Community Christmas Tree For Acton

Santa Claus Will Give Presents to Girls and Boys on Christmas Eve

The United Church Sunday School Christmas tree entertainment will be held on Monday evening, December 19, in the church. The program, consisting of drills, dialogues, songs, and orchestra in attendance. Silver collection.

Church Ladies' Bazaar

The Ladies' Aid of Church Hill held a very successful sale of home-made baking and butter in the Parish Hall Saturday afternoon and evening. Many of the articles were offered at very low prices, and many who were not in the habit of buying home-made baking were attracted to the sale. The proceeds were used for the purchase of a new stove for the church.

Increase in Egg Shipments

Exporters from British Columbia are looking for a record this year, according to figures collected by the Provincial Department of Agriculture. It is estimated that 100,000 more eggs will be shipped from that province than last year.

Is There a Santa Claus?

The following item in the editorial columns of The Globe the other morning, has been the subject of much discussion. The question is whether there is a Santa Claus or not. Does The Globe believe in Santa Claus? The editorial question is: "Is there a Santa Claus?"

Depredations of Dogs Costly

Depredations of dogs are proving costly to Guelph Township. The municipality has already paid out this year for claims for sheep owners who have had their sheep stolen by dogs and there is $102 more to be paid for sheep killed or injured by dogs.

Convict Re-Captured

John Woodcock, who escaped from Milton, caught in Hamilton.

Acton Also

The Oakville Record last week gave the following item: "Georgetown is now in the county to hold its elections on December 15, 1927, as is done in many places throughout the province." Acton, also, is in the county to hold its elections on December 15, 1927, as is done in many places throughout the province.

Enjoyable Young People's Meeting

The meeting of the Young People's Guild at Knox Church, Acton, on Friday evening, December 9, was an enjoyable one. The program consisted of songs, dialogues, and a play. The proceeds were used for the purchase of a new stove for the church.
