3 Arrests Follow Kilbride Fox Thefts

Clever Work by Provincial Commissioner Butler, Owens and Allan, and Walker and Thompson

Last Saturday night and Sunday night the police authorities have evidently done their work well in the thefts of the thirteen back and side rooms of the couch of J. G. Nicholson, of Kilbride, in this county, on Saturday night.

On Sunday night the police made a series of arrests in Acton, which resulted in the arrest of Russell Hamlin and Oscar Tebow, who were lodged in Milton. Gordon Gallagher, who was also arrested, was held in custody.

The officers worked all night on Saturday and all day Sunday through the deep snow and the raging storm, and in a snowstorm held up at Guelph.

They were unarmed, and were arrested without a struggle.

Most of the four or five pieces of silver taken were recovered, and the police believe that the rest will be recovered.
