00 ...... 26.75 SPECIAL GREY TUBE, 29 x 4.40

ALL TIRES GUARANTEED

A. J. GURRY

OAKVILLE "TIRES FOR LESS"

PHONE 215 RADIOS & RADIO SUPPLIES