On the Passing of the Rink By-Law—Interesting Comment from Other Centres
In our editorial column the week prior to the passing of the rink by-law we said that people in other communities would watch with interest the result of the vote. We stated that the vote would be judged by the result of the by-law exchanges which came to the Acton rink. The following comments from various places on the result of the vote of course interest in the project was confined to places nearer home and it is these remarks that will interest readers.

Has Depelated in Fairy Lake
Sixteen pairs of the large-mouth black bass were deposited in Fairy Lake on the evening of May 17th. The fish were supplied by the Government for stocking Fairy Lake. All fishing has been prohibited since the late afternoon of the day of the deposit.

An Attractive Play Ground
Acton's attractive play ground, surrounded on three sides by the waters of Fairy Lake, is a place of beauty in its springtime. The fourteen acres of greenery are now rich and velvety. The background of sylvan waters and forest trees is a picture worth the brush of a painter. The vista down King Avenue, beyond the town, is a picture worth the brush of a painter.

Marriage of Acton-Young Couple
A quiet wedding took place in Acton on Saturday, May 12, when Miss Ann Massey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Massey, Acton, was united in marriage to Mr. William Young, of Acton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. McEwen, pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

Asphalt Being Laid West of Acton
The laying of the asphalt roadway between Acton and Rockwood commenced on Saturday, May 19th. The road will be laid very rapidly and already a stretch of about half a mile has been completed. This is a great improvement on the old road, which was a source of much trouble to motorists.

Many Appeals Expected
Quite a large number of ratepayers in this section of the township are expected to appear before the assessment committee on June 4th. The assessments for 1928, and the Court of Revision will, no doubt, have a busy day on that date.

The local troop of the Boy Scouts of Canada, under the leadership of Scoutmaster W. J. Jones, started their annual getaway on Monday, May 21st. The troop will be on a trip of about ten days.

Five-Year-Old Drowned While Fishing
Palling off a small wharf while fishing near the Dominion Lumber Mill plant, a five-year-old boy, Arthur J. Stewart, of Acton, was drowned on Monday, May 21st. The boy was fishing in the pond at the lumber mill.

Boston Young People's Banquet
The Young People's Society of Boston Children's Club, under the leadership of Miss M. J. Turner, held a banquet on Tuesday evening, May 22nd, at the Hotel Cecil in Boston. The banquet was attended by about 100 young people.

Funeral of the Late Joseph J. Kennedy
The following funeral arrangements were made for the late Joseph J. Kennedy, who died on Monday, May 21st. The funeral will be held on Wednesday, May 23rd, at 10:30 a. m. from St. Mary's Church.

The Evening Meal
A schoolmaster wrote the following criticism on the edge of a boy's report card:
"Good worker, but he talks too much."
When the card was returned to the father's signature, his reply was:
"You should hear his mother."

Visitors to and from Town During the Past Week, as Gleaned by The Enquirer
Mrs. Alex. Donald, of Bloomfield, is visiting friends in town. Mrs. E. J. D. Dills, of Toronto, spent the week-end at her home here.

Disappointment prevailed on Saturday afternoon among Oakville baseball fans, who were counted forward to the opening of the Halton League season, with a game at that place, and Milton Game on Sunday. The rain, which came down pretty freely, made it impossible to get on the diamond. Next Saturday Oakville is scheduled to play at Milton and Burlington at Bronte.

McArthur Appeal Case Remanded
At the request of the counsel for J. E. McDonald, the appeal case entered by him, which was fixed by His Honor Judge Elliot to be heard on Tuesday at Milton, has been postponed on the ground that his counsel is out of town. The time now fixed for the hearing is next Tuesday, 29th inst.

When a car, driven by an unknown driver, came to a sudden stop on the Hamilton Highway, Port Credit, about 11 o'clock Sunday morning, it resulted in a pile-up of cars. The stream of traffic flowing north from Toronto piled up against the stopped car, causing no injury to any one but holding up traffic for at least 20 minutes. Nine automobiles, in addition to a T. C. bus, participated in the confusion, and all suffered from minor damage.

Mrs. Anna Maddock and Miss Doris Maddock, of Toronto, visited relatives and friends here over the week-end. Miss Emma Robinson spent a few days at her home at Kenilworth during the week. Mrs. Daniel Graham, of Wainfleet, and his daughter, Mrs. W. Hutchison, of Toronto, visited Acton friends on Tuesday.

Mrs. Anne Macdonald, who has been in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, for an operation and treatment, is now making splendid progress toward recovery. Miss Constance Stephens and Mrs. James G. O'Rourke, of Guelph, spent the week-end here. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Black, Mary and Doris and Mrs. Jennie Matthews, of Toronto, made Acton friends and relatives a visit on Sunday.

Mrs. M. I. Reativo, who went to Stilly in January on a combined objective of visiting his parents and marrying a wife, returned to Acton on Sunday. Mrs. and Mr. Reativo will reside in the home at the corner of Church and Willow Streets, which was the home of the house he occupied the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Black, Mary and Doris and Mrs. Jennie Matthews, of Toronto, made Acton friends and relatives a visit on Sunday.
