Brief Local News

—Well, June keeps cool, anyway.

—Tuesday was the longest day in the year.

—Just another week until the big celebration.

—These are trying days for the school pupils.

—It sure felt like good old summer time on Tuesday.

—The streets should take on a gay attire next week.

—The lighting and new Park entrance is all ready.

—Only one week more until the Jubilee Celebration.

—Now for the final get-ready for the big celebration.

—Get your costume ready for the calithumpian parade.

—Home-grown strawberries are now on the family bill of fare.

—The rains of Saturday, Sunday and Monday gave the ground a needed soaking.

—Repairs to the fire walls and roof of the Warren Block have been made this week.

—There'll be a lot of disappointed people if unsuitable weather prevails on July 1, 2 and 3.

—The Citizens' Band gave the new stand a trial concert last evening, prior to the formal opening.

—The departmental examinations are being conducted in the Continuation School this week.

—A dead little town is a deader little town when it accepts its deadness as a matter of course.

—Superintendent Allison has arranged for decorative lighting on the streets during the Jubilee Celebration.

—Acton stores have good stocks of flags and decorating material but do not hesitate too long in getting your supply.

—Contracts have been let for the construction of Ferguson's new skating rink, which will be completed about August 1.

—Excavations have been made for a new residence for Mr. J. M. McDonald at the corner of Church and Fellows Street.

—The Orangemen's fife and drum band is doing diligent practice these evenings, in preparation for the glorious twelfth.

—The no-charge plan for the patriotic part of the celebration on Friday is certainly a most commendible part of the Acton celebration.

—The softball team of the Tuxis Group of the United Church played the softball team of Ballinafad last Thursday evening, the latter winning by the score of 11-9.

—As in hockey, so in lacrosse, Georgetown, with the aid of Acton, seems to be able to put a pretty fair team in the field. They defeated Fergus last Saturday.

—The name of the 2nd Vice-President, Miss McPherson, of Norval, was inadvertently omitted from the list of County Officers of the Women's Institute published last week.

—The United Church has been a busy place the past week, with an extra staff of decorators rushing the work of re-decorating the church auditorium in order to have it ready for the re-opening next Sunday.

—Ernest Pell, the young son of Wm. Pell, of Omagh, was the victim of a painful accident on his father's farm, while walking beside a tractor plow. He stumbled and in falling on the disc colter received a nasty gash on his leg, which required twelve stitches to close.

DUFFERIN SCHOOL PICNIC

Pleasant Afternoon Spent by Teacher, Scholars and Their Parents

The picnic of S. S. No. 10, Esquesing, was held at Blue Springs Park on Friday afternoon, when about sixty guests assembled and had a most delightful time. The children and parents were conveyed to the park by motor cars; the trip being greatly enjoyed. The afternoon programme consisted of football, softball and races. Nearly every person entered into these sports with the greatest enthusiasm.

The following are the races and the names of the winners:

Boys and girls, 6 and under—Quinta Tonelli.

Boys, 6 to 10 years—Angelo Tonelli.
Girls, 6 to 10 years—Grace Flintoft.
Boys, 10 to 14 years—Austin Dunn.
Girls, 10 to 14 years—Mary Mills.
Fourth Book Pupils—Austin Dunn.
Young Ladies' Race—Miss Hall.
Young Men's Race—Mr. W. Coxe.
Wheelbarrow Race—Mr. G. Gillis and Melvin Joe.
Married Ladies' Race—Mrs. G. Gillis.
Married Men's Race—Mr. S. Mountain.
Potato Race—Melvin Joe.
Tie Race—Miss Hall and Mr. S. Mountain.
Three-legged Race—Mr. Thompson and Mr. Cardinell.
Time Race—Charles Mills.

The picnickers then assembled at the tables, where a sumptuous lunch was prepared. The supper was followed by the distribution of prizes and a ball game, prior to leaving for home. Miss Nellie E. Hall is the teacher of this school and was energetic in seeing that all enjoyed themselves to the full.

Acton and District

Attending Press Meeting at Bigwin Inn.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association is being held this week at Bigwin Inn, Lake of Bays, Muskoka. Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Moore left last evening to attend. Mr. Moore is on the programme for an address on "Experiences of Fifty Years in a Weekly Newspaper Office." An address of welcome will be given by H. E. Rice, Mayor of Huntsville, who is publisher of the Forester in that town.

