The Neighboring Municipal Elections

Results in Municipalities in the Vicinity of Acton

In many places, in fact in a majority of places near here, the municipal elections were held during the winter in the year. The following are the successful candidates in the constituencies in this vicinity in which Picnic readers will be interested.

Milton

At Milton the contest was for Reeve, E. Sykes and J. B. Blair, and Mr.
Sykes was the successful candidate.
Other offices were filled by acclamation.

Brentz

At Brentz the contest was for Reeve, M. L. Shattock, L. M. Bray, H. B. McDonald and D. L. Oliphant.

A right vote was polled in Oakville, which otherwise would have been held in October. It is estimated that there was only about 35 per cent of the possible voters cast.

Conrad J. Byers, L. L. Heyman,
Thomas J. V. Vass, and Johnnie
Trotter.

Deerfield

A right vote was polled in Oakville,
which otherwise would have been
held in October. It is estimated that
possible voters cast.

Conrad J. Byers, L. L. Heyman,
Trotter.

Wellington County Council

meets according to statute on January 24, will have only one member without qualification. The election was held on December 10, 1927, and the successful candidate was Mr. George H. McLean.

Acton

The other offices were filled by acclamation except for School Trustees in Ward 1, where another nomination will be required, because the original nomination failed to meet the election

Burlington

Mayor J. N. Allen

Reeve Edmund Holley

Deputy Reeve J. W. French

Councillor E. A. Vanier, George Holley

George Ernest J. Puck, John A. Elmer, John D. McCullum, Cameron Johnston, High School By-law to provide for the erection of industrial department at the farm.

Reformatory Crowded

The population at the Ontario Reformatory at Guelph has grown so rapidly recently that the post office now has a total of 624 inmates are now confined in the institution.

Port Credit

At the end of December a considerable number of Picnic readers were dissatisfied with the services provided at the post office, which had been closed for the winter.
