

Births, Marriages and Deaths are now charged for at the following rates: Births, $1.00; Marriages, $1.00; Deaths, $1.00. Extra copy, 10¢ per line extra in journal.

MARRIED
HAMILTON—27-YEAR-OLD—At Acton, Ontario, on Wednesday, November 14, 1928. Alfred L. Deneau, to Miss Dorcas Yvonne Esterbrook.

DIED
ALLAN—At his family home, lot 7, Third Line, Erin, Ontario, Sunday, November 18, 1928. John Allan, in his 86th year.

BORN
BOMERVILLE—At her home, Mill Street, Acton, Ontario, Saturday, November 17, 1928. Nancy Brown, widow of the late Tom Bomerville, in her 61st year.

BROWNED—At Acton Memorial Hospital, 100 Main Street, Guelph, Ontario, November 28, 1928. Francis Joseph Brown, aged 70 years, brother of Mrs. James Brown, Acton.

MCKENNA—At his home, lot 22, Ninth Line, Kemptville Township, on Thursday, November 15, 1928. David Pfeffer McKenna, beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. David F. McKenna, in his 27th year.

Obituary
The Acton Free Press
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1928

This and that

Less than five weeks until Christmas.

Our phone number is 174. Send in your local news items.

It's almost too late to do your Christmas shopping early now.

The snow shovels got the rust off with the flurrys of this week.

For safety most motorists will reduce their speed on the icy pavements now.

Many from here are attending the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto these days.

Tuesday evening was the last regular session of Council before nomination.

And this week brought a touch of winter and covered the ground with a white blanket.

Census takers estimate that 6,124 cars per day pass along the highway at Burlington Beach.

Walkerton's new confederation arena in its first year of operation showed a profit of $1,500.00.

Motor radiators have had their first test this season, with the prevailing frosty nights.

A member of the members of Acton Blue Lodge attended the banquet at Toronto last night.

The handshakes, which were in bloom last week, were applied by the cold weather of this week.

Mr. W. J. Hall picked a splendid bouquet of parsnips from her garden last Sunday, November 18.

The sessions of the municipal bodies this week haven't had much of a "just before the battle" aspect.

The new hardwood floor laid in the Electric Railway station makes quite an improvement in the premises.

Ontario County is contemplating the passing of a by-law making it illegal to transport poultry after nightfall.

Burlington School Board will request the Council for $90,000 to build and equip a ten-room addition to the High School.

Burlington will vote this year on a proposition to secure a supply of gas for heating and lighting purposes for the municipality.

The City of Guelph is planning an elaborate banquet to honor its famous native son, Mr. Edward Johnson, world-famous tenor.

"Royal Welcome Given Premier of Canada," "Future Ray for Conservation in Canada" on the same page of the same paper.

The featherly snow storm last night gave a very wintry aspect to all out-of-doors. The trees and shrubbery have been as attractive as any fairland to wagon or harness.

St. Alain's W. A. Bazaar, Saturday, December 1.

In Gaush Jail for Three Months

William Corey, of Acton, whose wife left him several months ago and went to live with her children to reside, after being estranged from him, when in one of his drunken spree, is serving three months in Gaush Jail serving three months. He had to go to Guelph and when under the influence of liquor, he would visit the house where his wife now resides, created a disturbance, smashed furniture, and got entangled with the police. At the time of his trial, he was charged with vagrancy and was managing property. Magistrate Watt sentenced him to three months on each charge, the sentence to run concurrently.

United Church Young People's

The weekly meeting of the Young People's Society of the United Church was held on Monday evening. It was "Gathering" night, and the meeting was in charge of the Immaculata, of which George H. Poole, the president, presided.

The subject for the evening was the "Government of Great Britain and Her Colonies." Poole spoke on the Government of Great Britain, Mrs. M. C. Overholt on Canada's Government, and Mrs. J. Adamson on the Government of Australia. Other members of the group spoke on the governments of the other colonies. Miss Letitia Mason rendered a concert solo, accompanied by Miss Hazel Mason.

Every editor an expert. The departments of the "Patriot Herald" and "Weekly Star," Montreal, are all-hands by men of practical experience and nation-wide fame—that why it's first in the field. The subscription price is only $1 a year or three years for $2.

KYKEM'S LIST OF SALES

Saturday, November 24—Mrs. A. McTavish, Mill Street, Acton. Sale of Household Effects.

Wednesday, November 28—William Crisp, Orewons Corner. Clearing sale of Motor Vehicles and Implements.

Wednesday, December 5—Weley Pickell, Guelph Road, Darbyville, Dale of Head of Jersey Cows.

Thursday, December 6—Leo Morley, lot 22, concession 7, Nassagaweya, Sale of Farm Block and Implements.

Wednesday, December 12—Provincial Winter Fair, Guelph. Seeds and Roots.