Country Homestead Destroyed at Port Credit.

A disastrous fire last Wednesday at the home of E. B. Munro, on the Mississauga Road, completely gutted the building, only the bare walls and chimney remaining. Fire brigades from Oakville, New Toronto, Long Branch and Minico were on the scene, but were hindered, owing to lack of water. The outbreak is supposed to have started in the back kitchen. Although a lot of furniture was saved, the neighbors estimate the damage at anything between $10,000 and $20,000.

Stole $68 from Employer

Isaac McCullough, a farm hand, who pleaded guilty to the theft of $68 from Water Harding, his employer, near Hillsburg, was remanded a week for sentence by Magistrate Watt in Police Court at Guelph on Monday morning. Crown Attorney J. M. Kearns reviewed the circumstances of the case, giving it as his opinion that while Harding and his wife were away McCullough had stolen the money as the result of a sudden impulse. Some of the money, he said, is hidden in the barn, and the greater part of it can be recovered.

1927 Best-All-Round High School Girl

An enjoyable function was held last Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Lucy Edwards by the Lakeside Chapter of the I. O. D. E. Each year the Society gives a silver pin for the best all-round High School girl, and this year the honor went to Miss Irene Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn, Main Street. A delightful and appetizing tea was served and enjoyed by the members and their guest and the High School teachers. The Regent, Mrs. V. B. Rumley, made the presentation and explained the significance of the gift.

Car Accident at Aberfoyle

About a mile north of the Village of Aberfoyle, on the Guelph-Hamilton Highway, cars driven by Harold Peach, 20, 15th Street, New Toronto, and Sid. J. Tatham, of Toronto, collided, with serious damage to both machines. Tatham was driving south, and Peach was approaching Guelph when the crash occurred. After the accident an ice cream truck, approaching Guelph, side-swiped Tatham's already wrecked machine, doing further damage. Occupants of both cars escaped injury. Peach figured in another accident near the same spot about three weeks ago.

The Halton Vs. Trafalgar Action

The court action of Halton County vs. Trafalgar was tried in the High Court at Hamilton last week before Mr. Justice Grant. Those who gave evidence for the County were former Warden W. A. Irving, Jas. W. Blain and J. R. Elliott and County Treasurer D. Hutcheon. The only witness examined for the Township was former Warden W. H. Morden. Judgment was reserved. Counsel for plaintiff corporation, S. F. Washington, K. C., assisted by Crown Attorney Dick; for defendant, H. E. Manning, of Long & Daly, Toronto.

Head-on Collision on Second Line

On Sunday afternoon, about five o'clock, Mr. Reinhart, of Kitchener, and Mrs. Hill, of Michigan, driving cars in opposite directions, met on second line on the narrow bridge near the farm of Mr. Lorne Mullin. Neither car could be brought to a standstill before a head-on collision occurred. Mr. Reinhart's car was knocked back and into the ditch and that of Mrs. Hill, while knocked back several feet, did not go into the ditch. The bumpers saved both cars from serious damage and after being pulled out of the ditch Mr. Reinhart was able to continue on his way. The occupants of both cars received severe shaking up, but were not seriously injured.

ACTON'S FLAG PRESENTED

To Sir Harry Brittain, M. P., with Considerable Eclat at Acton, England

The following letter from Rev. Dr. Moore to his brother here, shows that Acton's flag was presented to Sir Harry Brittain, M. P., with considerable ceremony:

London, Eng., June 9, 1927.
H. P. Moore, Esq., P. M.,
Acton, Ontario.

My Dear Brother:

Yesterday we had a great time in connection with the presentation of Acton's silk Canadian flag to Sir Harry Brittain, M. P.

Sir Harry and Lady Brittain took complete charge of Mrs. Moore and myself. We went to their quaint, ancient attractive and pleasant home at 2 Cowley Street, Westminster, London, for lunch at 1.30 p. m. Then Sir Harry piloted us through the House of Commons and the House of Lords, taking us to various places therein that I never visited before.

