Entered Into Rest

SMITH-URICH—At the Metropolitan Church, Toronto, on Saturday, October 23, 1927, by Rev. Dr. Sedgwick, Dr. Arthur, son of the late Rev. Dr. J. F. Urich and Mrs. Ursula, his wife.

THOMPSON-NELSON—On Wednesday, October 25, 1927, at the United Church Parsonage, Acton, by the Rev. C. L. Poole, H. D. Dorothy Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. and Mrs. Mary E. Nelson, to William Earl Thompson of Nelson, Ontario.

DIED

NELSON—In Acton, on Sunday, October 23, 1927, Alexander Wilson, in his 78th year.

GRAHAM—At her home, King Avenue, Acton, on Wednesday, October 25, 1927, Ada W. Gardner, beloved wife of W. R. Graham.

WILLIAMS—In Acton, on Sunday, October 23, 1927, Alexander Wilson, in his 78th year.

JOHNSTON-E. ROGERS—Toronto, Ontario, on Saturday morning, November 8th of Johnston E. Rogers, at his residence, 10 Gipley Avenue, Toronto, in his 66th year. The late Mr. Rogers was born in Trafalgar Township, near Guelph, in 1861, and recently resided on his farm estate. Later he entered the real estate business in Thorold, and about ten years ago went to Toronto, where he became a contractor in politics, and had been for over fifty years a member of Streeterville Oddfellows Lodge. Mr. Rogers was unmarried, and his only surviving member of his immediate family being his sister, Mrs. M. Maxwell, of 10 Gipley Avenue, Toronto.

MRS. THOMAS HEPBURN—The late Mrs. Thomas Hepburn, who passed away on Tuesday, was laid to rest Thursday, October 28, in Eden Mills Cemetery, the funeral taking place from the family home, Orange Street, Guelph, where she died on November 1st. She was the widow of the late William Hepburn, Sr., who settled near Guelph in 1832, and was born in Guelph Township, all her life having spent in that district town, which she spent in St. Thomas. Surviving are her husband, one daughter, Helen, at home, and two sons, Fred and Jack, and her brother, the late William Hepburn and B. Hawkins, M. J. Barry and C. A. Allen.

ALEXANDER WILSON, Milton—Alexander Wilson, aged 78, a well-known citizen of Milton, passed away at the residence of his son, David Wilson, East Mary Street, Milton, on Friday morning after a brief illness, before noon. He died on August 8th, eight years ago he farmed in Trafalgar Township. He was a Presbyterian and a Liberal. Surviving him are six children, three sons and three daughters, William, Calvary, Alexander, Wilson, Sarnia, and John, James, Robert and David Wilson of Milton; Mrs. J. E. Hamlin, Cedar Springs, Mich.; Mrs. Blanche, Dundas, and Mrs. Maude, of Milton. The funeral took place on Tuesday at 2.30 p.m. from the residence of his son, O. Wilson, Main Street, East Mary Street. Interment was made in Evergreen Cemetery, Milton.

MRS. W. K. GRAHAM—The community was indeed grieved when the word of the death of Mrs. K. Graham was given out on Saturday evening. Mrs. Graham had been in good health for some time and gradually failing, so that the end was not unexpected. But on every other hand it was apparent that the bright and happy home of Mr. and Mrs. Graham had been broken up. Ada W. Gardner came to Acton, the wife of W. K. Graham, the man about whom there was such a stir ten years ago. The late Mrs. Graham was a young woman, who was active in many circles in community life, and a member of the Board of Trade, was active in the work of her church, Knox Church, and her help and influence was felt in many branches of life. Her home was a most hospitable abode, and the children have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in the loss of a devoted wife and mother. The funeral service was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, St. A. Internment was made in Parkview Cemetery.

—Paul Paquet, the great French designer of ladies' dresses, in visiting Toronto, said: "You know all women ought to wear the short skirts you cling to over there. You can't live like Paul in right, but who is going to say which women should not wear them?"

—Much of the flood of circulars that comes to citizens here through the mails never reaches any further than the Post Office, and in the vestibule of the Post Office it's bad to think, Mr. Advertiser, that you don't find any copies of The Free Press along with them.

POLICE COURT NEWS

Georgetown's new by-law requiring all milk sold within the municipality to be pasteurized, because very contentious feelings on the part of milk dealers and citizens. A case was heard Friday evening in Police Magistrate Moore. The dealers, who had conceived the idea of evading the provisions of the by-law by separating the milk from cream, and so getting away the milk, evidence was given by Inspector Ward and others respecting this, and a conviction was made and a penalty of $2.00 and costs imposed. A number of citizens met against a firm of milk dealers, who put in a pasteurizing plant of selling unpasteurized milk. Evidence showed that the dealer had been given by a medical man, with some difficulty, to the Town Council, for supplying certain customers with unpasteurized milk without any notice by the by-law. The charge in this case was that the court gave notice that until the by-law was properly amended to cover any changes granted by the Council, no dealer would be compelled to pay for alleged infractions would be accepted.

(Sentences were handed out to three men who appeared in Burlington Police Court on charges of consuming liquor in an unlawful place, as follows: Holt, Taylor, $100 or one month; Frank Jasper, $25, and Adam Graham, $20 days in Milton jail. The men were trying to draw a party up to the basement of the Town Hall. Graham had recently served a 30-day sentence, imposed by Magistrate Jeffs, of Hamilton, on a charge of operating an automobile with drunk and also had his permit cancelled.)

TIENEMENDOUS BUSINESS

In the last seven weeks, there has been an increase slightly more than 1% of all the business over done by the Balda Tea Company in its first five years of existence. Sales in this period were 2,172,014 pounds.

NOVEMBER ROD AND GUN

Dealing with just a portion of our door life and hunting and fishing, the November issue of Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News, which has just been published, contains a most interesting article on the salmon of the Nelson River in Hudson's Bay, by Mr. John Swackhamer, of the well-known writer, Horace Greeley, a stirring fiction story of the salmon of the "far north" in the north Spanish and Arctic seas, and trapping article by Raymond Thompson.

The regular news departments dealing with shooting, trapping, angling and kennels also contain very interesting articles, while the Silver Fox News section contains the latest news of Star industry, together with interesting and helpful notes on the care and management of foxes.

Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ontario.

WHAT DAMED HIM

"Nothing succeeds like success," runs the saying, but there are times when a lack of success has been of great value.

At the time of William III, Mr. Peterborough, a poet, who was a member of the Earl of Nottingham's household, was asked if he had ever written a poem that succeeded. "Yes," he replied, "but I never wrote a poem that failed."

"What is your secret?" asked the Earl, "and what is your advice to us who are unsuccessful?"

"I have heard your statement," said the Earl, "and I have a treat for you. As I cannot find the least trace of a plot in either one of the other poems, I will give you mine."

"With this unfeeling tribute to his poems, the poet departed with his plotless play."

WHOSE WATCH?

Agent: "Don't you want your office furnishings insured against theft?"

Manager: "Yes, all except the clock. Everybody watches that!"—De Laval Monthly.