Having sold my Creamery business to the Italian Creamery & Co., of Guelph, I wish to take this opportunity of thanking my many patrons for their kind patronage to me during the past two years. The Italian Creamery & Butter Co. will continue to do so here, after December 1, and I wish to solicit a continuance of your patronage for them. T. J. O'Neill.

Neighborhood News

NASSAGAWEYA

Mr. Russell Kidley and Edward Denham of Milverton and party, who went up north deer hunting, returned home on Monday of last week with five nice deer from their hunt. They report the deer too plentiful in the district they were in.

We are having a taste of winter weather this week.

The thrushes are nearing the close of their winter work. Some will finish this week.

Mr. Alex. Clark, of Nassagaweya, had a very successful sale of stock last Friday, November 24, to Messrs. Nightingale, of Port Credit, visitors relatives and friends at Knatchbull on Sunday.

LIMEHOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. Buzwell, Norval, were visitors at the home of Mr. Minn over the weekend.

Miss Edna Tarzwell was home over the weekend.

Mr. Arthur Denlon spent Sunday with friends in Guelph.

Mr. Sam Olaby spent Sunday in Guelph, where he sang in the Presbyterian Church.

We are glad to know that the lime kilns and stone quarries are continuing to work satisfactorily this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Danies and daughter, of Toronto, spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Meredith.

Mr. James Grant, who has been quite ill in improving condition, has had his tonsils removed, is almost fully recovered.

Mr. Charles Meredith, who has had his tonsils removed, is almost fully recovered.

Mr. Jas. Given is able to be around again after an attack of the grippe.

HALIFAX

This community was engulfed in the depths of grief by the sad and tragic passing of David P. McHenry, which occurred last Thursday, Nov. 29, 1928, in his home, lot 32, concession 9, Esquimalt. The deceased was in his twenty-seventh year and had lived all his life in this community, and was highly respected by all who knew him, while he was well known throughout the neighborhood, and the words of sympathy expressed by friends of the family are reflected in the words of the pastor, Rev. Mr. David Russell, of Erin; Rev. Mr. John Nelson of Milverton; Mrs. Robert, of Erin; also four brothers, Robert, of Erin; Cameron, of Acton; Ray, on the home farm; John, of the West. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon from Halifax, Nova Scotia.

The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. G. O. Gaudier, the pastor, Rev. Mr. C. G. O'Farrell, a sermon of warning and consolation from Rev. Mr. J. J. O'Farrell, followed by a service of intercession from Rev. Mr. J. J. O'Farrell.

At the service, Rev. Mr. G. O'Farrell, a member of the members of Acton Blue Lodge attended the banquet at Toronto last night.

The handshakes, which were in bloom last week, were applied by the cold weather of this week.

Mr. W. J. Hall picked a splendid bouquet of parsnips from her garden last Sunday, November 18.

The sessions of the municipal bodies this week haven't had much of a "just before the battle" aspect.

The new hardwood floor laid in the Electric Railway station makes quite an improvement in the premises.

Ontario County is contemplating the passing of a by-law making it illegal to transport poultry after nightfall.

Burlington School Board will request the Council for $90,000 to build and equip a ten-room addition to the High School.

Burlington will vote this year on a proposition to secure a supply of gas for heating and lighting purposes for the municipality.

The City of Guelph is planning an elaborate banquet to honor its famous native son, Mr. Edward Johnson, world-famous tenor.

"Royal Welcome Given Premier of Canada," "Future Ray for Conservation in Canada" on the same page of the same paper.

The featherly snow storm last night gave a very wintry aspect to all out-of-doors. The trees and shrubbery have been as attractive as any fairland to wagon or harness.

St. Alain's W. A. Bazaar, Saturday, December 1.

In Gaush Jail for Three Months

William Corey, of Acton, whose wife left him several months ago and went to live with her children to reside, after being estranged from him, when in one of his drunken spree, is serving three months in Gaush Jail serving three months. He had to go to Guelph and when under the influence of liquor, he would visit the house where his wife now resides, created a disturbance, smashed furniture, and got entangled with the police. At the time of his trial, he was charged with vagrancy and was managing property. Magistrate Watt sentenced him to three months on each charge, the sentence to run concurrently.

United Church Young People's

The weekly meeting of the Young People's Society of the United Church was held on Monday evening. It was "Gathering" night, and the meeting was in charge of the Immaculata, of which George H. Poole, the president, presided.

The subject for the evening was the "Government of Great Britain and Her Colonies." Poole spoke on the Government of Great Britain, Mrs. M. C. Overholt on Canada's Government, and Mrs. J. Adamson on the Government of Australia. Other members of the group spoke on the governments of the other colonies. Miss Letitia Mason rendered a concert solo, accompanied by Miss Hazel Mason.

Every editor an expert. The departments of the "Patriot Herald" and "Weekly Star," Montreal, are all-hands by men of practical experience and nation-wide fame—that why it's first in the field. The subscription price is only $1 a year or three years for $2.

