REPORTING AT HEADQUARTERS

If the cap fits, wear it, runs the old adage. Sometimes the knowledge that it might easily fit cannot be concealed by the conscious ill-doer...

"TO-DAY IT'S QUINCES"

Mrs. Ashley smiled as she entered. "Quinces?" she asked. "You just do not let me interrupt if you're preserving..."

HE UNDERWOOD

Many are the complaints made by employers over the unresponsiveness of clerks and the weekly finding a stray customer that the shopkeeper is sometimes able to most to explain his wants...

The Old Man

THE WISDOM OF THE ELEPHANT

The great test of animal intelligence, according to Mr. H. H. Blandy, is the ability to meet an unforeseen difficulty, to grapple with a situation for which the ordinary training has not prepared...

AN EXPENSIVE CRITICISM

It is whispered, says Peter, that when Monsieur Pulcener, the late president of France, was inspecting the pictures exhibited in Paris by one of the painting societies...

SMUGGLERS' TRICKS

The extent to which smugglers of former days in England would go to accomplish their ends is indicated by the extraordinary contrivances to which they resorted in order to conceal their goods and escape the revenue cutters...

Hiram had walked four miles over the Great Divide to call on his lady late. For a time he sat alone on a bench by the side of the log cabin...

MAC WAS THERE

A man stepped up to a greener's cigar counter and bought two dollars' worth of cigars. A man who was waiting by the counter pulled forward...

FOILING A CHICKEN THIEF

It was a warm night, and my cousin Ralph and I were lying on a fragrant bed of clover in my father's barn...

SMILES

"Home!" "You say you're troubled with insomnia?" "Home? Yes, steady, somehow Ah can't go to sleep on the job as quick as I used to..."

MENTAL SCIENCE

What is it possible to cut some people by ignoring them completely? "I don't know," said a man, "but I think I could cut the lawn that way..."

OUT WHERE THE WEST BEGINS

"Chief," asked a visitor in Fort Mink, "do you believe when I buy some of that Indian beer, is it made and brewed in Rochester, New York?"

CRUELTY TO PATRIOTS

"What is your opinion of aviation?" "I don't know anything about it," answered Senator Borah. "But I'm afraid of it. If all the aviators are going to strafe me, I'm sure I shall take off our coats and learn to fly..."

CONSCIENTIOUS WITNESSES

The old time practice of kissing the judge received a jolt at a recent Grand Jury session when an awkward-looking witness was asked if he had kissed the judge, and replied: "Not kissed, but I sure as hell would if it weren't for my conscience..."

BEHIND THE DOOR

"John I wish you'd bring me home one of those talbots." "The kind you take with a glass of water?" "No, the kind you take with a grain of salt..."
