Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Prank: We, your neighbors and friends of the surrounding community, have gathered here to-night to show our appreciation in a humble and small way of the esteem you both are held in this, your home locality. You were always ready and willing to help in a most generous way at every social activity, whether for church or local clubs, and hope you may choose this locality as your home, so that we can still have you panied the gifts:

to assist in the social work of the community as well as your genial friendship. As a slight remembrance and token, we ask you both to accept this miscellancous shower. May you think of us each time you use them. We also pray that God may bless your home, in health and prosperity. and that your married life may be
