Acton's Memorial Service on Monday
Inclement Weather Does Not Deter Citizens from Attending the Gathering at Town Hall
The wet and disagreeable weather that prevailed on Monday morning somewhat lessened the attendance at the Memorial Service on Monday and necessitated the holding of the whole service at the Town Hall, but it did not deter the splendid gathering of loyal citizens from attending and doing honor to the glorious dead. The hall was not packed, but it was the case in former years, and a splendid gathering was present.
Roeve Mason had charge of the service and in his opening remarks expressed the pleasure it gave him to have the citizens gather so joyfully each year to do honor to the soldiers who had fallen, and held this service.
Rev. P. A. Sawyer was unable, owing to illness, to be present and take part in the service, and in his stead Rev. A. C. Stewart, M. A., led in prayer, and also read the scripture lesson.
The address was delivered by Rev. C. J. Cooke, D. D., who gave a stirring message, commending the Memorial Service, and the holding of the Memorial Service, and a call to take advantage of the lessons taught by this conflict to in future avert a re-occurrence.
The announcements were made by Mr. P. Sawyer, who also took occasion to express the appreciation of support which had been given the veteran. The order of service from this point had to be arranged and was decided advisable by the committee that the service be held in the Town Hall.

A PRESENTATION
To Miss Evelyn McLoughlin by the Members of the Acton Female Farmers' Club.
A large number of the members of the three branches of Acton United Female Farmers' Clubs gathered at the home of Miss Evelyn McLoughlin on Tuesday evening, November 13. A short program of the following numbers was given, with Mrs. Louis Brownlow as chairman: recitation by Mrs. Nellie Nelson; solo, by Mrs. William Griffith; and several selections by the Churchville Orchestra.
The U. F. Y. P. O., of which Miss McLoughlin has been a very helpful member, presented her with a beautiful picture of the Acton Female Farmers' Club.
There is joy for your joy and the thought that after all this is not any and prolonged parting of old friends. The work you have done for us and the high standards you have set up and the success you have attained cannot be too big to permit us shortly to forget you even were you to leave this world. We are sure that you will be remembered by the people here and we offer you our kindest appreciation for the high measure of success you have won in all your endeavors and for yourself. We offer our congratulations, greatest of all, for your loyal aspirations, love of fair play and warm co-operation at every difficult and up-hill climb. There is our gratitude and lasting love.
Our regret is that with your marriage you give up you individually and the name that has come to mean so very much to us. Yet we will be glad to see you and we will be glad to see you and we will be glad to see you and we will be glad to see you.
Let this little token of our love and gratitude remind you of us some times and let it be a reminder of our sincere wishes for your health and happiness all through the years to come and that God will be with you to give you strength in time of need and comfort when the trials of life become hard to bear.
Wishing you all that is good and to be wished for, we are, on behalf of the U. F. Y. P. O.
Louis Brownlow
R. N. Brown
Velma Murray.
Miss McLoughlin made a very fitting reply.
The U. F. Y. P. O. and U. F. W. O. gave Miss McLoughlin a miscellaneous shower of many useful gifts. After this lunch was served and a very enjoyable evening was spent.
The Acton Lodge of the Royal Free Will hold a dance in the Town Hall, Acton, on Friday evening, November 23.

Entered Into Rest
DAVID OIVENS
After being in poor health for some time, David Oivens, a well known and highly respected farmer of Easton, passed away at his home, lot 6, concession 2, on Monday last. Deceased was the son of Mrs. John Oivens and was born in Erin Township 67 years ago. Mrs. Oivens was twice married and survived by his second wife, who was formerly Miss Bell, of Glenora, Ontario, and also a family of four daughters and three sons, James, Piddie, John, Mary, Jessie, Dave and Tom. He is also survived by seven brothers and two sisters, James, John, Daniel, George, William, Robert, Kirkwood, Nathaniel and Malcolm in Saskatchewan; Mrs. N. K. Hardy, Toronto; and Mrs. Joseph McKerny, Glenora, Ontario. Deceased was a member of the funeral service last Wednesday afternoon, was conducted by Rev. K. MacLean, when the remains were interred in Greenwood Cemetery—Georgetown, Herd.

AUTO FATALITY PURE ACCIDENT
Jury Inquiry into Death of Mr. Harry Peach Brings in a Verdict Taking Blame from Harvest Goselin
That the deceased had come to his death by being accidentally struck by an automobile, driven by Harold Goselin, at six o'clock, on Thursday, November 1, while he was walking on Provincial Highway No. 7, in the Police Village of Rockwood, was the verdict brought in by the jury at the inquest in connection with the death of Harry Peach, at Rockwood, last week. Attached to the verdict was a rider recommending that pedestrians, when walking on the highway, use the side of the road facing traffic.
Mr. Peach, an aged resident of Rockwood, into whose death inquiry was conducted, died early Sunday morning of injuries sustained on Thursday evening, when hit by an automobile driven by Harold Goselin, a young Rockwood man, on the Provincial Highway, on the outskirts of the village, while on his way home.
Owing to the indisposition of Dr. Angus Macdonald, the inquest was conducted by Coroner Dr. H. H. Orfano, County Crown Attorney J. M. Keenan, examining the witness, Mr. H. B. Howitt represented Mr. Goselin.
The jury was composed of: Wm. Harris, John J. A. Little, Fred Smith, Fred McWilliam, George Carter, J. A. Pollock and G. H. Milne.

High School Literary Society
The opening meeting of the Acton Continuation School Literary Society took place on Friday afternoon, November 9, when the meeting was opened with the singing of the hymn, "O God Our Father." After a brief address from the capable chairman, Ivan Kirkness, the Secretary's report was read and adopted. All present had a pleasant singing after which Isabel Smith recited "In a Belgian Garden." A selection, "Ode to the Great God, was given by the Acton orchestra, the chorus being sung by all. A talk on "Armadillo" was given by Miss Helen Ostrander, which was greatly enjoyed. A piano solo by Miss Isabel Switzer, and a mouth organ selection by Miss Genevieve resolved hearty cheers. Short but interesting speeches were given by the successful candidates. The critic, Father McLeary, was absent. The meeting was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.
The Near-McLoughlin Wedding
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson McLoughlin, "Pine Valley Farm," Nasasagawa, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, November 10, when their daughter, Evelyn Venola, became the bride of Mr. Evelyn Sinclair Near, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Near, Nasasagawa. The Rev. C. L. Poole, D. D., of the United Church, officiated. The bride, becomingly attired in a beautiful gown of white satin and georgette, trimmed with Chantilly lace, veiled in embroidered tulle, caught back with orange blossoms, carried a shower bouquet of Opheelia roses and maiden-hair fern. She entered the room on the arm of her father, to the strains of the Lernerburg Wedding March, played by Miss Mayme Near, sister of the groom. The bride wore a white gown with the bride, was flower girl, gowned in gold chiffon, and carried a basket of gold and white color scheme. Following the ceremony, dinner was served in the dining room, where attractive decorations, in white and gold color scheme, were carried throughout. Later the couple left for a motor trip to points east, the bride wearing a white and gold two-toned rose brown georgette frock, trimmed with silk velvet, hat and shoes to match, and seal coat with sable collar and cuffs. On their return they will reside in Nasasagawa.

THE EVENING MEAL DIGESTER
Brought: "If I were to die, would you bury me in a coffin?"
"That question is hardly fair, my dear."
"Why not?"
"Here to say 'Yes' again, wouldn't it be, and to say 'Yes' again, wouldn't it be?"
