Variety of News

Thanksgiving Day Vielations There was not such a wholesale apprehending of violators of the game laws on Thanksgiving Day this year as last, when about thirty sportsmen were brought before Magistrate Moore, charged with hunting without licenses. Only two or three cases canfe up this year, and one for shooting black squirrels in the close season.

A Family Gathering in Terente An interesting and enjoyable family gathering was held on Thanksgiving Day at the home of Mr. R. H. Wansbrough, in Toronto, when the following members of Mrs. Wansbrough's family gathered there: Mr. and Mrs. David Williamson. Mr. and Mrs. John Williamson, Mrs. W. A. Murray, Mrs. W. D. Anderson and A few speeches followed and then a Miss Jessie, of Acton; Mr. John Williamdainty lunch was served.
