CONFEDERATION-1867

All loyal Canadian citizens look back on July 1, 1867, as the most important date in the history of our great Dominion of Canada...

Civil War had broken out in the United States between the North and South, and Britain took the part of the South for the abolition of the slave trade...

The United States, who had made a Respectful Treaty between her and Canada, had cancelled it after ten years, thinking that they would bankrupt Canada and force her to join them...

Under this great Bill four Provinces were united, Upper and Lower Canada, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia...

At first only the four Provinces joined, but now Canada is made up of nine Provinces and two Territories.

THE OLD MAN

THE OLD MAN OF THE BIG CLOCK

When the old man came into church last Sunday, he placed his new high hat just outside of the pew in the aisle.

The Value of Your Dollar

The average man will tell you that a dollar is one hundred cents, no more or no less. This is true when speaking in terms of Gold only, but in Buying Merchandise Your Dollar is worth just as much as you can get for it.

Are You Getting All You Can for Your Dollar?

We claim that in Our Economical Method of doing Business that we can give you from 115 to 125 Cents for Your Dollar as compared to what you can get elsewhere. Compare Our Prices to what others ask for similar goods, and You Must Admit the Dollar spent here is a Mighty Big Dollar in Value, therefore we guarantee All Goods as represented by us, and agree to Refund Your Money if You are not Satisfied.

Old Stock All Gone!

Having disposed of the Original Merchandise it will be our endeavor to stock up with Quality Goods to sell at the Lowest Possible Margin of Profit. We are expecting Large Shipments of Merchandise any day, but cannot give Prices this week. Watch for Our Adv. Next Week.

CANADA'S THREE SCORE YEAR'S OF NATIONHOOD

Very literally are the Provinces of Canada bound together by hands of steel. As a matter of fact, British Columbia became a Province of the Dominion in 1871 under promise of railway connection...

GAYCHING THE UNWARY

The mayor of a small town in Ohio, says the Argonaut, had a22 stout shag with whom he loved to parade the market place. They furnished him with the basis of a mathematical joke.

PA MUST BE A GROCER

"Well, Hubert," said the teacher, "did you find out about the house age?" "Yes," said the boy, "and I found out a baby's age when he's five months old."

"Abundant!" What did he mean? "Well, he said when a baby's five months old he weighs fourteen pounds and that's a stoupe."
