

LEADERSHIP

The world has need of leadership—
The world of action—today.
The world of action—tomorrow—
that will point a way!

It is heart to lead the smaller and less strong—the ruder the small,
And with them—lead to strength.

This world has need of leadership—the big, big world of action.
And you, who lead the weaker folk,
be careful how you rule.

To make your way here—you must prove one if you can,

And let your padding through your world by words of a man.

—Alton Gord.

GRAHAM—At Hamilton, on Wednesday, June 6, Miss Isabel Graham, sister of Mrs. James Matthews, Action, aged 77 years.

A DANGER AVOIDED

It was a wise young man who paused before he leaped into the water, and asked him to guess her age. "You must have some idea about it," she said, "but what was intended for an arch sideways glance?"

"I am 18 years old," he admitted, with a smile. "The only trouble is that I hesitate whether to make your looks or ten years old on account of your looks."

Then, while the widow smiled and blushed, he took a graceful and steady leap.

Awful Asthma Attacks. Is there a member of your family who is in the power of this distressing trouble? No service you can render him is equal to the entire attention of Dr. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. This remarkable remedy rests its reputation upon what it has done for others. It has treated over 10,000 cases, covering years and years of success in almost every part of this continent, and even beyond the seas.

NOT DECEIVED

A pretty anecdote of a dog is given in Sir C. J. P. Burnby's "Diaries and Correspondence." It was told by Sir George Nadin, who, in the year of the army was in the south of France, after the Battle of Toulous, Sir George and several other officers visited the house of a man who had a very fine dog.

The dog had been trained to receive food only when offered by the right hand, and the gentlemen, anxious to impress him with their own importance in this respect, and found that he constantly refused to take bread from the left hand.

He turned to Sir George, who, having lost his right arm, of course offered the bread with his left hand; the dog looked earnestly at him, and accepted the bread.

The officers tried to deceive him by disguising themselves so as to appear to have lost the right arm; but the dog's sagacity was not to be beaten, and he steadily refused to take bread from the left hand, except from the man who was really one-handed.

Cuts and Bruises Disappear—When suffering from cuts, scratches, bruises, sprains, sore throat, or chest and any similar ailment, use Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. It has been popular in well-known in every section of the country. A bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil should be in every medicine chest ready for the emergencies that may always be anticipated.

UNHARDED BY CUSTOM

It is strange what tricks even educated men will play. "The strongest man will fall into an unconscious heap under the vaccination lance," or be compelled to faint, "fainted by the bite of dentists," indicate the fact.

Carl of Malahay, in his "Memories," relates a little incident illustrative of this fact.

He had never imagined this, after more than a dozen of the keepers, who blew off two fingers of his right hand, in breaking a gun. The fingers had to be bound up again.

All the gentlemen stood round to witness the operation and to encourage the man, who showed great pluck. It was curious that every one here the sight, calm as Lord Raglan, when he had blown off his left hand. He fainted and had to retire. In action as is known to be remarkable for his unbroken sang-froid.

Miller's Worm Powders not only make the infantile system untenable for worms, but by their action on the whole body and especially on the heart which provides a host of appetites, bit-binges and other internal disorders that the worms create. Children thrive upon them and no matter what condition their worm-infested stomachs may be in they will show improvement as soon as the treatment begins.
