This and that

-Christmas will be the next holiday. -Not much appearance of winter yet -Send in your news items-as early in the week as possible.

-Indian Summer has surely been de lightful and prolonged this fall. -The snow-shovelling activities have remained off fairly well this fall.

-The holiday weather made the most -- Many from Acton and vicinity are em Ontario just now. . -To-morrow is tax day and your opportunity to help with the task of keeping Acton ship-shape. -The merchant who advertises always

It is worth while to read them. -Those brief but frequent Hydro power interruptions this morning were rather aggravating on press day.

-With Christmas less than six weeks away, it is time to order your Christ--If this weather continues it will hardbe necessary to envy our friends who have the luxury of spending the winter months in the south.

-Por the prompt renewals of Park Paras subscribers we are very grateful. The response to the regular accounts sent out makes us believe Tuz Park Pages is an appreciated visitor.

-At the morning service of the Presbyterian Church at Georgetown, last Bunday, Mr. Ross Cameron presented to of his father and mother, Rev. and Mrs. Von Home, T. W. Duggan in the chair. 10

Tracter Demonstration There will be a tractor demonstration on the farm of Mr. H. Darvell, just east of Acton, on Priday (to-morrow) afternoon, November 16, at which all who are interested are invited to attend.

Explaining the Telephone Co.

Commencing in this week's issue of THE PREE PRESS, and continuing for several weeks, the Hell Telephone Co. will, in a series of advertisements, explain and acquaint the general public with the workings of the telephone system. The first of this series is headed "He Mockridge. Works with Magic," and will be found on Page Three. They will be found interesting alike to telephone users and the general public.

A Happy Family Re-Union Last Sunday Miss Mamie Massles entertained all the remaining members of her immediate family, resident in Canada. at her home here. This happy occasion gave the members an opportunity of Dear Sir: saying farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson, of Toronto, who are leaving in a few days to make their home in Los Angeles, California.