Then they motored us to Acton, Lady Brittain joining us for the afternoon and evening. We visited a number of the great industries of the town, especially the Neville's Foundry, where they manufacture motor engines for aeroplanes, and Eastman's Dyeing and Cleaning Works. The first employs 1,500 and the other about 2,000. Then he drove us to Acton's splendid new park, through a part of the residential and business sections, taking us along streets built up with great stores, where there were fields when you were in Acton three years ago. We then went to the Acton Baths, the Priory and other places and then to the Town Hall, where the function of presentation was to take place.

Mayor Orange met us in his robes of office, accompanied by the Sergeant at Arms with the mace, and the whole Council, with perhaps fifty citizens and 100 Boy Scouts and Girl Guides.

The Mayor gave us a great welcome, after which I presented Acton's flag with due dignity, solemnity and grace. Of course I made a speech, and Lady Brittain remarked that I was a "jolly speaker."

Sir Harry followed, also a number of prominent men. After this a dinner was held in our honor, at the home of Mr. Percy Harris. It was a very fine affair, in a most lovely English home.

This note is just to let you know that the presentation was duly made. I will tell you all about it when I return home.

Affectionately,
ALBERT.

Dr. Moore has been invited to return to Acton some Sunday before he leaves England to preach in one of the churches there.

Masonic Gathering at Georgetown

One of the largest Masonic gatherings ever held in Wellington District took place at Georgetown, under the auspices of Halton Chapter, No. 224, Royal Arch Masons, last Friday evening. There were representatives from the chapters in Guelph, Galt, Orangeville, Milton, Brampton, Kitchener, Palmerston, Toronto, and other places. A reception took pace in the forepart of the evening in the Masonic Hall, when Ex. Comp. Geo. C. Brown, the First Principal of Halton Chapter, extended greetings to the visiting companions. A number of Acton members of Halton Chapter attended the affair and report an excellent and instructive evening.

Old and Young Masons in Church Parade

The annual church parade of the Oakville branch of the Masonic Order was held to the St. John's United Church last Sunday, when the pastor, Rev. J. H. McIlain, preached an appropriate sermon. The parade was led by Worshipful Master Arthur Hillmer and Past Master Major John Kaitting. Worshipful Master Hillmer, who is a son of George Hillmer, M. P. P., and was recently installed into office in his 29th year, is the youngest Worshipful Master in the history of the lodge. Major Kaitting, who is in his 92nd year, and holds the 50-Year Past Master service medal, is the oldest surviving charter member of the Oakville branch of the Order.

Entered Into Rest

DR. CHAS. E. STACEY

One of Toronto's very widely known general medical practitioners, Dr. Charles E. Stacey, died at his home, 161 College Street, Wednesday morning after two weeks' illness. The late Dr. Stacey had practiced on College Street for the past 38 years. He was born at Feelwood, Ont., of Irish parentage, and he graduated from old Trinity College Medical School in 1886. Some thirty-five or forty years ago he practiced in Acton, and removed from here to Toronto. Surviving are his widow, who before her marriage was Miss Pearl Perry, of Cannington; one son, Charles Perry, a graduate in Arts at Varsity, this year; one daughter, Mrs. Harcourt Brown, at present in France on her wedding trip; two sisters, Mrs. Allister Murray, Peterboro, and Mrs. C. P. Morrow, Lindsay, and two brothers, Benjamin and William, both of Peterboro.

MRS. GEORGE BENTON

After many months of sickness Mrs. George Benton passed away at her home on Main Street on Wednesday morning. Mrs. Benton, for some time, has suffered from diabetis. A few months ago an infection of the right limb necessitated its amputation. After this operation Mrs. Benton seemed to improve. She was able to be taken about in her wheeled chair and she cheerfully looked forward to a few years of better health. However, on Sunday she suffered a paralytic stroke and gradually sank until she passed away Wednesday morning. Her maiden name was Amelia Turner, and she was in her 57th year. Mr. and Mrs. Benton came to Acton from England about twenty years ago, and have always made their home here since coming from the Old Land. Besides the sorrowing husband, two children are left to mourn her loss, Mrs. John J. Smith and George, both of Acton. Mr. Fred Turner, of Acton, is a brother, and Miss E. Turner, a sister, has made her home with Mrs. Benton for the past few years. The funeral will be held on Friday morning, with mass in St. Joseph's Church at nine o'clock.

