IN MEMORIAM

DAVIS—In loving memory of my dear wife, Lydia Davis, who departed life February 11, 1923.

Four years have passed and still I miss her. Never will her memory fade. Loving thoughts will always linger around the grave where she is laid.

Sadly missed by HUGHEND.

MURRAY—In loving memory of Edith Murray, who died February 22, 1917. Not now but in the coming years, it may be in the better land, we'll read the meaning of tears.

And we'll understand.

MOTHER, BROTHERS, SISTERS

GOTT—In loving memory of our dear parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Scott, who fell asleep in Jesus. Mother died at 82, Father at 85. Both are at rest. Father died one year ago, February 7, 1923.

Peacefully sleeping, resting at last. This world's heavy sorrows and troubles are past. In silence they suffered and patiently waited. Till God called them home to suffer no more.

Sadly missed by WILLIE AGGIE, DENT.

Brief Local News

The icy roads the past week have made motoring almost impossible.

The sidewalks have been rather treacherous with ice several days this week.

Orangeville is installing a sewage disposal plant and sewers at a cost of $150,000.

Wm. Dawson, of Brinston, has a Holstein cow which recently gave birth to twin calves.

If you do not read the advertisements in this Paper Please you are losing money every week.

Streetsville Council has decided to engage a firm of chartered accountants to audit the town books.

Send in your news items and send them early in the week, please. It will help us serve you better.

There seems to be a difference of opinion as to whether the bear saw his shadow last Thursday or not.

The municipal officers have had a busier time keeping the snow banks spruced up and ready to load to make the walking safe.

A numberer writes—"I always enjoy True Blue Puss short stories, "The Old Man of the Big Clock Tower," also "Bay Dad." Cheerio! Keep going."

Owing to the slippery condition of the roads Mr. R. L. Gregory was unable to get to Acton in time on Tuesday night to operate the picture show.

The flag floated at half mast on the Government House flag pole last week in honor of the late Earl Haig, Commander of the British Forces during the Great War.

Mr. George Lantz's car was badly wrecked on Sunday when it skidded off the icy road, near the seventh line. None of the occupants were seriously injured, however.

Mr. Harry Orprie, who operates a hotel in the Newmarket Inn, the Newmarket Palace, had the misfortune to run a steep through the afternoon fast food.

Police Magistrate Moore is holding court at Milton to-day for the trial of six charges, theft of poultry, railway tools and a motor car, against four young men, seventeen to twenty-four years of age.

The Richmond Street building, Toronto, of the United Church of Canada, the former premises of the Book Room and publication offices, were sold this week for $305,000.00. A very favorable price.

Mr. Richard Harris was kindly favored to come to the Newmarket Inn, with several photographic taken in that town after the recent snow storms. The scenic effects obtained with the snow hanging on the trees makes a splendid picture indeed.

A GREAT MAN RETIRING

Bishop Warne, of India, a Canadian Boy of This Vicinity, Closing His Public Labors

The following information from the New Outlook, is of keen interest to the people of this section, inasmuch as Bishop Warne has his birthplace on lot 18, the fourth line, Erin, about five miles from Acton:

"Bishop Francis W. Warne, for twenty-eight years a Bishop of the Methodist Church in India, has decided to retire in May, is now making his final tour of the fields in India, to whom he refers his just given so much of his life.

"Bishop Warne was Canadian born and received his early education at the fifth line school, Erin Township, at the Georgetown Academy, and at Albert College, Belvoir, Ontario. He has truly appreciated missionary work and has won the very high esteem of his church, and of all those who have been thrown in contact with him.

"From reports his last tour of the mission fields in India has been something like a triumphal procession. Mrs. Warne has accompanied him.

"One of the most touching things was the report that the wife of Bishop Warne might fall upon his successor."

Bishop Warne is the son of the late Francis Warne, of Erin, and is an uncle of Wesley Warne, of Guelph.

He is the daughter of the late Rev. Thomas M. Jeffries, who died at Oakville, March 16, 1922, in his 101st year.

Under Magistrate Moore was a fellow-student of Bishop Warne at Albert College, Belleville, fifty years ago.
