

THE ONE TO BLAME

When Grumpy Barker's cherries were ripe...

KEEPING THE FAMILY TIED

When human nature in its family relations is to be judged solely by the incidents which are reported in the newspapers...

HERETIC

It is an uncomfutable thing to hold heretical beliefs even in other matters than those of religion.

THE LAUGH ON HIM

Two New Yorkers gliding London were eating with outspoken criticism on the plain, unpretentious exterior of the Prime Minister's official residence in Downing Street.

WHY COLLECTIONS ARE SLOW

A certain plumber had some difficulty in getting a customer to take some action on his bill.

Twenty Thousand Dollars for a Heart

BY HILDA RICHMOND

WHAT are you going to give for this Christmas, Margaret?

Goodness gracious, Margaret! You don't mean to say you're going to donate your poor little children and have no Christmas this year?

Yes, I'm trying to forget the unkind things you said last night!

Nothing shall break my resolution, said Mrs. Reeder.

"Say Dad"

SOMETHING TO MAKE FOR MOTHER

"Say, Dad, what can I get Mother for Christmas? I haven't much money."

It is wonderful how a little mustard in your bath will bring new life flooding through your system.

ALL BEGIN WITH V.

If any one who has a recent map of Central Africa will look at the country bordering the upper Nile by the east, he will notice that the name of nearly every district and town begins with V.

He brought them to receive them as brothers and not as enemies.

IN THE ANDES A traveler in the heart of the Andes tells, in 'Tropical America', how he followed the feelings when, having ascended the Paramillo, he found himself at the summit, nine thousand feet above the sea level.

A BIG DEAL IN PROSPECT H. H. Evans, of Newcastle, president of the Southern Indiana Fox Hunters Association, in session at Connersville, recently, met two citizens of Indianapolis, who had "bird" not wily but too well, were looking at the monument.

Did You Ever Stop to Think? That the persistent advertiser will.

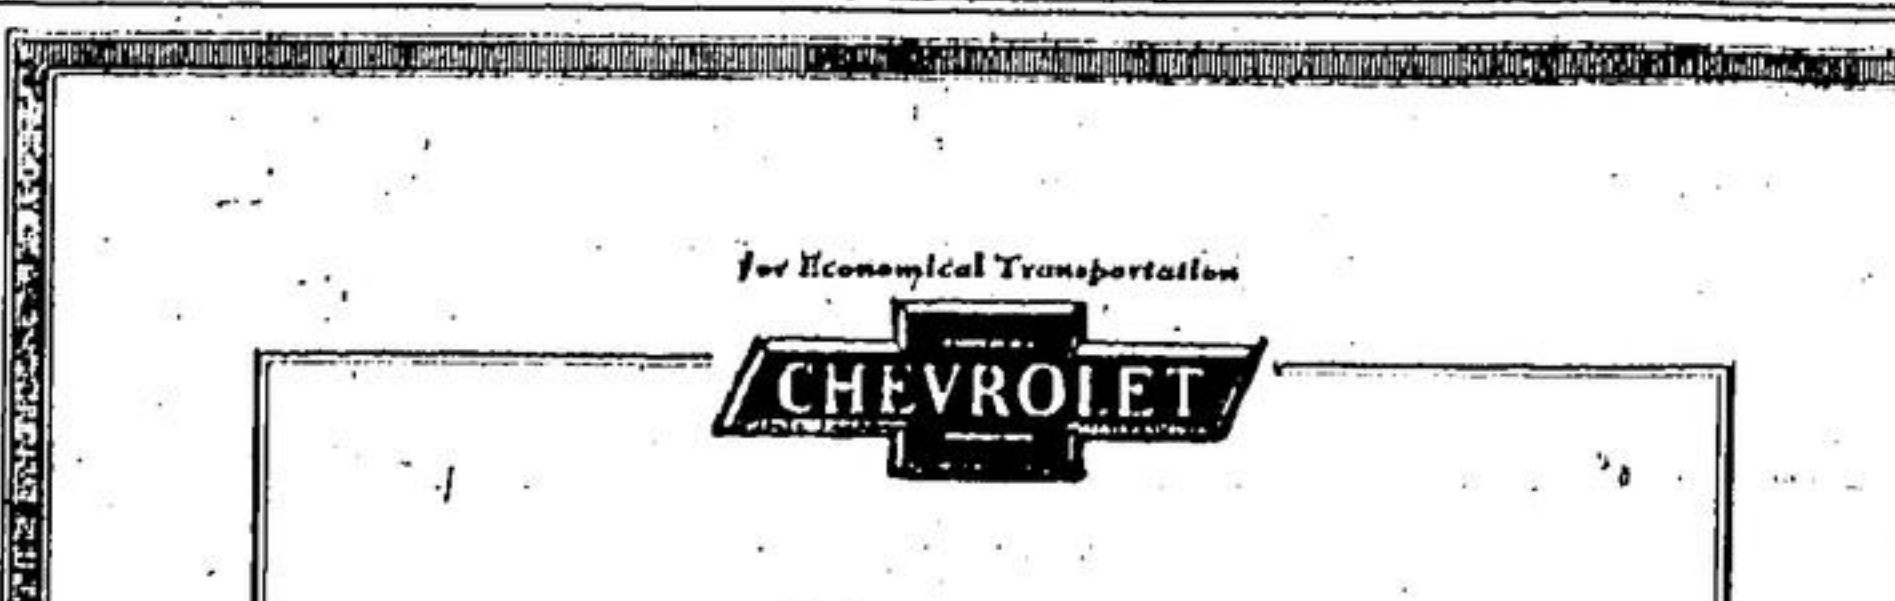

That they used truthful advertising.

That they did not boast.

That they told, in plain English, so everyone could understand what they had to offer.

That they backed up their ads. with quality goods and service, and in this way gained the confidence of the public.

That they have always given a square deal to their customers and in this way have retained the old customers and gained new ones.

Did You Ever Stop to Think? That the persistent advertiser will.

That the merchants who advertise quality and service and back it up with the right kind of merchandise are the successful business men of to-day.

That these firms learned long ago that selling was just as important as buying, and the chief factor in selling was letting the public know that they were in business and what they had to sell.

That they used truthful advertising. That they did not boast.

That they told, in plain English, so everyone could understand what they had to offer. That they backed up their ads. with quality goods and service, and in this way gained the confidence of the public. That they have always given a square deal to their customers and in this way have retained the old customers and gained new ones.