Neighborhood News

DUBLIN

Dublin Branch of the Women's Institute held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. A. Fell on Wednesday, June 15. Mrs. Bracken occupied the chair and a large number of members were present. A splendid programme was given, including a paper by Mrs. J. Frank, Jr., on "What a Mother owes her self, the home and the community," also community singing. The next meeting will be held at Miss Viola Sprowl's. The picnic will be held on the lawn at Mrs. J. F. Robertson's on Tuesday, June 28.

ROCKWOOD

The funeral of the late Mrs. Colin Kitching, who passed away in Guelph General Hospital last week, took place on Wednesday afternoon from her late home, Rev. A. Donaldson conducting the services, assisted by Rev. John Little. A large number of friends and relatives gathered to pay their respects to one who was held in high esteem by all who knew her. She leaves to mourn her loss one brother, John McKenzie, of Ospringe; and four sisters, Mrs. Wm. Usherwood, Everton; Mrs. Wm. Sutton, Ospringe; Mrs. F. Simmons, Texas, U. S. A.; and Miss Annie McKenzie, Guelph; as well as her sorrowing husband and only son, Cameron, who will miss her in the home. The floral tributes were numerous and indicative of the sympathy accorded her. Interment took place in the Friends' Cemetery.

The afternoon tea, held last Wednesday on the lawn of Mrs. G. H. Martin, under the auspices of the women's organization of the Presbyterian Church, was well attended. The place was profusely decorated with bouquets of flowers, and flags inserted here and there bespoke sentiments of patriotism. Miss Dorothy Douglas poured tea for the numerous guests, while Mrs. Robt. H. Henderson and Miss Agnes Walker had charge of home-made baking, and Elizabeth Gray looked after the ice cream booth for the Mission Band. The weather was all that could be desired for such an occasion. A few from Guelph were present, including Miss Margaret Strachan, a former school teacher, and whose father, Rev. D. Strachan, was many years ago pastor of the Presbyterian Church, now the United Church. The proceeds amounted to over $40.00.

Next Sunday anniversary services will be held at Eden Mills Presbyterian Church, when Rev. J. T. Strachan, of Owen Sound, will preach at morning and evening services. The choirs of both churches are practicing together for the occasion. On Monday evening a garden party will be held at Edgewood Park.

The United Church Sunday School held their annual picnic in Exhibition Park last Saturday afternoon. Despite inclement weather setting in the evening, all seemed to enjoy themselves.

Miss Edna M. Pearen arrived home last week from Amherstburg, where she has been teaching for the last two or three years.

Mr. George Terrance arrived home last week from Toronto Normal School.

Messrs. Johnston Hewat, Stanley and George Plummer, of Simcoe, were up for the week-end.

Mr. Leslie Swanston, of Toronto, was home for the week-end.

Mr. Fred Hamilton is back at his work on the Highway since his recent illness, which confined him to his home for over a week.

Last Thursday morning the steam shovel, which has been working on the new section of Alma Street for highway purposes, was moved down street to Jolliffe's Hill, and the roadway widened considerably, the earth being used for filling in at the foot of the hill and over the new cement culvert put in last week. With the addition of another truck, the work is being pushed ahead as speedily as possible.

District Women's Institute meetings are being held this week. The annual meeting for Rockwood Women's Institute will be held in Friends' Church Friday afternoon.

Picnic and Dance at Blue Springs

Central Erin Amusement Club picnicked at Blue Spring Park last Saturday afternoon. A dance was held at night for which Hillsburg orchestra supplied the music. All report a good time.

OSPRINGE

Many of our citizens enjoyed a delightful motor trip during the week-end.

A large number of the farmers from this district are visiting the O. A. C. at Guelph, this week, and from reports the outing is certainly interesting to progressive farmers.

Mr. Tom Aitkens, of the second line, has purchased a new sedan, which will certainly help to make farm life more attractive.

Great preparations are being made for the monster garden party, to be held on the evening of July 4.

The second line, north of Ospringe, is being graded and widened and several teams are busily engaged in drawing gravel, which will be greatly appreciated by the farmers.