KYKEM'S LIST OF SALES

Saturday, November 24—Mrs. A. McTavish, Mill Street, Acton. Sale of Household Effects.

Wednesday, November 28—William Crisp, Orewons Corner. Clearing sale of Motor Vehicles and Implements.

Wednesday, December 5—Weley Pickell, Guelph Road, Darbyville, Dale of Head of Jersey Cows.

Thursday, December 6—Leo Morley, lot 22, concession 7, Nassagaweya, Sale of Farm Block and Implements.

Wednesday, December 12—Provincial Winter Fair, Guelph. Seeds and Roots.

Having sold my Creamery business to the Italian Creamery & Co., of Guelph, I wish to take this opportunity of thanking my many patrons for their kind patronage to me during the past two years. The Italian Creamery & Butter Co. will continue to do so here, after December 1, and I wish to solicit a continuance of your patronage for them. T. J. O'Neill.

Every editor an expert. The departments of the "Patriot Herald" and "Weekly Star," Montreal, are all-hands by men of practical experience and nation-wide fame—that why it's first in the field. The subscription price is only $1 a year or three years for $2.

KYKEM'S LIST OF SALES

Saturday, November 24—Mrs. A. McTavish, Mill Street, Acton. Sale of Household Effects.

Wednesday, November 28—William Crisp, Orewons Corner. Clearing sale of Motor Vehicles and Implements.

Wednesday, December 5—Weley Pickell, Guelph Road, Darbyville, Dale of Head of Jersey Cows.

Thursday, December 6—Leo Morley, lot 22, concession 7, Nassagaweya, Sale of Farm Block and Implements.

Wednesday, December 12—Provincial Winter Fair, Guelph. Seeds and Roots.

Having sold my Creamery business to the Italian Creamery & Co., of Guelph, I wish to take this opportunity of thanking my many patrons for their kind patronage to me during the past two years. The Italian Creamery & Butter Co. will continue to do so here, after December 1, and I wish to solicit a continuance of your patronage for them. T. J. O'Neill.

Every editor an expert. The departments of the "Patriot Herald" and "Weekly Star," Montreal, are all-hands by men of practical experience and nation-wide fame—that why it's first in the field. The subscription price is only $1 a year or three years for $2.

KYKEM'S LIST OF SALES

Saturday, November 24—Mrs. A. McTavish, Mill Street, Acton. Sale of Household Effects.

Wednesday, November 28—William Crisp, Orewons Corner. Clearing sale of Motor Vehicles and Implements.

Wednesday, December 5—Weley Pickell, Guelph Road, Darbyville, Dale of Head of Jersey Cows.

Thursday, December 6—Leo Morley, lot 22, concession 7, Nassagaweya, Sale of Farm Block and Implements.

Wednesday, December 12—Provincial Winter Fair, Guelph. Seeds and Roots.

Having sold my Creamery business to the Italian Creamery & Co., of Guelph, I wish to take this opportunity of thanking my many patrons for their kind patronage to me during the past two years. The Italian Creamery & Butter Co. will continue to do so here, after December 1, and I wish to solicit a continuance of your patronage for them. T. J. O'Neill.

Every editor an expert. The departments of the "Patriot Herald" and "Weekly Star," Montreal, are all-hands by men of practical experience and nation-wide fame—that why it's first in the field. The subscription price is only $1 a year or three years for $2.

KYKEM'S LIST OF SALES

Saturday, November 24—Mrs. A. McTavish, Mill Street, Acton. Sale of Household Effects.

Wednesday, November 28—William Crisp, Orewons Corner. Clearing sale of Motor Vehicles and Implements.

Wednesday, December 5—Weley Pickell, Guelph Road, Darbyville, Dale of Head of Jersey Cows.

Thursday, December 6—Leo Morley, lot 22, concession 7, Nassagaweya, Sale of Farm Block and Implements.

Wednesday, December 12—Provincial Winter Fair, Guelph. Seeds and Roots.

Having sold my Creamery business to the Italian Creamery & Co., of Guelph, I wish to take this opportunity of thanking my many patrons for their kind patronage to me during the past two years. The Italian Creamery & Butter Co. will continue to do so here, after December 1, and I wish to solicit a continuance of your patronage for them. T. J. O'Neill.

Every editor an expert. The departments of the "Patriot Herald" and "Weekly Star," Montreal, are all-hands by men of practical experience and nation-wide fame—that why it's first in the field. The subscription price is only $1 a year or three years for $2.

KYKEM'S LIST OF SALES

Saturday, November 24—Mrs. A. McTavish, Mill Street, Acton. Sale of Household Effects.

Wednesday, November 28—William Crisp, Orewons Corner. Clearing sale of Motor Vehicles and Implements.

Wednesday, December 5—Weley Pickell, Guelph Road, Darbyville, Dale of Head of Jersey Cows.

Thursday, December 6—Leo Morley, lot 22, concession 7, Nassagaweya, Sale of Farm Block and Implements.</p