

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

FOR SUNDAY, MAY 29

General Lesson Title—Peter Undoubtedly by Persecution.
Scripture Lesson—Acts 5: 17-23 Devotional Reading—John 10: 11-18.

Lesson Themes
Standing by Our Colors—The spirit of Peter and the other apostles is sadly lacking in many Christians of the present day. There is a constant tendency to put the Kingdom of God in any place that the first. If we have any thing for which we can think of as our other color, we give it to God. If we have any money left after we have bought what we wanted, we give that to God. If we have any mental energy which we do not require for other things, we are willing to give that to God. If we have any special talents which we do not require for other things, we are willing to give those to God. We are unwilling to attend a church, because we are unwilling to be known as active Christians. For fear we may lose the business of somebody who is not a Christian, we seldom mention religion in public, for it is supposed that we are ashamed of it. We fear to read or even carry a Bible openly, lest we be ridiculed. When asked to read the Bible, we say that we do not know it. We are afraid of God first in our thinking and in our lives.

MILLIONS OBTAINED FROM SMOKE

Millions of dollars have evaporated into thin air up around Sudbury in the last forty years, from the roasting heaps and smelters of the nickel mining companies. By an ingenious device the Mond-Nickel Company now captures a fraction of the smoke and thereby supplies all Canada with an essential chemical—sulfuric acid.
Many and varied are the products from the nickel-copper ore in addition to the two principal minerals, and in the smelting of the ore into matte great quantities of sulphur are burned away. This process creates an unpleasant smoke that devastates fol-lage on the nickel-copper ore in addition to the sulphuric acid. In one corner of the building is a tiny office containing delicate apparatus which automatically reports when a taking place at different parts of the plant, so that by a glance at the chart, the engineer is able to regulate the manufacture of the acid.
This is, of course, only one of many by-products of the nickel industry, and the others range all the way from platinum to rock ballast for railway beds. The stone which is separated from the ore is crushed and is used by the Canadian Pacific Railway on many miles of its road, some of it going nearly as far west as Winnipeg. Gold and silver are recovered in the refining, as well as platinum, the precious metals totaling in value more than a million and a half dollars every year.

They Forgot The Telephone

The scene as recounted by the watchman. The incident is one of scores of recent events in which the telephone has proved to be the most helpful ally of the police, the fireman or the physician.

WAITING

"I could say nice things about him, I could praise him if I would;
I could tell about his kindness, For he's always doing good.
I could boast him as the journeyer For the road of life he's trod.
But I let him pass in silence, And I've not a word to say.
For I'm one of those who wait—For a word of praise is said, Or a word of comfort uttered—Till the friend we love has died."

TOO MUCH TALK

A general election campaign brings some annoyances. A neighbor called on Mr. Jones and they talked for hours in the parlour, while Mrs. Jones and the children laid aside their books to listen. "If the election is held on the about this thirty-five per cent," exclaimed the neighbor. But Mr. Jones said that he was not sure, but he was talking on, disagreeing more and more.

PAID IN HIS OWN COIN

The young Australian actress, Dorothy Hacon, tells the story of an American visitor to her native land who tried pulling a stockman's leg and was paid back in his own coin.
"What do you call those things," the American asked, pointing to a herd of steers.

A PROFESSIONAL OPINION

Ministers, as a rule, are not at all averse to telling a good story, even of their own expense. The following mentions one who was as much amused at a witty criticism of his own preaching as he would have been at a similar comment on some other man's sermon.

A TRUE PARTY MAN

A certain elderly Toronto man has a reputation as one of the staunchest of Conservatives. He is so far he is convinced that the "grub" party, like the king, "can do no wrong." The Conservative and socialist within the body politic are to him a source of keen sorrow, and by loss of opportunity, in spite of his more than three-score years and ten, to create the intrinsic stability of party principles and to prove that government conditions that was right in the land is attributable to the Liberal.
The other day he had consigned all the Liberal to the files of Jaricho and shown to his own satisfaction how safe are the reins of government in the hands of a Conservative when one of his listeners remarked willingly:

QUIET RECOGNIZABLE

Mr. Kofke: "This is my photograph with my two French poodles. You recognize me? I think so. You are the one with the hat on, are you not?"

RIDDLES

What bird is most useful to builders?—The crane.
Why does a doggie eat a thistle?
—Because his ass is sore.
What keeps the sun in its place?
—The beams of bonnet.
Which is the fastest man in the world?—A conductor of a handsome beats time.
Why are weary boys like bicycles?
—Because they are tired.
What river in England is what some boys and girls love to do?—The Tees (Tease).

SOME PROVIDENT

"Is your new son-in-law a good provider?"
"He can just about keep my daughter in gloves. I pay for everything else."
"Then he doted you as to his circumstances?"
"No, I remember he merely asked for her hand."

OH, NOT AT ALL

A motorist had run over and killed a goat. The owner stood with arms stretched, demanding to know what the motorist intended to do about it.
"Madam," said the motorist, "I will replace the animal."
"That's all right," said the owner of the goat.
