Brief Local News

Only six weeks until Christmas. The ability in greatest demand is reliability. November brought the first taste of winter. Well, it's colder, but we had it coming to us. Turkey wasn't on the menu for Thanksgiving in many homes here. The Royal Winter Fair taken place in Toronto from November 16 to 21. The big feature on the water tank at the C. N. R. gave a warty aspect. The slogan "You young Christmas shopping early" is now appropriate. The decorations are at work painting the exterior of the Wonderland Theatre. The cold weather retarded the work on the cement laying on St. Highway. The Christmas goods are now beginning to make their appearance in the stores. It's not necessary to watch very closely to see Acton growing and progressing now.

The building season is nearing an end. It has been a very busy one in Acton this year. Carrying a gun costs money in Milton. The cheerer with a license. Willbur Street, east, and Wallace Avenue have been graded and gravelled. The past week.

The 1800 milk pasteurizing plant of Messrs. Chas. Brothers at Georgetown was destroyed by fire last Tuesday.

Ips was frozen on the Corpora Pond and Fairy Lake, but the most venturesome did not give it a try out.

A new sign has been erected on the Bank of Nova Scotia, which adds greatly to the appearance of these premises.

At St. Alban's Church next Sunday evening the special preacher for this service will be Rev. G. W. Linton of Vergennes.

Acton is indeed fortunate with her industries. All are working full time and some are turning overtime to keep pace with orders.

We appreciate the loyalty of our subscribers. The prompt renewals we have been receiving help most wonderfully financially and otherwise.

Acton merchants offer splendid advertised values every week. You are losing money every week you fail to read the advertisements thoroughly.

Rev. William J. Brandon, of Hamilton, who preached in the United Church here on September 11, died suddenly at his home in Hamilton on Sunday.

J. Edwin Gamble has been elected member for Halton County to the 19th House of Parliament, by acclamation. The Parliament meets in Toronto the last week in December.

As a special offer to new subscribers to The Free Press we will send this weekly news letter every week from now until the end of 1928 for the regular subscription price of $2.00.

Annual Meeting of Children's Aid Society
The annual meeting of the Halton County Children's Aid Society will be held this evening, November 10, at eight o'clock, at the Gordon Hotel, Milton.

Nassagaweya Citizens Honor Township's Heroic Dead
Although the weather was raw and cold on Monday afternoon, a large number of people attended Nassagaweya annual memorial service to honor the memory of the township's heroic sons who fell in the Great War. At two o'clock a service was held at the Soldiers' Monument, conducted by Rev. R. Andrews, rector of the Lowville and Nassagaweya Anglican Churches, assisted by Rev. Mr. Mathew, pastor of the United Church, Elmer, Ontario. The service was followed by a luncheon at the Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church, conducted by Rev. S. Paul, pastor of the United Church, Milton, assisted by Rev. Canon J. R. Saffell, rector of Grace Anglican Church, Milton.

Armistice Day

Annually, we pause to pay tribute to all the soldiers dead in the Great War. No lines are drawn, our Allies, as well as the enemy's dead, sharing in the tribute of the day. First honor of course is our own, for upholding the flag and spreading the true spirit of Democracy at the greatest cost man can pay. The supreme sacrifice.
