Still Loves the Old Home Town Mr. John L. Cripps, of Dundarave, West Vancouver, B. C., in renewing his Page Parks subscription, says: "I would greatly enjoy visiting dear old Acton and the old home again, and hope to before long. Y will gurely have a fine chat with old friends, there. I have read the Paux Paras for about forty years. I believe Mr. Moore has retired from his position as editor. I have a warm spot in my heart for him. Some people call me an old man now. Well, my three boys are grown-up men, and my baby daughter is quite as tall as her mother. Please emember me to all the Acton friends."

Thursday marked the opening of beautiful Eldorado Park, under the new ownership and management of the C. N. E. R., and it was found necessary to add C. N. R. coaches to all trains, large crowds being picked up from Georgetown, Acton and Quelph as well. Now publicly-owned, Eldorado Park won many warm friends on its opening day. Motorists commented favorably on the large parking space available. A large and attractive programme of sports was arranged by the rallway and valuable prizes presented. A handsome silver cup was awarded to the winners of the girls' softball match, Landers Silkworms, of Guelph, who defeated Swastikas, Toronto, by a score of 20 to 1d.
